Dear Mr. Moore:

Thanks for your enquiry. I am pleased to state that the George II - 1734 Irish Waiter is still available and is priced at 2200.00 inclusive of Fed. Tax. It has a contemporary Coat of Arms and Crest but we have not been able to identify the family which may be because it is now extinct. The Maker:- Peter Racine, is well known for many pieces of silver in the Fine Art Museum, Dublin.

We can also offer a 12" plain Chippendale pie crust waiter made in 1732 by John Tuite for 1250.00.

If you are unable to come to New York in the near future we would gladly send the Peter Racine waiter to you for your inspection and consideration although we really don't like to do this with an advertised article as some customers may make a special journey to visit us in order to see it.

Awaiting the favor of your reply,

Sincerely yours,

Ralph Hyman
