New York, N.Y.

Very Reverend and Dear Father Provincial:

Maneuvers are over. Two days ago we moved into camp. The men are indeed happy to be inside again and I am most pleased to offer Mass once more in a real chapel.
It has been a real experience, maneuvers, and I feel a better priest for my sojourn in the hills with the Armored Division. I feel I know the men much better and appreciate the more what they have to undergo.

I am placing my new address below. Asking to be remembered in your Masses and prayers,

I remain,

Obediently yours,

J. Edward P. Doyle, O.P.
