

1955
For the Degree of Master of Arts
in Religious Education

MOTHER GRACE CRONIN, R.S.C.J.
The Light of Life

SISTER M. MARGARET EUCHARIA FARRELL, O.P.
Pius X and the Modernist Heresy

SISTER EDWARD JOSEPH FINN, S.C.H.
The Notion of Integration in Education according to Saint Thomas Aquinas

MOTHER ISABEL GALLAGHER, R.S.C.J.
In His Will is Our Peace

MOTHER MARIE CLAVERIA LAFLAMME, O.S.U.
A Survey on the Notion of Joy in the Catholic High School Student

MOTHER MARY CAJETAN MC DOWELL, S.H.C.J.
The Role of Magnanimity in Answering the Call to Religious Life

SISTER MARY ROSINA MC TAGUE, O.P.
Abandonment through the Exercise of the Virtue of Charity

SISTER M. SERAPHINE MEANEY, C.S.J.
Faith in the Life of Women Religious

SISTER PATRICK MARY O' NEILL, O.P.
The Significance of Old Testament Sacrifices

SISTER ESTELLE OF ST. DOMINIC ROBILLARD, O.P.
Presence of God

MOTHER M. MONICA STE. MARIE, O.S.U.
The Nature of Truth in the Prudential Judgment

SISTER M. AGNETA SCHMITT, C.D.P.
Confidence

SISTER M. FRANCIS XAVIER TROMBLEY, C.S.M.
Miracles in the Divine Plan

1955

For the Degree of Master of Arts
in Religious Guidance

Mother Margaret M. Coakley, R.S.C.J.
The Superiority of the Method of the Summa
Theologica in Moral Theology

MOTHER FLORENCE MARIE KRETZ, O.S.U.
The Vow and Virtue of Obedience

SISTER GRACE ELLEN MINTEN, O.P.
The Virtue of Studiousness

SISTER MARY EVANGELA O'HARE, O.P.
The Role of Faith in Contemplation