

Salve Regina To Exhibit Moore Silver Collection

An outstanding collection of early American silver from the collection of Cornelius C. Moore, Newport attorney and prominent Catholic layman, will be shown at Salve Regina College, Sunday, May 17, from 2:30 to 5 p.m.

The collection, which includes prime examples of colonial silversmiths, will be shown under the auspices of the college's alumni association.

All well known craftsmen will be represented in the exhibition, including the famous Codrington Cups and several pieces by Paul Revere. Mr. Moore is chairman emeritus of the board of trustees of the college, chairman of the Bishop's Campaign Fund and a Knight of St. Gregory.
