Boston, 8, Mass.

Dear Mr. Gebelein:

Replying to your inquiry of the 6th, regarding our Paul Revere cup, I am sorry, but you will have to tell your client that the piece has been sold. We sold it to a private collector the day the Antiques Magazine was released.

If by any chance you should have a small unimportant piece of Revere silver (even a good spoon), reasonably priced, we could probably place it immediately, as we have had so many inquiries.

Sincerely yours,

James R. Graham
