Egan Resigns as Coach of Friars

John J. Egan, Providence College baseball coach for the past three seasons, today handed in his resignation and Arthur Lincoln Quirk, member of the college faculty, was immediately named his successor by Rev. Robert G. Quinn, O. P., faculty director of athletics.

Egan, who has been scouting during the summer for the Boston Red Sox, will now take over that work as a full-time job, starting on a tour through the "ivory" country April 1.

Appointment of Quirk means that the Friars for the first time in their baseball history will be operating under a graduate coach, since the new mentor received his degree from the college in 1930. Quirk was pitcher under the late Jack Flynn, Egan's predecessor in the coaching chair.

Quirk is 30 years old, one of the youngest college coaches in the country. He graduated from Classical high in this city in 1926 after starring as a pitching there.

Following his graduation from Providence College Quirk was signed by the Boston Red Sox. The same day he received his Red Sox contract he was notified that he had been awarded a Knights of Columbus scholarship to Catholic University.

The Red Sox shipped him to Pittsfield in the Eastern League and when that team disbanded he went to the Cape Cod League.

Quirk entered Catholic University in the fall of 1930 and received degrees of master of science and doctor of philosophy during the course which he completed in 1934. He is at present head of the department of physics and associate professor of mathematics at Providence College.

Quirk is married to the former Miss Lucy Fogarty of this city and lives at 388 River avenue, this city. He has one son.

JACK EGAN

STARRED IN SANDLOTS

In addition to playing baseball at Providence College and at Classical, Quirk also starred in local sandlot baseball. He featured for the Mount Carmel team in the Independent Amateur League in 1926, winning 10 games and losing only two.

Egan, former pro league pitcher, major league umpire and successful minor league manager, was named to succeed Flynn on March 28, 1935, shortly after Flynn's untimely death.

His managerial career began in 1915 when he took over the reins of the Providence club. He handled the Providence team in the International League in 1916 and 1917, was head man at Milwaukee in the American Association from 1918 to 1921, piloted Oklahoma City in 1922, was in charge at Scranton from 1924 to 1926 and made his fadeout as a manager with Newark in 1927.

During his career as a manager Egan developed many fine players and sent them up to the big leagues. Among them were Joe Hauser, Oscar Melillo, Alex Gaston, Doug McWeeny, Denny Gearin of this city and Cranston's Jimmy Cooney. His career at P. C., also was marked by success.

With the weather wearing its Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes yesterday and Providence College baseball players turning out with high enthusiasm for the first practice session of 1938, no one could blame Coach Arthur L. Quirk for smiling as he pointed out to Capt. Johnny "Wink" Crowley (both in lower photo) some of the capable men who will work with Crowley in Friar baseball this season.

Friar Baseball Candidates Have First Outdoor Workout

Eleven Pitchers and Four Catchers Included in Group of 25 Men.

Providence College's first varsity baseball practice of 1938 blossomed under a mid-summer-like sun yesterday on Hendricken Field where 25 candidates went through the initial warm-up work under the direction of Coach Arthur L. Quirk, the Friars' new baseball mentor.

As might be expected on the first day, batterymen were in preponderance, there being 11 pitchers and four catchers among the 25 candidates. The other players, headed by Capt. John "Wink" Crowley, comprised seven infielders and three outfielders. One or two players are capable of holding more than one position and their futures will depend upon the way the squad develops between now and the first game on April 21.

A large number of men who will figure in the first string lineup or first-line reserve corps were absent yesterday, most of them being excused for week-ends with their families.

Coach Quirk had his pitchers in action for the equivalent of several innings with the four catchers alternating in receiving. Bill Spinnler, the Friars' peppery little catcher, nicked his thumb on a foul tip in the practice, but is expected to be back on the job in a day or two.

Some of the pitchers in action yesterday were: Dan McKinnon, Pawtucket senior; Joe Kwasniewski, last year's Freshman hurling star from New Milford, Conn.; Jim Padden, former La Salle pitcher from Fall River and Jim Begley, a Freshman mainstay last year who comes from Brighton, Mass.

The catchers who worked were: Big Elt Deuse, Fall River senior and veteran backstop; Bill Spinnler of Paterson, N. J.; Hal Martin of Greenville, not so long ago an amateur league hitting star, and Howie Irish from last year's freshman squad.

Among the batters who looked impressive on opening day were Martin, Norman Urban of Warren; Jim Begley, Joe Kwasniewski, Johnny Avayzian and Jimmy Leo. Time will tell just what part these men will play in Friar baseball, but they stepped up yesterday and hit in mid-season form.

The list of candidates who reported yesterday follows:

Pitchers—Ryan, Padden, Lynch, Kwasniewski, Begley, McKinnon, Moher, Davey, Sullivan, McManus and Dufort.

Catchers—Deuse, Spinnler, Martin and Irish.

Fielders—Crowley, Fischer, Minicucci, Ahern, Bobinski, Urban, Carroll, Avayzian, Brochu and Leo.

COLLEGE BASEBALL HEADS FAVOR SPEEDING UP GAME

New England Leaders Send List of Recommendations Along with Names of Approved Officials

BY JOE NUTTER

The new list of baseball umpires for college games as approved by the Baseball Committee of the Association of New England Colleges for Conference on Athletics has been prepared and is being sent to the colleges. The committee, of which John E. Farrell, Graduate Manager of Providence College, is the head, has enlarged its list to include Class A and reserve groupings, and has listed a series of recommendations for the improvement of college baseball in New England. The recommendations have been made by the various umpires and officials as a result of a study of New England college baseball.

Most of the suggestions have to do with the delays that stretch many college games beyond all reasonable limits, and to that end should be worth careful study by not only the college officials, but the men who play the game as well. Graduate Manager Farrell's committee asks only that the athletic directors and baseball coaches consider the suggestions.

KEEP CIVILIANS OFF BENCH

Recommendations:

1. Allow only one man in civilian's clothes, other than coach, on the players' bench during a game.
2. Restrain pitchers from throwing more than three warm-up balls each inning.
3. When a substitute catcher gives the pitcher a preliminary warm-up between innings, allowing five or six pitched balls, the regular catcher should not be allowed an additional time for five or six more pitches. This delays the game too much, and could easily be avoided.
4. Have the umpires rub the balls with dust before the game.

5. Have umpire throw new ball direct to the pitcher after each foul, and thus eliminate much tossing about of the ball.

6. Allow umpires to quiet substitutes on the bench who become too abusive of opponents and officials.

7. Start games on time!

8. Umpires hesitate to ask coaches to speed up a game for fear the suggestion may be misinterpreted that the umpire wishes to get away early.

9. Cut out the unnecessary conferences by players after an error or a walk.

10. Coaches should encourage a spirit of hustle on the field . . . have players run to and from positions instead of loafing and delaying as they do.

11. Have pitchers take their signals on the rubber, instead of standing five or six feet in back of the box.

12. Instruct pitchers on the balk rule . . . and don't allow them to take so much time between pitches.

13. Coaches should instruct players to pick out a bat in time, and to be ready to go to the plate when their turn comes. Too many boys dally about and delay the game. Have a circle for the next batter, as in professional baseball.

14. Try and have as few ground rules as possible . . . and have them typed and given to the visiting team prior to the start of the game, or else have them posted at the players' bench. This will eliminate many unnecessary mid-game discussions.

Instead of reporting on the work of officials following each game, a new form has been drawn for a report by the Athletic Director at the close of the season. Baseball coaches are to be asked to make their report after each game to the athletic director, but he will keep his records until the close of the season, and then will report in full to the Baseball Committee.

The Baseball Committee of the Association of New England Colleges for Conference on Athletics, comprises: John E. Farrell, Providence College, Chairman; Russell Peterson, Athletic Director of the American International College in Springfield; Ernest R. Whitman, Athletic Director at Clark University.

The enlarged list has been built up from the group of 46 men who were on the list a year ago. Men on either list are eligible for college games, the reserve listing merely indicating that those men did not handle as many college games as the Class A men a year ago. It is the hope of the committee that men from both lists will be used this spring, Class A for varsity games and Reserve List for freshman games.

FRIARS TRIUMPH IN OPENER, DRUBBING ST. JOHN'S, 8 TO 0

Joe Kwasniewski Yields Seven Hits In Varsity Bow

Dominicans Collect 17 Hits at Brooklyn; P. C. Scores
Four Runs in First.

