Dear Mr. Moore:

I acknowledge with thanks your checks received totalling $2,750.00 for the three Thomas & Elizabeth Cutts pieces including the gravy boat originally of a pair with the one previously acquired, the porringer also by Stephen Emery and the tankard by William Simpkins.

We are holding the three pieces for your instructions concerning delivery.

Since the above was dictated your query has come in about shipping the silver which we had not sent while in prospect of your visit or letter of instruction. I assume you wish it sent right along and it will go out tomorrow by Railway Express.

Very truly yours
