Very Rev. and Dear Fr. Provincial:

Belgium it is! - a beautiful country indeed, the people most receptive - but now I am afraid this is lost upon us. It is the old story for butholic priests - Mass in any suitable place, general absolution and dispensation from the Eucharistic fast. Very busy trying to get this thing over and get back to my beloved P.C.

Fr. Willeberg was asking for you, and asked me to convey his warmest greetings. He spoke highly of you and your work. I am happy to pass on his request. He was most kind to us. Also found many asking for Cornelius Mc Carthy - they held him in veneration. They were surprised to hear of the Dominicans in these parts.

Art. always a kind remembrance to all the fathers, especially Fr. Lundy - will be pleased to hear from you Fr. Provincial. Sincerely,
Paul Wolfe, O.F.M.