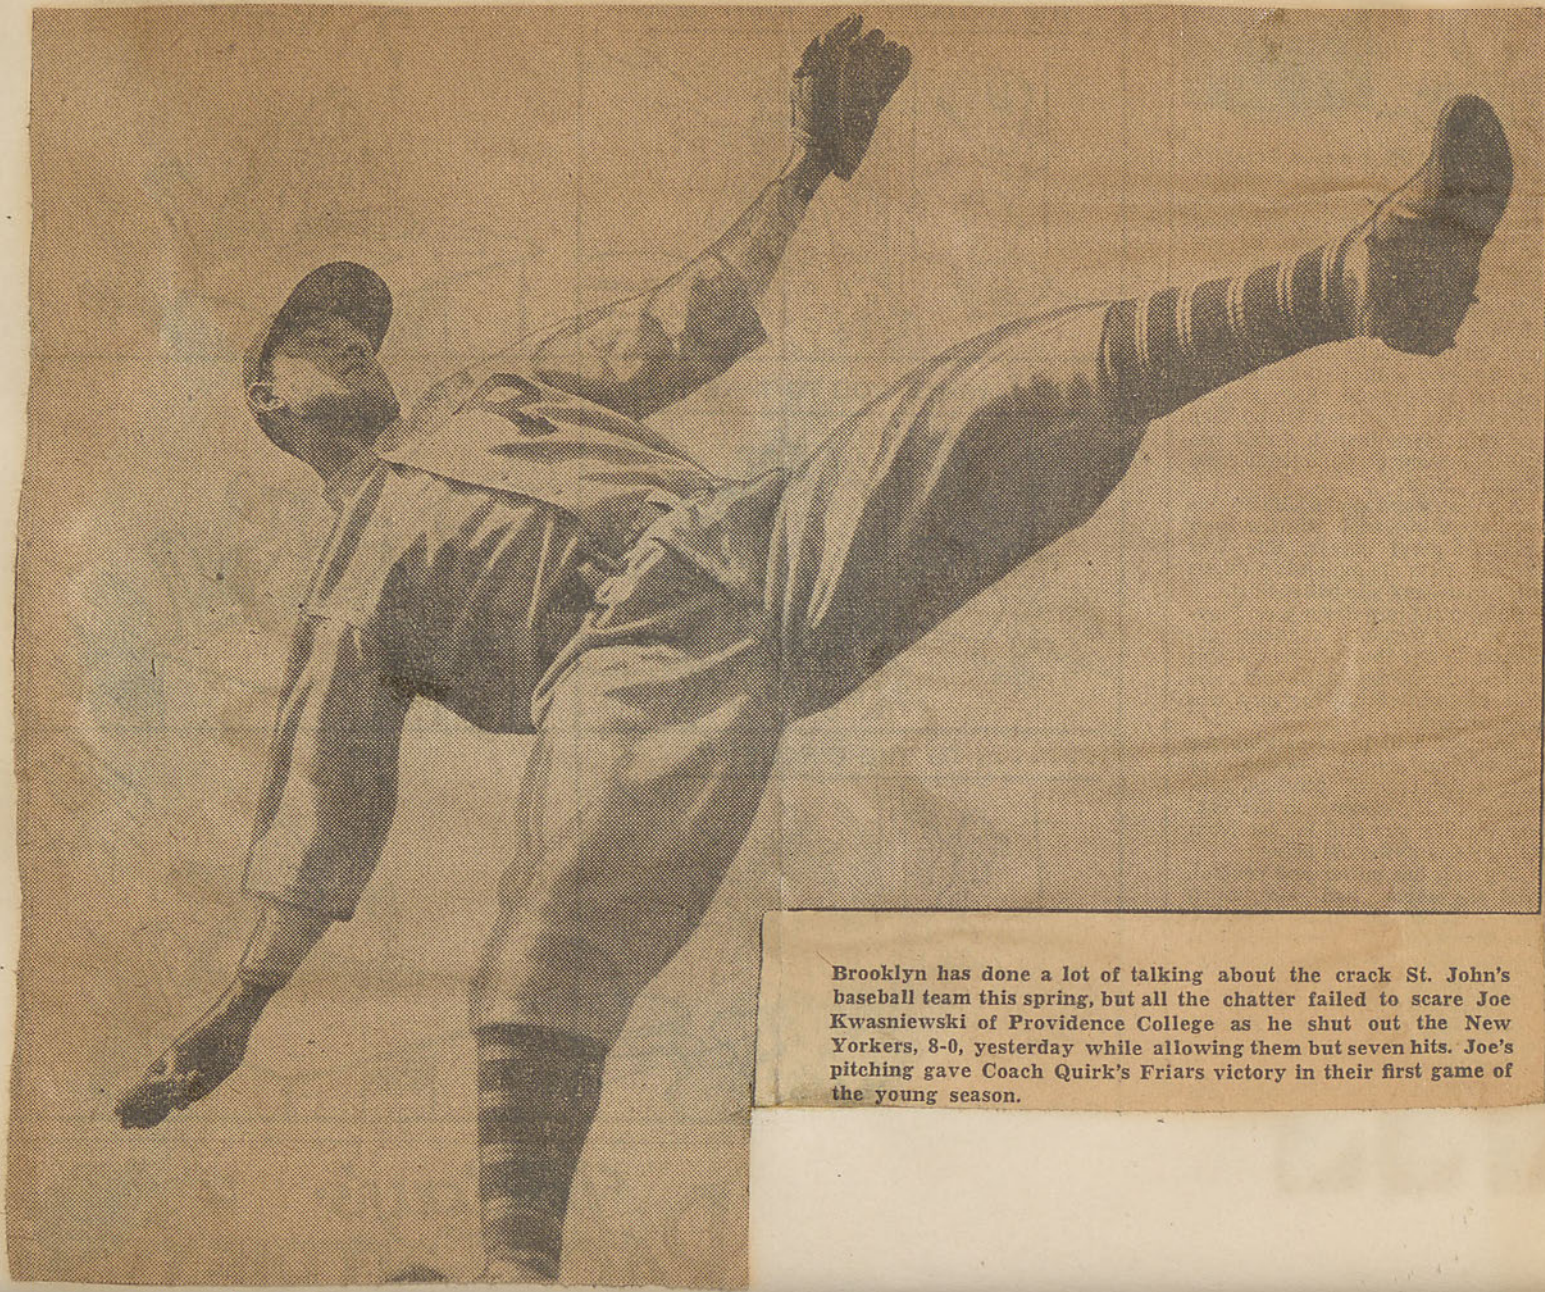

(Special to the Providence Journal)
Brooklyn, April 21.—Exhibiting mid-season form although it was the opening game of the season for the invaders, Providence College maintained its jinx over St. John's University by whitewashing the Redmen here today, 8 to 0. Joe Kwasniewski, a sophomore right-hander, making his debut in varsity competition, stood up like a seasoned campaigner, having complete mastery over the Brooklyn combination. Although he was touched for seven hits, Joe kept the safeties well scattered, the Redmen only threatening in two frames.

While Kwasniewski was holding the Redmen at bay his mates combed the combined offerings of Frank Weynand, a southpaw, Eddie Shea and Irving Prince, right-handers, for 17 hits, all of which were singles save Leo Fischer's double. Weynand started the mound chores for St. John's and failed to survive the first inning when the Friars, making their first start under their new coach, Arthur Quirk, collected four hits and four runs. He was relieved by Shea who allowed an equal number of runs and 11 hits during his tenure. Price, who escaped unscathed in the matter of run scoring, was found for two hits.

Eddie Bobinski, Fischer and Kwasniewski led the Friar attack with three hits apiece.

Game played: April 21, 1938

Brooklyn has done a lot of talking about the crack St. John's baseball team this spring, but all the chatter failed to scare Joe Kwasniewski of Providence College as he shut out the New Yorkers, 8-0, yesterday while allowing them but seven hits. Joe's pitching gave Coach Quirk's Friars victory in their first game of the young season.

In the first, Captain John (Wink) Crowley got a life on Frank Haggerty's bobble, Bill Moge walked and Haggerty erred again on Leo Ploski, Crowley scoring. Moge and Ploski executed a double steal, Moge racing home. Bobinski's single scored Ploski, Eddie moving to second on the throw home, whence he registered on Fischer's single. Deuse singled and Kwasniewski beat out an infield hit, filling the bases and bringing Shea to the rescue of Weynand. Eddie halted the uprising by forcing John Ayvazian to bound out.

The Friars picked up another tally in the fourth when Harold Martin singled, stole second and Ploski singled. The crusher was put on with three in the seventh.

Bobinski opened the barrage with a single and Fischer followed suit. Deuse sacrificed and when Shea heaved the ball over Captain Cy Zenir's head, Bobinski and Fischer tallied and Deuse went to third. Kwasniewski singled again and Deuse scored the final run.

FRIARS TO FACE

C. C. N. Y. TODAY

(Special to the Providence Journal)

Villanova, Pa. April 22.—Rain and wet grounds caused the cancellation of the Providence College-Villanova baseball game scheduled here today. Providence, victors over St. John's at Brooklyn yesterday, was informed of the postponement in New York and did not make the trip here. The Friars will meet C. C. N. Y. in New York tomorrow.

DOMINICANS GAIN 16 TO 11 VICTORY

Bobinski Paces P. C. Attack;
Friars Push Across Seven
Runs in Eighth Frame.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

New York, N. Y., April 23. — A powerful Providence College nine tallied 10 runs in the final three innings at Lewisohn Stadium today and handed the City College team a 16-11 beating and thereby registered its second victory of the metropolitan invasion. The loss was the Beavers' sixth of the season.

Ed Bobinski, lanky Friar centre fielder, paced the attack with four hits which included a triple, double and two singles. Jim Padden, starting Providence hurler, was driven from the mound in the third after yielding four runs on five hits. Paul Ryan, winning pitcher, gave up the remaining seven runs.

Providence jumped on three City College pitchers for 19 hits, 14 of which were for extra bases. Bill Moge, Friar third baseman, was ejected from the game in the seventh for disputing Umpire Meehan's decision on a called strike.

The Friars got to Schwartz in the opening frame and drove him to the showers. Jack Ayvazian, first batter up, doubled and scored on Jack Crowley's two-bagger. Bill Moge grounded out, but Hal Martin doubled, scoring Crowley and Leo Ploski singled, sending in Martin. Auerbach replaced Schwartz on the mound for City and walked Ed Bobinski. Fischer came through with the fourth two-bagger, driving in Ploski and Bobinski. Elton Deuse and Padden grounded out, ending the inning.

Game played: April 23, 1938

Mike Grieco, first Beaver batsman to face Padden, singled but the next three were easy outs. Providence went out in order in the second. The homesters got to Padden after two were out in the second and collected four runs. Friedman walked and scored on Monitto's double. Auerbach reached first on Ayvazian's bobble. Grieco socked his second single into centre scoring Monitto, and Auerbach scored when Ploski lost Weintraub's loft in the sun in short right. Grieco romped home on Janowitz's bingle.

* * *

Bobinski doubled in the third but was stranded. City drove Padden from the box in their half and took the lead with three runs. Meister walked and Ryan replaced Padden. After Clancy struck out, Friedman was passed and Monitto reached first on Ayvazian error filling the bases. Auerbach's double scored Meister and Friedman and Grieco's sacrifice bunt pushed Monitto across.

The Friars picked up a run in the fifth on successive doubles by Fischer and Deuse. The Beavers came back with two, on a walk to Monitto, Grieco's third hit, a pass to Weintraub filling the bases and Janowitz's single, making the score 9 to 6 in City's favor.

witz's single, making the score 9 to 6 in City's favor.

Providence tied it up in the seventh on Bobinski's single, Deuse's double and subsequent theft of home, and a pass to Ayvazian and Crowley's double. The Friars clinched the game in the eighth with a seven run barrage resulting from six hits.

Providence College's undefeated varsity baseball team will make its first home appearance of the season when it plays host to Bates College on Hendricken Field this afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. Bates will be starting its regular schedule which calls for a game with Boston College tomorrow at Newton.

Anthony Scavotto, a sophomore untried as yet in varsity competition, has been named by Coach Arthur Quirk to pitch for the Friars. Scavotto can pitch with either hand but prefers the left and shifted to that hand almost exclusively when it appeared he would be the ranking southpaw on the Friar pitching staff.

Coach Dave Morey may start Bob Malone, a right-handed fast-ball pitcher, who was a member of last year's Garnet nine. He has Brud Witty, a freshman, and Austin Briggs, southpaw curve-artist, for other selections.

The Friars' inner defence will be Leo Fischer, first base; Leo Ploski, second; Johnny Ayvazian, shortstop; Bill Moge, third, and Elt Deuse, catcher. In the outfield Capt. Johnny Crowley, Ed Bobinski and Harold Martin will start, left to right.

Bill Moge Collecting Three For One

Bill Moge, Providence College third baseman, shown arriving at third base in a cloud of dust, during the third inning of yesterday's game with Bates. Moge singled but an outfield error and a wide throw to third enabled him to get his three bases with something to spare.

Friars Shell Three Bates Pitchers In Winning 16-3

Leo Ploski Leads 13-Hit Barrage as P. C. Nine Marks
Up Third Straight.

BY MICHAEL J. THOMAS

Providence College scored so many runs in the early innings of its game with Bates at Hendricken Field yesterday that competition was halted after the visitors had batted in the seventh. In winning, 16 to 3, the Friars scored their third straight victory.

After Stan Bergeron had hit a two-run homer in the first, it appeared Providence had a battle on its hands, but the visitors lacked pitching strength. The Friars got back those two runs and four to spare their first time up, and there was no question as to the outcome thereafter.

Providence scored three runs in both the second and third innings, and two more in each the fifth and sixth for good measure. The Garnets tallied their third and last run in the seventh.

Sophomore Anthony Scavatto pitched a steady game for Providence in making his varsity debut, limiting the Garnets to four hits while coasting to victory. He was practically invincible from the second to the sixth innings.

The Friars bettered their already high batting averages by making 13 hits, including doubles by Johnny Ayvazian and Harold Martin and a double and a triple by Leo Ploski, who led the attack with three hits.

Bob Malone, first of the three Bates pitchers, lasted only one inning, being replaced by "Brud" Witty with one out in the second. He was nicked for six hits and six runs in the first and in the second he was nicked for two more hits and two more runs before he was relieved by Witty.

Witty, stingier with hits but wilder, allowed only one more run in the second, that the result of an error, but his wildness paved the way for three more in the third. He sailed through the fourth easily, but again ran into trouble in the fifth and sixth, finally being relieved by John Cooke with one out in the sixth. Cooke pitched to four batters and allowed a hit and one run.

Game played

April 28, 1938

A walk to "Hasty" Thompson and Bergeron's homer accounted for the two Bates tallies in the first. Ten Providence men batted in the same inning. Capt. John (Wink) Crowley started the rally with a single. He went to second on a passed ball and scored on Martin's single. Bill Moge, who reached first on Norman Tardiff's error, went to second on Martin's bingle and scored on Ploski's hit. Ploski's single advanced Martin to second and a wild throw by John Buccigross sent him to third, Ploski going to second on the play. Martin raced home on Bobinski's single and Ploski to third. Fischer's bingle scored Ploski. Bobinski came home on another error, and Fischer tallied the sixth run on Scavatto's single.

Eight Friars batted in the second as three runs scored. Moge singled, Martin was hit by a pitched ball, and both scored on Ploski's triple. The latter came home on the same play when Catcher Hutchinson missed Richard Thompson's throw in from centre field.

Ayvazian opened the third inning with a double and scored on Moge's single. Crowley, who had walked, reached third on Moge's hit and scored on Buccigross's error. Moge came home while "Hasty" Thompson was throwing out Ploski at first.

Moge's walk, Martin's double and another error by Catcher Hutchinson gave the Friars their two runs in the fifth. A walk and a stolen base by Crowley, a wild pitch, a single by Martin and a double by Ploski gave the Friars two more tallies in the sixth.

Tardiff's walk and Art Belliveau's single accounted for Bates's other run in the seventh.

Friars Do Scoring In First Inning To Clinch Contest

Two Passes and Error Figure in Rams' Only Run Which Comes in Third.

By HERB MURRAY, Jr.

Providence College's varsity baseball team assumed first place in the intra-state college championship standing by shading R. I. State, 2-1, yesterday at Kingston before about 800 spectators. The victory, second for the Friars' ranking pitcher, Joe Kwasniewski, 19-year-old New Milford, Conn., sophomore, was the fourth for the unbeaten Providence nine.

All the damage was done in the first inning when Providence scored twice. Johnny Ayvazian, Friar shortstop and first batter, lined a double into centre field. Capt. Johnny "Wink" Crowley, agile P. C. left fielder, was safe at first when Don Graham, State third baseman, delayed throwing the ball to Bill Butler on Crowley's roller, in an effort to keep Ayvazian on second.

Bill Moge, Friars' third sacker, grounded out to Chet Jaworski, sending Crowley to second. Butler immediately threw to Duranleau to keep Ayvazian on third and the Rams' catcher, judging he had a change to pick off the P. C. shortstop at third, rifled the ball, but Graham was not set. The throw went into left field. Ayvazian scampered home and Crowley went to third.

