

SCRAP BOOK

Basketball - 1930 - 31

Unless otherwise indicated
Clippings are from the Providence JOURNAL-BULLETIN

CAPTAINS AND FORWARDS

Johnny Krieger, right, and Bill McCue, co-captains and co-forwards, will lead the Dominicans in their bid for basketball honors this winter.

DOMINICAN BASKETBALL SQUAD OPENS SCHEDULE NEXT WEEK

Team to Make Strong Bid for Court Title Honors

Providence College, claimant of the college basketball title of New England for the past two seasons with its record of losing but three games in two years of competition with teams of this section of the country, will make another bid for eastern honors in this sport during the coming winter. Indications point to a powerful quintet in the Black and White colors.

An attractive 19-game schedule will feature tilts with Dartmouth, Yale, St. John's, Holy Cross, C. C. N. Y., New Hampshire and Brown, has been drawn for the Varsity outfit under co-captains Johnny Krieger and Bill McCue.

Only three newcomers have been added to the schedule, being the Naval Training Station quintet from Newport which plays here a week from Saturday night, the Columbus Club of Brooklyn, composed of the leading college stars of the metropolitan area, and Muhlenberg College. The baseball team of the latter college paid a visit to this city last spring and gave the Friars a busy afternoon, and as they are reputed to be as strong on the court the Smith Hillers will have their work cut out to collect the decision when they visit Allentown.

The record of the locals in losing but seven games in two years of court competition, and four of that number to teams outside of New England, including a tilt to the Army, is one of the finest compiled by a small college team. Last winter the Dominicans came through a 19-game list with but four defeats, and although Larry Wheeler and Stan Szydla were lost last June by graduation, an equally impressive record is anticipated during the coming months.

Coach McClellan has six lettermen as a nucleus for his Varsity squad this season, including the forward team of Krieger and McCue, one of the finest in college ranks. Krieger has been picked on the All New England court team for the past two years, and last winter was named on the mythical All-American team in addition. He has been one of the highest scorers in the East for two seasons.

In the backcourt, Chick Gainor, who still holds the amateur welterweight boxing title of this State, and who has been a regular for the past two campaigns, is ready to pair with either George Cody of Woonsocket, or Franny Dromgoole of Mount Pleasant, both of whom won varsity insignia for their court efforts last winter. Dromgoole served as a substitute centre a year ago, but is being switched to a guard berth for the coming campaign. Welch, who finished last season as a guard, will be used as a relief forward.

Centre, vacated by Larry Wheeler of Newport, is being sought by a trio of newcomers, all of whom promise to wage a keen battle for the assignment. Ed Koslowski, six-foot 190-pound husky from Bridgeport, appears to have the edge on the field for the post at the present time, but Dick Brachen, former Portchester High captain, and Oliver Roberge, all-State selection from Mt. St. Charles, plan to enter strong claims for the work before the season is very old.

The Friars are slated to stage the annual demonstration tilt at the High School gym on Pond street Friday night, and after the usual program is completed during which an interpretation of the rules will be given, two teams will engage in a brisk scrimmage. Followers of the Dominicans' court activities are planning to attend the affair to get a glimpse of McClellan's latest machine.

In addition to the varsity list, a schedule of games is being completed for the Freshman team which will be the first organized court team to represent the Friar yearlings. This schedule will be announced in the near future, and will include tilts with the Brown and Holy Cross Freshman fives as the feature games.

The complete varsity schedule (games at home unless specified otherwise) is as follows:

December 10, Dartmouth at Hanover, N. H.; 13, Naval Training Station; 16, Yale at New Haven, Conn.; 19, St. John's College at Brooklyn, N. Y.; 20, Seton Hall College at Newark, N. J.; January 10, Holy Cross at Worcester; 17, Coast Guard Academy; 24, Northeastern University at Boston; February 4, Springfield College at Springfield; 7, C. C. N. Y. at New York City; 12, Columbus Club at Brooklyn, N. Y.; 13, Muhlenberg College at Allentown, Pa.; 14, Upsala College at East Orange, N. J.; 17, New Hampshire at Durham, N. H.; 21, Holy Cross; 23, Worcester Polytech at Worcester; 26, Seton Hall College at Providence; March 4, Brown at Brown Gym; 6, Lowell Textile.

FRIARS TO PLAY 19 BASKETBALL GAMES

Providence College List Includes Such Opponents as Yale, Brown, Holy Cross and Dartmouth

With everything pointing to another successful campaign, Coach Al McClellan and his Providence College basketballers are stepping along at a fast pace in preparation for their coming season, during which they will play 19 games, according to the schedule released today.

Many of the East's outstanding court aggregation, including Dartmouth, Yale, Holy Cross, Brown, New York city college and St. John's, are on the Friar list this year. The Dominicans start their campaign with Dartmouth on Wednesday, Dec. 10 when they will travel to Hanover, N. H., to meet the big Green outfit on its home court.

The Friars have five home games on their list with 13 contests slated to be played out of town. Their all-important clash with Brown for the city championship will be staged at the Brown gymnasium March 4. This contest is the next to the last on the Dominican schedule, which ends with a tilt against Lowell Tech here March 7.

Besides Lowell Tech other home opponents for the Friars are Holy Cross, Seton Hall, the Naval Training Station quintet and the Coast Guard Academy five. Local fans will have their first opportunity of seeing the Friars perform on Dec. 13 when the Training Station team will provide the opposition. The Coast Guard Academy comes here on Jan. 17.

HOLY CROSS HERE

Home and away games have been arranged with Seton Hall and Holy Cross. The Dominicans will travel to Orange, N. J., on Dec. 20 for the first Seton Hall game with the New Jersey collegians repaying the favor by coming here Feb. 26. The first Holy Cross tussle will be played in Worcester Jan. 10 and on Feb. 21 the Purple outfit will meet the Friars in for Providence College home games to be played at La Salle Academy gymnasium, but in the event of any of the Friar dates conflicting with the La Salle schedule the contest will be moved to Infantry Hall or the Cranston Street Armory.

Under McClellan's able tutelage the Dominican outfit is coming along in great shape. The present squad numbers 33 players with a substantial increase in prospect next week when the end of the football season will allow gridders, who also have court ambitions, to turn their attention to the hoop sport.

Present indications are that Chick Galnor, veteran guard, will be shifted to the centre berth on the first team to fill the post left vacant by the graduation of Larry Wheeler. Co-Captains Johnny Krieger and Bill McCue are rated as certain to retain their forward positions. Franny Dromgoole of this city and George Cody of Woonsocket are out in front in the struggle for the guard assignments.

THE SCHEDULE

- Dec. 10 — Dartmouth College at Hanover, N. H.
- Dec. 13—Naval Training Station at Providence.
- Dec. 16—Yale University at New Haven.
- Dec. 19—St. John's College at Brooklyn.
- Dec. 20—Seton Hall College at South Orange, N. J.
- Jan. 10—Holy Cross at Worcester.
- Jan. 17—Coast Guard Academy at Providence.
- Jan. 24—Northeastern University at Boston.
- Feb. 4—Springfield College at Springfield, Mass.
- Feb. 7—City College at New York city.
- Feb. 12—K. of C. Club at Brooklyn, N. Y.
- Feb. 13—Muhlenberg College at Allentown, Penn.
- Feb. 14—Upsala College at East Orange, N. J.
- Feb. 17—University of New Hampshire at Durham, N. H.
- Feb. 21—Holy Cross at Providence.
- Feb. 23—Worcester Poly Tech at Worcester.
- Feb. 26—Seton Hall College at Providence.
- March 4—Brown at Brown gymnasium.
- March 7—Lowell Textile at Providence.

FRIARS TO START BASKETBALL DRILLS

Coach McClellan Will Meet Candidates Today for Dominican Quintet.

Basketball practice will be inaugurated at Providence College this afternoon when Coach Albert McClellan, reappointed to serve his fourth season at the helm of the Friar court activities, issues the initial call for candidates. The daily practice drills will be held at the La Salle Academy gymnasium as in the past, and as the opening game is listed for Dec. 10, the Dominicans will have four weeks in which to prepare for a busy season.

In addition to the star forwards and co-captains, Bill McCue and Johnny Krieger, Coach McClellan will have four other lettermen on the roster when the first drill is held today. Chick Gainor, George Cody, guards; Franny Dromgoole, centre, and Jimmie Welch, forward, are the other Varsity insignia wearers from last year's squad ready for further competition. Only two men were lost from the 1929 team which won the New England championship, Szydla, guard, and Wheeler, centre.

With these players as a nucleus, and with many promising performers from the substitute ranks, and the Junior Varsity squad anxious to win regular berths, Coach McClellan looks forward to a successful campaign for his basketeaders. Members of last year's squad who will report for further service with the court team are Jim Burns and Emmet Shea, centres; Wright, Foster, Bleiler, Mosca and McCormac, forwards, and Derivan and Callahan, guards.

In addition to the Varsity team a Freshman team will be organized this winter, and will replace the Junior Varsity aggregation which competed last year. As the Freshman class numbers some well known former scholastic stars, notably Oliver Roberge, all-State centre from Mount St. Charles; Corbett of Somerville; Wright of Augustinian Academy in Staten Island, and Burdge of Warren, the Friars should be represented by a strong yearling quintet.

This year, McClellan's fourth at the helm of the Smith Hillers basketball activities, will mark the final season of competition for McCue and Krieger, star forwards from Paterson. Krieger, selected all-New England forward for the past two years, and named on the second all-American quintet last winter, has been one of the highest scorers in the East, and will be counted upon to help lead the locals through another championship campaign.

31 FRIARS DRILL FOR BASKETBALL

The basketball squad at Providence College was increased to 31 candidates yesterday as Coach McClellan started the second week of preparation for the opening game on Dec. 10. Among the latest recruits to report to the Friar court mentor were Jimmie Welch, letterman last winter, and Jim Burns, substitute centre from West Warwick.

A series of scrimmages between teams selected by the coach topped off a two-hour drill at the La Salle court yesterday afternoon, and gave the first inkling of the Dominicans' prospects for the coming campaign. The best work of the drill was turned in when the coach sent the veteran team of lettermen into action against a strong quintet of reserves, with the latter team more than holding its own with the insignia wearers.

Capt. Krieger and McCue teamed again at their usual berths at the forwards, while Chick Gainor, veteran guard, was shifted to centre to fill the gap caused by the loss of Larry Wheeler. In the back court George Cody, Woonsocket junior, and Franny Dromgoole, husky Mt. Pleasant Sophomore, handled the defensive assignments in fine style.

The opposition to this quintet was furnished by a speedy team comprised of Tom Wright, junior from Chicopee, and Jack McCormac, veteran from Webster, pairing at the guards; Ed Koslowski, Bridgeport husky, at centre, and Dick Brachen of Portchester, and Dale Worral of Attleboro at the forwards.

FRIARS WILL PLAY DARTMOUTH DEC. 10

With Six Veterans Available, Prospects Are Bright for Basketball Season.

With two weeks of Varsity basketball practice completed, Providence College looks forward to the coming winter season with an optimistic eye, for it is apparent that Coach Al McClellan has another aggregation of championship calibre in the making. The Friars have been considered as the outstanding court team of the New England colleges for the past two seasons, and will open their campaign for the title again when they meet Dartmouth at Hanover on Dec. 10.

Although two mainstays of last year's championship team, which lost but two games in New England, are missing, Coach McClellan is well fortified with performers to comprise a formidable team for the coming year. The gaps to be filled are those of centre and right guard, which were left vacant by the graduation last June of Larry Wheeler of Newport, and Stan Szydla of Ware.

Six lettermen head the veteran material anxious to form the first string array for the 1930 season, with Co-captains Johnny Krieger and Will McCue, star forwards, heading the group. The other insignia-wearers who have been working out every afternoon at the La Salle court are Jimmie Welch, forward, or guard, Franny Dromgoole, centre, Chick Gainor, guard, and George Cody, guard.

All these players have demonstrated in the scrimmage sessions that they are anxious to continue the fine record of the Dominican court teams. After but two weeks of pre-season drilling, Coach McClellan has stated that the squad is farther advanced than any he has ever handled at the Smith Hill college.

Newcomers who are forcing the seasoned performers to move at a lively clip are Ed Koslowski, who played for Samuel Johnson Academy as centre a year ago; Ed Reilly, fast-moving guard from Bridgeport; Dick Brachen, guard, former Port Chester high captain, and Oscar Perrin, Albany product, who aspires for service in the forward court.

With the close of football this week the hoop squad will be augmented by the addition of several more versatile athletes. In this group are Bleiler-Foster and Derivan, all members of the squad a year ago, and Roberge and Davis, all scholastic performers from this State. Both Roberge and Davis are more than six feet in height and will offer serious opposition for the centre assignment.

Crack Providence Quintet Likely To Beat Dartmouth

HANOVER, Dec. 9.—Facing a long and difficult schedule, the Dartmouth varsity basketball team tackles Providence College here tomorrow night in the opening game of the season. Providence, one of the strongest quintets in the East last year, and composed of veteran material, is favored to trounce the Indians.

Coach Dolly Stark is pessimistic concerning the outcome of the game, but in an effort to get his players into top form at the very beginning of the race he has put this outstanding game as first on the 1930-31 program. Syracuse, another powerful team, will come to Hanover on Saturday to play the Green five.

The line-up which will open the season tomorrow for Dartmouth is uncertain, but it is probable that Stark will send in Bill McCall and Bob Beisel at the forward positions, "Red" Burch at center, and Captain Gray Magee and Irv Kramer at guards. He will have as reserves the forwards Lauri Myllykangas and Jack Smart, Bill Britten at center, and Ed Picken and Bill Mack, guards.

A long scrimmage was held last night with the yearling squad, and the freshmen made up for their defeat of Saturday by triumphing 44-40 in a rough battle. The Indians will and shooting ability to come out on top of the game tomorrow.

With McCall and Beisel as forwards, Stark has a fast pair, but to date have not shown the necessary ability to score. Ben Burch at center is out of position as he is really a forward, and he will probably give way to Hal Mackey in the near future. Mackey, who was injured in football, made his first appearance on the court yesterday, but will probably not be in condition to play in a game for about a week. He was the star of the freshman team last year and should be an important cog in the varsity this winter.

Irv Kramer and Gray Magee, at the guard posts for the Green, make an admirable pair both in defensive ability and scoring power. At the present time their positions are probably the strongest on Stark's outfit.

It is expected that the Dartmouth quintet will not develop into its greatest power until sometime in January, when the Eastern league schedule begins. However, the playing of strong teams at the start of the season should aid the team in rounding into form quickly.

FRIAR BASKETERS MAKE STAY HERE

Al McClellan's Squad Works Out at Hilltop En Route to Hanover

(Special to The Leader.)

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 9.—The Providence college basketball team, ranked as the outstanding college cage outfit in New England for the past two years, and scheduled to open its defense of its hoop title in a game with Dartmouth at Hanover tomorrow night, will invade Manchester late this afternoon for a final drill. The Friars will stage their daily practice on the court at St. Anselm's, and will remain overnight in the Queen City.

Has Strong Team.

Two years ago, the last time a Providence quintet invaded Hanover, a 34 to 32 victory was collected by the locals over Dolly Stark's strong aggregation. The same season saw the Providence quintet topple Yale, St. John's, Springfield, Holy Cross, Brown and a host of others to claim the highest ranking in this part of the country, as well as a rating with the best college cage teams of the East.

This afternoon 10 Friar basket tossers, under the direction of Coach Albert McClellan, will take over the St. Anselm's court and put the final touches on their attack for tomorrow night. With four veterans available for service this winter the Rhode Islanders are confident of another successful campaign. Only three games have been lost to New England college fives by the Friars in two years of competition.

Krieger Star of Team.

One youngster who will undoubtedly be closely watched tomorrow night is Johnny Krieger, co-captain of the team with Bill McCue, classmate, both of whom work at the forward berths. Krieger is without question the outstanding college basket-tosser in New England at the present time. He has been picked as a forward on the mythical All-New England five for the past two years, was named on the second All-American quintet last season, and at the same time has been one of the highest scorers of the East. Krieger is a dead shot once within range of the basket, and undoubtedly will give the Big Green team plenty of trouble.

McCue, co-captain of the Friars, will again be at the right forward assignment. A fine floor worker, and a good shot he teams up well with Krieger. In the back court, Chick Gairnor, veteran guard, and amateur welterweight boxing champion of Rhode Island, will team with Dick Brachen, lanky Portchester, N. Y., product. Ed Koslowski, former Bridgeport star, will be at center.

The Friars plan to leave here shortly after noon, and will head directly for St. Anselm's for the practice session late in the afternoon. The return home will be made Thursday when the locals will resume their preparations for the contests with the Naval Station, Yale, St. John's, and Seton Hall, all of whom are to be played within one week.

Dartmouth Defeats Friar Five 33-25 in Second Half

Providence Starts with 15-6 Lead.—Koslowski Chased for Personal Foul.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

Hanover, Dec. 10. — The Dartmouth College basketball team opened its season auspiciously here tonight by defeating the Providence College five, 33 to 25, in a hard fought game. Both teams flashed a fine brand of the play for an opening clash, and during the first 20 minutes it was an even match, with Dartmouth pulling ahead to win in the second half.

Providence started off in whirlwind fashion and rolled up a 15 to 6 lead before receiving a setback which proved the turning point in the tilt, when Ed Koslowski, giant centre, was ruled out on personal fouls. Contact with his opponent in jumping in the centre circle resulted in the star pivot man being forced to the sidelines after but 12 minutes of play. Brachen switched to centre and Welch went in at guard.

Krieger opened the scoring of the evening with a long toss from close to mid floor and a moment later tallied on a shot under the hoop after taking a pass from McCue. The Dominicans rolled up nine points before Dartmouth collected its first field goal.

The moment Koslowski was retired, Picken opened the Indians' threat with a hawker from the side of the court, and Picken and Burch livened things by rimming the hoop after dribbling through. Eurch tied the score at 15 apiece on Gainor's second personal, and then gave the locals a two point lead when he converted after breaking through to receive an accurate pass from Picken.

This lead was increased to 11 points in the second half before the Friars broke into the scoring, with Kreiger dropping the leather through on Picken's fouls. The advantage was too much for the victors to overcome, however, and as a result the Indians were able to coast through to a decisive win.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE

	G.	F.	Pts.
Burch, r. f.	4	1	9
McCall, l. f.	2	2	6
Prince, c.	0	0	0
Mackey, c.	3	0	5
Britten, c.	0	1	1
Kramer, r. g.	1	3	5
Magee, l. s.	0	0	0
Picken, l. g.	2	2	6
Totals	12	9	33

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

	G.	F.	Pts.
McCue, r. f. c.	0	1	1
Krieger, l. f.	3	7	13
Koslowski, c.	1	1	3
Brachen, r. g. c.	3	1	7
Cody, r. g.	0	0	0
Gainor, l. s.	0	1	1
Welch, r. g.	0	0	0
Totals	7	11	25

Referee—E. L. Gature. Umpire—H. Ploss.
Time—20-minute periods.

Game played: December 10, 1930

PROVIDENCE BEATEN BY DARTMOUTH FIVE

1,500 See 33-25 Green Victory in Opening Contest for Both Teams.

Special to The New York Times.

HANOVER, N. H., Dec. 10.—A powerful Dartmouth attack, which made itself felt in the closing minutes of the first half and the opening part of the second period, swept a potentially strong Providence College quintet off its feet tonight, the Green winning, 33 to 25.

The contest was the opener of the season for both teams and nearly 1,500 spectators watched the Green's young team make an auspicious beginning.

The Rhode Island visitors took the lead at the start, and headed Dartmouth, 15 to 6, with a few minutes remaining in the first half. Baskets by Ben Burch, Ed Picken, Bill McCall and Hal Mackey changed the tide and Dartmouth went into a 17-16 lead at half time.

The Green resumed its fine play at the beginning of the second period and ran up an additional 10 points. A strong Dartmouth defense prevented Providence from scoring a field goal in the first eleven minutes of the period and the Friars threatened no more for the half.

Burch, Dartmouth's leading scorer in the Intercollegiate League last season, led the Green scoring with 9 points. Hal Mackey was brilliant at centre, being the important factor in the Green attack. Johnny Krieger led in the point getting for the visitors.

The line-up:

Dartmouth (33).		Providence (25).
	G. P. P.		G. P. P.
Burch, rf.....	4 1 9	McCue, rf.....	0 1 1
Beisel.....	0 0 0	Krieger, lf.....	3 7 13
McCall, lf.....	2 2 6	Koslowski.....	1 1 3
Mylykangas.....	0 0 0	Welch.....	0 0 0
Prince, c.....	0 1 1	Brachen, rg, c.....	3 1 7
Mackey.....	3 0 6	Cody, rg.....	0 0 0
Magee, rg.....	0 0 0	Gainor, lg.....	0 1 1
Picken.....	2 2 6	McCormac.....	0 0 0
Kramer, lg.....	1 2 4
Britten.....	0 1 1	Total.....	7 11 25
Smart.....	0 0 0
Frigard.....	0 0 0
Total.....	12 9 33

Friar Team In

Prov. News

Impressive Victory

DOMINICANS
GET 80-16
HOOP WIN

Koslowski, Kreiger Star as P. C. Swamps Training Station

The Providence College varsity basketball team swamped the Naval Training Station quintet 80 to 16 in a one-sided but impressive victory in the first home game of the season at LaSalle gym last night.

