Very Reverend and Dear Father Provincial:

Gradually

getting my desk cleaned up so to speak after returning from my retreat. Enjoyed the diocesan retreat very much. It was a blessing indeed to be in a seminary for the week and in the restful atmosphere of the sanctuary. The Archbishop was most gracious and extended us every courtesy.

Sorry to hear of the passing of Fr. Hughes.
While stationed in Newark one summer got to know him well on our evening walks. Have offered Mass for him.

Rumors and more rumors fly around but we remain here, in the meantime convert work and validations of marriages etc, goes on. Hence I am ready if and when we move. Have enclosed a few of my weekly bulletins that you might see my campaign to get everybody ready for the time when it comes.

Most grateful for your frequent letters and the news of the province, I remain,

Obediently yours,

Edmund T. Doyle, O.P.
