

The Army Takes Over at P. C. July 13, 1943

—Photo by Joseph R. Marcello

BAG AND BAGGAGE, the Army moved in on Providence College yesterday morning. Assigned to the institution for study and training, the soldiers marched from downtown to the campus and then were assigned to billets. The arrivals were the first 80 of a contingent of 563.