The McClellan coached team so far outshadowed the Tars that they scored at will, the Sailors putting up a semblance of defence only in the first half of the game. Under the driving influence of the co-captains, Johnny Kreiger and Bill McCue, the first string Friar quintet gave a fine demonstration of teamwork, the offensive and defensive play of the team showing that the Dominican color bearers will be among the leaders in this year's struggle for Eastern intercollegiate honors.

The Tars took the lead on the opening play when Pilon, right forward of the Sailors, tallied with the first basket. Bracken, right guard of the Friars, followed with a pretty shot off-balance to knot the score. On a pass McCue to Kreiger to Koslowski, the tall Dominican centre, bracketed his initial basket and started on the drive that was to enable him to tally 24 of the 80 points. Chick Gainor showed clever work in this half with his shots from difficult angles and his fine teamwork.

Game played: December 13, 1930

With the score 29 to 8 at the opening of the second half Coach McClellan again sent in his opening line-up and here the navy men seemed to be all at sea, their defence going to smash under the powerful offensive of the Friars. When a commanding lead showed the Friars leading with over 60 points Coach McClellan sent in his substitute material and they continued the scoring.

Palin, Sivco and Conlon showed up as the best hoopsters on the Navy quintet, with "Tiny" Angelino furnishing the comedy of the fray.

Score:

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

	G.	F.	Pts.
Kreiger, lf.	9	5	23
Welch, lf.	0	0	0
McCue, rf.	1	0	2
McCormick, rf.	0	0	0
Koslowski, c.	11	2	24
Dromgoole, c.	3	0	6
Bracken, rg., c.	1	1	11
Relly, rg., c.	1	0	2
Gainor, lg.	1	1	3
Cody, lg.	3	3	9
Derivan, lg.	0	0	0
Totals	34	12	80

TRAINING STATION

	G.	F.	Pts.
Kaiser, rf.	0	0	0
Pilon, rf.	2	0	2
Angelino, rf.	0	0	0
Palin, lf.	2	2	6
Condry, lf.	0	0	0
McClure, c.	0	1	1
Sivco, c.	1	0	2
Conlon, rg.	1	1	3
Muzdakias, lg.	1	0	2
Totals	6	4	16

Referee—Haughey. Time—20-minute periods.

FRIARS IN THREE GAMES THIS WEEK

Dominican Five to Play Yale,
St. John's and Seton Hall
Quintets.

One of the most strenuous weeks of campaigning to be tackled by any college basketball aggregation is in store for the Providence College hoopsters this week when they meet three formidable opponents in Yale, St. John's of Brooklyn, and Seton Hall College. The tussle with the Elis is slated for tomorrow night at New Haven, while the other two contests will be played away over the week-end.

Although a win over St. John's is of paramount interest to the Friars, Coach McClellan prefers to play the games as they are listed, and so will concentrate every effort on turning in a victory over Yale tomorrow. Once this game is out of the way preparations will be completed for the Brooklyn clash. Last year Providence lost to Yale by seven points, split even in the series with St. John's, and tacked a defeat on Seton Hall.

Yale, with a pair of fine scorers in Albie Booth and Linehan, and with a veteran array available for service, is confident that it will be able to defeat the Dominicans.

The ability of the Friars to average two points per minute against the Sailors is ample proof that the Black and White forces have another powerful quintet in the making.

This afternoon the Dominican mentor plans to drive the squad at a lively clip so as to be prepared for the clash at New Haven. The same lineup which has started the past two tilts will again be called upon to open the action.

Faces Elis Tonight

John Kreiger will be at left forward for Providence College when the Friars basketball team meets Yale at New Haven tonight. Kreiger is the leading scorer of the local college team.

New Haven Register

Minus Linehan, Yale May Lose To Providence

Minus Fred Linehan, now en route to play in the East-West charity game, Yale may find five Providence College Friars turned Tartars when the Rhode Islanders invade Yale Gym tonight for their annual clash at 8:30. Similarly, the Eli Frosh, who have the reputation of having trounced the Varsity in practice, may find some tough customers from Naugatuck High in the preliminary game at 7:15.

Providence has enjoyed the unhealthful reputation, so far as opponents are concerned, of being one of the ranking quintets in New England college competition for some three years. It has six letter men back from last year and may go one better than Wesleyan did last week in leading the Blue through the first half and losing out only after the most spectacular playing by Captain Eddie Horwitz. Tonight Yale will be without its left guard, Linehan, who has been a real flash of scoring ability in the back line of the Blue. Replacing him will be McGowan, an alternate of last year, who has not as yet approached Linehan's form. The remainder of the Yale team will remain intact with Horwitz and Booth at forwards, Patterson at center and O'Neil at guard.

The Friars starting lineup will include: Kreiger and McCue, forwards; Dromgoole, center; Gainor and Cody, guards.

Naugatuck High, last year's State champs, will bring a squad here comprising Balinsky, Goodwin, R. Scally, Schaffer, Samborski, Garrick, Bayk-wich, Loman, Posick, Pawlouski, T. Scally and Pruchnicki.

Yale Five Triumphs Over Providence College 34-25

Albie Booth and Eddie Horowitz Lead Attack of Elis But Krieger is High Scorer.

(Special to the Providence Journal)

New Haven, Dec. 16.—A fast Yale basketball team, with Eddie Horowitz and Albie Booth leading its attack, scored a 34 to 25 win over Providence College here tonight. The win is the third of the season for the Elis, and marks the second successive year they have turned back the Friars.

Superior team play, coupled with the ability of Patterson, six foot four inch centre to garner the tap and to retrieve rebounds off the Yale back board to avert Dominican scores, enabled the locals to collect the decision. The Rhode Islanders played a hard game, and after starting with a rush failed to hold their lead and after the first ten minutes of play were forced to trail for the remainder of the tilt.

Krieger High Scorer

Although Johnny Krieger was high scorer of the game with 13 points to his credit, his co-captain, Bill McCue, turned in the outstanding performance for the Friars. McCue was in every play and his fine pass work kept the visitors very much in the game until the final whistle. Koslowski, centre, also turned in some splendid floor work in spite of the fact that he faced formidable opposition from Paterson, Eli pivot man.

Providence tallied first, with Koslowski and Krieger counting on foul shots. Yale then jumped into the lead on successive field goals by Patterson and Horowitz, only to falter in the face of a driving Friar attack which netted seven points in short order. Midway through the first half the Dominicans had a 12 to 9 lead, but the locals took a new lease of life as the period drew to a close and with O'Neil and Horwitz scoring from the floor, were able to claim a 20 to 16 advantage as the halftime whistle sounded.

Battle Nip and Tuck

In the second half play was nip and tuck, with both outfits battling evenly for the first 10 minutes. Although the invaders from Rhode Island made a strong bid to get in the running again, the Elis were able to maintain their slight margin. With the score 29 to 24 Booth put Yale further ahead with a pretty field goal from under the hoop, and Horwitz counted on a long toss. A moment later McCue converted on Horwitz's foul to bring his team's string to 25, and Booth gave Yale its final point when he rimmed the hoop on Krieger's personal foul as the game ended.

YALE UNIVERSITY (34)

	G.	F.	Pts.
Horwitz l. f.	5	1	11
Booth r. f.	3	2	8
Patterson c.	2	1	5
McGowan l. g.	2	0	4
O'Neil r. g.	2	0	4
Burke r. g.	1	0	2
Total	15	4	34

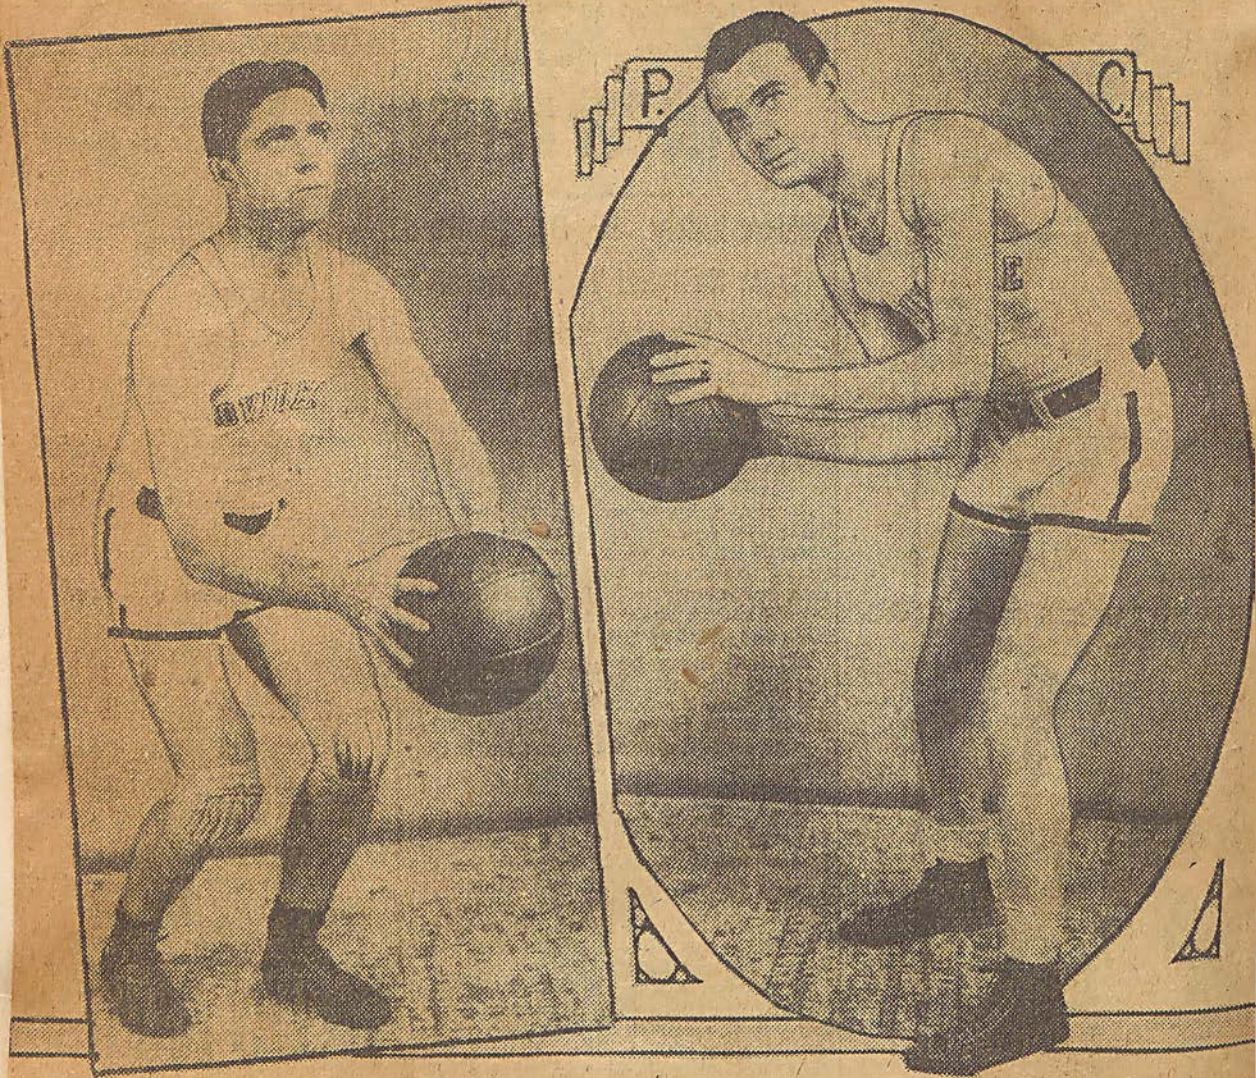

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (25)

	G.	F.	Pts.
Krieger l. f.	4	5	13
McCue r. f.	0	2	2
Koslowski c.	3	1	7
Gainor l. g.	1	0	2
Weich l. g.	0	0	0
Brachen r. g.	0	1	1
Total	8	9	25

Referee—Messer. Umpire—Swaffield. Time—20-minute periods.

Game played: December 16, 1930

FORWARDS AND CAPTAINS

Johnny Krieger, left, and Bill McCue share the forward berths and the captaincy on Providence College Five

FRIARS DROP DECISION TO ST. JOHN'S

Brooklyn Five Steps Ahead in Second Half to Win by 21 to 16

New York, Dec. 20.—In one of the best defensive games seen in some time, the St. John's College basketball team defeated Province College, 21-16 at Arcadia Hall, Brooklyn, last night reversing the result of last year when the Rhode Islanders were the only team to beat the Red and White.

For the first 12 minutes of the opening half the game stood at 3 to 2 in favor of the Indians, St. John's taking the lead on a field goal under the basket by Tom Neary. John Krieger, high scorer, with 12 points, tied the score at 2-all a few moments later, but once again the Indians went into the lead when Allie Schuckman made good on a foul. Neither team scored again until there were five minutes before the half, when Marty Begovich made the score 4 to 2. Koslowsky tied it at 4 to 4 just before the intermission and Postnack and Krieger each tallied, bringing the score 6 to 6 for the half.

St. John's started the second session with a rush, tallying three field goals. Kreiger came through with three sensational baskets, however, and it was the last time that the visitors were able to knot the count.

Mack Kinsbruner and Marty Begovich put the game on ice for St. John's with three successive field goals, bringing the final score to 21-16.

The lineup:

ST. JOHN'S (21)
	G.	F.	Pts.
Schuckman, lf.	0	1	1
Smith, lf.	0	0	0
Postnack, rf.	2	0	4
Begovich, c.	2	1	5
Kinsbruner, lg.	3	1	7
Neary, rg.	2	0	4
<hr/>
Total	9	3	21
PROVIDENCE (16)
	G.	F.	Pts.
Krieger, lf.	5	0	10
McCue, rf.	0	0	0
Koslowski, c.	3	0	6
Galnor, lf.	0	0	0
Brachen, rg.	0	0	0
Dromgoole, rg.	0	0	0
<hr/>
Total	8	0	16
Referee—Tom Deegan.		Umpire—
Dick Meehan.	Time of	halves—	20 minutes.

Providence College Defeats Seton Hall In Basketball By 40 To 22 Score

P. C. BOYS ON RAMPAGE IN COURT GAME

Take New Jersey Lads Into Camp Without Much Opposition

Newark, N. J., Dec. 20.—The powerful Providence College basketball team, which battled the championship St. John's quintet in a brilliant exhibition in New York Friday night, flashed its best form here tonight to overwhelm an aggressive Seton Hall aggregation by a 40 to 22 count. The Friars were masters of the situation throughout and gave one of the finest exhibitions of the court game ever seen in this city.

Seton Hall opened strong by scoring two goals, but was soon smothered under a barrage of Providence scores which enabled the visitors to run up a high first period total. In the second half the locals made a spirited bid to get in the running, but after closing the Dominicans gap to nine points faltered under a strong Providence drive which rolled the count far out of their reach.

McCue and Krieger, clever captains of the Rhode Island contingent, almost turned back the local single handed, in as much as they collected 21 points between them, one less than the Seton Hall total. Krieger was brilliant on his long shots while McCue shone with his floor work and his accuracy from the foul line.

BRACHEN GETS TWO

After Seton Hall had started with a four-point lead, Dick Brachen, hard-running Friar guard, broke through for a pair of field goals to tie the count, and Krieger dropped his first Hawker through the meshes to give his team the lead. From then on the Setonians were forced to confine their work to forming a defence against the fast passing attack of the invaders and when the half-time whistle sounded the Friars were ahead by a 21 to 7 score.

Game played: December 20, 1930

Prov. Tribune

The Jerseyites rallied after the intermission and closed the gap to 26 to 17, but at this juncture the McClellan men again found their range and proceeded to spot the hoop from every corner of the court. Before the close of the tilt the entire Providence substitute array was in action, and was able to maintain the long lead so the final whistle gave them a 40 to 22 verdict. The summary:

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE.

	G.	F.	Pts.
Krieger, l. f.	5	1	11
McCue, r. f.	2	6	10
Welch, r. f.	0	0	0
Koslowski, c.	3	2	8
Dromgoole, c.	0	0	0
Gainor, l. g.	1	1	3
Brachen, r. g.	4	0	8
Kelly, r. g.	0	0	0
Totals.	15	10	40

SETON HALL COLLEGE.

	G.	F.	Pts.
Singleton, l. f.	0	0	0
Zdanawacz, l. f.	0	2	2
Madigan, r. f.	2	0	4
Sablak, c.	3	1	7
Segel, c.	0	0	0
Madjeski, l. g.	1	1	3
Torpy, r. g.	0	0	0
Outwater, r. g.	3	0	6

Totals. 9 4 22
Referee--W. Brennan, Schneider.
Time--20-minute periods.

FRIARS TO RESUME COURT PRACTICE

Varsity and Yearling Fives to Meet Holy Cross Teams on Saturday.

The Providence College basketball squads will resume their daily drills at the La Salle Academy court this afternoon after a two week respite, with one of the hardest tests of the season on tap for next Saturday night. Both the Varsity and Freshman teams will travel to Worcester this week-end to meet Holy Cross teams.

The Varsity quintet closed its 1930 campaign with a decisive win over Seton Hall College at Newark, N. J., and will be on edge to start the second half of the schedule in as successful a manner. The Freshmen, victors over the Bryant-Stratton quintet, will open the Crusader Cubs' season in the preliminary clash at Worcester on Saturday and this tilt promises to produce as much action as the main contest.

The schedule for the coming month is limited owing to the fact that the mid-year examinations are listed for the end of January, and as a result but three contests will be engaged in by the Varsity. Following the Crusader clash this week-end, the Coast Guard Academy will be met here on Jan. 17, and Northeastern will be opposed at Boston on the 24th. The Freshmen will meet the College of Education quintet on Jan. 13, and the Providence Boys' Club on the 17th.

Although Coach Al McClellan may have changed his mind over the holidays, he voiced his intention, following the Friars' New York trip last month, of making one or two changes in the Varsity lineup for the coming tilts. The failure of Chick Gainor to flash the form which made him such a valuable member of the team last season, coupled with the fine all round play of Ed Reilly of Bridgeport, may result in a shift in the back court lineup.

Koslowski, rugged centre, has turned in brilliant work in all the games played to date, and Coach McClellan could hardly find a better man to replace Larry Wheeler of last year's quintet. Krieger and McCue, captains and veterans, leave little to be desired in the forward court, but the guard assignments have proved a real problem.

Bearers of the Black and White in Clash With Old Foe Tonight

News Volume 10, 1931

Members of the Providence College Varsity basketball squad, which is at Worcester this evening for a tussle with the Holy Cross quints. Front row, left to right: Louis A. Imbriano, student manager; Allan Brachen, guard; John Kreiger, forward and captain; Ed Koslowski, center; William McCue, forward and captain; Chick Gainor, guard; Albert McClellan, coach. Second row: John McCormac, forward; Ed Reilly, guard; Francis Dromgoole, centre; George Cody, guard; Edward Derivan, guard.

Speedy Providence Five Meets Purple Tonight

Holy Cross Conceded Fine Chance to Gain First Victory Over Friars—Invaders Beat Crusaders Twice Last Year

By BARNEY MADDEN

Vindictive, thirsting for their first drink from Victory's cup in the long basketball series with Providence college, an aroused, superbly conditioned Crusader clan eagerly awaits tonight's resumption of court hostilities with the Dashing Dominicans, proud boast of the Rhode Island capital.

Twice last winter Providence prevailed, free-throw proficiency creating the margin of difference between the teams in a pair of sensational skirmishes. In Worcester the Friars conquered, 34 to 33, scoring eight free tries while the Purple was cagging five; subsequently the Dominicans rallied to win on their home, 27 to 25, sinking nine charity shots while a singleton was the best Holy Cross could do.

Apart from the ultimate result, the element of excitement seems certain to be duplicated tonight. A thrilling engagement is in prospect when these high-scoring machines, with their measure of individual brilliance and co-ordinated team play collide. If form and history are borne out to any extent, tonight's battle should develop into another of those tingling, sensational duels.

Holy Cross expects to win, and is expected to win. Jack Reed has brought his squad along steadily for this game, has his men primed mentally and physically for the fray. Such a prediction is hazardous, but in view of their achievements of late, and their steady improvement climaxed by the spirit of vengeance that pervades the Purple camp, the expectation remains that Holy Cross at last will rid itself of the Providence yoke. It boasts the better floor team.

