Alma Mater Song

Dear Alma, we praise thee who lighted our way,

Fond memories of you will we bear, Wherever our ship on life's ocean doth sail

The Crown of thy glories we'll wear, Kind mother thou art in our sorrows and cares,

May we never in life cause the tears Rather add to the glories and fame that is thine

While vanish the fleeting years.

Dear Alma, thy name we will ever uphold,
And cherish the gifts thou bestowed.

We will harvest the fruits that already have grown

From the seeds of the virtues you sowed.
We will drink from the font of the knowledge that flows

Through thy famous and honored halls,
And we'll add to the glory and fame that
is thine

Till the voice of the Master calls.

dearing Young Charms")
