

June Sixth
Nineteen Hundred and Fifty Three

Mrs. Adelaide C. Babcock
Golden Spur
Waterford, Connecticut

Dear Mrs. Babcock:

I am embarrassed that you have been inconvenienced. When Mr. Leiverant telephoned to me, at your kind suggestion, I made it clear to him that it was my practice to submit pieces of silver to Mr. Gebelein of Boston for his opinion. He agreed. I did not have an opportunity to see Mr. Gebelein until a few days ago. I am very sorry that there has been such delay.

May I ask you to give him the enclosed check?

I have purchased some interesting pieces of silver since my last purchase from you. If you are in Newport at any time, I will be very happy to show them to you.

With my best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

CCM:egl