Jack Krieger and Bill McCue, co-captains of the Friars and their starting forwards, opposed the Purple last winter, scoring 28 points between them in the two games. Krieger, moreover, was one of the East's leading scorers in that campaign and is now reported speedier and more deadly than ever before.

Bill Gainor, a guard who sparkled in the games with Holy Cross last season, still is with the team and tonight will pair up with George Cody in the back court. Ed Koslowski or Frank Dromgoole will start at center.

As was the case last winter, Providence has a powerful offensive, especially as concerns the veteran forwards. Kreiger and McCue undoubtedly will wage an exciting battle with Captain Farrell and Teddy Leary, with good prospects of the verdict being rendered by these sets of veterans.

Farrell has been his usual self all season but it was not until Monday's game with St. Michael's that Leary hit his stride. His "arrival" is a tremendous help to the Crusaders, for when on his game the former St. John's player is one of the most thorough guards in New England. He has a penchant for harnessing the scoring efforts of his opponents.

Coach Reed will start Hickey, Schoenrock and Driscoll in addition to his stellar guard combination and the ordinarily pessimistic Purple mentor actually concedes his team a chance to win this game.

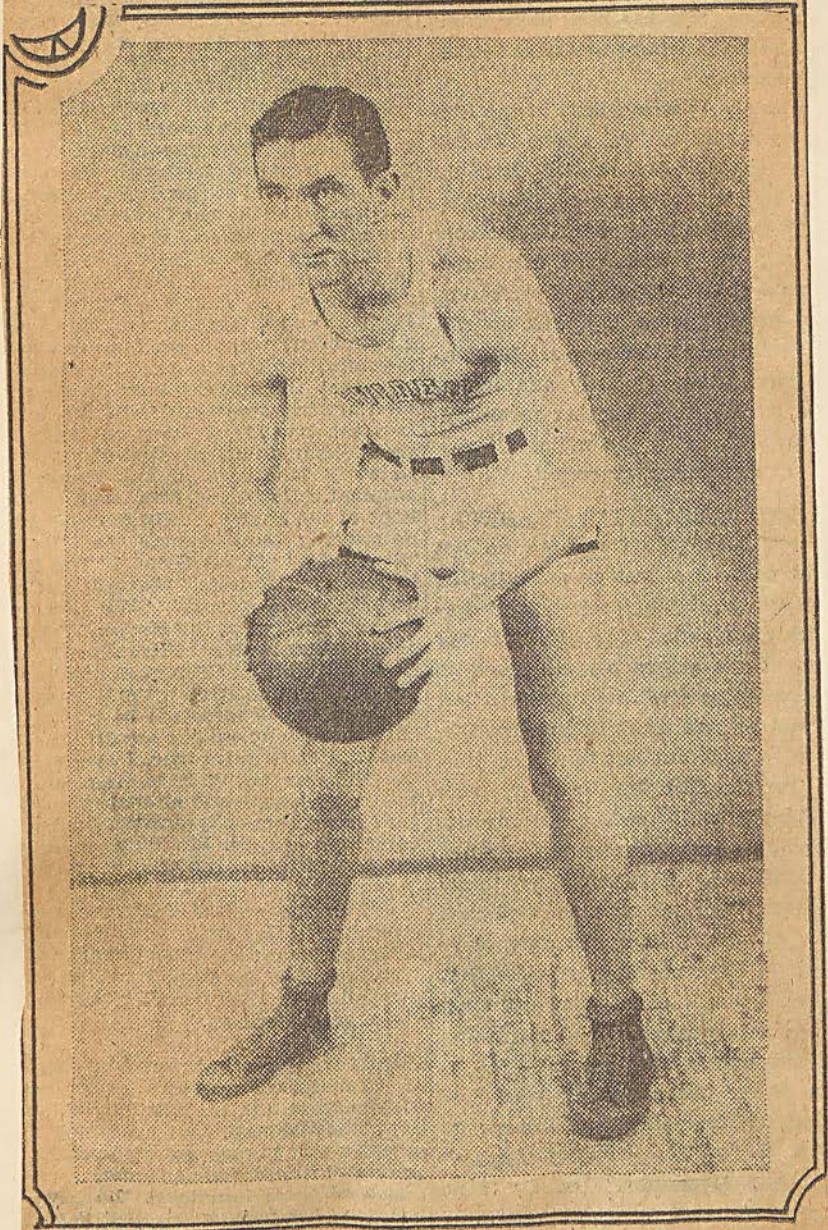

Driscoll Has Chance

Luke Driscoll, leading Holy Cross scorer, stands a big chance of being the Purple's hero tonight if Leary and Captain Farrell lock in grim battle with McCue and Kreiger, thereby creating the opportunity for Driscoll to step out and wreak havoc. The Holy Cross forwards, a combination of speed and experience, should worry the Dominican guards no little.

All in all, it does look like an entertaining encounter.

In the preliminary game the Providence and Holy Cross freshmen teams will clash. The varsity game will get under way at 8.30 o'clock.

Friars' Basketball Star

Dick Brachen will be at his customary right guard berth for the Providence College five tonight

DOMINICANS TRIM HOLY CROSS, 38-31

Stage Thrilling Rally in Final Minutes to Win Basketball Match.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)
Worcester, Mass., Jan. 10.—Trailing by eight points with but seven minutes to play, the Providence College 'Varsity basketball team staged a brilliant final period rally here tonight to sweep through to a 38 to 31 victory over a strong Holy Cross quintet in a game packed with thrills from start to finish.
In the preliminary game the Friar Freshmen completely outclassed the Holy Cross yearlings to collect a 43 to 26 verdict.

The 'Varsity encounter was the most exciting of the season and closely resembled the hard-fought tilt of last year when the Dominicans eked out a one-point victory in an uphill tussle.
Tonight's triumph continues an unbroken string of court victories by the Friars over the Crusaders, the latter aggregation having yet to score a victory over the Rhode Islanders since the Dominicans inaugurated the indoor sport three years ago.

Brachen Leads Attack

Dick Brachen, a slender Portchester product who teams with Gainor in the back court, proved the hero of the clash, co-starring with George Cody, Woonsocket back, to bring the decision back to Providence after the locals had assumed a commanding lead in the second half. Brachen was high scorer of the night with 15 points to his credit.

With but seven minutes of play remaining in the second half, and the Crusaders on the long end of a 31 to 23 score, the Black and White contin-gent wheeled into action with full force to send the large crowd into a constant uproar by their clever play. Krieger started the rally with a field goal from mid-floor, and then Cody, who replaced Gainor when the latter was ruled out on personals, raced in to rim the hoop from underneath.

McCue narrowed the Purple's lead on the next tap when he took a short pass and made a one-hand shot to bring the Friars' total to 29. With play becoming fast, and in spite of the close guarding, Brachen broke loose a moment later to knot the score at 31 all on the most spectacular floor goal of the night, a one-hand toss over his head from the corner of the court.

Game played: January 10, 1931

George Cody,
Left Guard.

With the Providence followers clamoring for the lead, Brachen broke loose again and dribbled through the Crusader defence to tally a goal to put his team in the van. Krieger boosted the total one when he converted on Farrell's personal, and Brachen increased the advantage a minute later by tapping a rebound back through the nets. Cody continued the rally when he made good on Mantelli's foul, and close guarding by the locals gave Brachen his chance to score the final point of the night when he made good from the free throw line as the final whistle sounded.

Providence started the game fast and took an early lead which was never seriously threatened in the first half, the intermission whistle sounding with the visitors leading by 17 to 14. The Crusaders surged to the fore at the onset of the second half, however, and with Driscoll and Capt. Farrel leading the way, piled up a sizable lead before the Friars uncorked their winning drive.

The Providence Freshmen had matters all their own way in the prelim skirmish, and from the very start of the tilt it was evident that the Purple Cubs had little chance to claim the decision. Worrall with 11 points, Davis with 10 and Perrin and Tebbeits with nine each were the high scorers of the game. At the end of the first period the Friar Cubs led, 20 to 4, and at the half time were ahead by a 27 to 10 count.

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (38)

	G.	F.	Pts.
Krieger, l. f.	2	1	5
McCue, r. f.	3	0	4
Koslowski, c.	3	0	6
Gainor, l. g.	1	1	3
Cody, l. g.	2	1	5
Brachen, r. g.	7	1	13
McCormac, r. g.	0	0	0
Total	17	4	38

HOLY CROSS COLLEGE (31)

	G.	F.	Pts.
Schoenrock, l. f.	1	1	3
Nicholson, l. f.	0	0	0
Hickey, r. f.	3	0	6
Mantelli, r. f.	0	0	0
Driscoll, c.	4	2	10
Fitzgerald, c.	0	0	0
Leary, l. g.	2	1	5
Donovan, l. g.	0	0	0
Farrell, r. g.	3	1	7
Total	13	5	31

Referee—Lewis. Time—20-minute periods.
Umpire—Featherstone.

P. C. FRESHMEN (43)

	G.	F.	Pts.
Herrin, l. f.	4	1	9
McGarry, l. f.	0	0	0
Worrall, r. f.	5	1	11
Corbett, r. f.	0	0	0
Davis, c.	5	0	10
Lacy, l. g.	0	0	0
Tebbeits, l. g.	4	1	9
Morrison, l. g.	0	0	0
Roberge, r. g.	2	0	4
Reavey, r. g.	0	0	0
Doyle, r. g.	0	0	0
Total	20	3	43

H. C. FRESHMEN (26)

	G.	F.	Pts.
Kelly, l. f.	0	0	0
Quine, l. f.	3	2	8
Hower, r. f.	3	2	8
Dorsey, r. f.	0	0	0
Grubowski, c.	1	0	2
Gurtin, c.	1	0	2
Tumulevich, l. g.	1	0	2
Bennett, l. g.	0	0	0
Flynn, r. g.	0	0	0
Jarvis, r. g.	2	0	4
Total	11	4	26

FRIARS' FIVE WILL PLAY GUARDSMEN
HERE TONIGHT

Freshmen Meet Boys' Club Team in Double-Header at La Salle Floor.

LINEUPS AT LA SALLE TONIGHT

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE.	COAST GUARD ACADEMY.
Krieger (Capt.), l. f.	l. f. Montgomery
McCue (Capt.), r. g.	r. g. Rea
Koslowski, c.	c. Porney
Brachen, r. g.	r. g. Fabik
Gainor or Cody, l. g.	l. g. Harding

Referee—Haughy. Starting time, 8:45 p. m.

The Providence College basketball Freshman and Varsity teams will endeavor to continue their winning records at the La Salle Academy gymnasium tonight. The first year men meet the Boys' Club team and the first string outfit faces the Coast Guard Academy five in the feature attraction. The Varsity has won three of the six games it has played so far, while the Freshmen are undefeated.

Coach Al McClellan has expressed no little worry at the invasion of the New London cadets tonight, as he has heard glowing accounts of the work of the Guardsmen. Only a late rally by Harvard turned back the cadets.

Coach McClellan stated last night that he is still in doubt as to his choice for the starting assignment at left guard. Gainor, who has handled the starting post in every game so far, has shown better form in the past two drills and as a result may retain the position, although George Cody, who starred in the Cross tilt, will be ready to step into action at any moment.

As the game is the only one of the week for the Varsity, and incidentally their only home appearance until they meet the Crusaders here late next month, every player will be on edge to turn in the fourth win of the season at the expense of the New Londoners.

CRAN

Road Patching and Is C

Cranston Office. | Phone
The News-Tribune, | Broad 3033
543 Park Avenue. | West 6046-W
William V. Fallon.

A road program incorporating little new street construction, but instead a series of patching, seal coating and general maintenance has involved the taxpayers in expenditures aggregating $414,542.47, it is shown by the annual report of Highway Surveyor Elton F. Durfee, filed with the City Council last night. It also indicates outstanding bills amounting to $46,821.55 although money was gathered through bond issues, regular appropriations, supplementary additions to the regular appropriation and transfers from other accounts.

Pre-election reports that the administration had succeeded in living within the city revenue, spread among the tax payers to gain support for the Republican forces in the city, were offset by the report of this one department head showing outstanding bills greater than the amount set aside at the beginning of the year for the sinking fund. And the employment of a bond issue of $200,000 procured from the General Assembly under the guise of permanent improvement was included among the sums expended, it is seen.

Among the items of expense is $73,864.41, which is listed for stone, purchased out of the State and among the outstanding bills is one of the New Haven Trap Rock Company for $25,051.86. Another large bill that still remains unpaid is for $11,296.57 and the creditors are the Standard Oil Company and C. C. Plumb. The City of Providence also has an account pending against the highway department for $4724.87 for work done at Union avenue. The hiring of a steam shovel and trailer for a short period cost the city $1588.92, according to the bill of A. Connelli and Ricci & Ricci which also remains unpaid.

The other large item is for gravel, totalling $1,976.40.

te the Cadets were busy keeping r. Smith Hiller's leading scorer. overed, Brachen and McCue broke with Koslowski to upset the plans e visitors. The locals soon ran string to 29 before the Guardsmen a single point in this half.

Freshman game produced some basketball throughout, with the Club hoopsters giving the cubs rdest test they have met this year.

summaries:

PROVIDENCE			COAST GUARD
LEGE '38 (38)			ACADEMY (27)
	G.	F. P.		G.	F. P.
Rea, H.	1	1	3	1	3
Mac, H.	0	0	0	0	0
ri.	4	1	9	2	0
ski, C.	2	2	6	0	0
ole, C.	0	0	0	3	2
lg.	1	2	4	4	1
g.	0	0	0	1	0
l, rg.	7	15	1	0	1
lg.	0	1	1
.....	15	8	38	11	5
ee-Haughey.				20	minute

PROVIDENCE			BOYS' CLUB (34)
LEGE '34 (38)			G. F. P.
	G.	F. P.		G.	F. P.
H.	5	1	11	2	0
l.	0	0	0	7	1
r.	4	1	9	4	0
y, r.	0	0	0	1	0
C.	2	0	4	1	2
c.	0	0	0	1	2
S. lg.	0	5	5	0	1
g.	0	0	0
Roberge, rg.	4	1	9
Corbett, rg.	0	0	0
Total	15	8	38	15	4
Referee—Jenkins.				10-minute	period.

ty Oak Church officiate at ce. Clarke C. Kinne, well known figure at Arctic Centreville, where he was engaged half a century until a few years in the furniture and real estate business, was also held. Following high mass of requiem at St. John's Church, burial took place at St. John's Cemetery, Crompton. The Rev. F. Reardon was celebrant.

deceased whose death occurred yesterday, was in his 83rd year. Funeral of Miss Fernande Boudreau died suddenly on Thursday morning at Centreville, was held at St. John's Church, and the interment followed at St. Joseph's Cemetery.

SUNDAY SERVICES

Services at St. Andrew's Church, Harris, tomorrow will be at 8 a. m. when holy communion will be celebrated by the rector, H. B. Marks. The church will meet at 9:30.

Philip's, Crompton, the school will meet at 9:30 and communion and sermon by the Rev. M. A. Carter, and will follow at 10:35.

Monday evening at 7 o'clock the Choir of the Centreville M. E. Church will give a special program under the direction of the pastor, Rev. M. A. Carter, and will be for the first time in their history as a vested choir.

at the Centreville M. E. Church, the Rev. Charles Lawrence, will conduct Sunday school at 10:15. Morning service at 11:30. Subject, "Travellers of God's Highway." Evening service at 6. Evening service at 7:30. Subject, "Manifested Fruits of the Spirit." Prayer meeting Thursday at 7:30.

CLERK ROBERTSON WARWICK DIED AT PROVIDENCE HOSPITAL

Clerk S. K. M. Robertson, of the Town of Warwick, died yesterday at the Jane Brown Memorial Hospital, Providence, where he has been under treatment and observation since the first of the month. It was understood to be on the road to recovery and the news of his death was a shock to the townspeople, who had served in many capacities during the last 30 years.

Robertson was a member of the City Council in 1889. Later he was a member of the Board of game played: January 17, 1931

Jul

FRIAR PL

Ready to Flash for Fr

Providence Tribune Sat.

Freshman Team

LINEUP
PROVIDENCE
COLLEGE
Krieger (Cap)
McCue (Cap)
Kcslowski, Brachen, r.
Gainor or C
Referee—

The Providence
Freshman team endeavor to win at the La night. The Boys' Club team it faces in the first has won played so undefeated

Coach little work London can glowing at Guardians yard turned

Coach M he is still the starting Gainor, who post in ev better form a result though G Cross tilt
tion at ar

As the week for their only meet the month, ex turn in th the exper

BILL McCUE
Veteran Providence College forward, who should Guard Academy basketball team plenty of trouble in Salle Academy gym tonight. McCue and his running Krieger, are co-captains of the Friar

FRIARS WIN 38-27 OVER COAST GUARD

Brachen, Guard, Scores 15 Points for Dominicans.
Freshmen Also Win.

With Dick Brachen, high scoring guard, and Bill McCue, forward, heading its attack, the Providence College Varsity basketball team subdued a strong Coast Guard Academy quintet at the La Salle court last night, collecting a 38 to 27 victory for the fourth win of the season. In a preliminary tilt the undefeated Friar Freshman team retained an unblemished record by turning back the Providence Boys' Club, 38 to 34.

Brachen was the thunder in the Dominican's offence last night against the New London Cadets. Alone he collected 15 points as the result of seven field goals and a toss from the charity line. He was the fastest performer on the court, and his ability to retrieve rebounds from the boards played no small part in the Friars' winning streak.

The Cadets presented an aggressive attack throughout, and although at times dazzled by the sparkling pass work of the locals, continued plugging for points until the final whistle. Captain Harding, husky guard, turned in the honors for his team with nine points while Fabik, his running mate in the back court, held Johnny Krieger completely in check throughout the fray.

Play was close for the first seven minutes with both teams scoring evenly. The Cadets tallied first, with Forney caging a floor goal from the corner of the court, but Brachen broke loose shortly after to even the count. A four-point Coast Guard lead was but temporary as the McClellan-men put on pressure and swept into a commanding lead of 20 to 11 as the half ended.

While the Cadets were busy keeping Krieger, Smith Hiller's leading scorer, well covered, Brachen and McCue broke loose with Koslowski to upset the plans of the visitors. The locals soon ran their string to 29 before the Guardsmen tallied a single point in this half.

The Freshman game produced some fast basketball throughout, with the Boys' Club hoopsters giving the cubs the hardest test they have met this year.

The summaries:

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (38)			COAST GUARD ACADEMY (27)
G.	F.	P.	G.	F.	P.
Krieger, H.	1	1	3	Rea, H.	1	1	3
M'Cormac, H.	0	0	0	Smith, H.	0	0	0
M'Cue, rf.	4	1	9	Montrom'y, rf	2	0	4
Koslowski, c.	2	2	6	Zettell, rf.	0	0	0
Dromgoole, c.	0	0	0	Forney, c.	3	2	8
Galmer, lg.	1	2	4	Harding, lg.	4	1	9
Cody, lg.	0	0	0	Fabik, rg.	1	0	2
Brachen, rg.	7	1	15	Harris, rg.	0	1	1
Welch, lg.	0	1	1

Total 15 8 38 Total 11 5 27
Referee—Haughey. Time—20 minute periods.

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE '34 (38)			PROVIDENCE BOYS' CLUB (34)
G.	F.	P.	G.	F.	P.
Perrin, H.	5	1	11	Zubiago, H.	2	0	4
Lacy, H.	0	0	0	Yawasky, rf.	7	1	15
Worrall, rf.	4	1	9	Cronin, c.	4	0	8
McGarry, rf.	0	0	0	Cardoza, c.	1	0	2
Davis, c.	2	0	4	Philoboston, lg	1	2	4
Reavey, c.	0	0	0	Farker, rg.	0	1	1
Tebbitts, lg.	0	5	5
Doyle, lg.	0	0	0
Roberge, rg.	4	1	9
Corbett, rg.	0	0	0

Total 15 8 38 Total 15 4 34
Referee—Jenkins. Time—10-minute periods.

played: January 17, 1931

FRIAR FIVE FACES HUSKIES SATURDAY

The Providence College 'Varsity basketball team, victor in its last three starts, will endeavor to register its fifth win of the season when it encounters the Northeastern University quintet at Boston on Saturday night, in the only tilt of the week for the Friars. Mid-year examinations are taking much of the time of the players but Coach McClellan believes that the 'Varsity team will be well prepared as the game will end the Friars' court activities for the month. The next game after Saturday will be with Springfield at the Home City on Feb. 4.

Brachen has suddenly developed into a scorer of exceptional possibilities. Fast and rangy, he is in every play, excels in retrieving the ball off the backboards and has a one-hand shot from the corner of the court which frequently finds the mark. It was his fine play two weeks ago that enabled the Dominicans to claim a victory over Holy Cross, and last Saturday he scored 15 points against the Coast Guard.

The Freshmen will work out with the 'Varsity this week. Their next game is Feb. 6 against Bryant-Stratton College on the latter's court.

