April Fifteenth
Nineteen Hundred Sixty Eight

Dear Mr. Gebelein:

FILE COPY

At this time I enclose my check for $1,000.00.

My secretary is ell and as soon as she returns from the hospital I will ask her to check your statement. She is familiar with it.

I have received the photograph of the spoons. I have, as you know, the larger spoon; what, generally, is called the tablespoon. Are these teaspoons? Please may I hear and I will make decision.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

---
