Dear Mr. Gebelein:

I acknowledge the receipt of and thank you for your letter dated January 6th with enclosures.

The Joseph Smith teapot, always, attracts a great deal of attention, and I am very happy that I am the owner of it.

Possibly, I will, despite the fact that I have a Benjamin Brenton porringer, be interested in the one you refer to when it is available for purchase.

I had a telephone request from some person who was representing that she was writing an article on the Benjamin Brenton silver which was to appear in "Antiques", asking that I grant her permission to look at my Benjamin Brenton pieces. I, of course, said yes. That was the last that I heard from her.

If you obtain the Benjamin Brenton porringer, please may I hear from you?

Sincerely yours,
