

81st CONGRESS
1st SESSION

H. RES. 270

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 28, 1949

Mr. FOGARTY submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

Whereas the House of Representatives, Sixty-fifth Congress (1919), third session, by H. J. Res. 357, duly passed a resolution declaring that the people of Ireland should have the right to determine the form of government under which they desired to live; and

Whereas, in the intervening thirty years, the people of Ireland have so determined but the effect of their determination has been thwarted, and they have in fact been deprived of the right to the form of government under which they desire to live; and

Whereas twenty-six of the thirty-two counties of Ireland have been successful in obtaining international recognition for the Republic of Ireland which has, as its basic law, a constitution modeled upon our own American Constitution:
Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That it is the sense of this House of Repre-
 2 sentatives that the Republic of Ireland should embrace the 3 entire territory of Ireland unless the clear majority of all 4 of the people of Ireland, in a free plebiscite, determine and 5 declare to the contrary.

81ST CONGRESS
 1ST SESSION

H. RES. 270

RESOLUTION

Declaring it to be the sense of this House of Representatives that the Republic of Ireland should embrace the entire territory of Ireland.

By Mr. FOGARTY

Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

Now, therefore, be it stated that the Republic of Ireland which has as its basic law, a constitution modeled upon our own American Constitution:
 has been successful in obtaining international recognition for the Republic of Ireland which has as its basic law, a constitution modeled upon our own American Constitution:
 Whereas twenty-six of the thirty-two counties of Ireland have been so determined but the effect of their determination has been thwarted, and they have in fact been deprived of the right to the form of government under which they desire to live; and Whereas, in the intervening thirty years the people of Ireland they desired to live; and