FRIARS ROMP OVER HUSKIES, 60 TO 32

Kolowski and Kreiger Lead in Scoring with 15 Goals from Floor.

(Special to the Providence Journal)

Boston, Jan. 24.—The Providence College Varsity basketball team had matters all its own way in scoring its fifth victory of the season here tonight by overwhelming the Northeastern University quintet under a 60 to 32 score. The victory is the fourth straight for the Friars, and was witnessed by close to 2000 basketball fans of this city.

Eddie Kolowski, Friars' centre, and Dick Brachen, guard, were the high points in the Providence attack with the combined totals of these two performers enough to tie the efforts of the local hoopsters. Kolowski with 18 points was high scorer of the tilt, while Brachen took the runner-up honors with 14.

The Friars started with a rush and had an eight-point lead before the Huskies could find the Providence hoop for a score. Two Northeastern rallies were cut short during the first half while the visitors continued their free scoring to roll up a 32 to 16 advantage when the half time gun sounded.

The second period was but a repetition of the first with McCue flashing steady pass work and Brachen and Kolowski running wild to collect points. With the count 50 to 26 Coach Al McClellan of the Dominicans rushed in his reserves and they managed to maintain the wide margin to coast through with the final count double the locals' total.

The summary:

PROV. COLLEGE			NORTHEASTERN U.
G. F. P.			G. F. P.
Kreiger, lf.	6	0 12	Tiffany, lf.	3	3 9
McCormack, lf.	0	0 0	Fresper, lf.	0	0 0
Weich, lf.	1	0 2	Symancyk, rf.	3	5 11
McCue, rf.	1	2 4	Coughlan, rf.	0	0 0
Derivan, rf.	0	0 0	Rymph, c.	2	0 0
Kolowski, c.	9	0 18	Hassell, lg.	1	1 3
Drumgoole, c.	1	0 2	Hintz, rg.	2	0 4
Gainor, lg.	3	0 6	Brown, rg.	0	1 1
Cody, lf.	0	0 0
Brachen, rg.	5	4 14
Reilly, rg.	1	0 2

Totals 27 6 60 Totals 11 10 32
 Referee—McGuinness. Time—20-minute periods. Umpire—Amlott.

Game played: January 24, 1931

Red-White Seeks Subs for Providence Game

Hickox Not Satisfied with Reserve Strength; Friars Play Here Tomorrow Night; Western Mass.
Boys on Squad.

By HAROLD W. HEINZ.

Final practise for the game with the crack Providence College quintet here tomorrow night was handed Springfield College's basketball squad late yesterday afternoon in the West gym. The Red and White cagemen were given a one hour drill, topped off by 10 minutes of scrimmage, after which Coach E. J. Hickox announced that he would start the same lineup which acquitted itself so successfully against the Crescent A. C.

The players who will carry the colors of Springfield into the battle are George Crutch and Howard Meyers, forwards; C. Wells, center; Capt. George Poter and W. Cook, guards.

Retrenchment forces are the present worry of Coach Hickox, the mentor being in a quandary as to the players to use as substitutes when the occasion arises. A combination of Norman Becker, hero of the Rutgers game, and Ralph Harris, forwards; Arthur Rohr, center and George Seewagon and Red Quirk, guards, was tried as a relief team yesterday but failed to satisfy the mentor. Hickox will give the substitute problem serious consideration and hopes to have his troubles solved for practical use before game time.

Providence for the last two years has ranked among the leaders in Eastern collegiate basketball and although the team has lost three of its eight games this season, dropping to Dartmouth, Yale and St. John's of Brooklyn, it is rated very highly. The Dominicans have registered victories over Newport Naval Station, Seton Hall, Holy Cross, Coast Guard Academy and Northeastern.

St. John's, rated by Tom Berry, local boy and one of the players with the Crescent A. C. here last Saturday, as the best college team he ever saw was able to top Providence only by five points, 21 to 16.

Co-Captained.

Probably the two players who will receive the most attention from local fans when they take the floor with the Clam City squad tomorrow are John Krieger and William McCue, co-captains from Paterson, N. J., who have teamed together since high school days. They form the forecourt combination for the Dominicans and are recognized as one of the finest scoring tandems in Eastern college circles.

Krieger was named all-New England forward for the past two years, leading all the Eastern scorers two years ago and finishing in the top flight last season. He also was selected as a forward on the mythical All-American collegiate second team last year. McCue, his running mate, excels in floorwork. He makes most of the scoring opportunities for Krieger.

Tommy Wright of Chicopee, a forward, runnerup in the national marble tournament in 1924 and former captain at Cathedral High, is a member of the Friars but it is reported that Tommy recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. It is not known whether he will be with the squad or not. Another Western Mass. boy among the visitors will be Edward Derivan of Pittsfield, a substitute guard.

The remainder of the Dominican squad follows: James Welch, a Hartford boy; John McCormac, Dale Worrall, Oscar Perrin, Francis Dromgoole, Edward Koslowski, Oliver Roberge, Dexter Davis, William Gainor, George Cody, Allan Brachen and Edward Reilly.

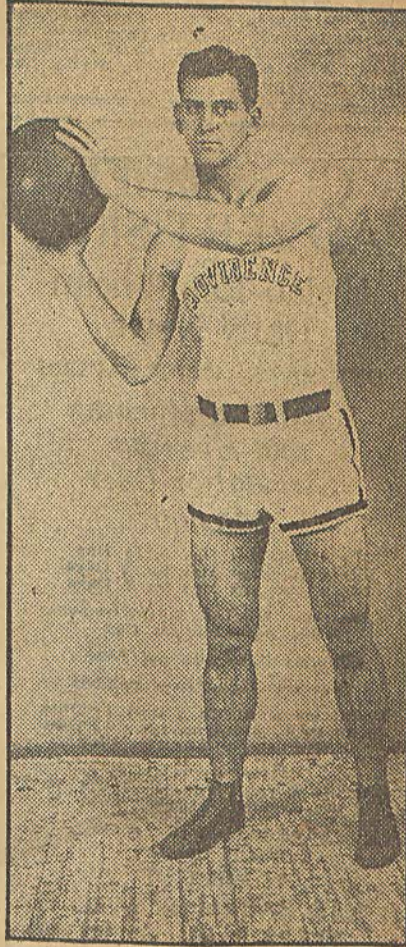

The starting lineup will consist of Krieger and McCue, forwards, Koslowski, a six-footer who weighs 195 pounds, center and Brachen and Gainor, guards.

Six members remain of the squad which defeated Springfield last season. The team is coached by Albert McClellan, who has been in charge of basketball at the Providence institution since 1927. He is a native of Swampscott.

Stars With Providence Five

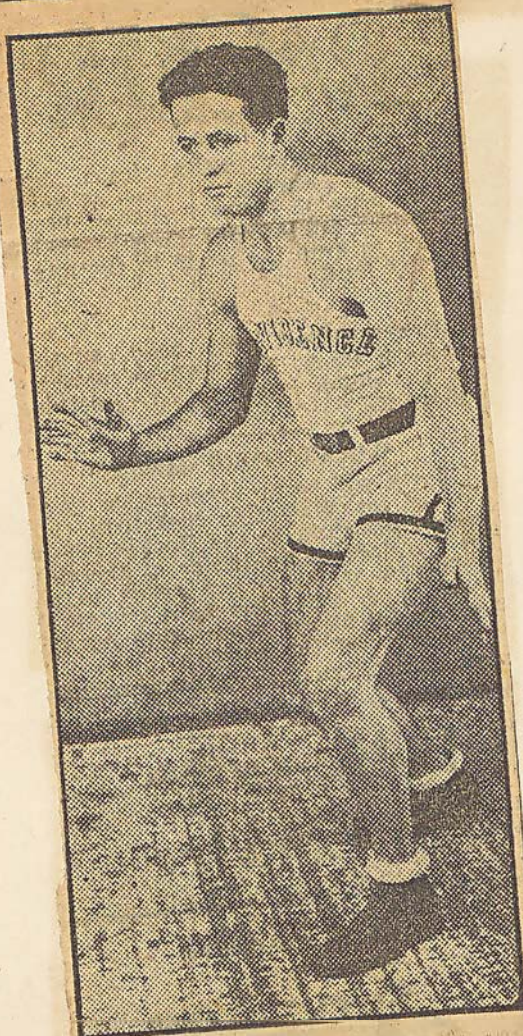

JOHN KRIEGER.

EDWARD KOSLOWSKI.

THESE two players will start for the Providence College basketball team against Springfield in West Gymnasium tonight. Krieger, co-captain and one of the highest scoring stars in the East, plays forward, and Koslowski, who is six feet tall and weighs 195 pounds, jumps center.

Western Mass. Boy with Providence Five

EDWARD DERIVAN.

ONE of the reserve members of the Providence College basketball team, which plays Springfield here tomorrow night, is Edward Derivan of Pittsfield. He is a guard and has served in that capacity for the past two seasons. He was a sub-center on the Friars' football team. Derivan is one of a long list of Western Mass. boys to make good in athletics at the Providence school.

Crack Providence Quintet Invades Red-White Court

Springfield
Union

Friars, Boasting Brilliant Record, Rule Favorite to Win Tonight; Meyers, Crack Forward, Taken to Infirmary, May Be Unable to Play in Outstanding Contest.

By HAROLD W. HEINZ.

Springfield College's outstanding home basketball attraction of the current season is the fan-fare at West gymnasium tonight when the Providence College "point-a-minute" team plays here. Despite the fact that the Dominicans have compiled a brilliant record for the past three seasons, always being considered one of the leading teams in the East during that period, the Red and White, gleaming with confidence after a victory over the Crescent A. C. of Brooklyn, hopes to get even for a defeat suffered last year from the Friars. Tap off time is 8.30 o'clock.

Providence, coached for the fourth successive season by Albert McClellen and boasting six letter men, is a big favorite to hand the Red and White its third setback. Springfield may be forced to enter the tussle minus the services of Howard Meyers, regular forward from Scranton, Pa., who yesterday afternoon was taken to the college infirmary suffering intense pain from a stone in the kidneys.

Coach E. J. Hickox was not given satisfactory information as to the condition of his athlete last night at the infirmary and announced that it was doubtful whether Meyers would play.

Loss of Meyers would be a severe handicap for the future gymnasts since his leaving the lineup would break up the only combination that is working smoothly, namely George Crutch and Meyers, forwards; C. Wells, center and Capt. George Poten and W. Cook, guards. Meyers flashed his best form of the season against the Crescents last Saturday night, being one of the outstanding performers on the hill quintet.

If Meyers remains on the sick list today Coach Hickox will send Norman Becker, hero of the Rutgers game, to the vacant frontcourt post. Becker was a regular earlier in the season but since then has been replaced by Meyers.

Visitors at Strength.

Information relayed here from Providence possesses the news that the Dominicans are at full strength and will start Cocaptains John Krieger and William McCue at forwards, Edward Koslowski at center and Allan Brachen and William Gainor at guards.

A team is only as strong as its reserve strength is an old athletic axiom. Upon this adage rests the real hopes for victory of the Providence team for it has a wealth of tried and true substitutes while Springfield, self admitted, is undeniably weak in its replacements.

The records of the rivals follow a fairly unwavering line. Providence having won five of its eight games while Springfield has topped the summary in six of its eight contests. The Dominicans, however, are playing the harder schedule of the two. Following is the Clam City's team's record: Providence—Dartmouth 33, Providence 25; Providence 30, Newport Naval Station 16; Yale 34, Providence 25; St. John's of Brooklyn 21, Providence 16; Providence 40, Seton Hall 22; Providence 38, Holy Cross 31; Providence 38, Coast Guard Academy 27; Providence 60, Northeastern 32.

Springfield has lost only to Arnold College of New Haven and Worcester Tech, both on foreign courts, and has tripped East Stroudsburg Normal, Tufts, Rutgers, Pratt, Mass. Aggie and Crescent A. C. of Brooklyn.

A brief summary of the Dominicans' record for the last two years may be of interest at this time. During the two seasons only seven games of 39 played were lost. In 1928-1929 the Friars lost one game in New England and three during the entire season against the strongest competition in the East. Last winter Providence won 15 out of 19 games played, losing only to Yale and New Hampshire in New England. The other setbacks came from C. C. N. Y., coached by the redoubtable Nat Holman, and St. John's. Victories were tallied over St. John's, the only reverse that team suffered all season, Brown, Springfield, Holy Cross (2), Middlebury, Seton Hall and Northeastern.

With a half dozen survivors of the last campaign, Coach McClellan seems well fortified for his clash here tonight, although it must be remembered that Springfield is always a hard nut to crack on its own court. The Red and White's big chance pivots around the opportunity of performing amid familiar scenery.

Krieger and McCue, alternate captains from Paterson, N. J., who have been playing together since their high school days, are one of the outstanding forecourt combinations playing in collegiate circles. Krieger is the best known of the "court twins" since his scoring proclivities have rocked the defenses of most all of the teams he has appeared against. He led the New England college scorers two seasons ago and last year finished in the top flight. McCue, his sacrificial teammate, excels in floorwork and continually "feeds" Krieger.

Among the substitutes on the visiting team are Edward Derivan of Pittsfield, James Welch of Hartford, John McCormac, George Cody, Edward Reilly and Francis Dromgoole.

The preliminary, which starts at 7 o'clock, will bring together the Springfield junior varsity and Trinity Club of this city.

West Gym Lineups.

SPRINGFIELD. PROVIDENCE.

Crutch, lf rb, Brachen
 Becker, rf lb, Gainor
 Wells, c c, Koslowski
 Cook, lb rf, McCue
 Poten, rb lf, Krieger

Time of game, 8.30 o'clock.

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

QUINTET NOSES OUT

SPRINGFIELD BY 28-27

Poten's Keen Shooting Keeps Gymnasts Close

Springfield Leader Gets Six Field Goals, Two Fouls —
Winners Show Balanced, Smart and Neat Passing
Array—Junior 'Varsity Beats Trinity Five

By J. EARL CHEVALIER

Sensational shooting on the part of Capt George Poten and greater durability kept the Springfield college basketball 'varsity on the heels of a noticeably more clever Providence college array in an animated contest staged before some 900 interested spectators at West gymnasium last night. So accurately did Poten fling the leather from scrimmage in the second half that only Wendell Cook's failure to convert a foul in the final six seconds of the encounter prevented the Gymnasts from forcing the Dominicans into an overtime session. The concluding tally was 28 to 27.

"Gen" Al McClellan, genial coach of the Rhode Island institution, brought to this city a collection of artful and well-tutored athletes who shuttled the ball about with professional skill and who displayed apparent ability to turn rebounds into scores by agile twisting under the strings. This classy Providence team, nonetheless, found itself harassed by the uncanny tossing of Poten, Red and White guard, who netted the leather no fewer than six times from scrimmage. It didn't matter to the Springfield leader whether he let the nugget fly while standing still or on the run, whether he employed the backboard or aimed directly at the hoop. He connected for a percentage very close to .600.

Game played: February 4, 1931

Springfield Republican

The records of the rivals follow a fairly unwavering line, Providence having won five of its eight games while Springfield has topped the summary in six of its eight contests. The Dominicans, however, are playing the harder schedule of the two. Following is the Clam City's team's record: Providence—Dartmouth 33, Providence 25; Providence 80, Newport Naval Station 16; Yale 34, Providence 25; St. John's of Brooklyn 21, Providence 16; Providence 40, Seton Hall 22; Providence 38, Holy Cross 31; Providence 38, Coast Guard Academy 27; Providence 60, Northeastern 32.

Springfield has lost only to Arnold College of New Haven and Worcester Tech, both on foreign courts, and has tripped East Stroudsburg Normal, Tufts, Rutgers, Pratt, Mass. Aggie and Crescent A. C. of Brooklyn.

A brief summary of the Dominicans' record for the last two years may be of interest at this time. During the two seasons only seven games of 39 played were lost. In 1928-1929 the Friars lost one game in New England and three during the entire season against the strongest competition in the East. Last winter Providence won 15 out of 19 games played, losing only to Yale and New Hampshire in New England. The other setbacks came from C. C. N. Y., coached by the redoubtable Nat Holman, and St. John's. Victories were tallied over St. John's, the only reverse that team suffered all season, Brown, Springfield, Holy Cross (2), Middlebury, Seton Hall and Northeastern.

With a half dozen survivors of the last campaign, Coach McClellan seems well fortified for his clash here tonight, although it must be remembered that Springfield is always a hard nut to crack on its own court. The Red and White's big chance pivots around the opportunity of performing amid familiar scenery.

Krieger and McCue, alternate captains from Paterson, N. J., who have been playing together since their high school days, are one of the outstanding forecourt combinations playing in collegiate circles. Krieger is the best known of the "court twins" since his scoring proclivities have rocked the defenses of most all of the teams he has appeared against. He led the New England college scorers two seasons ago and last year finished in the top flight. McCue, his sacrificial teammate, excels in floorwork and continually "feeds" Krieger.

Among the substitutes on the visiting team are Edward Derivan of Pittsfield, James Welch of Hartford, John McCormac, George Cody, Edward Reilly and Francis Dromgoole.

The preliminary, which starts at 7 o'clock, will bring together the Springfield junior varsity and Trinity Club of this city.

West Gym Lineups.

SPRINGFIELD. PROVIDENCE.

Crutch, lf	rb, Brachen
Becker, rf	lb, Gainor
Wells, c	c, Koslowski
Cook, lb	rf, McCue
Poten, rb	lf, Krieger

Time of game, 8.30 o'clock.

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE QUINTET NOSES OUT SPRINGFIELD BY 28-27

Poten's Keen Shooting Keeps Gymnasts Close

Springfield Leader Gets Six Field Goals, Two Fouls —
Winners Show Balanced, Smart and Neat Passing
Array—Junior 'Varsity Beats Trinity Five

By J. EARL CHEVALIER

Sensational shooting on the part of Capt George Poten and greater durability kept the Springfield college basketball 'varsity on the heels of a noticeably more clever Providence college array in 'an animated contest staged before some 900 interested spectators at West gymnasium last night. So accurately did Poten fling the leather from scrimmage in the second half that only Wendell Cook's failure to convert a foul in the final six seconds of the encounter prevented the Gymnasts from forcing the Dominicans into an overtime session. The concluding tally was 28 to 27.

"Gen" Al McClellan, genial coach of the Rhode Island institution, brought to this city a collection of artful and well-tutored athletes who shuttled the ball about with professional skill and who displayed apparent ability to turn rebounds into scores by agile twisting under the strings. This classy Providence team, nonetheless, found itself harassed by the uncanny tossing of Poten, Red and White guard, who netted the leather no fewer than six times from scrimmage. It didn't matter to the Springfield leader whether he let the nugget fly while standing still or on the run, whether he employed the backboard or aimed directly at the hoop. He connected for a percentage very close to .600.

Game played: February 4, 1931

Poten Starts Early

Poten it was who sent the home team into a short-lived lead soon after the opening tapoff. He cut sharply to take a soft pass from Ed Wells on a pivot play. "Chief" Meyers, out of a sick bed, followed with a long bank shot that gave the Gymnasts a 4 to 0 edge.

When Johnny Krieger, one of Providence's two cage captains, netted a free try seconds later, he started his team on an irresistible charge that brought 11 points while Springfield had no time to pay any attention to offense. Revolving around the lefthanded Billy McCue, the other cocaptain, the Dominicans culled five baskets and a foul. As noted, Krieger sank the charity toss; he added two goals from the floor. Dick Brachen, a very capable offensive guard, netted a brace of field goals; the other went to Koslowski, rangy center from Bridgeport, Ct.

Crutch tallied on a follow shot while Wells and Poten caged distant thrusts as the end of the first half approached. The visitors went off with a 13 to 10 advantage by virtue of Dick Brachen's third field goal of the opening session.

Normie Becker replaced the ailing Meyers for Springfield at the beginning of the second half. Koslowski developed as the spearhead of the Dominican attack in the concluding half, earning three baskets by dint of in-domitible work under the Springfield hoop. He and Johnny Krieger seemed intent on pulling away from Coach E. J. Hickox's charges but Poten saw to it that the Dominicans were always kept within reach. One of his four double-deckers in the second half was an underhand toss from a distance; two more were perfect efforts from near the foul mark while the other was a close-range shot on which Poten received the sphere from the cool Becker.

JOHNNY KRIEGER

Classy forward on the Dominican basketball team who tallied 10 points for his team last night against Springfield. Johnny is an accurate shooting ace.

Becker Takes Hand

At this point, Becker turned from a feeder to a scorer when Poten's eye suddenly dimmed. Normie determinedly followed his own rebound to score. Seconds later he cut Providence's lead to 26 to 25 by means of a neat one-hand toss from near the line of least resistance. Koslowski thereupon turned Krieger's erratic thrust into a goal by getting up high for the ball as it descended from the backboard. When McCue's guarding was ruled illegal by Referee Bob Jackson, Poten calmly netted the two throws allotted him. The score then read 23 to 27 in favor of the invaders as Koslowski pushed Cook. Wendy's gift shot carried awry.