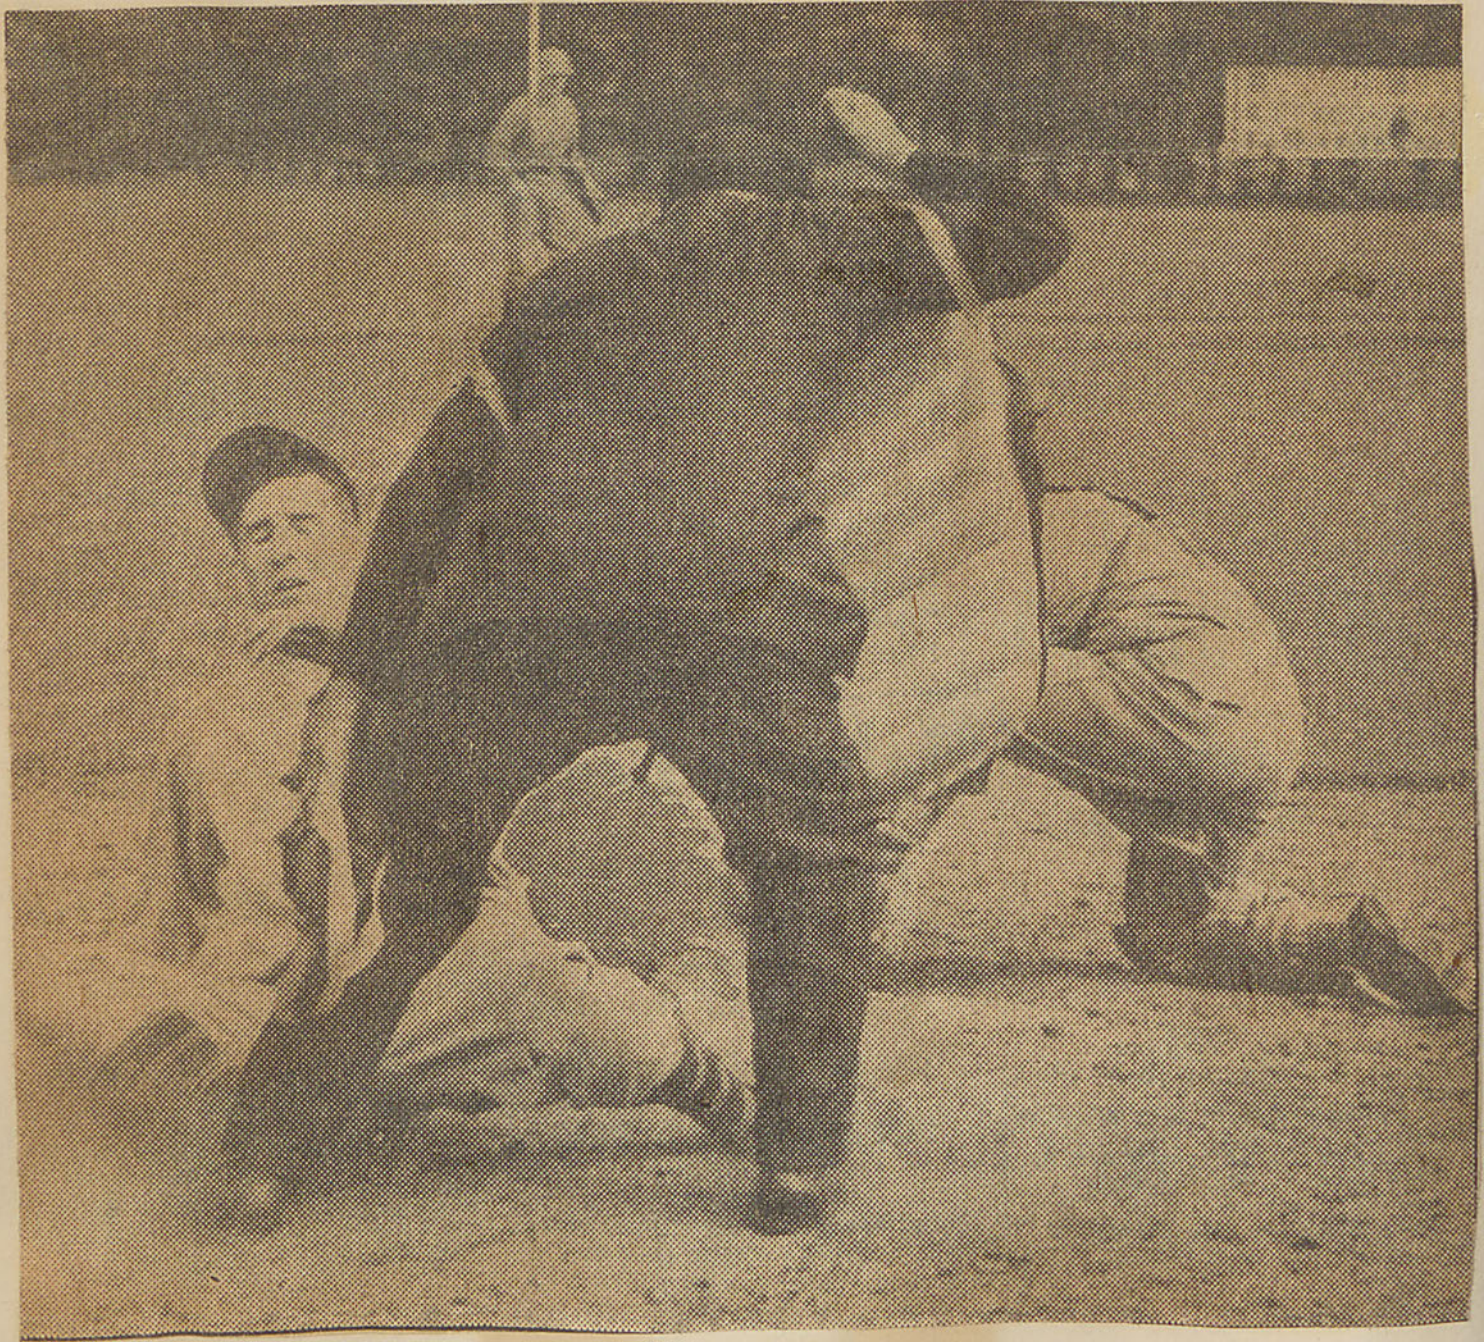

Hal Martin, P. C. right fielder, dropped a sacrifice bunt, a slow roller to Hines. The Rams' pitcher, with his back to Crowley, tossed to Butler at first and the Friar captain crossed the plate at a trot standing up. Ploski struck out to end the half inning.

Graham, Jaworski and Hollingsworth flied out to the outfield in State's half of the first. In the Rams' half of the second Kwasniewski started well by fanning Fay, State clean-up man. Butler grounded out to Ploski. Duranleau singled for State's first hit, Moge making a short, hopping throw to Fischer that got away from the Friar first baseman and permitted Duranleau to go to second. However, Potter rolled out to Kwasniewski.

Game played:

April 30, 1938

The lower photo shows the conclusion of the Rams' double play in the fourth inning, Duranleau tagging Ploski as Umpire Jack Finnell calls the play. Hines took Fischer's roller, tossed to Butler and the latter threw to Duranleau.

Kwasniewski wavered in the Rams' half of the third and gave his only two passes. With two out on ordinary grounders, Kwasniewski passed Graham. Moge erred on Jaworski's bounder and two were aboard. A pass to Hollingsworth loaded the stations. Fay rapped a sharp grounder to Ayvazian's right and, though the latter raced over and tossed to Ploski for an attempted force-out on Hollingsworth, he was too late. Graham scored on the play and the bases were still loaded. All were left stranded as Butler was called out on strikes.

Successive singles in the fourth put two Rams on base, but a scoring punch did not materialize. In the next four innings, State was retired in order. It had the stage set for what might have been the winning or at least tying score in the ninth.

Butler grounded out to Ploski in this frame. One of Kwasniewski's "hoppers" hit Duranleau in the shoulder and he took first, rubbing out the sting as he trotted. Coach Frank Keaney sent Cliff Pace to the plate to pinch hit for Potter and Pace rapped a single through short, sending Duranleau to second. Albanese, a dangerous hitter, then lined a sharp drive toward right field.

Ploski leaped, hauled the ball down and doubled Pace off first to end the game.

The Friars were in scoring position in the third, fourth and seventh. Kwasniewski's scratch single and a pass to Moge set the stage in the third, but produced nothing. In the fourth singles by Ploski and Bobinski availed no more as Butler killed off Ploski at the plate on a double play started by Hines on Fischer's roller to the box.

Deuse singled to left in the seventh but was forced out at second on Kwasniewski's grounder to Hines. Ayvazian lifted to Hollingsworth, but Crowley was safe on a loft to right as Albanese and Hollingsworth collided while trying to haul down the high riser. Kwasniewski went to second and advanced one more base, along with Crowley, when one of Hines's low ones eluded Duranleau. Moge struck out.

Although Fischer walked at the start of the ninth, the next three Friars were retired.

Kwasniewski turned in a fine performance in his first start against the Friars' keenest rivals. Cold weather with just a bit of sunshine during the earlier innings was not conducive to good pitching, and it took both pitchers a couple of innings before they hit their stride.

Hines allowed seven hits but was in trouble of his own making only in the fourth and then his mates killed that threat with a double play. The Friars' two runs came on a combination of heads-up play and two costly lapses by the Rams. Kwasniewski got himself into trouble in the third and ninth, hauled himself out of a tight situation in the third and was saved by Ploski in the final frame.

Fielding features by the Friars were turned in by Ayvazian on Jaworski's sharp grass-cutter in the eighth and by Ploski in the ninth-inning double killing. For the Rams, Jaworski sparkled in handling Martin's "hopper" in the fifth and Fay speared Bobinski's hot liner with one hand in the eighth, bringing applause from both stands.

As Joe Kwasniewski said to George Hines after the game, "It was a tough one to lose!" The teams meet again at Hendricken Field on Memorial Day.

Providence College Nine Faces Cross on Wednesday

Purple Has 9-8 Edge in Baseball Series Which Had Origin in 1930.

By HERB MURRAY, JR.

Two major rivals of long standing are on the Providence College 'Varsity baseball team's schedule this week, Holy Cross at Hendricken Field on Wednesday afternoon and Brown at Aldrich Field on Saturday afternoon. The two meetings between the Brown and Holy Cross nines will give Friar adherents some basis for predicting both Wednesday's and Saturday's outcomes.

The Providence College-Holy Cross rivalry being one of the seasonal features of New England college baseball, Coach Jack Barry more than likely will call upon one of his two leading pitchers to face the Friars, either "Lefty" Lefevbre of Pawtucket or Art Kenney, Milford, Mass., southpaw. On the same basis Coach Arthur Quirk of Providence College is expected to start Joe Kwasniewski of New Milford, Conn., ranking Friar hurler.

The record of the P. C.-H. C. baseball series since 1930:

1930—Providence 4 .....	Holy Cross 9
Providence 6 .....	Holy Cross 5
Providence 3 .....	Holy Cross 7
1931—Providence 3 .....	Holy Cross 10
Providence 3 .....	Holy Cross 2
1932—Providence 7 .....	Holy Cross 5
Providence 4 .....	Holy Cross 8
1933—Providence 5 .....	Holy Cross 2

The Providence College Freshmen will play three games this week starting with a clash tomorrow afternoon with the Boston College Freshmen at Newton, Mass. On Thursday afternoon the young Friars will meet the R. I. State Freshmen and on Saturday they will tackle St. John's prep of Danvers, Mass., at Hendricken Field.

Rounding out the Friar athletic schedule for the week will be a tennis match between the Providence varsity and R. I. State at Kingston. Among the players who have been working out on the tennis courts are: Spinnler, Holdredge, Scanlon, Farley, McQueeney, Tully, Crawford, Sullivan and Tierney.

Moher Makes First Start For Friars Against Purple

Nashua Senior Surprise Choice to Face Holy Cross
Batters Today.

BY HERB MURRAY, JR.

"Batteries for today's game: For Providence—Moher and Deuse!"

That will be half of the plate umpire's spiel before the Providence College-Holy Cross baseball game which will start at 3:15 o'clock today at Hendricken Field.

Providence College fans close to the daily developments of Friar athletics know that Moher, T. Casey Moher of Nashua, N. H., to be completely accurate, has been developing slowly but surely since he entered the Dominican college in September, 1934. Today's start will be his first for the Friar varsity.

But for those Providence followers who register surprise at the announcement that Moher and not Jim Padden or Joe Kwasniewski is going to pitch against the powerful Holy Cross team here today, we give you the words of Coach Arthur Quirk, the man who has put new life into the Friar baseball machine.

Monday night over the telephone Coach Quirk said he would name three pitchers in order to keep one member of his pitching staff from doing all the pre-game worrying. But he also said that Moher would be the starting pitcher, if he continued to show the form he had on Monday afternoon in practice.

When we approached Coach Quirk yesterday and asked him if he was of the same mind he answered: "I was dumbfounded after watching Moher in practice Monday and decided to give him a thorough inspection the following day." That inspection took place yesterday. Quirk watched Moher again and saw his Monday observations confirmed. So Moher is going to start against the Crusaders today.

That's the big news on the P. C. sport horizon today. The rest of the lineup for Providence will be the same as in the past. Elt Deuse will catch. Leo Fischer, Leo Ploski, Johnny Ayvazian and Bill Moge will start in the infield and in the outfield will be Capt. Johnny Crowley, Ed Bobinski and Hal Martin.

Just for a comparison of the hitting standards of the teams we give you the respective averages:

FRIARS ROUT HOLY CROSS

MOHER TRAVELS FULL DISTANCE, WINNING, 10-3

Providence College Gives Sparkling Support to
First-Time Starter.

By MICHAEL J. THOMAS

T. Casey Moher, senior, pitching his first varsity game, realized the ambition of all Providence College pitchers at Hendriken Field yesterday when he twirled the Friars to a 10 to 3 victory over Holy Cross before 2500.

