Dear Mr. Moore,

I am owing you a letter of thanks in acknowledgment of your payment of the day before Christmas and greetings of the season when I trust your good wishes were understood to be reciprocated from here.

The items sent in September have remained on memorandum, and as proposed in my letter of December 11 last when presumably you accepted the deferment of billing to this year, may now be charged as of February 1?

The enclosed referring to the balance on the 1962 undertaking should have gone out earlier this month.

While I have been allowed to become aware of situations of one or two early fine pieces held by owners at high appraisals, I have no proposals of further items to tempt your interest as I write this.

Very truly yours,

J. Herbert Gebelin