Providence now has beaten Springfield in three successive years. The Dominicans, after an ordinary start, have taken five games in a row. Holy Cross and Northeastern, as well as Springfield, are included in this list of recent victims. Bill Gainer, veteran guard, is the backbone of the Providence defense.

In the prelim, the Springfield junior varsity, paced by Calder and White, subdued the Trinity church cagemen of this city. E. Hooker was high scorer for the losers who benefited by some clever passing on the part of Stewie Dennis. The scores:—

Providence			Springfield
	B.	F. P.		B.	F. P.
Krieger, lf	4	2 10	Poten, rg	6	2 14
McCue, rf	0	1 1	Cook, lg	0	0 0
Koslowski, c	4	1 9	Wells, c	1	0 2
Gainer, lg	0	0 0	Meyers, rf	1	0 2
Bracken, rg	4	0 8	Becker, rf	2	0 4
			Crutch, lf	2	1 5
	12	4 28		12	3 27
Referee, Jackson. Time, 20-minute halves.
Junior Varsity			Trinity
	B.	F. P.		B.	F. P.
Calder, lf	7	0 14	S.Hooker, rg	0	2 2
Joyce, lf	0	1 1	Pooler, rg	1	0 2
White, rf	6	2 14	Dennis, lg	1	2 4
Purdy, rf	0	0 0	E.Hooker, c	5	2 12
Slate, rf	0	0 0	Pooler, rf	0	0 0
Randall, c	2	0 4	Lasher, rf	1	0 2
Rohr, c	0	0 0	S.Hooker, rf	0	2 2
Joyce, c	0	0 0	Clark, lf	0	0 0
Rapuzzi, lg	1	0 3	Spangler, lf	0	2 2
Peterson, lg	0	0 0
Bown, lg	0	0 0
Caldwell, rg	0	1 1
Olmstead, rg	0	0 0
Parkhurst, rg	0	0 0
	16	4 36		8	10 26
Referee, Dressel. Time, 10-minute periods.

Game played: February 6, 1931

FRIAR CUB QUINTET

TRIPS INDIANS 43-18

The undefeated Providence College Freshman team ran its string of victories to five straight by annexing a 43 to 18 decision over the fast Bryant-Stratton College aggregation at the Eagles Auditorium on Westminster street last night. The victory is the second the Friars have tallied over the business collegians, as a 33 to 18 verdict was scored in the opening tilt of the season.

Perrin led the Dominican attack, caging eight field goals and making good on one foul toss. Oliver Roberge turned in a fine defensive game and also contributed six field goals to the Friar cause.

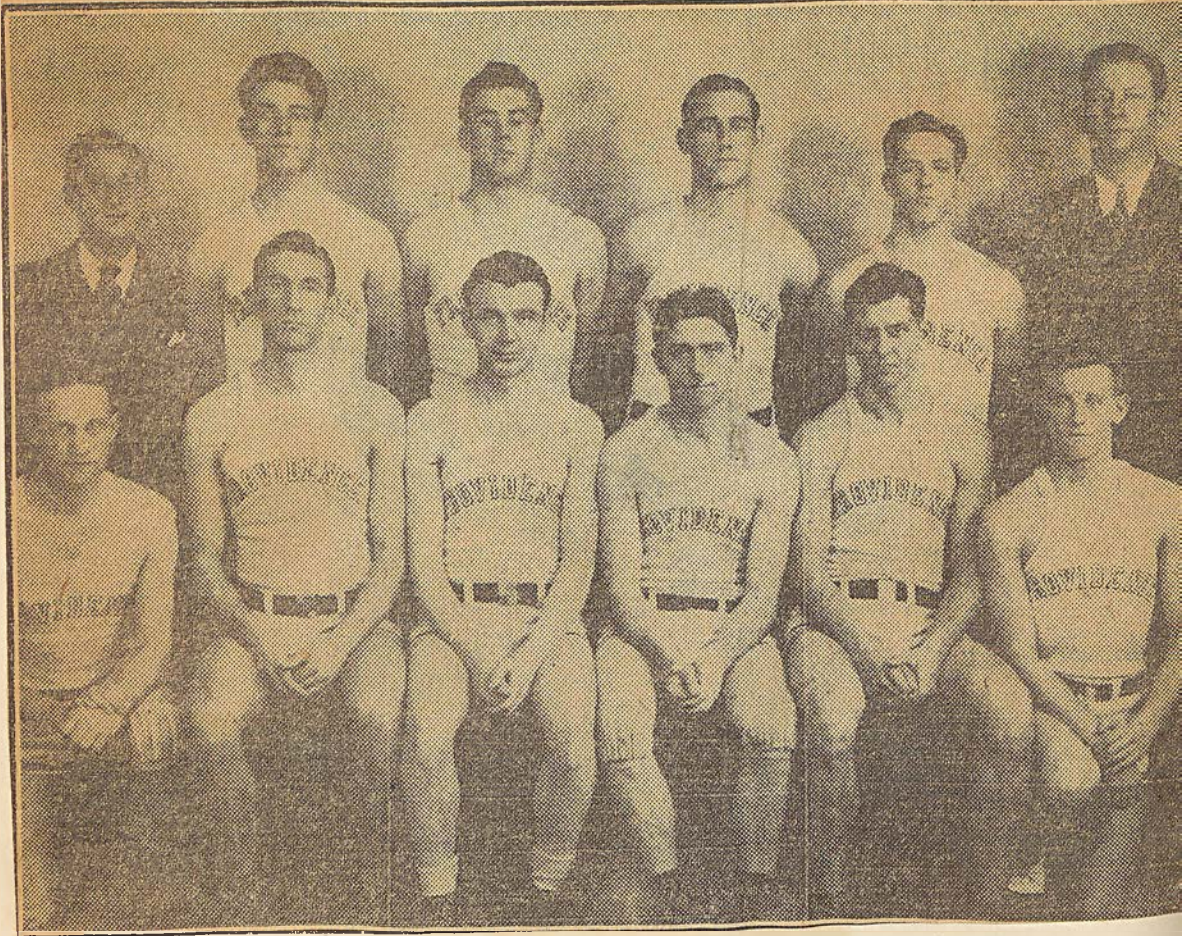

The one-sided victory continues the high scoring record of the yearlings, who have averaged 44 points per game in their competition this winter, and have been pressed for the decision in but one tilt. Superior team play, aided by the spectacular basket tossing of Perrin, decided the issue early in the game.

Bryant-Stratton garnered an early lead, which was short-lived once the Black and White cubs found their range. The Smith Hillers surged ahead as the first period ended, and continued a successful attack throughout the second period to leave the floor at halftime with a 20 to 12 advantage. In the second half the Friars outclassed their rivals in every department of play.

PROV. COLLEGE FRESHMEN (43)			BRYANT COLLEGE (18)
	G.	F. P.		G.	F. P.
Worrall, H.	0	1 1	Crawford, H.	3	0 6
Jorbett, H.	2	0 4	McHibben, H.	0	0 0
Perrin, rf.	8	1 17	Novack, rf.	1	1 3
Davis, c.	1	2 4	Del Santo, rf.	0	0 0
Reavey, c.	0	0 0	Mott, c.	2	0 4
Tebbetts, lg.	2	1 5	Brousseau, c.	0	0 0
Lacey, lg.	0	0 0	Lincoln, lg.	2	1 5
Roberge, rg.	6	0 12	Wasilewski, rg.	0	0 0
Total	19	5 43	Total	8	2 18

Referee--Jenkins. Time--10-minute periods.

Providence College Hoop Squad

Front row, left to right: James Welch, forward; Allan Brachen, guard; William McCue, forward and captain; John Kreiger, forward and captain; Ed Koslowski, centre; John McCormac, forward. Back row, left to right: Louis A. Imbriano, Manager; Edward Reilly, guard; George Cody, guard; Francis Dromgoole, centre; Edward Derivan, guard and Albert McClellan, coach.

C. C. N. Y. CHECKS PROVIDENCE COLLEGE;

WINS 26 TO 17

Friars Weaken in Final Period; Lose to C. C. N. Y.

De Phillips, Gotham Centre,
Scores 11 Points.—Kreiger Leads for Dominicans.

(Special to the Providence Journal)

New York, Feb. 7.—The City College basketball team proved too fast for the Providence College Varsity quintet here tonight and as a result snapped a five game winning streak of the Friars by collecting a 26-17 decision in a hard fought contest. Play was fast throughout with the Dominicans holding their own until the final stages of the game, when they weakened in the face of the relentless attack on their hoop.

De Phillips, centre and captain of the locals, was the outstanding performer of the game, turning in some fine work at the pivot post and cutting through four times to rim the hoop from underneath on spectacular plays. Ed Koslowski, his Providence rival, played a strong game throughout, and with McCue, Friar captain, gave the best performances of the visitors.

With McCue playing a passing game in bringing the ball up from the back court, the Friars held pace with the City Collegians throughout the first half. The locals claimed an early lead which was not eliminated until 10 minutes of play had been run off when Krieger converted on a Spann foul to tie the score at five all.

Game played: February 7, 1931

Play continued close for the remainder of the period with Bracken and Koslowski keeping the Dominicans in the running with their field goals. At the half time the New Yorkers left the court with the slim margin of three points, the count being 12 to 9 in their favor.

Shortly after the second half got under way, the Hotman coached quintet opened with a flashy running attack which enabled them to climb into a comfortable lead. As a result they ran their string to 23 to 13 for the Dominicans before Krieger tossed in a pair of free throws. With the verdict settled the locals rushed in reserves to tire the Friars and to maintain their advantage.

C. C. N. Y. (26)				PROVIDENCE (17)
	G.	F.	P.		G.	F.	P.
Rabinowitz, lf.	1	2	4	Krelger, lf.	1	4	6
Heft, lf.	0	2	2	Welch, lf.	0	1	1
M. Trupin, rf.	2	0	4	McCue, rf.	0	0	0
Hochman, rf.	0	0	0	Koslowski, c.	2	0	4
DePhillips, c.	4	1	9	Dromgoule, c.	0	1	1
White, c.	0	0	0	Gainor, lg.	0	0	0
Spahn, lg.	1	2	4	Jody, lg.	0	0	0
J. Trupin, lg.	0	0	0	Brachen, rg.	2	1	5
Davidoff, rg.	0	0	0
Wishnowitz, rg.	1	1	3
Total	9	8	26	Total	5	7	17

Referee—Silverman. Time—20-minute periods. Umpire—Meehan.

BIG WEEK AHEAD FOR DOMINICANS

'Varsity Hoopsters to Start Hard Schedule at Brook- lyn Thursday.

A busy week is ahead for the Providence College basketball squads with the 'Varsity aggregation meeting three opponents on foreign courts and on successive nights, while the Freshman team invades Newport for a tussle with the De La Salle Academy quintet on Friday night.

The 'Varsity hoopsters will leave here Thursday for New York and that night will tackle the Columbus Club team in Brooklyn. The Clubmen have met and vanquished some of the leading teams of the East already this winter and have high hopes of adding the Friars to their list of victims. Yale sustained a 30 to 20 setback at the hands of this outfit, while Georgia Tech, Georgetown University and many other strong teams met a similar fate in Brooklyn.

Friday night the Friars will travel to Allentown, Pa., where they are slated to open court relations with Muhlenberg College. This contest will mark the second athletic meeting between the two schools, the Pennsylvanians having paid a visit to Hendricken Field last spring to furnish stubborn opposition for the Dominican nine. Little is known of the strength of the Muhlenberg five, although advance reports would indicate that the Smith Hillers will need their full strength to claim the decision.

On Saturday the road trip will wind up with the annual tilt with Upsala College in East Orange, N. J. The Jersey collegians have yet to score a win over the Friars in any sport, but have furnished stubborn opposition in basketball on several occasions and will have to be watched carefully this week-end, particularly as the game will come after the Friars have undergone two hard tests.

While the 'Varsity aggregation is testing its mettle on out-of-town courts, the yearling squad will perfect its attack for the game at Newport Friday when it will face one of the hardest tests of its campaign in the game with the De La Salle hoopsters. The Academy team, coached by Stanley Szydla, captain of the Friars last winter, is enjoying a banner season and is confident of taking the measure of the strong Black and White cubs.

FRIAR FIVE STARTS THREE GAME TRIP

Meets Columbus Club in Brooklyn Tonight. — Tackle Muhlenberg Friday.

The Providence College basketball squad will leave today on a three-game road trip for contests in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The first game will be in Brooklyn tonight, against the Columbus Club quintet. Tomorrow the Dominicans visit Allentown to oppose Muhlenberg College, and on Saturday wind up the week's activities with the annual Upsala game.

Coach McClellan believes the Friars will give the Clubmen a hard run tonight. Ed Koslowski, his husky centre, may have difficulty in securing the tap on the centre jump, because the Columbus Club quintet boasts a six foot four inch pivot man. The same team which faced City College in New York last Saturday night will take the floor again tonight.

Tomorrow the Friars test their mettle against a newcomer on their sports schedule in Muhlenberg College at Allentown. Little is known of the style of play of the Pennsylvanians, but every indication points to a stiff tussle, as Muhlenberg showed its strength in topping Lafayette by six points, and has won four games of its season which started Jan. 10.

Upsala has never provided very serious opposition, but the Friars will take no chances of an upset. This game will be played at the high school in West Orange, and will be the major contest of the Jersey collegians home schedule.

Prov. News Tribune

FRIARS LOSE CLOSE GAME TO K. C. FIVE

Brooklyn Club Stages Rally in Final Period to Win, 24-20

KRIEGER, M'CUE STAR

Providence Boys Beaten
Only in Final Minutes of Struggle

(Special to the Providence Journal)

Brooklyn, Feb. 12.—The Columbus Club basketball team scored a 24 to 20 triumph over the Providence College quintet here tonight, its sixth straight and 12th victory in 13 starts. The score at the half time was 12-all, and only by a rally in the fading moments of the game were the Columbians able to eke out the decision.

Eddy Koslowski, Providence centre, turned in a brilliant game at the pivot post in spite of the fact that he was forced to do his jumping against Ryan, six-foot-six-inch centre of the Columbians. The Friar yearling also contributed five of the points garnered by the Dominicans, and featured with his defensive play. Co-starring with him for the visitors was Bill McCue whose passing enabled the Rhode Islanders to keep in the running until the final moment of play.

Keating, former St. Francis College player, was high scorer, with a total of nine points which included two spectacular field goals in the final rally which turned the tide to the Brooklynites. Garvey, right forward, collected seven points.

The Dominicans jumped into an early lead and ran their score to six before the Clubman broke through for a marker. From then on play was nip and tuck. The Columbians climbed into the lead mid way through the period, only to give way to the Friars. Again as the half time whistle sounded, Koslowski tossed in a pretty shot from the side of the court to knot the cout at 12 all.

Game played: February 12, 1931

The second half was a repetition of the first 20 minutes of play, and it was not until the final five minutes that Keating tied the score at 19 all after Krieger had put the Friars out in front, and then Garvey dropped a hawker in from beyond the foul line to claim the lead for the Columbus Club. McDonnell's score after taking a long pass, and Keating's point on Gainor's personal, proved the winning margin.

Tomorrow night the Friars will face the Muhlenberg College team at Allentown in the second game of their road trip.

The summary:

COLUMBUS CLUB (24)			PROV. COLLEGE (20)
G. F. P.			G. F. P.
Benedict, lf	1	1	3	Krieger, lf	2	1	5
Garvey, rf	3	1	7	McCue, rf	0	1	1
Ryan, c	1	0	2	Koslowski, c	2	1	5
McDonnell, lg	1	1	3	Gainor, lg	0	1	1
Keating, rg	4	3	9	Welch, lg	0	1	1
				Brachen, rg	3	1	7
				Dromgoole, rg	0	0	0
Total 9 6 24			Total 7 6 20
Referee—W. Brennan (E. I. A.).			Time—20-minute periods.
Umpire—R. Meehan (E. I. A.).

FRIARS TAKE COURT GAME

Defeat Muhlenburg in Fine Exhibition of Fast Basketball

Allentown, Pa., Feb. 14.—Held on even terms throughout the first half, the Providence College basketball team opened up a notch in the second half and managed to gain a 34-29 verdict over a fight Muhlenberg five in a closely contested game here last night. The Friars will be trying for their eighth victory of the season when they stack up against Upsala College, N. J., tonight in the final contest of their three-game road series.

The play of Capt. Johnny Krieger, Dick Brachen and Chick Gainor stood out for the Friars last night during the second half onslaught which produced a Providence victory. Wackernagle, Muhlenberg right forward, with 11 points was the game's high scorer.

Competition was close throughout the first half with the lead shifting back and forth between the two teams. As the whistle sounded the count was tied at 16-16.

FRIARS TAKE LEAD

Providence jumped into the lead soon after the start of the second half and was out in front a comfortable margin until the closing minutes when Muhlenberg began to press hard. As the game neared its end Koslowski, Friar centre, was banished because of personal fouls. Gainor took over the centre post and Cody went in at left guard.

The Muhlenberg hoopsters' late rally brought them up to within a single point of the Dominicans on two occasions but in each case the Friars managed to stem the threat before the homesters could take over the lead. With Providence leading only 27-26 and Muhlenberg fighting hard for a basket, Gainor protected his team's advantage by scoring on a free try and then sending in a field goal to make the score 30-26 in favor of the Friars.

Again the Muhlenberg offensive began to function and the gap between the two teams was lessened to 30-29. The game was saved for the Friars, however, when Brachen and Krieger accounted for baskets while Muhlenberg went scoreless until the final whistle.

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (34)				MUHLENBERG COLLEGE (29)
G. F. P.		G. F. P.		G. F. P.		G. F. P.
Kreiger, lf...	4	1	9	O'Brien, lf...	0	0	0
McCue, lf...	0	0	0	Nixon, lf...	2	0	4
Koslowski, c...	2	3	7	W'k'nagle, rf	4	3	11
Gainor, lg...	2	2	6	Lauch, c...	1	1	3
Welch, lg...	1	0	2	Horne, lg...	3	0	3
Brachen, rg...	5	0	10	Judd, rg...	2	1	5
Cody, lg...	0	0	0

Totals 14 6 34 Totals 12 5 29
 Referee—Witwer. Umpire—Long. Time of periods—20 minutes.

Prov. News-Tribune

Game played:

February 13, 1931

DE LA SALLE FIVE TRIPS FRIAR CUBS

Academy Boys Chalk Up 13th Victory in 14 Starts by Upsetting Collegians 30-24.

De La Salle Academy won its 13th victory in 14 starts last night, administering Providence College Freshmen's first defeat of the year, 30-24. The game was played before a capacity crowd on the De La Salle court in Newport, and it was the fastest contest of the season there to date. The Frosh pressed the schoolboys hard in the first half, but Cooney, Connerton and Fitzgerald combined in the third period to put the Newporters safely in front. The Friar Yearlings dropped in four long toms in the last period, but De La Salle was too far ahead to be endangered. It was a notable victory for De La Salle, and pretty much of an upset.

St. Mary's won the preliminary, a Newport Parochial League game, 32-10 from St. Joseph's.

The summary:

DE LA SALLE (30)				P. C. FRESHMEN (24)
G. F. P.		G. F. P.		G. F. P.		G. F. P.
Kenney, lf...	0	0	0	Ferrin, lf...	2	5	9
Fitzgerald, lf...	1	0	2	Morrison, lf	1	1	3
Connerton, rf	3	1	7	Worrall, rf	3	0	6
Elato, rf	0	0	0	Vennsenati, rf	0	0	0
Cooney, c	6	2	14	Davis, c	2	1	5
Sullivan, c	0	0	0	McWary, c	0	0	0
Donovan, lg	1	3	5	Reavey, lg	0	1	1
Egan, lg	0	0	0	Lally, rg	0	0	0
King, lg	0	0	0	Tebbetts, rg	0	0	0
Mastland, rg	0	0	0
Rathkamp, rg	0	0	0
Harris, rg	1	0	2

Total 12 6 34 Total 6 5 24
 Referee: H. F. Asher. Time: four 8-minute periods.

James Welch,
Sub-forward.

FRIARS OUTCLASS UPSALA QUINTET

Providence Five Wins 42 to 26.
Dominican Captains Lead Attack.

(Special to the Providence Journal)
East Orange, N. J., Feb. 14.—The crack Providence College basketball team chalked up its eighth win of the season and its second victory of its road trip by completely outclassing the Upsala College quintet here tonight to win by a 42 to 26 score.

The superior all-around play of the Friars assured them of the verdict from the very onset of the clash.

Capt. Krieger and McCue of the Dominicans were the leaders of the Providence attack, the former collecting 12 points and the latter netting eight markers for the Black and White cause. Gainor, left guard of the visitors, featured with his accurate foul tossing, scoring on five out of six tosses from the free throw line.

