SOLDIER TURNS CIVILIAN---BACK TO COLLEGE

When Providence, R. I. College opened its doors this week to civilian students, William L. Doyle, Apponaug, R. I., was among the returning students. He enlisted in the Army last October and was released on a medical discharge this month.

Army specialized training soldier-students, taking basic engineering, greeted him. Pvt. Edwin Gever, Philadelphia, leads group shaking hands with Doyle, his ex-buddy at Ft. Eustis, Va.
