

UNIT HOLDS DANCE

~~Sept. 19, 1943~~

Providence College Trainees Open Series; Veridames Are Guests.

The Army Specialized Training Program unit, stationed at Providence College, held the opening dance of a monthly series at Harkins Hall last evening. Music was supplied by a 10-piece orchestra of the members of the unit's military band under the direction of Pvt. Garry Hansen of Waupaca, Wis.

Over 200 members of the Providence College Veridames, women's auxiliary, attended as guests of the unit. Lieut. Denholm Jacobs of Haverford, Pa., special service and morale officer, was chairman of the affair. Miss Gertrude Murray and Miss Regina McPhillips, both of Providence, headed the reception committee.
