BATTLE OF THE BULGE FACTS

The Largest Land Battle Fought by the United States Army

WHERE: The heavily forested Ardennes region of eastern Belgium and Northern Luxembourg.

WHEN: December 16, 1944 • January 25, 1945

WHO: More than one million men!

- 600,000 Americans (more than the combined Union/Confederate forces at Gettysburg) - 3 American Armies and 8 Corps (equivalent to 31 divisions)
- 55,000 British - 3 British divisions plus contingents of Belgian, Canadian & French
- 500,000 Germans - 3 German Armies and 10 corps (equivalent to 25 divisions)

CASUALTIES: American: 81,000 including 19,000 killed
British: 1,400 including 200 killed
Germans: 101,000

EQUIPMENT: 800 tanks lost on each side; 1,000 German Aircraft.

Three powerful German armies plunged headlong into the rugged mountains and dense forests of the Ardennes determined to break the American line of defense, and trap the Allied Forces in Belgium and Luxembourg.

They met fierce opposition the minute they engaged the thinly spread American line and paid a heavy price for every inch of ground they gained.

The battle raged for three consecutive days until powerful Allied reinforcements arrived to join the fighting, and keep the Germans from breaking through.

The fighting then continued for four weeks in bitter cold and snow, and all the Germans could accomplish was to put a small bulge in the line. And at the end, the line held firm and the Germans suffered a terrible loss of men, tanks and planes.

Those who fought in the Battle of the Bulge will never forget it. The Veterans of the Battle of the Bulge (VBOB) was organized to make CERTAIN THAT IT WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN.

The Malmedy Massacre, which occurred during the Ardennes Campaign, was the worse atrocity committed against American troops in Europe during the World War II.
