Newport, R. I.

Dear Mr. Moore,

Mr. Andrew has at your request of Gebelein Silversmith in the tankard he has mentioned Mr. J. Herbert Gebelein to be quite an interesting 79 Chestnut Street seen any pieces by this maker Boston 8, Massachusetts quite creditable and although in general a carry-over from a little earlier.
Dear Mr. Gebelein: as running from 1743 (birth in Stonington, Conn., recorded in Poughkeepsie 1772

Please send to me statement for the cup I selected on my last visit with you.

I am intrigued over the possibility of acquiring the Edward's collection. May I ask you to send to me a schedule of the items embraced in the collection. the cover is a soft brown leather

I am, with every best wish,
Sincerely yours,

A piece by this maker such as this must be quite a rarity, and it is a nice example of any maker working in the tradition of its type.

Very truly yours,
J. Herbert Gebelein