Drama was enacted as Moher, with one thrust, wiped out the bitter memories of two years of futile effort to get his name into a varsity box score.

As a Freshman he started one game, but he lasted only two innings. He sat on the bench ever since waiting for his day to arrive. Yesterday he achieved his crowning effort with as popular a victory a Friar pitcher has scored in years.

Providence College students, knowing his story, cheered him at every opportunity, and his teammates, inspired to loyalty, backed him with as efficient a performance afield as has been turned in by a Friar team in some time.

Jubilantly watching Moher uncork winning pitches was Coach Artie Quirk, who in his own college days travelled a road similar to that over which Moher struggled.

Eight years ago the late Jack Flynn called on Quirk, who previously had never started a game, to pitch against Holy Cross. Quirk stopped the Crusaders, just as the man he gambled on yesterday did.

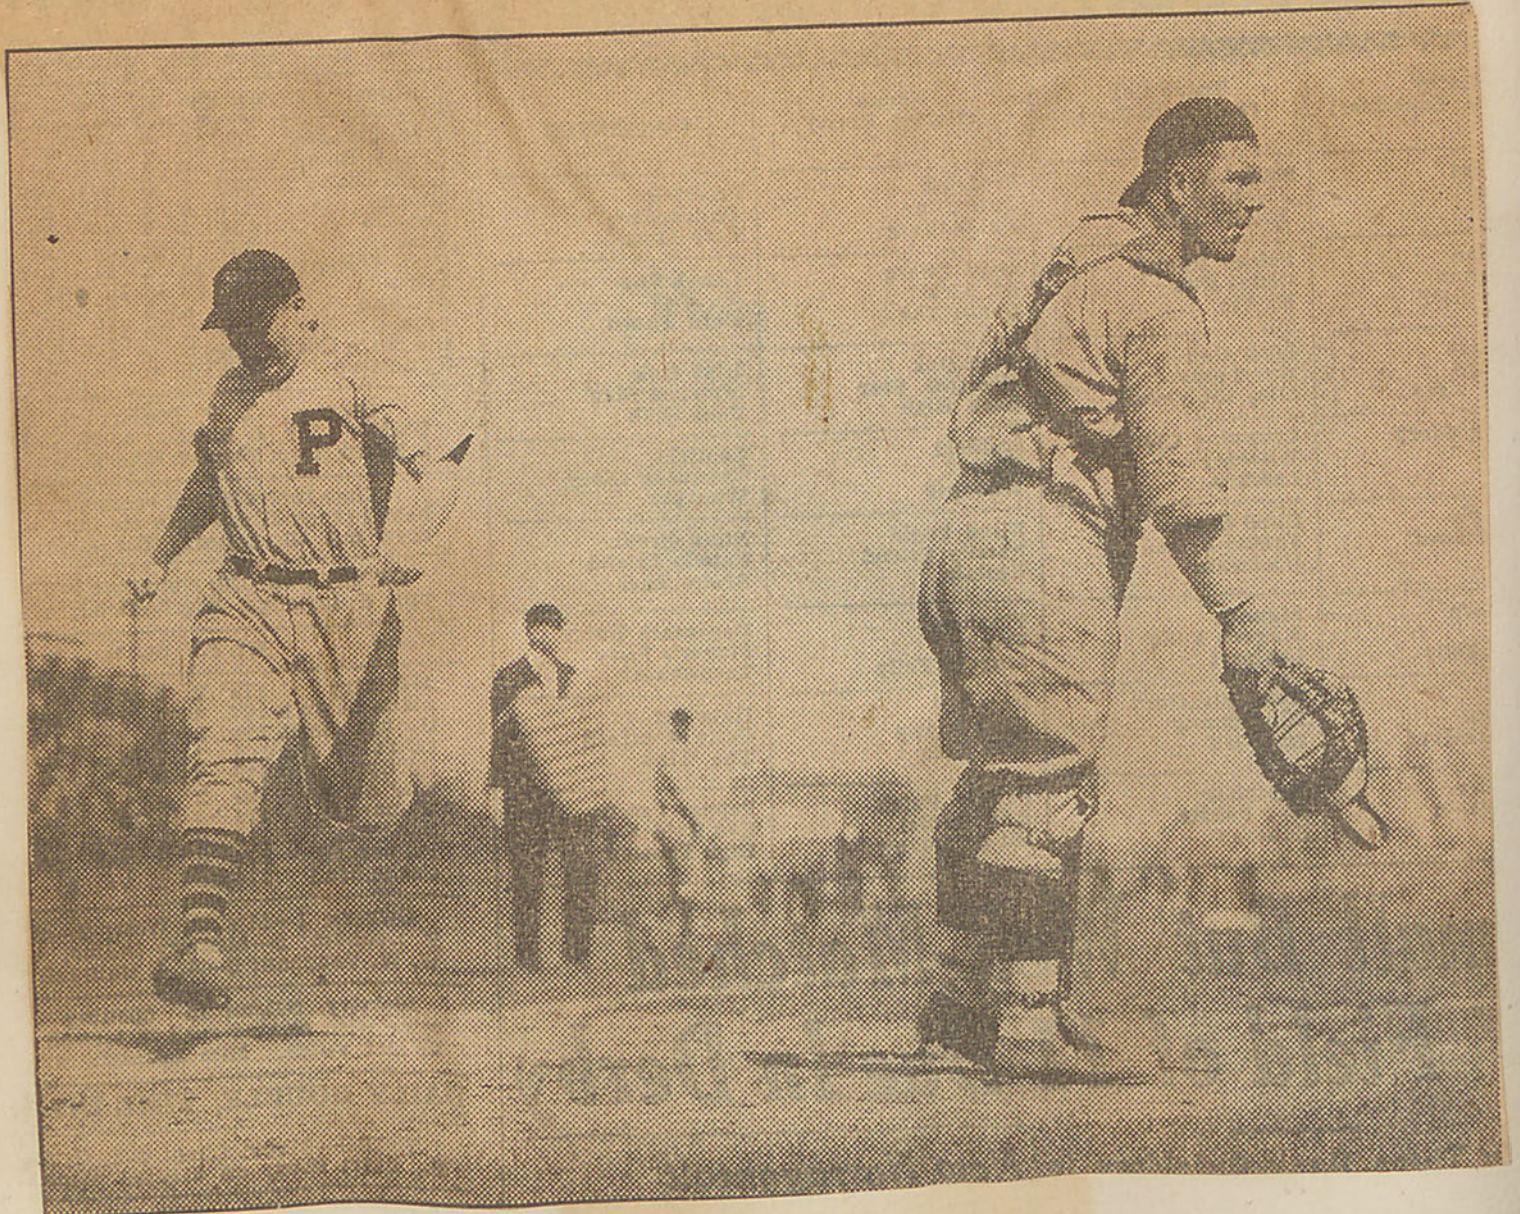

Moher gave up nine hits, but with the exception of the fifth inning when the Crusaders scored all three of their runs, he kept the bingles fairly well scattered. Two sparkling double plays, both started by Third Baseman Bill Moge, were helpful in the fourth and fifth innings.

Game played:

May 4, 1938

"Friars Away"—Bill Moge Scoring First Run,

Providence College staged one of its first-inning rallies yesterday at Hendriken Field to take a 3-0 lead over Holy Cross and then went on to win, 10-3. In photo at left Bill Moge, Friar third baseman, is shown scoring the first run of the game in the opening inning. He doubled and scored on "Red" Durand's wild throw to first.

In winning their fifth game and snapping a Crusader four-game victory run, the unbeaten Friars elevated themselves to top position among New England college nines. They continued their heavy hitting, collecting 10 off Southpaw Art Kenney, who dropped the second game of his college career.

Included in their barrage of hits, was a two-run homer by Leo Ploski and a three-run homer by Leo Fischer and doubles by Bill Moge and Elt Deuse.

* * *

Although Moge had doubled after two were out in the first, it appeared the Friars would go scoreless after Martin hit a grounder to Third Baseman Durand. The latter, however, threw wild to first, and Moge scampered home from second and Martin reached second on the play. Ploski then lined a drive to the left field fence for a homer.

* * *

Eight Friars batted during their third inning, four-run splurge. The first three all reached base, Crowley singling, Moge walking and Martin singling. Kenney also walked Ploski to force Crowley home. Moge scored on Bobinski's fielder's choice and Martin came home on Fischer's single. Bobinski, who advanced to third on the same hit, scored the fourth run when Catcher Joubert threw wild in an attempt to catch Fischer stealing second. Fischer was put out at home plate, Joubert to Kenney, when he tried to race in from third on Brucato's wild throw to Joubert.

Only two Crusaders reached base in the first three innings, but Moher walked, two of the first three batters in the fourth. The threatened Crusader rally was cut short, however, when Moge started a double killing on Piurek's grounder.

Capt. "Wink" Crowley on Way to Fourth P. C. Tally

Capt. Johnny "Wink" Crowley, P. C., left fielder, is shown at right stealing third base in the third inning. The P. C. leader scored soon afterwards as Leo Ploski was walked with the bases filled.

Holy Cross, however, finally managed to bunch hits for runs in the fifth. With one out, Tassinari and Kenney singled. Bracken doubled to score Tassinari. Durand walked to fill the bases again. Brucato's single scored Kenney. Moher also walked Blasser, forcing Bracken in with another run. But with the bases still loaded, Moge started another double play on Zinti's grounder.

Providence went seven runs ahead again in the seventh when Fischer connected with a home run over the right field fence, scoring Moge, who had singled, and Ploski, who had walked, ahead of him.

DOMINICANS RULE SLIGHT FAVORITES TO WHIP BRUINS

Brown Battery Not to Be Determined Until Game Time;
Quirk Stands Pat.

BY MICHAEL J. THOMAS

Brown and Providence College baseball teams will open their city college championship series at Aldrich Field today in a game that will match the two best nines each college has produced in years. Another of the stirring battles that marked the early stages of the series is in prospect.

The Friars, unbeaten in five starts, rule favorites, but they will have to maintain a high standard to win, for the Bears, in top form, are a match for any college nine.

Much is at stake for both teams. Not only do the Friars seek to protect their untarnished record and to get the jump in the city series, but they also want victory to strengthen their hold on first place in the State title competition.

On the other hand, defeat today will virtually eliminate the Bears from the State title race, for they already have dropped a game to Rhode Island State, which in turn was beaten by Providence.

As a result of their impressive victory over Holy Cross last Wednesday, the Friars also have designs on the New England and Eastern mythical titles, and right now they have as strong a claim as any team to top rating.

Sophomore Joe Kwasniewski, who already has accounted for two victories, will twirl for the Friars, and his opponent will be either Vin Devaney or Emerson Mowry. Devaney retired with a sore arm after pitching against Holy Cross last Saturday, and hasn't done much heavy work since.

If Devaney is unable to start, there is a possibility Coach Jack Kelleher may call on Sophomore Ray McCulloch, who twirled against Dartmouth Wednesday.

Brown's catcher also will not be determined until game time, the nomination lying between Floyd Hinckley and Bob Bush.

Coach Artie Quirk of the Friars will stand pat on the team which conquered Holy Cross. The Friars turned in as an efficient performance as any Rhode Island college nine has shown in years while upsetting the Crusaders, their infield, especially, functioning smoothly. Ploski and Ayvazian form an excellent keystone combination. Moge is playing the best game of his career, Sophomore Ayvazian already is being hailed as the best Friar shortstop of all time and Fischer is fielding with the class that recalls the feats of Oscar Perrin, member of the 1930 and '31 nines.

Both the Bears and the Friars pack their heaviest offensive punch in years, and some extra base hitting may be in order today. The Friars boast of a team hitting average above .375.

In view of the excellent records each has compiled and the interest they have aroused in college baseball, one of the largest crowds to watch them perform in years is expected.

MAKE BROWN 6TH

VICTIM, 7 TO 1;

Kwasniewski Shuts Bears Off with Five Safe Hits

Mowry's Relief Pitching Lone
Bright Spot for Bruin
Nine.

BY MICHAEL J. THOMAS

Providence College solidified its position atop the Eastern college baseball heap by defeating Brown, 7 to 1, before 2500 at Aldrich Field yesterday. The victory was the sixth for the unbeaten Friars, who also moved a step nearer the city and State championships.

The Friars, gaining prestige with every game, turned in another efficient all-round performance while their ace Sophomore pitcher, Joe Kwasniewski, twirled a five-hit game to score his third triumph.

Kwasniewski's hurling far overshadowed all other developments. The one run the Bears scored off him in the sixth was unearned, and only on one other occasion did he allow a Bruin to reach third base.

It was rough going for the Bears from the start, and after they missed capitalizing their best scoring opportunity in the second, when they placed two on base, there was no doubt as to the outcome.

The one bright spot in their defeat was the pitching of Sophomore Emerson Mowry, who succeeded Don Eccleston with two out in the sixth and held the opposition hitless and scoreless the three and one-third innings he worked.

Mowry took the mound with the bases loaded, but forced Ed Bobinski, batting for the second time in this inning, to hit a weak grounder to Shortstop Bob Brokaw, who forced out Leo Ploki at second.

