Very Reverend and Dear Father Provincial:

Last week

I was placed on detached service and made a retreat at the College of St. Albert, Oakland, California.

I left here after my Sunday Masses and was back on Saturday for confessions.

The fathers, brothers and sisters were most kind to me and I enjoyed the retreat very much. It was a pleasure to be back in a Dominican atmosphere again.

(Confession is good for the soul--found myself in fairly good shape--but inclined toward that late afternoon and evening Mass)

Asking a remembrance to all the brethren, I am Obediently yours,

J. Edward Dwyer, O.P.
