Funeral Rites Conducted For Cornelius C. Moore

The funeral of Cornelius C. Moore, lawyer, banker, politician and a leader of many civic enterprises, was held this morning in St. Mary's Church. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John T. Shea, pastor, celebrated a solemn high mass. The Rev. John E. Tavares was deacon and the Rev. Anthony J. Rebeiro, subdeacon.

Church and civic dignitaries headed by the Most Rev. Russell J. McViney, bishop of Providence, and Gov. Licht attended the ceremony. Also present were Atty. Gen. Herbert F. DeSimone and Sen. and Mrs. Claiborne Pell.

Sister Mary Christopher, president of Salve Regina College, headed a large delegation from the college, of which Mr. Moore had served as chairman of the trustees.

Among the summer colonists present were Mrs. George Henry Warren, president of the Preservation Society of Newport County; Mrs. William Langley, chairman of the board of directors of the R.I. Arts Foundation at Newport; and John Nicholas Brown.

Ushers were Francis X.A. Flannery, Henry D. Phelps, Charles Drummey and James E. Murphy. Burial was in St. Columba's Cemetery. Bearers were Salvatore L. Virgadamo, Francis J. Boyle, Jeremiah C. Lynch Jr., Robert M. Silva, Peter O. Grimes and Laurence L. Rousseau, all of the law firm of Moore, Virgadamo, Boyle and Lynch. Representing the Bar Association were Daniel L. Murray and Patrick O'N Hayes.