The Friars collected nine hits, including a triple by Kwasniewski and a double by Bobinski, off Eccleston, who pitched far below the standard he flashed against Holy Cross last Saturday.

Game played:

May 7, 1938

Providence did its most effective hitting in the sixth, collecting four, including its two extra base clouts, to score the four runs which definitely clinched the verdict.

Ten Friars batted in this inning, the drive starting with Bobinski's double. Leo Fischer followed with a single, and after Elt Deuse fanned, Kwasniewski banged a line drive to left field for a triple, scoring Bobinski and Fischer. Kwasniewski tallied the third run on Johnny Ayvazian's fly to centre field. Crowley, who walked, and Brochu, who singled, started a double steal, and Catcher Floyd Hinckley, in an attempt to catch Crowley, threw wild to third, enabling Crowley to score and Brochu to take third.

Eccleston walked Harold Martin and Leo Ploski (this was the third straight walk Ploski drew) to fill the bases. Mowry replaced Eccleston at this point, stopping the scoring parade.

* * *

The Friars scored in three of the first four innings. The Bruin defence, none too steady through the entire game, wavered at the outset when Third Baseman Ed Pietrusza made a two-base error on Ayvazian's grounder, throwing over First Baseman Ken Wright's head. Ayvazian, however, was put out trying to make third on the play, Wright to Pietrusza. Crowley then singled, raced to second on Don Brochu's sacrifice and scored on Harold Martin's single.

* * *

Two errors by Eccleston paved the way for Providence's second run in the second. He miscued Leo Ploski's grounder and then threw wild to first on Bobinski's sacrifice, Ploski taking second on the play. First Baseman Wright and Second Baseman Danny Hicks got tangled up in an attempt to cover first on this play, and after they got straighten out, Eccleston's throw was too wide for Wright to stop. A double play, "Cad" Arrendell to Hinckley, catching Bobinski at home, prevented further Friar scoring in this inning. Arrendell's throw-in was one of the highlights.

Providence scored another run in the fourth on Kwasniewski's fielder's choice, an error by Danny Hicks and Ayvazian's single.

After being retired in order in first, the Bears placed two on base in the second, but with two out, Kwasniewski forced Hinckley to ground out to Ploski. Brown wasted two singles in the third and others in the seventh and ninth. A base on balls to Weich, Ayvazian's error on Arrendell's grounder and Hicks's fly to left field gave the Bruins a run in the sixth.

* * *

Each team made two double killings, both of the Friars plays being Ploski to Ayvazian to Fischer.

Third Baseman Bill Moge, out of the Friar lineup with a sore arm, made himself useful by coaching on the sidelines. He turned out to be quite a jockey.

Brochu, who replaced Moge, turned in a good job, batting two for four. He was robbed of another hit when Pietrusza made a brilliant one-handed catch of his line drive in the fifth.

Capt. John (Wink) Crowley of the Friars makes one spectacular play after another. His catch of Hicks's line drive with a Bear on base in the seventh was the best play afield by far. He made a shoestring catch, took a somersault, and came up waving his hand to inform the umpers he had the ball.

ST. JOHN'S, 14 TO 10

DOMINICANS FAIL TO OVERCOME BIG LEAD OF REDMEN

Brooklyn Gains 11-Run Margin Before Providence Club Starts Scoring.

By HERB MURRAY, Jr.

St. John's University of Brooklyn, a team Providence College's baseball warriors had conquered, 8-0, earlier in the season, ended the Friars' victory string yesterday, 14-10, in a seven-inning game before 1500 at Hendriken Field. The triumph gives the Redmen a record of nine victories, three losses and one tie, the latter a 17-inning, 2-2, affair with N. Y. U. Providence has won six of seven games.

Where St. John's players were apparently keyed up by their 5-4 victory over Harvard on Saturday, Providence just as apparently let down after their 7-1 victory over Brown. It was a spiritless Providence team meeting a confident St. John's team, and confidence won. Of course, there were other factors, as might be guessed.

Pitcher Paul Ryan of the Friars was charged with 10 hits in 3 1-3 innings. He left the game at that point and Jim Padden went the rest of the way, giving six hits. Half the 10 hits made off Ryan might have been turned into outs by alert fielding, but the Friars did not hit the smooth stride afield that has marked their other contests, until late in the game. Ryan's hard work availed little at times.

Game played: May 8, 1938

The Redmen enjoyed a lead of 11-0 going into the last of the fifth. Then Providence, held to two scratch hits in the first four innings by Larry Shea, saved the Redmen's starting hurler for five hits, one of them an infield bingle by Capt. "Wink" Crowley and another a double by Padden. The Friars made five runs in that frame.

With two out on strikeouts in the sixth, a pass to Ayvazian, Crowley's second infield hit and Brochu's single to left provided another Friar run. That made the count 11 to 6 in St. John's favor. Providence was beginning to hit for runs and St. John's had been held scoreless in the sixth.

But the Redmen gained their share of the plunder in the "lucky seventh". A single and a walk put De Stefano and Zenir on base and Ferrara scored De Stefano with a sharp single to right. Martin threw the ball to Ploski and the latter whipped it home in a late effort to cut off the first run. Ferrara started down to second and Deuse pegged to Ayvazian covering that base, but Ferrara was safe. Zenir had moved off third in a double steal with Ferrara. Zenir scored. Ayvazian's throw back to Deuse was unavailing and the latter misjudged the ball, allowing Ferrara to gain third. Then Ferrara started off third at the beginning of Padden's wind-up and topped the Redmen's rally by stealing home for their third run of the inning.

Providence was hitting for runs now. Ploski, Fischer and Bobinski cracked singles in order in the seventh and all scored on Deuse's three-base drive to the left centre fence. Larry Shea gave way to Tom Ananicz, St. John's lanky southpaw, with Deuse on third, three runs in and none out. Padden and Ayvazian leaned into two pitches, but grounded out, and Crowley lifted to the second baseman to end the game, the 6 o'clock Sunday law taking effect then and there.

St. John's staged a four-run marathon in the second with five singles and the aid of two walks and a passed ball. It treated itself handsomely in the fourth with a five-run parade on five hits (one of them Bill Conlon's one-run triple), a sacrifice and two errors. In the fifth, it had three men on base through two passes and a single and Polzer doubled to deep centre to score two runs. An Ayvazian to Ploski to Fischer double play stopped that rally.

A sad note during the game was the passing of John P. Dooley of Providence, a well-known employe of the Outlet Company, who was stricken fatally just after the end of the sixth inning. Several minutes of complete silence was the crowd's tribute to the deceased.

SCAVOTTO GIVES 5 HITS IN 8-1 FRIAR VICTORY

Providence College Shows Big
Scoring Punch in 6th,
9th Innings.

Durham, N. H., May 10.—With Tony Scovatto scattering five hits and recording 10 strikeouts, the Providence College baseball team tamed the University of New Hampshire Wildcats, 8 to 1, here this afternoon.

Collecting 11 hits and nine passes off the combined deliveries of two New Hampshire twirlers, the Friars provided plenty of batting support to Scovatto's sterling performance on the mound.

Two big innings, the sixth and the ninth, brought out the Friars' scoring punch. Hammering the offerings of Al Roper, Providence College pushed three runs across in the sixth and added four more in the ninth. Speedy Ed Ploski stole home in the second inning, registering the Friars' first tally.

Big gun in the Providence offence was Ed Bobinski who connected for a double, two singles, and scored two runs.

The Friars' sixth inning uprising got under way when Bobinski and Leo Fischer drew walks and Deuse came through with a triple. Deuse scored on Crowley's bingle.

Opening up again in the ninth, Capt. Johnny Crowley was passed by Jordan and later scored on Hal Martin's single. Bobinski banged Martin home with another single. Fischer walked and then a single by Deuse scored Bobinski and Fischer.

FRIARS, 10-8

Eight Providence Errors Ruin Chances of Victory

Green Scores Four in Opener;
Dominicans Stage Three-
Run Drive in Ninth.

(Special to the Providence Journal)
Hanover, N. H., May 11.—With the Friars contributing eight errors, Dartmouth set back the favored Providence College baseball team, 10 to 8, in a loosely played game here at Memorial Field this afternoon.

The Indians swept into a four run lead in the first inning. Johnny Johnson walked, went to second on a single by Georgie Hanna and to third on a poor throw by Centrefielder Bobinski. He scored on a fly by Buddy McLaughlin. Linden singled advancing Hanna to third and then Capt. Brad Jenkins homered to left field, scoring Hanna and Linden ahead of him.

Dartmouth added single runs in the second, third and ninth and a cluster of three in the eighth. Providence pushed tow runs across in the fourth, three in the sixth and staged a near-successful rally in the ninth that netted three more. The Friars' big ninth was featured by George Fischer's triple.

Providence used three pitchers, Casey Moher, Dan McKinnon and Jim Padden, who gave up a combined total of 11 hits and eight walks.

Joe Pyrtek, who started on the mound for the Big Green, allowed only three hits until relieved by Wonson in the seventh but passed nine men. The latter twirler also yielded three hits, all of which were made during Providence's three-run uprising in the ninth.

Leo Fischer's Home Run Clinches Game for Friars

Victory Is Second of Season
Over Bruins and Eighth in 10 Starts for P. C.

BY MICHAEL J. THOMAS

Providence College hit the victory trail again by blanking Brown, 4 to 0, at Hendricken Field yesterday in a game featured by Leo Fischer's three-run homer over the right field fence. In beating the Bears a second time for their eighth victory in 10 starts, the Friars clinched the city college championship and assured themselves of at least a tie for the State title.

Neither team had scored until Fischer made his circuit hit with two strikes on him in the fourth. Fischer had cleared the fence on the previous pitch, but the ball sailed in foul territory. His homer, in itself, was sufficient to win in view of the subsequent proceedings, but the Friars tallied another run in the fifth for good measure.

Providence's unbeaten Sophomore righthander, Joe Kwasniewski, turned in another brilliant performance in scoring his fourth victory, two of which have been registered over the Bears. He allowed only one Bruin to reach base in the first four innings and only once was he in serious trouble.

The Bears nicked him for two successive hits in the fifth, but two were out and he succeeded in quelling this threat without yielding a run. He allowed six hits in all, fanned a similar number and walked one. In the four games he has twirled, Kwasniewski has allowed only 22 hits.

With the exception of giving Fischer too good a pitch in the fourth, Vin Devaney, twirling his first full game since he defeated Holy Cross on April 19, pitched a steady game. He allowed only six hits and fanned four. Providence's run in the fifth was unearned.

The Friars, whose defence crumbled in their previous two games, played errorless ball. Brown's make-shift infield was erratic at times, but in the main, its play was as satisfactory as could be expected under the conditions.

In the Spotlight After Hitting Home Run

Photo shows Leo Fischer receiving plaudits of Providence College men on his return to the dugout after hitting homer with two mates on base in the fourth inning of game with Brown at Hendricken Field yesterday. Providence won 4 to 0.

Devaney had a winning pitch each time the Friars threatened in the first three innings. Providence had the bases loaded with two out in the first, but the Bruin right-hander fanned Ed Bobinski to nip the threat. Again in the third, the Friars had a man on with one out, but Devaney easily retired the next two batters.

An error by Danny Hicks, playing third base for the first time, on Ploski's grounder started Providence on its three-run drive in the fourth. Bobinski walked and Fischer then hit his homer. Johnny Ayvazian singled after the previous two batters had flied out, but an accurate peg by Catcher Floyd Hinckley caught him attempting to steal second, preventing any further Friar scoring.

Sophomore Dave Redford, starting his first varsity game, was the only Bruin to reach base in the first four innings. He singled to right in the second, reached second on Capt. Paul Welch's sacrifice, but was left stranded there.

In the fifth, however, Ken Wright and Hinckley singled with two out and Devaney walked to fill the bases, but the Bruin scoring bid was halted when Devaney was forced out at second, Leo Ploski to Ayvazian, on Brokaw's grounder. Brokaw connected solidly, and it appeared his drive would be good for at least a single, but the ball bounced into the hands of the speeding Ploski and his throw easily beat Devaney.

Hicks' wild throw to first on Bill Moge's grounder, giving the Friar two bases, paved the way for Providence's fourth run. Moge scored on Ploski's scratch double to left field. Brokaw made a brave attempt to make a running catch of Ploski's hit, but he juggled the ball and finally dropped it. It appeared Left Fielder Welch had a better chance to make the catch but Welch halted his attempt after seeing Brokaw racing for the ball.

Devaney pitched to only nine batters his final three innings, but the Bears placed a man on base in each of the sixth, seventh and eighth innings. All were left stranded, however. Ken Wright opened the seventh with a double and Chuck Harkins the eighth with a single, but the Bears lacked a scoring punch.

Coach Arthur Quirk of Providence College will start his leading pitcher, Joe Kwasniewski, New Milford, Conn., sophomore, against Yale's baseball nine at New Haven today. The game will start at 4 o'clock. Opposing the Connecticut boy more than likely will be Moe Jubitz, who is rated as the leading Eli hurler.

In its last start, the Yale team bowed to Holy Cross, 9-4, at Worcester while Providence, with a 10-3 verdict over the Crusaders, turned back Brown, 4-0. At present, the Elis are in second place in the Eastern Interscholastic League standing, back of Harvard.