After the Friars had raced away to a sizeable lead Coach McClellan used his reserve performers, sending Dromgoole in at centre and Cody and Welch in at the back court berths. All three players turned in some fine work, with Dromgoole adding a brace of field goals on pivots under the hoop. The subs also played for the better part of the second half.

Branchen sent the Friars on their way five seconds after the opening whistle when he tossed in a field goal on a play from the initial tap, and Gainor contributed a hawker from mid-court a moment later to start a barrage on the Upsala hoop which was not halted until 15 points had been made. At the half time the Friars led 26 to 5, holding their opponents to one field goal during the 20 minutes of play.

With the Dominican subs in the lineup in the second half the locals boosted their total, with Carlson featuring their attack with five long field goals. However, a consistent scoring attack of the Rhode Islanders enabled them to tally almost at will to maintain their long lead.

The summary:

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (42)				UPSALA COLLEGE (26)
	G.	F.	P.		G.	F.	P.
Krieger, lf ..	5	2	12	Carlson, lf..	5	0	10
McCue, rf ..	3	2	8	W. Johnson, rf	0	1	1
Koslowski, c.	3	1	7	Farson, c ..	1	5	7
Dromgoole, c.	2	0	4	J. Johnson, lg.	1	0	2
Gainor, lg....	1	5	7	Swanson, c ..	0	0	0
Welch, lg....	0	0	0	Hollertz, rg..	1	0	2
Branchen, rg.	2	0	4	Nash, rg ...	2	0	4
Cody, rg	0	0	0
Totals	16	10	42	Totals.....	10	6	26

Referee—Cooke. Time—20-minute periods.

FRIARS' FIVE TRAMPLES

WILDCATS AT DURHAM

31 TO 21

NEW HAMPSHIRE
WINNING STREAK BROKEN BY LOCALS

McCue, Krieger and Koslowski
Score More Points Than Entire Opposing Team.

(Special to the Providence Journal)

Durham, N. H., Feb. 17.—Providence College broke the University of New Hampshire's winning streak here tonight by handing the Wildcats a 31 to 21 basketball defeat in a hard fought game. The victory was the ninth of the season for the Friars, and their third court win in four years of competition with the locals.

Formidable Offence

Capt. McCue and Krieger, forwards, and Eddie Koslowski, centre, provided the Dominicans with a formidable offence with each of the three tossing in eight points, a combined total sufficient to top the work of the Wildcat basket tossers. Each of these three Friars collected their points in the same way, tossing in a trio of field goals and a pair of successful tosses from the free throw line.

Play was fast in the first half with the Dominicans running away to a long lead soon after the starting whistle sounded. At the haltime, with Krieger and McCue finding the Wildcat's hoop from the corners of the court, the Rhode Islanders had a 20 to 7 margin, holding the locals to three goals from the floor.

Game played: February 17, 1931

Wildcats Try Hard

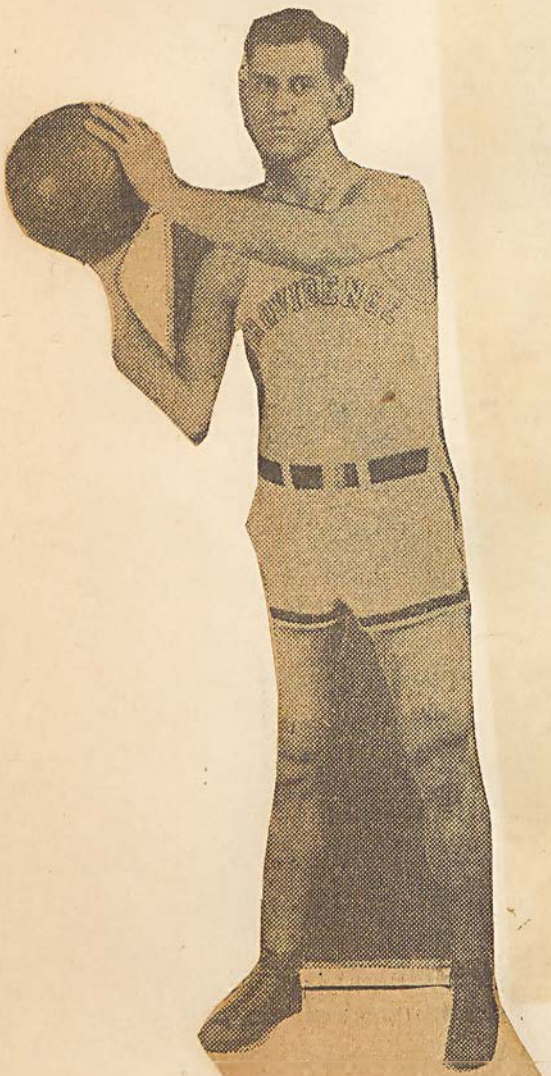

In the second half New Hampshire made a strong bid to get in the running, and unleashing a strong attack cut down the Friars long lead. The visitors, however, managed to pull ahead to a comfortable advantage in the final period through the efforts of Brachen who collected five points to give the Friars a 31 to 21 count when the final gun sounded.

The summary:
PROVIDENCE (31)

PROVIDENCE (31)			NEW HAMPSHIRE (21)
G.	F.	P.	G.	F.	P.
McKue, rf	3	2	Hagstrom, lg	1	0
Krieger, lf	3	2	Bronstein, rg	3	1
Koslowski, c	3	2	Ferrini, rg	0	0
Brachen, rg	1	3	Conroy, c	0	1
Gainor, lg	0	0	Clark, c	0	0
Weich, lg	1	0	Eustis, lf	2	1
			Brennan, lf	0	0
			Gormley, rf	1	2
			Campana, rf	1	0

Totals 11 9 31 Totals 8 5 21
Referee: Kelleher Umpire: Hoyt. Time four 10-minute periods.

Manchester (N.H.) Union

Edward Koslowski,
Center.

PROVIDENCE TEAM BEATS WILDCATS IN EASY FASHION

Friars Jump Into Big Lead in First Half; Score 31 to 21

Special to The Union.
DURHAM, Feb. 17.—The Providence College Friars, one of the fastest college basketball teams in the East, were too strong for the Wildcats tonight and one of the season's objective games was lost, 31 to 21. The Friars jumped into an early lead and outplayed the home team by a wide margin in the first period, the score at the half being 20 to 7.

In the second half, the Wildcats came back strong but by resorting to defensive tactics, the Rhode Island quintet managed to nurse a comfortable lead. Krieger, one of the best players among Eastern collegians, featured for the visitors. The summary:

Providence	New Hampshire
McKue, rf	lb, Hagstrom
Krieger, lf	rb, Bronstein
Koslowski, c	c, Conroy
Brachen, rb	lf, Eustis
Weich, lb	rf, Gormley

Score—Providence, 31; New Hampshire, 21. Goals from floor—McKue 3, Krieger 3, Koslowski 3, Weich, Brachen, Bronstein 3, Eustis 2, Hagstrom, Campana, Gormley. Goals from fouls—Brachen 3, McKue 2, Krieger 2, Koslowski, Gormley 2, Bronstein, Conroy, Eustis. Referee—Hoyt. Umpire—Kelleher. Scorer—Carleton. Timer—Robinson. Time—two 20 minute periods. Substitutes—Gainor for Weich, Ferrini for Bronstein, Clark for Conroy, Brennan for Eustis, Campana for Gormley.

CRUSADERS FACE FRIARS SATURDAY

Brown Freshmen Also on Twin Bill of Smith Hill
College.

Holy Cross and Brown, traditional rivals for Providence College teams, will provide the action in the twin bill carded for Saturday night when the Dominicans make their first home appearance of the month, the Crusaders meeting the Varsity in the main tilt, and the Bruin cubs tackling the undefeated Smith Hill yearlings in the prelim clash.

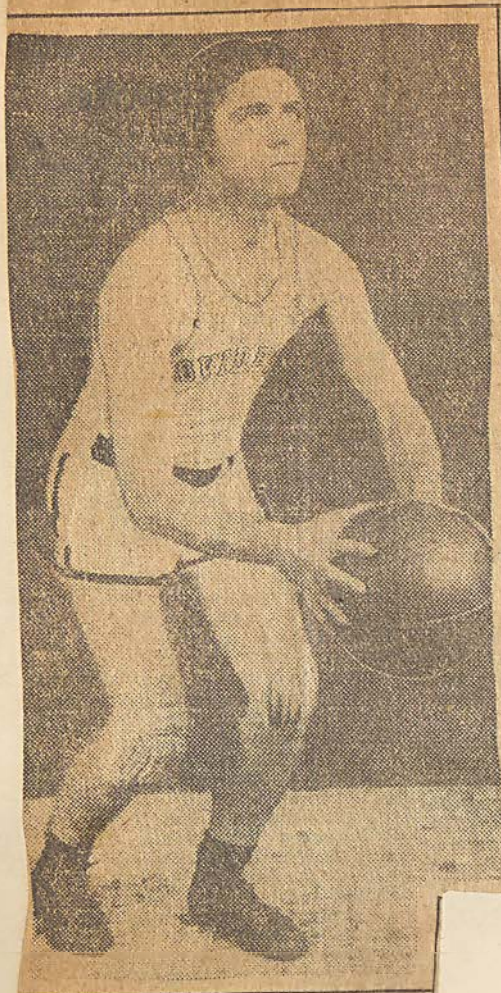

The court tilts with Holy Cross have always been thrilling encounters, and this year's series is no exception. Early in January the Friars travelled to Worcester and when apparently defeated for the first time by the Purple hoopsters, rallied to smash through with a 38 to 31 decision. Local fans will remember last year's clash in this city when Johnny Krieger pulled the game from the fire by his spectacular basket heaving in the final minutes of play.

The preliminary game, between the Freshman teams of Brown and Providence, promises to be as keenly fought as the major game. The Dominicans have bowled over all opposition this season. With two such fine attractions on tap the Smith Hill authorities anticipate a capacity crowd.

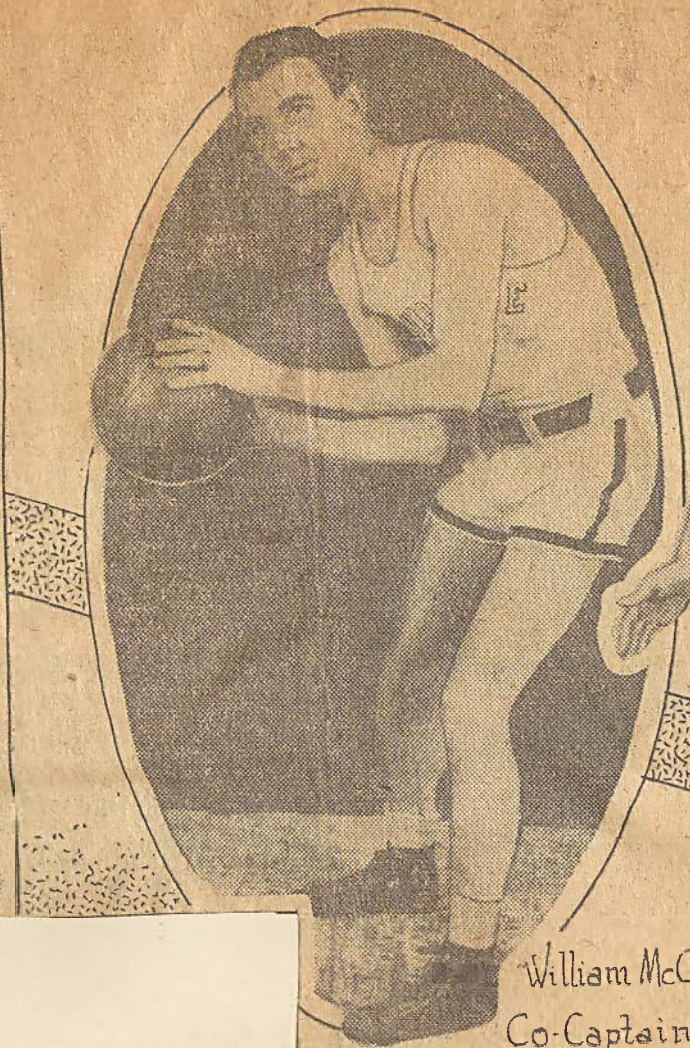

Since their defeat by the Friars, Holy Cross has turned about to administer some stiff setbacks to New England college court teams, and as a result will come here with renewed confidence. In Jim Farrell, captain and guard, the Crusaders have one of the best defensive performers in Eastern court ranks. In the game with the locals at Worcester he held Johnny Krieger, Black and White ace, to two field goals.

The Dominicans will return home today after a three game road trip to New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and will stage a light workout tomorrow afternoon. Tuesday Coach Al McClellan will head his aggregation into New Hampshire to avenge the defeat sustained at the hands of the University of New Hampshire quintet at Durham last winter.

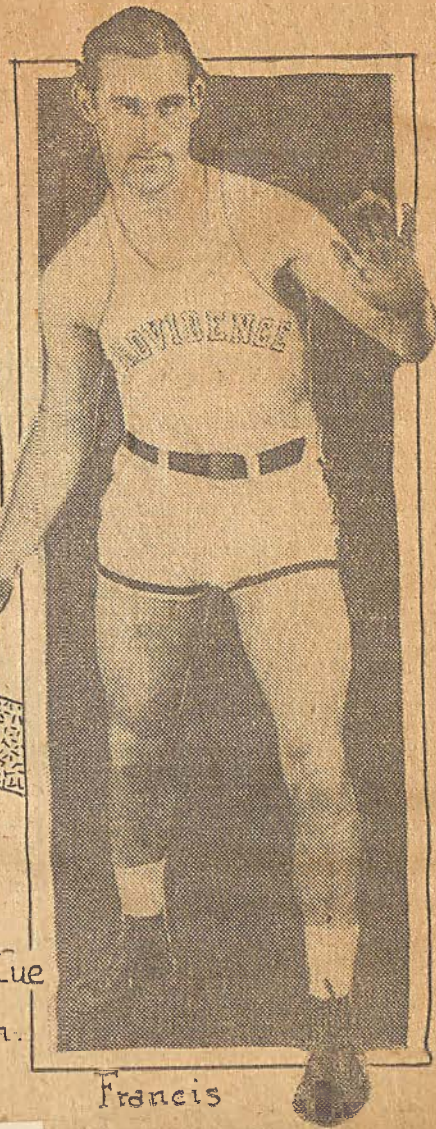

DEFEND COURT AGAINST CRUSADERS TONIGHT

Johnny Kreiger,
Co-Captain, Forward

William McCue
Co-Captain.
Forward.

Francis Dromgoole
Sub-centre

CRUSADER QUINTET TACKLES FRIARS IN HARKINS HALL

Holy Cross Keen to Wipe Out Earlier Defeat.—Freshmen Play Brown Cubs.

LINEUPS AT PROVIDENCE

PROVIDENCE.	HOLY CROSS.
Krieger (Capt.), l. f. r. g.	Fariell (Capt.)
McCue (Capt.), r. f. l. g.	Leary
Koslowski, c. Driscoll
Brachen, r. g. l. f.	Donovan
Dromgoole or Gainor, l. g. r. f.	Hickey

Referees—Parker of Everett and McGuiness of Brighton. Starting time—9 p. m.

Holy Cross and Providence College Varsity basketball teams clash tonight in the auditorium of Harkins Hall at Providence College. In addition the Providence Freshmen engage the Brown Freshmen in a preliminary attraction which will start at 7:45 p. m.

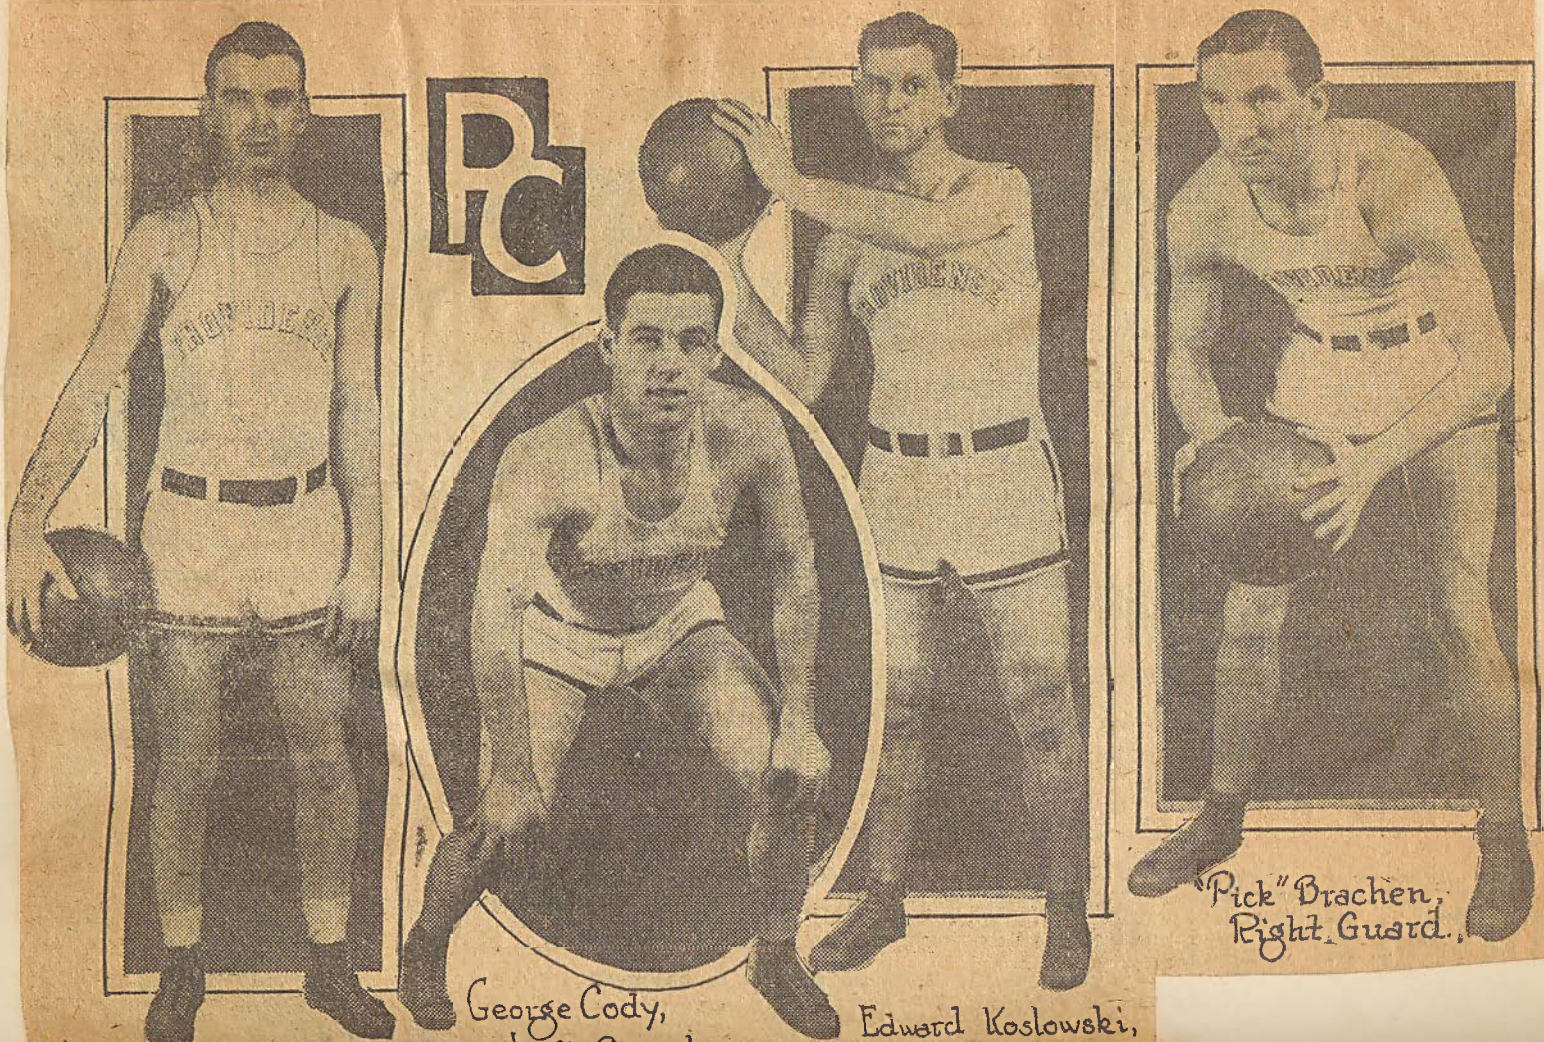

The Crusaders are anxious to avenge the unexpected reverse meted out to them early in December by the Friars who staged a belated rally to win in the closing minutes. The team is traveling at a lively clip, and with both Driscoll and Fitzgerald ready for duty at centre, the Purple outfit has high hopes of scoring its initial victory over the Smith Hillers.

