

NXP1411812-2/5/64-NEW YORK: President Lyndon B. Johnson, presiding at Kennedy Foundation Dinner here 2/5, honors six men for outstanding contributions in fight against mental retardation by presenting them with International Awards of Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr., Foundation, totalling about $225,000. L to R: Dr. Francis Grover Powers, Prof. Emeritus, Pediatrics, Yale; Rep. John E. Fogarty (D-R.I.); Sen. Lister Hill (D-Ala.); Dr. Robert P. L. Lafon, Prof. of Neuropsychiatry, U. of Montpellier, France; Pres. Johnson; former Governor Bert T. Combs of Kentucky; and Dr. Lionel S. Penrose, Prof. of Eugenics, University College, London. The recipients are holding Steuben crystal trophies mounted on silver bases and engraved with the figure of the Seraph Raphael, which they were awarded in addition to the money. UPI TELEPHOTO bak