Coach Quirk will hold to the same starting lineup that he has used in the majority of the games this season.

Providence will be seeking its ninth victory of the season, eight out of 10 games having been marked up as Friar victories. Kwasniewski has won four straight, and it is largely on his effectiveness, plus timely hitting, that Quirk is banking.

Jubitz, a southpaw, is a junior from Portland, Or., and has won four of five games in league competition. Eddie Collins, Jr., son of the Red Sox business manager, is the leading hitter on the Yale team. He bats third and has an average of .550 in E. I. L. play.

Kwasniewski Gives Elis Nine
Scattered Hits; Friars Stage
Two Double Plays.

(Special to the Providence Journal)

New Haven, Conn., May 18.—Providence College returned to its early season form today, played errorless ball, and tagged the Yale baseball team with a 5-1 setback under adverse weather conditions. In a game that was marked by a loose performance on the part of Yale, the superb Providence fielding gave the 800 spectators plenty to take their thoughts off the chilly atmospheric conditions.

Providence failed to score on Moe Jubitz, who held the Friars to two hits in the three innings he worked. But when Joe Stevens was sent into the game in the fourth the complexion of the game quickly changed. Stevens filled the bases on passes, an infield out produced one run and Albingers' overthrow of second allowed another. Stevens again filled the bases on two passes, but bore down and struck out the next two batters.

That was nothing, however. Yale fans passed through some heart-fluttering moments in the fifth when Stevens again loaded the bases on walks. But he pulled himself out of this spot by striking out the next three men. Then "Bing" Crosby was called into action to pitch for the Elis. Crosby gave up six hits in the remaining four innings.

Kwasniewski scored in the sixth on a pass and singles by Moge and Martin. Singles by Martin, Ploski and Deuse scored the two runs in the final inning.

be manufactured on the Yale diamond this season were reeled off by the visitors. Holt went to first when he was hit by one of Kwasniewski's hooks. Ploski then snared Cooke's hot grounder, tossed to Ayvazian and the latter whipped the ball over to Fischer to catch Cooke. The second double killing was started by Providence's fleet-footed captain, Johnny "Wink" Crowley, left fielder who raced in to short left, just reached Mendoza's Texas Leaguer and then threw to Fischer, who made a good play on the high throw.

Eddie Collins, Jr., scored Yale's only run in the sixth. He rapped a single to left, advanced on Mendoza's safety to left and scored on Kwasniewski's wild pitch.

Providence Nine Whips Yale By 5-1

Friars Impress With Classy,
Hustling Style; Bobinsky
And Banahan Play.

By FRANK KEYES

Providence college's bumper crop of diamond brilliants, currently pacing the eastern college baseball world, came to town yesterday and looked like a million dollars handing Yale a 5-1 beating on the Yale field lawn.

Sophomore Joe Kwasniewski, unbeaten New Milford, Conn., right-hander, put another notch on his pitching gun with a steady performance but missed a shutout when one bad pitch got away from Deuse with Eddie Collins on third in the sixth. Depending mainly on a good fast ball, the Friar chucker scattered nine Yale hits and had the home club hitting into the dirt all afternoon.

He was accorded major league support from the best infield to show here this spring. The quartet of Fischer, Ploski, Ayvazian and Moge played errorless ball and pulled off two of the neatest double-killings of the year. Particularly outstanding were Ayvazian and Ploski, the midway combination. These lads looked as sweet as honey on every ball hit in their direction.

While Providence played heads-up ball and impressed with their hustling, Yale did not do bad and a real close battle was prevented only by Al Stevens' two frame hurling chore. The Wallingford southpaw, succeeding Moe Jubitz in the third after the Eli ace chucked brilliantly in a two-round workout for Saturday, literally papered the house with free tickets. In between two strikeouts and an infield out he walked five in the fourth, forcing in a run after Billy Albinger wild-pegged one in with a throw to left field on a double steal.

Those two runs looked and were as big as a house the way Kwasniewski and his mates were stopping Yale bids but for safety's sake they put together two singles and a base on balls for a score off Crosby in the sixth and then bowed off the baseball stage with a pair in the ninth on three solid bingles.

Yale's one score was a gift but the happenings that provided the opportunity were not. Eddie Collins, rather buffaloed the rest of the afternoon by the Rhode Island flinger, singled sharply to left with one out and Mendoza banged one down the first base line after Doonan fanned. This sent Collins to third and then Kwasniewski uncorked the wild heave into the dirt and Collins cantered in. Holt, the batter, was whiffed ending the stanza.

The local talent in the visiting lineup had a tough day. Eddie Bobinski, former Hillhouse three-sport star, is leading the Friars in hitting but couldn't do any better than one ground drive to short and fanned three times. Eddie Banahan, ex Commercial baseball captain, got in the game as a replacement for Ploski at second but didn't have any chances.

Jubitz looked better than ever in his three-inning trick. Moe had excellent control and was really mixing 'em up. His fast one across the chest, low breaking curve and cross-fire had the Friars plenty loose and four went down swinging. One man got on base each frame but none got farther than second.

CROSS WHIPS FRIARS, 3-0

Cross Blanks Friars, 3-0, To Even Annual Series

"Lefty" Lefebvre, Pawtucket,
Hurls Three-Hit, 10 Strikeout Ball for Winners.

BY HERB MURRAY, JR.

Worcester, Mass., May 21.—Holy Cross upheld the tradition of the last eight annual Friar-Crusader home-and-home baseball series by defeating Providence College, 3-0, at Fitton Field today to gain an even division of the honors. Since 1930 the teams have divided their regularly-scheduled double-meeting, and the 3000 fans who sat in at today's encounter saw a fast and oftentimes exciting contest.

It took a Rhode Island boy, Wilfred "Lefty" Lefebvre of Pawtucket, at his best, to stop the Friars—and did he stop them! His "best" was a three-hit, 10-strikeout contribution. In most instances the Friars either whiffed at his curves or "golfed" them high into the air. It was the nearest thing to a hit-drought they have suffered this season. Only six Friars reached base.

Yet Casey Moher, conqueror of the Crusaders in Providence early in the month, allowed only six hits. Five bases on balls, three errors and inability to put over any strikeouts tell the story of his failure to repeat his first conquest.

Lefebvre enjoys the same status on the Holy Cross hurling staff as undefeated Joe Kwasniewski, Friar sophomore pitcher. The Pawtucket boy has won six, saved one in a relief role and is unbeaten. He has now hurled 53 innings, and allowed only four earned runs.

In the first three innings Lefebvre struck out half of the 10 men who faced him. Only Bill Moge hit safely, a single in the opening stanza. In the third Lefebvre mowed down each of the three players who came to bat, Deuse, Moher and Ayvazian. In six of the nine innings Providence was retired in order.

For five innings only 16 Friars managed to gain a turn at bat—that's one more than the minimum! In the sixth the Friars filled the bases with the aid of an intentional walk to Moge.

Game played:

May 21, 1938

With two away and Ayvazian on first on a fielder's choice whereby Moher, who had singled, was forced at second, Capt. Johnny Crowley lined a double into left centre. Then Moge's pass put three Friars aboard. It was Hal Martin's turn to bat but he had found Lefebvre completely baffling and had fanned twice.

Coach Arthur Quirk sent Bob "Red" Gendron, reserve outfielder, in as a pinch hitter for Martin. Lefebvre had two strikes on Gendron and then the batter proceeded to foul off five pitches and in between Lefebvre tossed three balls to manufacture the count of 3-2. Then Lefebvre curved a perfect strike over the plate and Gendron went down swinging.

Holy Cross went down in order in the first, second and eighth. Capt. Crowley raced into the sun to pull down Brucato's high lift for the third out in the first inning. He was the busiest outfielder of the game, with four putouts, all well handled.

In the third Ouellette walked and went to second when Moher tossed Tassinari's sacrifice roller into short centre, trying to force out Ouellette. Then Lefebvre laid down a sacrifice bunt toward third base, and Moher threw out Ouellette to Moge. Bracken's liner glanced off Moher's glove and went into centre field, Tassinari, off at the crack of the bat, scoring from second.

Duplessis drew a pass to fill the bases. It was a ticklish situation till Bill Moge stopped Brucato's "skipper" beside the third-base bag, touched the sack and doubled Brucato at first. In the fourth Blasser walked and trouble seemed imminent again, but the Ayvazian-Ploski-Fischer "patented" double play spiked that threat and, though Piurek singled to left, Crowley took Ouellette's lift to end the inning.

The second Holy Cross run came in the fifth. Tassinari reached on Ayvazian's high throw to first. Lefebvre forced Tassinari on a sacrifice roller to Moher. Bracken lifted to Martin, who made a fine catch almost at the right field bank. Then Duplessis lined a triple out to the football goal-posts in far centre to score Lefebvre.

In the seventh Tassinari gained a scratch hit when his roller to Moher proved too hard to handle. The Crusader left fielder advanced on Lefebvre's ground-out to Moge, and scored when Bracken lined a single to right. Following Duplessis's fly-out to centre, Brucato hit to left and the Friar captain made a fine attempt to catch Bracken at third, but Moge lost the ball in the dirt, Brucato getting a double. Blasser's pass filled the bases, but Elt Deuse, P. C. catcher made a fine catch of Joubert's high foul riser to leave the three Crusaders stranded.

Outside of Moge's single through Piurek in the first, Providence showed nothing till the sixth when Gendron went down with the bases loaded. Their next "life" came in the ninth when Duplessis made a wide throw on Crowley's grounder, but Lefebvre himself handled the next three Friar efforts for toss-outs to first and Crowley was left at third when the game ended.

Friars Top Eagles, 12-3; Score Seven in Seventh

O'Hara Falls by Wayside in Big Inning; Moge Contributes Fielding Gem.

BY MICHAEL J. THOMAS

Providence College conquered another old rival at Hendricken Field yesterday, defeating Boston College, 12 to 3, in one of the most one-sided battles of the 17-year-old series.

Competition was close enough for five innings, the score being deadlocked at one-all, but the tide of battle turned entirely into Providence's favor thereafter.

The Friars, who had taken a 3 to 1 advantage in the sixth, definitely clinched the verdict with a seven-run drive in the seventh, when three Eagles' pitchers paraded to the mound.

It was a pitchers' duel between southpaws Charley O'Hara and Anthony Scavatto for five innings, but the six feet, four, Boston twirler weakened in the sixth and he finally was batted out of the box in the next inning after the Friars had scored three runs with none out.

His successors, Sig Somy, Walter LePeisha and George Fallon, were even wilder and easier to hit than he had been. Five of the 10 hits by the Friars were collected off O'Hara, but it wasn't until the sixth that they got two in one inning. Capt. John (Wink) Crowley's single in the first was the only hit the Friars had made up to the sixth.

Sophomore Scavatto hurled a steady game while the Friars scored their 10th victory in 13 starts. He was in serious trouble in only one inning, and limited the Eagles to six hits, three of which were made by John Gavin, who banged out two doubles and a single in four attempts.

His only bad inning was the eighth when the Eagles hammered him for two doubles and a triple for two runs, but two were out when the Boston bats began to click, and he had the stuff when the situation became a little serious.

A bare-handed catch by Third Baseman, Bill Moge of a wild throw by Scavatto, eventually leading into a double play, proved helpful to the Friars in the second inning and was the game's outstanding play afield.

Jack Horne, first up, reached first on Leo Ploski's error, and Gavin singled. Jim Goode bunted to Scavotto, who made a hurried throw to third base. The peg was at least three feet wide of the bag, but Moge caught the ball to force out Horne. Seeing Moge's attention directed toward home plate, Gavin tried to steal third, but Moge, turning around in the nick of time, tagged the Eagle three feet from the bag for a double killing. Moge's spectacular catch prevented at least two runs.

The Eagles got the jump with a run in the first inning when a single by Horne, Gavin's double and Palumbo's fly to centre field gave them their tally. Providence placed men on base in the first two innings, but it wasn't until the third that they reached level terms.

Walks to Johnny Ayvazian and Crowley, Moge's fielder's choice and Leo Ploski's fly to centre gave P.C. an equalizing run.

Crossing up the Eagles' board of strategy in the sixth with a single that knocked in two runs, Scavatto gave the Friars the lead for the first time, 3 to 1. The first two Friars were out in this inning, but Leo Fischer doubled. The Eagles then purposely walked Elt Deuse to get Scavatto, who had fanned twice, but with two strikes on him, the Providence pitcher singled to centre, scoring both runners, who had previously advanced a base on a wild pitch.

O'Hara never recovered from this break, which marked the game's turning point. Eleven Friars batted in the seventh inning, and they combined a double and four singles with two walks and two errors for seven runs.

Gavin's second double, another two-bagger by Palumbo and a triple by Burns gave the Eagles two runs in the eighth, but the Friars got these tallies back in their half of the inning on Harold Martin's double, Deuse's single, three walks and a fielder's choice. The Friars had three on base when Ayvazian was forced out at second on Crowley's grounder to Shortstop Paul Sharkey.

