Dear Mr. Moore:

I was asked lately whether the Hull & Sanderson tankard might be available for an exhibition at the Currier Gallery in Manchester, N. H. this Spring, to which I replied it was no longer in my control. While this seemed to be something else besides a theme also brought up of a sequence of tea assemblies, they have at Manchester a small collection of early pieces and I exhibited the tankard there in its one appearance before.

Meanwhile I await your instructions as to your wishes in regard to its delivery, as also further in regard to your plans for transfer of the Edwards group.

Very truly yours,

GEBELEIN SILVERSMITHS, INC.

P.S. Since this letter was left last night for typing, we have received your check and message for which I thank you. When you take delivery I would need notice before 2 PM on a given day to return the silver here from outside vault.
