The Very Reverend

869 Lexington Ave.,
New York, N.Y.

Very Reverend and Dear Father Provincial:

I wish to thank you for your kindness in allowing me to celebrate Mass for a former member of my Infantry Division, Daniel Lynch, who lost both legs in combat in Holland.
He never leaves the house and was most appreciative of your kindness and consideration. This permission which you granted me, Father Provincial, is another example of your benevolence and charity.

Assuring you of my gratitude and asking your paternal blessing, I remain,

Obediently yours,

f. Edward P. Doyle, O.P.