EAGLES ARE SLUGGED BY FRIARS, 12-3

Land on Three B. C.
Pitchers in 7th
for 7 Runs

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 28—
A wild seventh inning in which Providence College landed on three Boston College pitchers for seven runs broke up an otherwise tight baseball game here today and gave the Friars a 12 to 3 victory over the Eagles.

The Friars began to warm up to the slugfest in the sixth when they snapped a 1 to 1 tie by pushing over two runs on a walk, Fischer's double and Scavotto's single.

Then came the deluge. With one down, Moge walked and Martin reached first when the Eagles did an Alphonse and Gaston act to let his high fly drop safely into short centre. Polski smashed a double to right, scoring Moge and sending Charlie O'Hara to the showers. Bobinski greeted Somey's appearance on the mound with a single to score Martin and Ploski, took second on Horne's fumble, stole third and went home when Somey threw wild trying to catch him at third. Deuse walked, Scavotto was safe on a juggled rap to short and Ayvasian singled, scoring Deuse and knocking Somey out of the game. Ayvasian went to second on a passed ball and Crowley landed on La Persha, the Eagles' third pitcher, to send Brochu, running for Scavotto, and Ayvasian across the plate. Moge hit to Sharkey to end the slaughter.

The Eagles came back in the eighth to bunch three of the six hits they made off Scavotto during the game and tally two runs. Gavin and Palumbo doubled and Burns tripled but Byrne fled to right to stop the rally.

Fallon took the mound for the Eagles in the eighth and the Friars added two more counters on two walks, Martin's double and Deuse's single.

The Eagles drew first blood in the opening inning when Horne singled, Gavin doubled and Palumbo knocked a high fly to centre to score Horne. The Friars tied it up in the third without a hit, two walks, a fielder's choice and a fly producing a tally.

Completing Double Play For State

Captain "Wink" Crowley of Friars out at the plate on Martin's fly to La Castro, left fielder, in seventh inning of yesterday's game at Hendricken Field. Crowley tried to score from third after the catch but La Castro's throw to Pace, R. I. catcher, was good.. The Friars won, 14 to 6.

FRIARS CONQUER RAMS, 14 TO 6, IN LOOSE TILT

Kwasniewski Outhur's Hines;
P. C. Freshmen Win
by 1-0 Margin.

BY MICHAEL J. THOMAS

Providence College proved beyond all doubt its right to the State college baseball championship when it conquered Rhode Island State, 14 to 6, before 2500 at Hendricken Field yesterday.

The victory gave the Friars, who had clinched the title before yesterday's battle, an unblemished record in the title series and a season's record of 11 victories in 14 starts.

Their play afield wasn't up to par, but they packed a batting punch, nicking George Hines for 13 hits, two of which were three-run homers over the right field fence by Harold Martin and Elt Deuse. The latter also banged a double and Johnny Ayvazian hit a triple.

The Rams collected 12 hits off Joe Kwasniewski, more than any other team has made off him this season, but the unbeaten Friar sophomore ace had the situation pretty well in hand after a rocky start.

In beating the Rams a second time, Kwasniewski ended his first varsity campaign with six victories.

The game had many rough spots from the technical viewpoint, but it also had its bits of action—real action that included a fist fight between Bill Moge of the Friars and Bob Albanese, that nearly developed into a free-for-all, and a bitter protest by the Rams over Deuse's home run clout, which they maintained sailed in foul territory.

The Freshman game, first of the twin-bill and won by Providence College, 1 to 0, was better played. This contest developed into a pitchers' duel between Ambrose Reynolds and Warner Keaney, each allowing six hits. Bud Clarkin's single with two out in the seventh, scoring Lee, who had singled and reached second on Conley's wild throw, gave Providence the deciding run.

Game played:

Kwasniewski was in more trouble in the first than he had been in any previous inning this season. Three of the first four batters reached first, and with the sacks loaded, he uncorked a wild pitch that enabled Don Graham, who had singled, to score. He fanned the next two, however.

Providence got that run back and another its first time up. Two of the first three batters, Ayvazian and Moge, walked. Harold Martin hit a grounder to Shortstop Irving Fay, who threw to Third Baseman Albert Reinhalter in an effort to force out Ayvazian. But Reinhalter missed the ball and Ayvazian raced home. Moge scored soon after, when Chet Jaworski erred on Ed Bobinski's grounder between first and second.

The Rams scored another run in the second to tie the score at two-all on John LaCastro's double, a wild pitch and Hines' single, but they became three down when Providence tallied four runs in its half.

Another error by Reinhalter on Deuse's grounder paved the way for the Friar run parade. Kwasniewski followed with a single and Ayvazian advanced both with a sacrifice. Deuse came home on a passed ball. Moge was hit by a pitched ball and Martin then lined a drive over the fence for a homer, scoring Kwasniewski and Moge ahead of him.

State counted again in the third on Reinhalter's double, Fay's grounder and Hollingsworth's single, but the Friars came back with two more in the same inning on Deuse's double, Ayvazian's triple and Fay's error.

There was plenty of scoring thereafter by both teams. The Friars tallied three in the seventh and three in the eighth, with Deuse's circuit drive featuring the latter heat. The Rams also scored three runs in the seventh frame but they did no good in the face of the Friar fusillade.

New Friar Baseball Leader in Action

Big Elt Deuse, junior from Fall River, has been elected captain of the 1939 Providence College baseball nine. The new Friar leader, who batted .333 as regular catcher the past season, is shown here going after a foul fly.

Elt Deuse Elected Captain Of Friars' Baseball Team

Fall River Senior Batted .333

as Catcher; Prepared at Durfee High.

BY HERB MURRAY, JR.

It will be Capt. Elt Deuse when the Providence College baseball team opens activities next season.

The Fall River catcher and junior, a popular man in his home city and on the Friar campus, was elected to lead the 1939 P. C. team by lettermen last week and yesterday was approved by the faculty athletic council.

His full name is Joseph Elton Deuse but all six feet, four inches of him insists that we call him Elt Deuse in baseball matters. He usually dwarfs both batter and umpire at the plate. Despite the fact that pitchers have more leeway with a batter of his height he turned in a .333 average the past season.

He worked in 13 full games for the Friars during the campaign recently completed and part of the Bates contest which the Friars won, 16-3. Much of the success of the team depended upon him and he came through with the necessary heads-up play. His fielding average was .945. Time and again he cut off attempted steals with rifle pegs that beat the runner by the oft-mentioned "mile."

During the rest of the baseball season the new Friar captain plans to play with Sherbrooke in a Canadian amateur league. He was with the Burlington Cardinals of Vermont in the Northern League last year and was selected along with Mike Garbark of Villanova on several all-star teams named by newsmen.

Deuse made his first impression in the sport world when he was an athlete at Durfee high in Fall River. During the vacation periods he played amateur league ball there and showed all the promise of becoming a first class catcher. He has shown improvement with every season at Providence College and appears headed for a career in his favorite sport.

Success of Friars Recalls Fine Nines of Other Years

Feats of Kwasniewski Stand
Out as Quirk's Charges
Win 11 of 14 Games.

By HERB MURRAY, JR.

Memories of former baseball seasons, when the Friar nine proudly claimed the mythical New England collegiate baseball crown among non-league teams, were brought back to Providence College followers on Memorial Day when the Friars turned back R. I. State, 14 to 6, and wrote into the records a list of 11 victories in 14 games.

Providence won the State and City collegiate crowns with straight victories over R. I. State and Brown in home and home games.

The Friars are not claiming any New England record this year but once again they are proud of their work. In 11 games with New England rivals they have defeated nine of them and bowed to two. Victories have been registered over Holy Cross, R. I. State twice, Brown twice, Yale, Boston College, New Hampshire and Bates while losses have been suffered at the hands of Dartmouth, 10-8, and Holy Cross, 3-0.

A Providence College team that boasted senior material in six positions, junior material in one and strong sophomore material in the others, came through close to form and that is more than recent P. C. teams have been able to do. We're not censuring past teams, just singing the praises of the 1938 aggregation.

At the start of the season the Providence team faced a schedule of 18 games. Rain forced cancellation of four contests, two with Villanova, one with Lowell Textile and one with Boston College.

One of the outstanding developments of the season was the undefeated string turned in by Pitcher Joe Kwasniewski, New Milford, Conn., sophomore, who won all six of the games he started. In 54 innings he allowed 43 hits, effected 26 strikeouts, walked 15, had three wild pitches and hit three.

Another feature was the vast improvement of Leo Ploski, Albany, N. Y., senior, who was moved from shortstop to second base. Ploski topped the 14-game performers with a batting average of .346 and had a better fielding average than many expected, a figure of .900. His form a year ago indicated no such result.

Ed Bobinski, centre fielder, was another player who had his best season for the Friars in his final college year. He compiled a batting average of .340 and had only one error in 28 chances. Ranking close to the above two for improvement was Elt Deuse, regular catcher. Deuse turned in an average at bat of .333 and a much improved fielding figure of .945. He was a junior this year and should be at his collegiate peak a year hence.

Providence had six players with better than .300 averages and the regular pitcher also topped the .300 mark. Ranking next to Kwasniewski was Anthony Scavotto, Thompsonville, Conn., sophomore, who won three games and turned in a capable relief stint against Holy Cross. These two Connecticut boys, juniors next year, will be the backbone of the Friar pitching staff and it looks as if another Nutmegger, Ambie Reynolds of the Friar Freshmen will be up with the leaders in 1939.

The regulars who will be missing from the Friar squad another campaign are: Leo Ploski, Ed Bobinski, Leo Fischer, Bill Moge, Capt. Johnny Crowley, Casey Moher and Paul Ryan. That means replacements must be found for first, second and third base, left and centre field. Off-hand we'd say that Noel Doyle will be ready to take over first base, Jim Begley, second base; Don Brochu, third; Bob Gendron either left or centre and Fred Domke, Johnny Werbiicki or Jim Pettine, the other outfield post. The latter three were members of the Freshman team this season.

Congratulations are due Coach Arthur Quirk for the way he handled his players this season. He stepped into his post with a big question mark staring him in the face. We believe he turned that question mark into an exclamation point—following an expression similar to "Well done!"

Fischer Joins Newark Today; Bobinski Is Going to Brooklyn

Leo Fischer of Springfield, Ohio, Providence College first baseman for the past two seasons, will report to the Newark Bears, New York Yankee farm team today. Fischer was in New York a few days ago for a conference with Paul Critchell, Yankees' scout and other Yankee officials.