Last minute plans by Coach McClellan of Providence indicate that Franny Dromgoole will play in the back court, pairing with Dick Brachen and relieving Chick Gainor. Gainor performed in the Southern New England amateur boxing tournament last night, having obtained special permission to compete in this event, and as result the Friar mentor fears he may not be ready to be at his best tonight.

Dick Brachen, right guard, will be the man who will demand constant watching by the Crusaders. Concentrating their attention on Krieger and McCue, forwards, in the first game of the series, the visitors failed to check Brachen closely with the result that the former Portchester star ran wild in the final minutes of play to lead a spirited attack.

One of the most important issues of tonight's game centres on the play of the rival centres, with Eddie Koslowski, six-footer from Bridgeport, doing the jumping for the Friars, and opposing Driscoll and Fitzgerald, Crusader huskies who alternate at the post for the visitors. Both Driscoll and Fitzgerald tower over Koslowski and are probably the biggest pivot men in New England college ranks, both are fine shots from under the basket.

Friars Who Will Face Holy Cross Here

William McCue, Co-Captain, Left Forward.

George Cody,
Left Guard.

Edward Koslowski,
Center.

"Pick" Brachen,
Right Guard.

FRIARS SMOTHER CRUSADERS 36-19

Pile Up Winning Margin in Second Half.—Freshmen Down Brown Cubs.

The basketball forces of Providence College, both Varsity and Freshmen, ran wild at Harkins Hall last night to score victories over Holy Cross and Brown in one of the finest basketball double-headers ever staged in this city. The Friar Varsity scored over the Crusaders for their 10th triumph of the season by smashing through a 36 to 19 victory, while the Dominican yearlings out-classed the Bruin Freshmen to earn a 50 to 13 verdict. A capacity crowd of close to 1000 watched the contest.

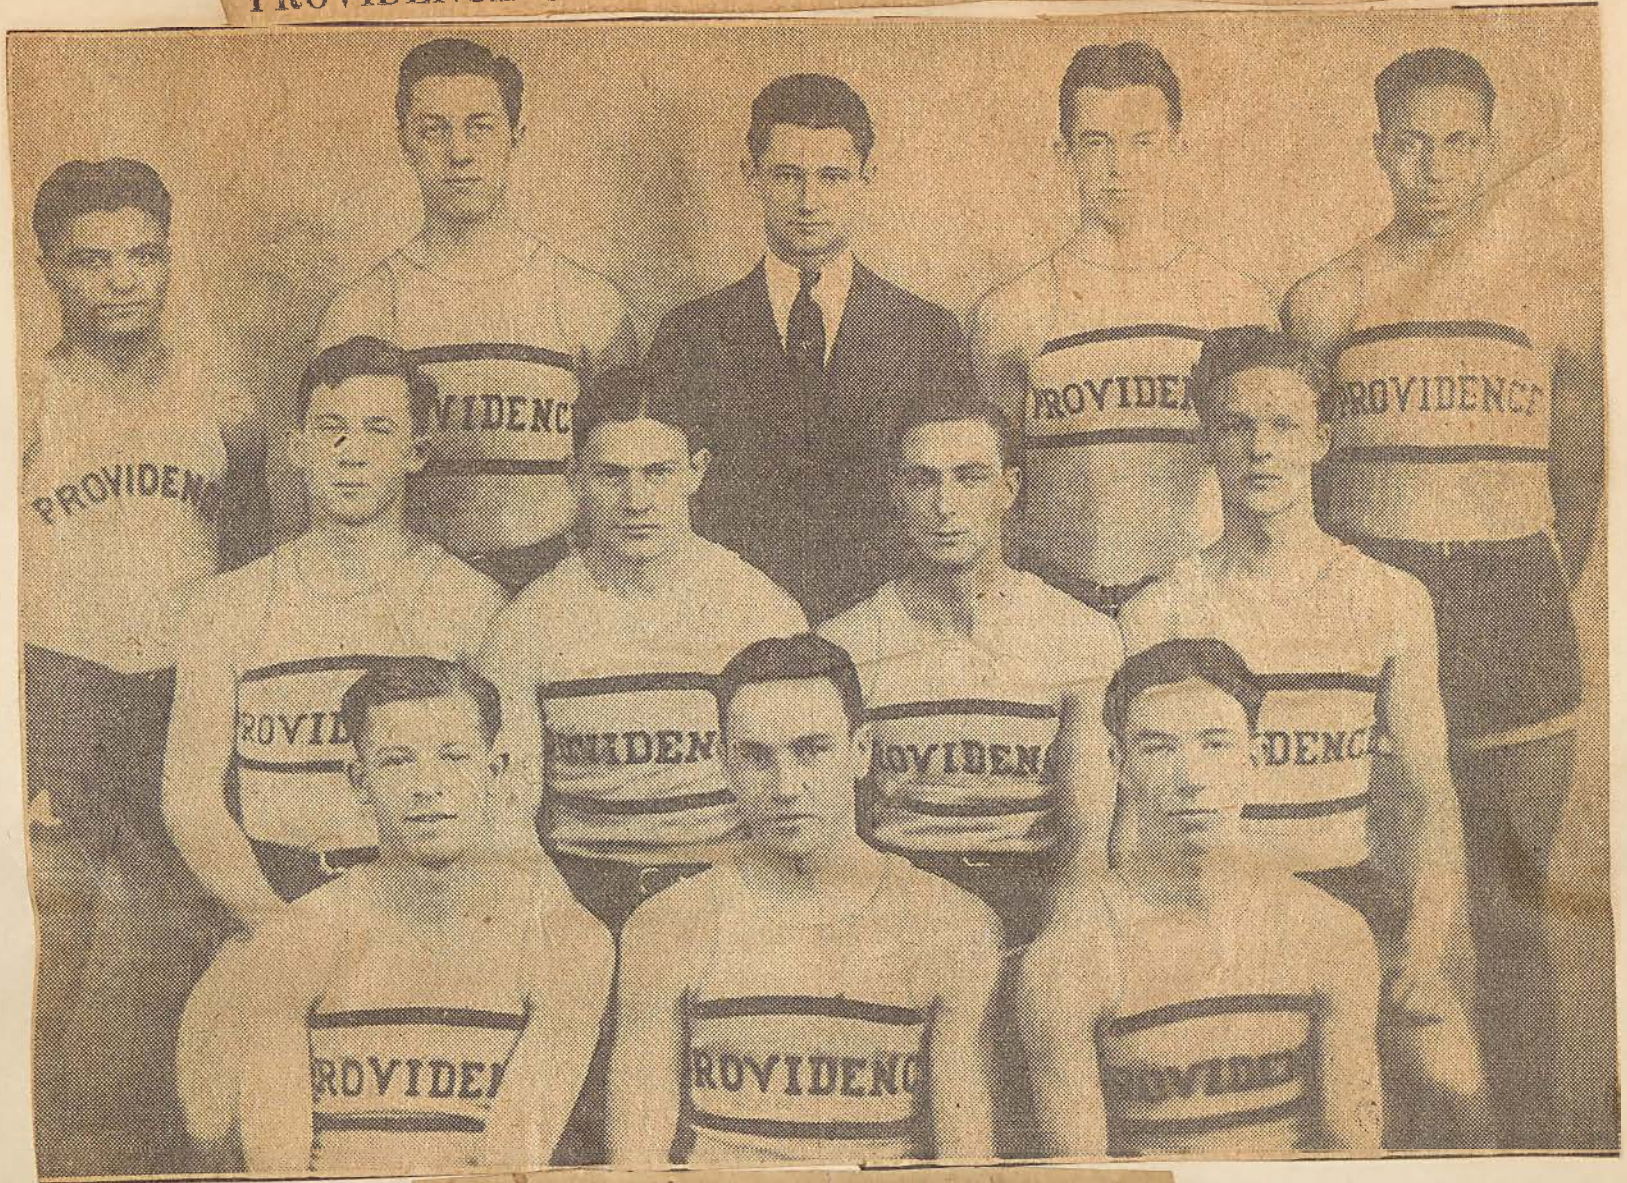

The Varsity encounter was one of the most exciting tilts of the long series of battles between the Smith Hillers and the Purple. Play was close throughout the first half with the lead alternating, as both teams uncorked rallies. The Friars left the floor at the half-time with a 19 to 13 lead, but it was wiped away within four minutes after the start of the second half.

Captains Bill McCue and Johnny Krieger led the Providence triumph, although each member of the Friar quintet turned in a fine exhibition to completely smother the Holy Cross outfit's efforts in the second half, holding the Crusaders scoreless in the last 10 minutes of play and rolling up 14 points themselves to continue their march for New England collegiate honors.

Ed Koslowski, Providence centre, dominated the play in the middle court and although opposing Luke Driscoll, one of the tallest pivot men in college ranks, smashed through to take the high scoring honors of the night, with 14 points. Krieger collected eight points although closely guarded by Captain Jim Farrell of the Crusaders, while McCue added five points and starred by his sensational floor work.

Game played. February 21, 1931

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE FRESHMAN BASKETBALL TEAM

First row, left to right: Walter Corbett, forward; Milton Lacey, forward, and John Morrison, forward. Middle row, left to right: George Lebbetts, guard; Dale Worrall, forward; ~~Benjamin~~ McGarry, forward, and Oscar Perrin, forward. Back row, left to right: August Benvenuti, forward; Oliver Roberge, guard; Thomas J. O'Brien, manager; Frank Leav-

Joseph

With Gainor somewhat fatigued by his competition in the amateur boxing championships of Friday night, when he won the southern New England amateur welterweight title. Coach McClellan gave Franny Dromgoole, former Classical star a chance to swing into the first string array. Dromgoole turned in a fine game, scoring one field goal and handling the ball exceptionally well.

The summary:

PROVIDENCE (26)			HOLY CROSS (19)
	G.	F. P.		G.	F. P.
Krisger, lf...	1	6	Schoenr'k, lf	3	0 6
Welch, lf...	0	0	Dunn, lf...	0	0 0
McCue, rf...	2	1	Mantill, rf...	0	0 0
McCormac, rf...	0	0	Hickey, rf...	0	0 0
Koslowski, c...	5	4 14	Driscoll, c...	3	0 6
Dromgoole, lg...	1	0	Fitzgerald, c...	0	0 0
Gainor, lg...	0	0	Leary, lg...	2	0 4
Brachen, rg...	3	1	Curran, lg...	0	0 0
Cody, rg.....	0	0	Farrell, rg...	0	1 1
			Nicholson, rg	0	0 0
Total	12	12 36	Total	9	1 19

Referee—McInnis. Umpire—Farker. Time—20-minute periods.

The summary:

PROVIDENCE COL. FRESHMEN (50)			BROWN FRESHMEN (13)
	G.	F. P.		G.	F. P.
Corbett, lf...	1	0	Smith, lf...	1	1 3
Worrall, lf...	8	0	Connell, lf...	0	0 0
Ferrin, rf...	5	1	Davis, rf...	0	1 1
Morrison, rf...	0	0	Morse, rf...	1	0 2
Davis, c.....	7	1	Strand, c...	1	0 2
Reavey, c.....	0	0	Maley, c.....	0	1 1
Tebbetts, lg...	0	0	Hammer, lg...	0	0 0
Wright, lg...	0	0	Clark, rg...	2	0 4
McGarry, lg...	0	0
Roberge, rg...	3	0 6
Lucey, rg...	0	0 0
Boyle, rg.....	0	0 0
Total	24	2 50	Total	5	3 13

Referee—Haughey. Time—20-minute periods.

FRIAR QUINTET OUTCLASSES

WORCESTER POLYTECH

41 TO 25

BRACHEN IS HIGH SCORER OF GAME
WITH 21 POINTS

Dominicans Rally After Listless Start to Take Lead in Second Period.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

Worcester, Mass., Feb. 23.—The Providence College Varsity basketball team scored its 11th win of the season here tonight by outclassing Worcester Polytech by a 41 to 25 score in a listless contest. The Friars were apparently somewhat off form and as a result failed to impress by their play except in the latter half of the second period, when they went on a scoring spree to run up their high total.

Dick Brachen, right guard of the Dominicans, was the individual star of the fray, tossing in 10 field goals and a foul shot for a total of 21 points, almost enough to equal the efforts of the local hoopsters. Brachen broke loose in the second half, retrieving rebounds to toss the leather back through the hoop and contributing several spectacular floor goals on pivot plays.

The Rhode Islanders failed to show their real strength in the first half and as a result were forced all the way by the Engineers. Play was nip and tuck until the final two minutes of this period, when Koslowski took passes from Capt. McCue to score two goals to give the Friars a 13 to 8 lead at the intermission. The first five minutes of the second half was a repetition of the preceding stanza until Brachen started his accurate shooting from under the Worcester basket.

Game played: February 23, 1931

"Pick" Brachen,
Right Guard.

With the score 19 to 15, Krieger scored from the side of the court and Brachen increased the lead on a pretty pivot under the hoop. Krieger added another score on a hawker from close to mid-court, and within the next minute Brachen rocketed the score to 31 with three field goals.

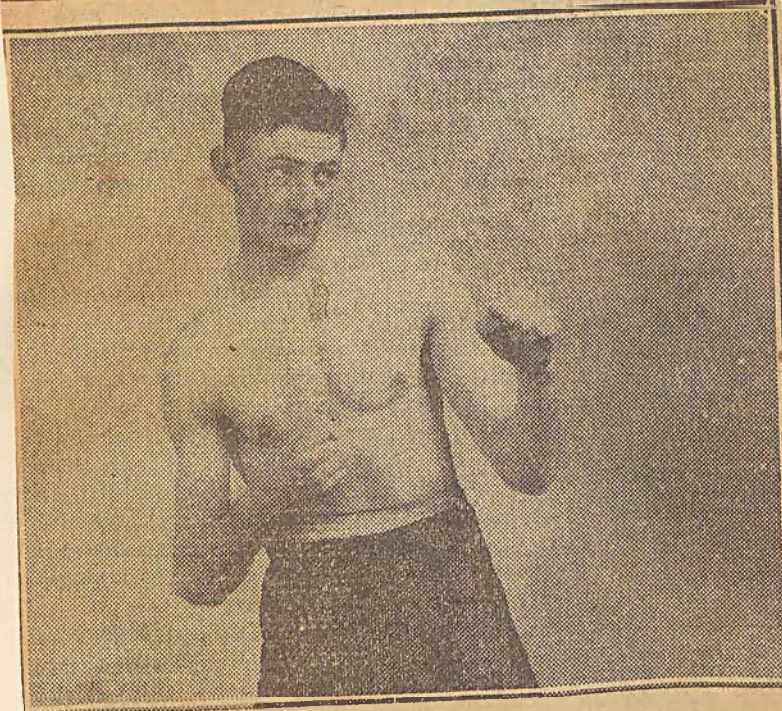

After this rally the Engineers were never in the running, and although Capt. Asp and Purrinton tossed in a few scores to swell their point total, the Dominicans flashed a strong running attack which enabled them to stay far in front. Koslowski, who played a brilliant game at centre, aided Brachen in continuing the Providence rally to enable the visitors to travel back to Rhode Island with a 41 to 25 verdict.

The summary:

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (41)			WORCESTER POLYTECH (25)
	G.	F. P.		G.	F. P.
Krieger, lf...	3	1 7	Purrinton, lf.	3	0 6
Cody, lf.....	0	0 0	Hammer, lf...	0	0 0
McQue, rf.....	0	0 0	Cullen, rf...	1	2 4
Reilly, rf.....	0	0 0	Asp, c.....	5	0 10
Koslowski, c..	5	0 10	Gartrell, lg..	1	1 3
Dromgoole, c..	1	0 2	Walker, rg... 1	0	2
Gatnor, lg....	0	1 1
Welch, lg....	0	0 0
Brachen, rg... 10	1	21
McCormac, rg.	0	0 0
Total	19	3 41	Total	11	3 25

Referee—D. Kelley. Time—20-minute periods.

Seeks Diamond Trophy

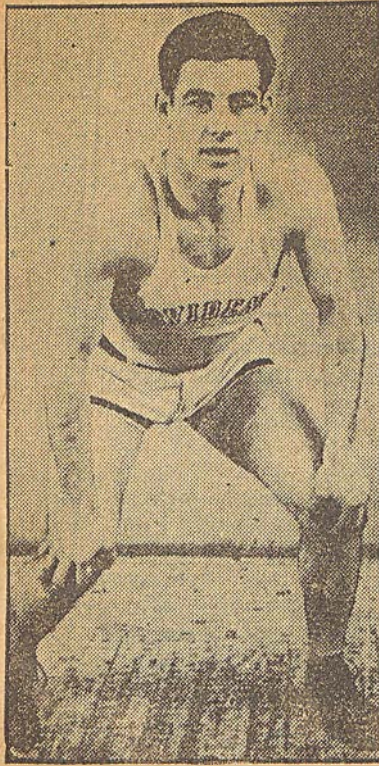

William "Chick" Gainor of Providence College, Southern New England champion welterweight and runner-up in the recent senior New England, heads the list of talent entered in the 147-pound division for the second annual diamond belt amateur boxing tourney carded for the Auditorium Friday night.

Southern New England Amateur Boxing Champs

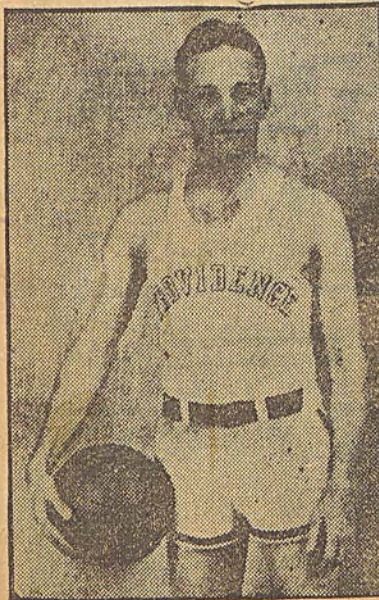

Flyweight—Teddy Mack, Coventry.
Bantamweight—Jimmy Drake, Providence.
Featherweight—Aime Rondeau, Woonsocket.
Lightweight—William Riley, Fall River.
Welterweight—William Gainor, Providence College.
Middleweight—Eddie Caladrone, Bristol.
Light Heavyweight—Manuel Tabor, East Providence.
Heavyweight—Joe Paders, Brown University.

Chick Gainor, the Providence College athlete, and former State amateur welter champion, made his return to competition a highly successful one. Displaying his usual two-fisted, hard punching attack, Gainor romped through the opposition with three knockouts to his credit. He stopped Armand Choquet of North Dartmouth in the second stanza of their trial match. Andrew Chapdelaine of Franklin fell before Gainor's dynamite punches in the first round of their semi-final fracas and Joe Silva of Taunton retired via the kayo route in the opening round of the final.

P. C. Luminaries

GEORGE CODY

JIMMIE WELCH

Providence Colleg is justly proud of the two young basketball players pictured above. Cody, a Woonsocket youth plays guard. He starred against Holy Cross. Welch, who fills in at Forward or guard, is a dependable shooter. Both will play against Seton Hall here tomorrow night.

Friars Entertain Seton Hall

NEW JERSEY FIVE BOASTS FINE RECORD

Prov News - Tribune

Friars Expect Hard Battle
Here Tomorrow Night

FROSH TO PLAY

Dominican Cubs Meet R. I.
C. E. in Preliminary Game

The Seton Hall College basketball team of South Orange, N. J., will invade Rhode Island tomorrow night to meet the crack Providence College quintet in the only home appearance of the Friars this week, while the Dominican freshmen meet the R. I. College of Education five in a preliminary encounter. Both games are listed for the college auditorium with the initial tilt at 7:30 and the varsity contest at 9 o'clock.

Victors in 10 of their contests this season, and boasting wins over such strong quintets as Temple and Villanova, the Seton Hall team will endeavor to snap a five-game win streak of the Smith Hillers and at the same time prevent the locals from collecting their 12th court victory of the campaign. As the game will be the first one of the Setonians' New England trip, they will be in top condition to down the McClellan men.

The Friars, recovered from their strenuous week-end which witnessed triumphs over Holy Cross and Worcester Polytech, rested yesterday, and will resume their workouts on their own court today. The mentor was pleased with the showing of his hoopsters in these two tilts, and although they failed to flash their best game at Worcester, the letdown was attributed to the hard battle with the Crusaders on Saturday.

FRIARS DRILL TODAY

This afternoon Coach McClellan plans to school the squad in five man defensive formations so as to cope with that form of play should the Setonians attempt to so protect their hoop tomorrow night. In as much as both teams boast an array of rangy performers, the clash will undoubtedly produce some fast and close playing.

The freshmen went through a brisk drill under the direction of McClellan yesterday. The veteran Dominican mentor has an eye to the future, and believes that the sub lineup will be a valuable addition to the first string array next winter. In Worrall and Perrin, clever forwards, he may have replacements for Captains McCue and Krieger who will be the only men lost from the team by graduation this year.