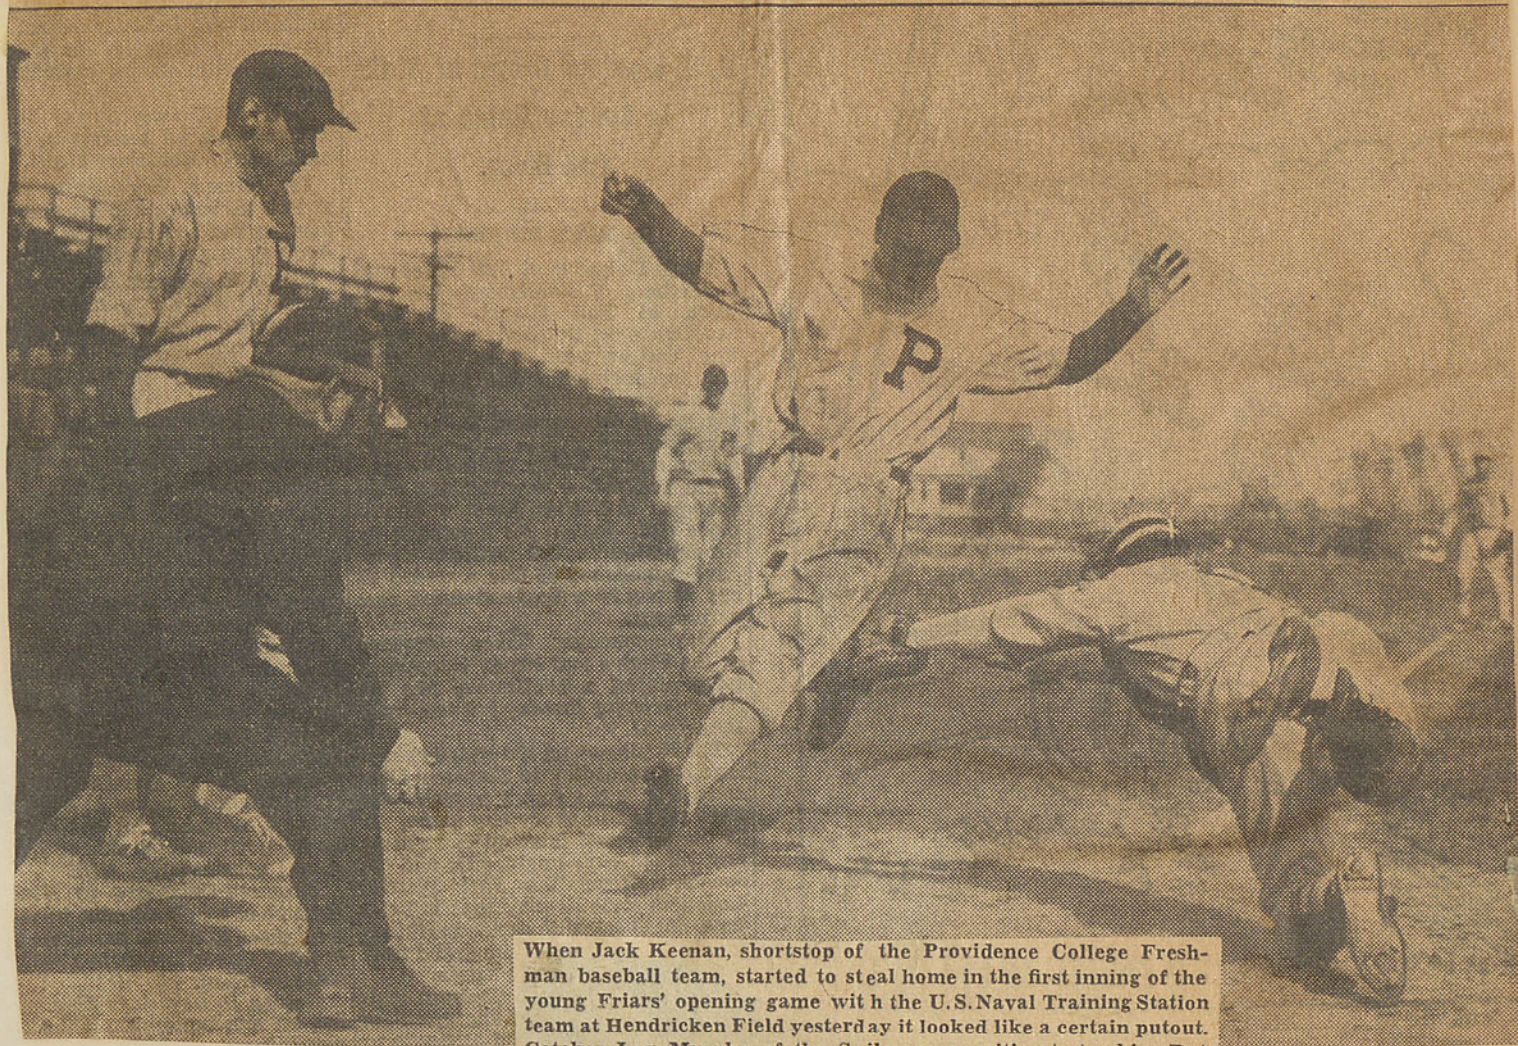

Fischer revealed yesterday that the Yankees' terms are suitable to him and that he will sign a contract with them if he makes the grade. He has been regular first sacker for two years and alternated in that position in his sophomore year. He stands five feet 10 inches, and weighs 175 pounds.

Ed Bobinski, six-foot-three, 180-pounder from New Haven, has been requested to report to the Brooklyn Dodgers on Monday when they return to Ebbetts Field after a road trip. Bobinski had a fine year, compiling the second-best batting average on the team, .340. He was a regular for two seasons also.

Several of the Providence College graduates will go into league ball farther down the scale. Capt. Johnny Crowley of Lonsdale, one of the best fielding left garden performers in Friar sport history, and Elt Deuse, first-string catcher from Fall River, expect to play for the Sherbrooke team in Canada.

This Play Brought Coach Huggins From the Bench

When Jack Keenan, shortstop of the Providence College Freshman baseball team, started to steal home in the first inning of the young Friars' opening game with the U.S. Naval Training Station team at Hendricken Field yesterday it looked like a certain putout. Catcher Lou Murphy of the Sailors was waiting to tag him. But Keenan slipped past the lunging Murphy and both fell to the ground. In the scramble around the base Umpire Pearce ruled that Keenan touched home plate before Murphy regained his bearings and tagged the P. C. shortstop. Coach Huggins protested in vain. The Freshmen won, 11-0. Steve "Lefty" Fallon is the player at left.

P. C. Freshmen Whip Sailors As Reynolds Hurls 1-Hitter

11-0 Defeat Is First of Year
for Naval Training Station;
Keenan Gets Five Hits.

Ambrose Reynolds, slim West Haven, Conn., giant, pitched a one-hitter yesterday and the Providence College freshmen garnered 11 hits from three U. S. Naval Training Station hurlers to defeat the Sailors, 11-0, at Hendricken Field. It was the first game of the season for the young Friars and the first defeat for the Station nine in four starts.

Murphy's clean single to left field was the only one Reynolds allowed the visitors. He issued only one base on balls and struck out 14 batsmen. The West Haven product did his share of the defensive work with three assists and one putout and at bat singled in three trips and scored one of the Friars runs.

* * *

That wasn't the only feature of the young Friars' opener. Jack Keenan of Stamford, Conn., came to bat five times, hit three singles, a triple and a home run.

Pitcher Impelleteri of the Naval Station team hit the first two batsmen to face him. Keenan's single scored Danahy, Clarkin tallied when Humphrey bobbled Keenan's hit and the latter stole third and then home on daring base running to put over three runs before the side was retired. Keenan's homer added another run in the third.

* * *

The Friars batted around in the fourth and made four runs on two singles, a double, two passes, a passed ball and an error. Walthers circled the bases in the fifth, reaching first after being hit, going to second as the next batter, Terrace, was passed; going to third on Impelleteri's balk and scoring on Murphy's error.

Game played: April 27, 1938

In the sixth Keenan tripled and came home after Catcher Murphy of the Sailor nine caught a foul fly over by the first-base players bench. Elt Deuse of the P. C. Varsity, coaching at third, instructed Keenan in this bit of strategy. Fallon singled, went to third on Terrace's single and scored on another Murphy error. That ended the scoring. Impelleteri went to the showers at the end of the fifth. Penny, who replaced him, lasted only 12-3 innings and Buchanan finished the game.

FALLON FALTERS, FRIAR FRESHMEN TRAIL EAGLE, 9-6

Seven Run Eighth Brings B. C.
Yearlings Victory on Home Diamond.

(Special to the Providence Journal)

Newton, Mass., May 2.—Steve Fallon, who had held his rivals to two singles and struck out an even dozen batsmen, suddenly lost control in the eighth inning and Boston College Freshmen tallied seven runs in that session to triumph, 9 to 6, over Providence College Yearlings today on University Heights diamond.

Fallon's mates had aided him to apparent victory by giving him two runs just before the big B. C. freshmen assault and the count was 6 to 2 when he faltered and went to the showers.

In that seventh, two passes, four safe-hits, a sacrifice and two errors were enough to throw the visitors out of balance and the B. C. 9-6 lead was retained to the end.

For Boston College, Bill Dowd had two bad innings, the first and the eighth, but otherwise hurled steady ball. He struck out four batters, allowed six hits and did not pass a single batsman, while four B. C. errors aided in the Providence freshmen scoring.

Reynolds, who hurled the ninth inning, did not allow a hit in that session, Danahy and Werbecki each made two safe hits to feature the Providence freshmen scoring, while Lou Montgomery, football star from Brockton, made a triple and two singles. His three base blow was the only extra base hit of the game. It was the fourth straight win for the undefeated Eagles.

RAMLETS ANNEX FIFTH STRAIGHT

Keaney holds Friar Freshmen to Three Hits, Wins
by 3-1 Margin.

Paced by the three-hit pitching of Warner Keaney, the Rhode Island State College freshman baseball team won its fifth straight game yesterday at Kingston, defeating Providence College yearlings by a 3-1 count.

The Friars opened the scoring in the first inning, on hits by Keenan and Domke, but the Ramlets came back in their half to make it 1-all, as Conley walked, took second on McNamara's infield out, advanced to third on Fay's hit to short and scored on Keaney's grounder to Werbecki.

In the second inning, Cranston doubled to left and crossed when DeCesare followed with a single to right. Final State marker came in the sixth. Keaney singled and stole second, scoring on Zammarchi's safety to centre.

The Ramlets found Morris for seven hits and worked him for two passes. The Friars flied out six, with Keaney striking out eight and walking none.

FRIAR YEARLINGS NIP ST. JOHN'S PREP

The Providence College Freshman baseball team made 13 hits off the delivery of Pitcher Bresnahan of St. John's Prep at Hendricken Field yesterday morning, defeating the Saints, 11 to 4, in a seven-inning game. The contest was shortened by mutual agreement of the coaches.

John Doyle, who started for the Freshmen, allowed two hits and walked three players in the first inning and was replaced by Ambie Reynolds in the second inning with one out. Reynolds gave up seven hits, but Bresnahan weakened as he went along and the young Friars began to get to him for run-making blows.

Reynolds held the visitors scoreless for four innings. Meanwhile, the P. C. yearlings scored twice in the fourth to gain a 4-4 tie and then put over two runs in the fifth and five in the sixth for a one-sided victory. Reynolds, with a triple and double in three times at bat, was the outstanding batter for the Freshmen. Nahigian and Clancy made the Saints' extra-base hits.

EAGLETS RALLY AND WIN 9 TO 6

Score Second Victory Over
P. C. Freshmen By Late
Inning Splurge.

The Boston College Freshman baseball team came from behind in the second game of its home and home series with the Providence College Freshmen yesterday afternoon at Hendricken Field to stage a six-run ninth-inning rally and defeat the young Friars, 9-6. A week ago they rallied in the eighth inning to gain a 9-6 decision over the P. C. Freshmen at Newton.

The Providence Freshmen took a 5-3 lead in the first five innings, and then the teams went scoreless until the ninth. Then two walks, two singles, an error and a home run produced six runs for the Eaglets, Sawyer clouting the four-bagger to left field with two aboard. Providence scored one run in the ninth, but the rally died an early death.

FRIAR FRESHMEN BEAT BEARS, 7-5

Morris Allows Only Three Hits,
but Errors Keep Brown
Cubs in Game.

The Providence College Freshman baseball team gained a .500 average in the intrastate Freshman championship series by defeating the Brown Freshmen, 7-5, with a late rally that wiped out a 5-0 deficit at Hendricken Field yesterday afternoon. Walter Morris, former all-State pitcher at Cranston high school, allowed the Brown yearlings only three hits but seven errors by the P. C. Freshman players helped in giving the Bruin Cubs a 5-0 lead at the end of the fifth inning.

Then in the last four innings Morris began to hit his stride and the Brown Freshmen were retired in order in each of these frames. In the last three innings Morris struck out six, fanning three in a row in the seventh. In their sessions of the last three full innings the Providence Freshmen scored three in the sixth, three more in the seventh and one in the eighth.

Singles by Clarkin, Werbicki, Domke and Walthers and an error provided the Friar Freshmen with three runs in the sixth. Two walks, singles by Bielan and Domke and another error produced the three Friar runs in the seventh. In the eighth Pettine singled, stole second and scored when Catcher Berger threw wildly to Buck, Brown first baseman, after dropping the third strike with Whalen at bat.

Brown opened its scoring in the first inning when Wilson singled and scored on Marsolini's double, only extra-base hit of the game. In the third two errors, a walk and an infield out gave the Bruin Cubs their second tally. Three errors and a fly-out to right field added two more for the visitors in the fourth. Stepczyk singled to left in the fifth and continued home when Domke misplayed the ball, allowing it to roll through the left field gate.

One of Eight Useful Runs for Brown Cubs

Brown's Freshmen needed all the runs they could get yesterday against the Providence College Freshmen at Aldrich Field and they went right out in the first inning to get their initial score. Here's Wilson, Brown right fielder, crossing the plate, with the first Cub tally on Buck's fielder's choice. Catcher Whalen of the Friar Frosh is waiting for the throw that came too late. That's Pitcher Doyle of the Friars on the right. The Brown yearlings won, 8-6.

TRIP FRIARS, 8-6

Loose Play in Eighth Inning
Leads to Providence College
Yearlings' Defeat.

The Brown Freshman baseball team squared its two-game series with the Providence College Freshmen yesterday at Aldrich Field, defeating the young Friars, 8-6. Earlier in the season the Providence Freshmen won a 7-5 decision from the young Bruins.

With the score tied at 6-6 going into Brown's half of the eighth inning, loose play on the part of the Friars caused their downfall. With one out, Sheehan of Brown cracked what appeared to be a single to right, but the ball skimmed past Walthers and Sheehan went around to third for one of the two triples of the contest. Marsolini walked and went down to second on the next pitch, no play being made. Buck struck out, but started for first in a smart move.

Catcher Whalen pegged to Werbicki, retiring Buck, but Werbicki's return throw to Whalen in an effort to nab Sheehan was wild and both Sheehan and Marsolini scored on the play.

Charles Doyle started for the Friars and lasted 3 2-3 innings, giving eight hits. Steve "Lefty" Fallon finished the game, allowing four hits. Both pitchers were in difficulty because of the uncertain support back of them. Walter Juszcyk went the distance for Brown.

On Memorial Day, 1938, the Providence College baseball teams..freshman and Varsity -- played a double header at Hendricken Field, with the Freshman and Varsity teams of Rhode Island State College.

The Freshman game, first of the twin-bill and won by Providence College, 1 to 0, was better played. This contest developed into a pitchers' duel between Ambrose Reynolds and Warner Keaney, each allowing six hits. Bud Clarkin's single with two out in the seventh, scoring Lee, who had singled and reached second on Conley's wild throw, gave Providence the deciding run.