In all probability Chick Gainor, who added to his athletic laurels by winning the southern New England welterweight boxing title last week, will return to the starting lineup tomorrow. Gainor gave way to Franny Dromgoole for the Holy Cross clash, but in view of his long experience with the first team will be needed for the three remaining major tests with Seton Hall, Brown and Lowell Textile.

The probable lineups for tomorrow are:

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

SETON HALL COLLEGE

Capt. Krieger, lf.....rg., Outwater
Capt. McCue, rf.....lg., Madjeski
Koslowski, c.....c, Babiak
Brachen, rg.....lf., Singleton
Gainor, lg.....rf., Madigan Referees: Parker and McGuinness.

FRIARS TRIP SETON HALL FIVE

Brachen Scores 17 Points in Friars 48-31 Victory

New Jersey Five Never in Running. — Freshmen Win
Prelim 84 to 4.

With Dick Brachen, star right guard, continuing his sensational basket shooting, and aided by fine passwork and shooting by the rest of the first team, Providence College scored its 12th victory of the season by outclassing Seton Hall College at Harkins Hall last night 48 to 31. The victory was the second of the season by the Friars over the New Jersey collegians who boast triumphs over St. Thomas, Villanova and many other strong teams.

Brachen ran wild in the second half of the contest to enable the Friars to maintain a long lead, and to give himself the high scoring honors of the fray with a total of 17 points. Capt. Krieger with 11 points and Koslowski with nine assisted in the Dominican attack.

In taking their sixth straight the Friars continued their fine pass work with Capt. Bill McCue doing the bulk of the work in the back court. They piled up an early lead and at the halftime had a 25 to 12 advantage which enabled Coach McClellan to experiment with some of his reserve material during the second half.

Koslowski opened the scoring with a side shot, and Krieger flipped in a one-hand toss from the corner of the court a moment later to start a Providence rally which mounted to 10 points before the visitors broke into the scoring. Midway through the period the Smith Hillers were coasting along with a 16 to 8 lead when Gainor started another barrage on the New Jersey hoop which ran the string to 23 points before Segal put the Setonians in the running with a pair of field goals.

In the second half The Setona Hallers closed the gap to 25 to 17 before the Friars put on pressure and uncovered a fast running attack with Brachen and Koslowski piling up the lead. With the count 35 to 19, Coach McClellan sent in his second team, and the invaders boosted their score to 23, but were never able to make the tilt a close one.

Game played February 26, 1931

In the preliminary the Providence freshmen went on a scoring rampage to overwhelm the R. I. College of Education hoopsters under an 84 to 4 score. The teachers were never able to penetrate the Friar-cubs' defence, while the yearlings, with Captain Worrall and Roberge doing the bulk of the scoring, tallied at will.

The summaries:

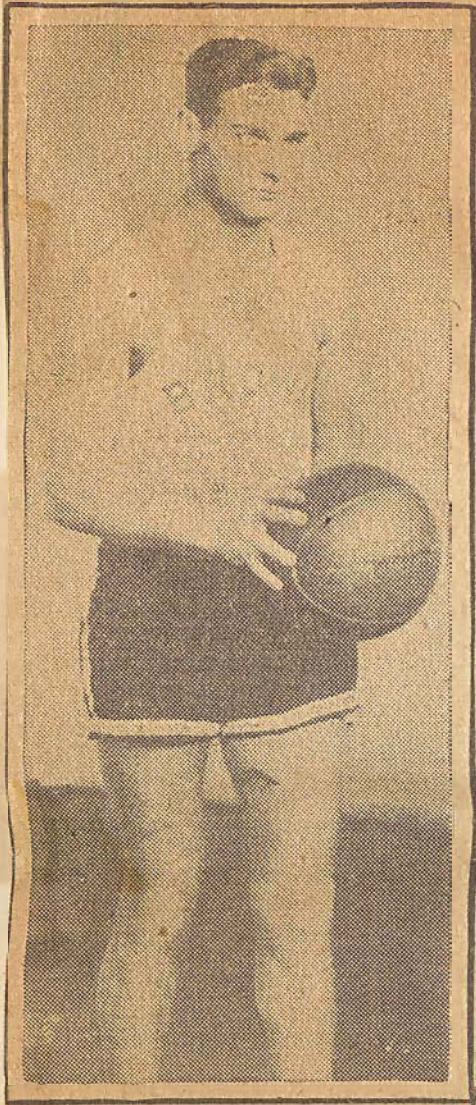

PROV. COLLEGE FRESHMEN (84)			R. I. COLLEGE OF EDUCATION (4)
G.	F.	P.	G.	F.	P.
Worrall, lf ..	9	0	18	Giblin, lf ...	0	1	1
Corbett, lf ...	2	0	4	Lavault, lf ..	0	0	0
Perrin, lf ...	5	1	11	Dione, rf ...	0	0	0
Barbarito, rf ..	4	0	8	O'Grady, rf..	1	0	2
Davis, c	5	0	10	Poole, c	0	0	0
Reavey, c	3	0	6	Macumber, lg	0	1	1
Tebbetts, lg ...	4	0	8	Colvin, rg ...	0	0	0
Lacey, lg	0	0	0	Riley, rg ...	0	0	0
Roberge, rg ..	8	1	17
McGarry, rg ..	1	0	2
Morrison, rg..	0	0	0

Total 41 2 84 Total 1 2 4
 Referee—C. Merritt. Time—Eight minute periods.

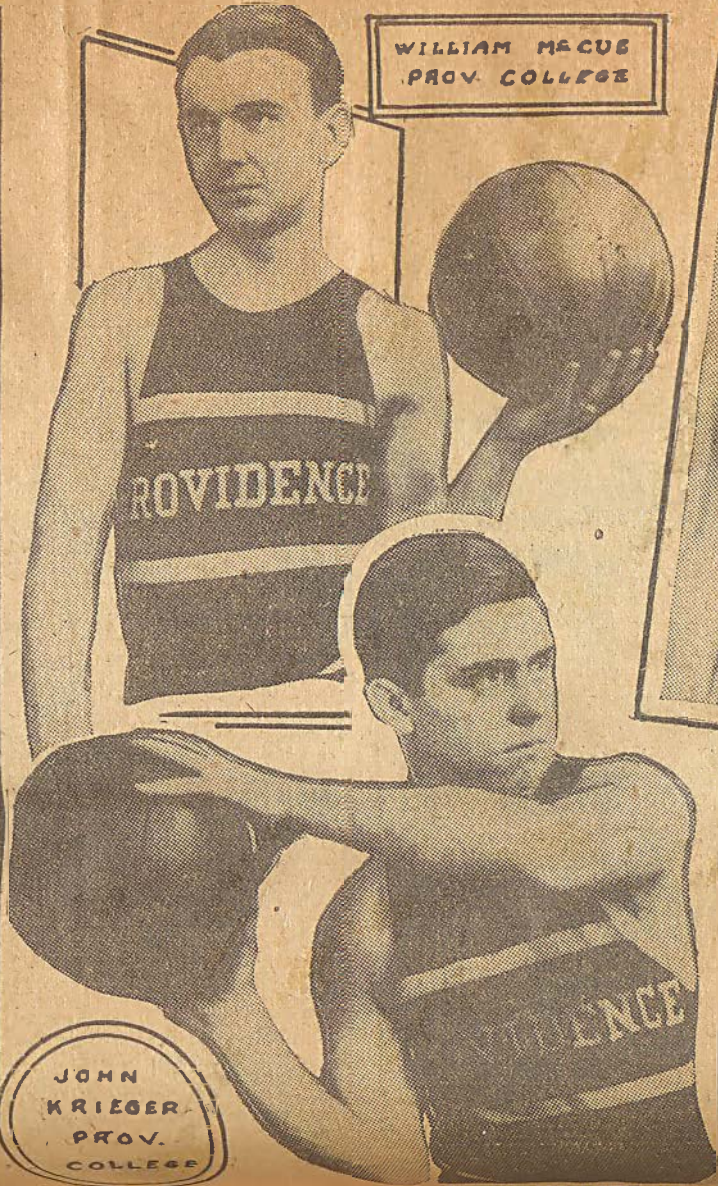

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (48)			SETON HALL COLLEGE (31)
G.	F.	P.	G.	F.	P.
Krieger, lf... 3	5	11	Singleton, lf.	1	0	2
Welch, lf.....	0	0	0	O'Hara, lf... 2	0	4
McCue, rf....	0	1	1	Madigan, rf. 2	1	5
McCormac, rf.	0	0	0	Torpey, rf... 0	0	0
Koslowski, c..	4	1	9	Babak, c.... 2	3	7
Dromgoole, c.	1	0	2	Segal, lg.... 5	0	10
Gainor, lg... 2	0	4	Madjeski, rg.	1	1	2
Reilly, lg....	0	0	0	Outwater, rg.	0	0	0
Brachen, rg... 6	5	17
Cody, rg..... 2	0	4

Total 18 12 48 Total 13 5 31
 Referee — McGuiness. Umpire — Parker.
 Time—20-minute periods.

Court Brilliants of Brown and P. C.

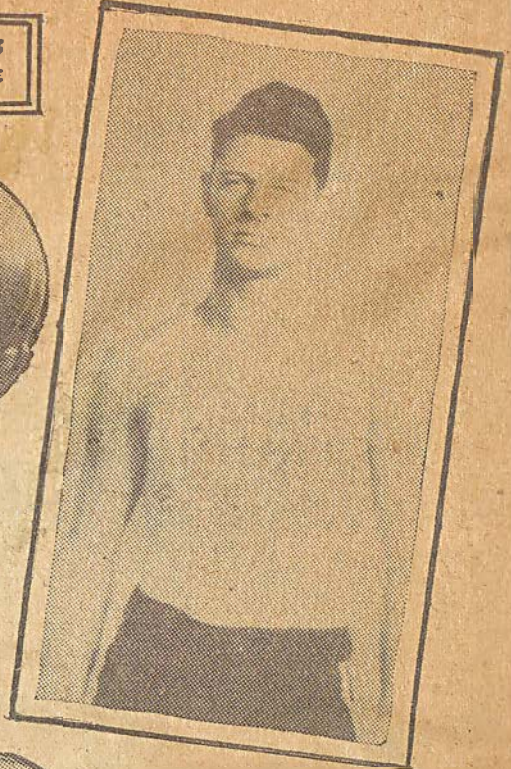

"JACK" CAULKINS
BROWN

JOHN
KRIEGER
PROV.
COLLEGE

WILLIAM MACCUB
PROV. COLLEGE

"TOM" SAWYER
BROWN

2500 SEE PROVIDENCE COLLEGE FIVE DEFEAT BROWN 47 TO 28

Friars Pile Up Big Lead In First Half Of Game

Koslowski Scores 15 Points.
Snyder, Brown Star,
Unable to Play.

Displaying a fine passing attack and an almost perfect defence the Providence College quintet scored a 47 to 28 victory over Brown in the annual game to decide the city championship played before approximately 2500 persons at the Elmgrove avenue gymnasium last night.

The Dominicans, with Eddie Koslowski leading the way, were in the lead throughout. At the half way mark their margin was 23 to 7. In the second half the Bears held the Friars on even terms but were unable to overcome the big lead chalked up against them in the first period and as a result were forced to go down to defeat for the eighth time in a row.

Paul Snyder, captain and individual star of the Brown team, was unable to play because of an infected foot. He watched the game from the Brown bench and there is but little doubt if he had played the score would have been much closer. The Brown captain has averaged 14 points per game this winter and this is the first time in his entire college career that he has been kept from playing.

Koslowski High Scorer

High scoring honors went to Koslowski, the centre for the Friars, who caged the leather for seven field goals and a foul shot for a total of 15 points. Jack Caulkins of the Brown team was second with 12 points, while Capt. McCue of Providence was next with 10.

Inability of the Brown players to sink the ball in the first half played no small part in their defeat. Time and time again the Bruins shot at the Providence College basket only to have the sphere bounced off the backboard without going through the netting. The Friars were making good practically every scoring bid and McCue displayed his ability as a long tom artist at intervals with baskets from the middle of the floor.

Game played: March 4, 1931

With the outcome of the game practically decided Coach Al McClellan sent in the Providence College second team in the second half. Its entrance was followed by a rally of the Brown forces which did not end until the signal was given that the game was over.

Walsh Replaces Snyder

In the absence of Capt. Snyder, Coach Bond started Jack Walsh at right forward. Walsh played the greater part of the game, being relieved by Bucky Harris and Bill Bradshaw only for a few minutes. Cy Mantell turned in the best performance of the three pivotmen which Bond used at centre. This position is one of the weak spots on the team.

The Providence College hoopsters were the first to score and inside of six minutes baskets by Kreiger, McCue, Koslowski and Gainor gave them a lead of 10 to 0 at this stage of the fray. The Brown five had taken the ball on the opening tipoff but Walsh missed an easy shot from under the basket and the Dominicans gained possession of the ball and kept it until they had piled up a comfortable margin.

Bud Hemelright broke the ice for the Bruins after seven minutes of play only to have Allan Brachen duplicate for Providence College with an overhand toss from the side court. At this point of the game the Friars unleashed a sudden passing attack under the Brown basket and they passed the ball for fully two minutes while the Bruins looked on as though they were helpless.

Score 23 to 7 at Half

A long shot from outside of the foul line by Schein added two more points to the Brown total. Caulkins made good on a foul shot when Brachen was detected pushing and then Koslowski went off on a scoring spree to drop three double counters in rapid succession. Sawyer retaliated for Brown with a field goal from the side. Kreiger ended the scoring in this period with two more baskets to give the Friars a 23 to 7 lead at the half way mark.

Coming back after the rest period the Bears opened a flashy attack and Caulkins and Walsh sent the ball flying through the Providence netting in quick order. The Friars called time out in order to reorganize their defence and at the resumption of play staged a rally which saw more baskets by Koslowski, McCue, Gainer and Brachen pass through the Brown hoop. At this point the Friars were ahead 34 to 11.

The first of the Providence substitutes went in at this point and Skinner replaced Mantell at centre for Brown. McCue sent the leather into the Brown rigging on another long tom shot. Hemelright started the Brown rally with two double counters in succession and Caulkins followed.

Then followed a steady bombardment at the Providence cage and with Caulkins leading the attack the Bears uncorked a number of fine baskets in a row to run the score up to 28 points while the best the Friars could do was to register on baskets by McCormac and Welch.

The summary:
PROVIDENCE
COLLEGE (47)

BROWN (28)

	G.	F.	P.		G.	F.	P.
Krieger,lf.	2	1	5	Stratbines lf. . .	4	0	10
McCormack,lf. . .	2	1	5	Walsh,rf.	1	0	2
McCue,rf.	5	0	10	Harris,rf.	0	0	0
Reilly,rf.	0	0	0	Bradshaw,rf. . .	0	0	0
Koslowski,c.	7	1	15	Sawyer,c.	2	0	4
Dromgoole,c.	0	0	0	Mentell,c.	0	0	0
Gainer,lg.	1	1	3	Skinner,c.	0	0	0
Cody,lg.	0	0	0	Schein,lg.	2	0	4
Brachen,rg.	3	1	7	Hemelright,rg. .	3	0	6
Welch,rg.	1	0	2	Jenson,rg.	0	0	0

Total 21 5 47 Total 13 2 28
Referees—Hoyt and Parker, Boston. Time
—20-minute periods.

High Scorer

Eddie Koslowski, Providence College Centre, makes 15 points in Friars' 47-28 Victory Over Brown.

FRIARS' VARSITY AND FRESHMAN FIVES WIN CLOSING CONTESTS

First Team Triumphs Over

Lowell Textile

Krieger and McCue End Careers in Splendid Style.—Yearlings Trim Dean.

The Providence College Varsity and Freshman basketball teams closed their season in impressive style at the Harkins Hall court last night by collecting a double victory, the Varsity downing Lowell Textile 34 to 29, while the yearlings handed Dean Academy its fourth defeat of the year 28 to 20. The Varsity victory was the 14th of the campaign and the first year team made its record eight out of nine.

Capt. Johnny Krieger and Bill McCue, forwards of the Dominican teams for the past four seasons, closed their collegiate careers by turning in their usual fine games. Krieger tossed in eight of the Providence points, while McCue featured with his splendid floor work and passing. Both performers received a tremendous ovation from the large crowd at the conclusion of the tilt.

Another Star Brightens

While McCue and Krieger were passing over the Smith Hill basketball horizon, another star came to the fore to assure the Friars of further successes in basketball in the person of Dick Brachen, clever guard who collected 18 of the Providence points. Brachen continued his sensational basket shooting of the past two months.

The Friars had a fight on their hands from the very onset. The Bay Staters presented a fast quintet with a pair of sharp shooting hoopsters in Kapala and Kokoska. The lead see-sawed throughout the first half, with the Friars staging a rally to come from behind to claim a three-point margin as the halftime whistle sounded.

Brachen scored first, on a shot from under the ring, and made good on his free throw toss awarded for Savard's fouling on the play. McCue converted on a foul, but Kapala and Jarek came back with points to take a 5 to 4 lead. Providence went ahead, only to have the Weavers overtake them and rush into an 11 to 6 lead midway through the period.

Game played: March 6, 1931

1928-29

Collegian to Box Again

William
"CHECK" GAINER
of
Troy, N. Y.

Center-guard on P.C. Basketball team — who became State Welterweight Boxing Champion
and also N.E.
Champion

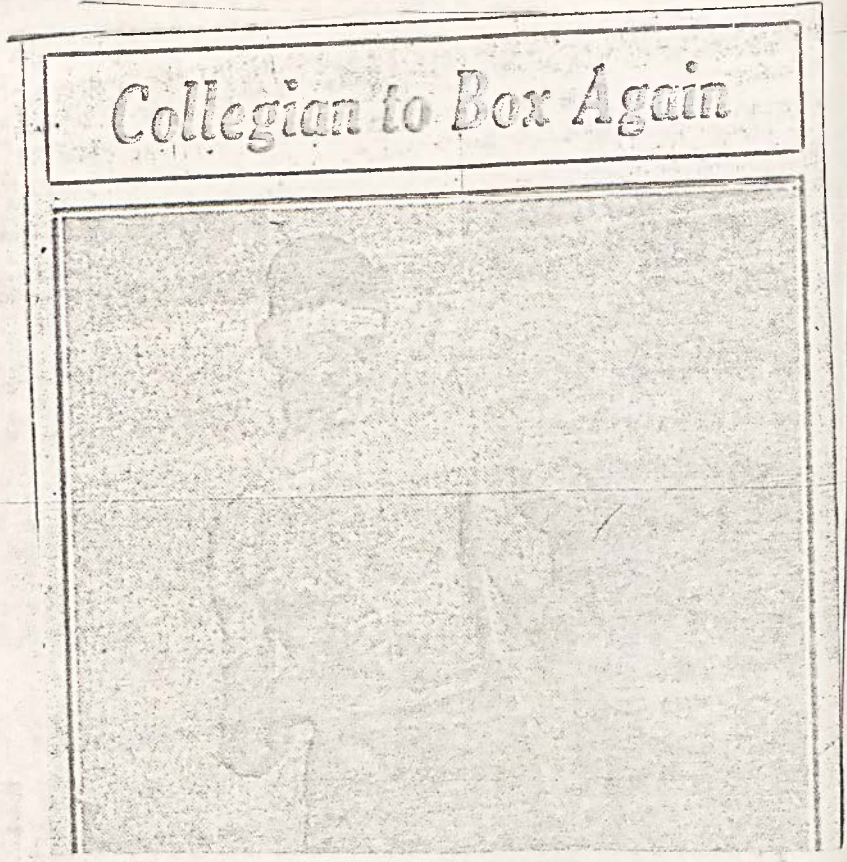

William Gainer, Troy High School student, will return to amateur boxing tomorrow evening, 7:30. A determination will be made in the 14 round bout in the 125 lb. division of the New England championship boxing boxing tournament, which will be held for a long time at the Troy Club in Troy, N. Y. Gainer is expected to be a dark horse in a contest expected to attract a large crowd of spectators.

1931-32

William
"Gordon" Rimond
to Troy N.Y.

Center guard on E. side — used ball who became State champion weight boxer Champion
and also N.E.
Champion

Grad
Central High of Troy, NY
Captain of Fresh basketball in 1930-31
welter weight champ of R.D. in ~~1931~~ 1st yr at college - In 1931 won the Southern N.E. welterweight title Later won N.E. " " "

Collegian to Box Again

19
8661
6861

Score is Tied Up

Bachen and Koslowski found the hoop for points on spectacular shots to tie the score at 13 all, and a few minutes later Krieger put the Friars ahead with a sensational one-hand toss from the corner of the court. Krieger's shot from beyond the foul line, and Brachen's goal from underneath gave the locals a 20 to 17 lead at the half.

For the first seven minutes of the second half the Weavers pressed the Smith Hillers closely, but with the score 24 to 22, Brachen went on a spree and boosted the Black and White total to 31. Krieger scored on Jarek's foul, and a minute afterwards duplicated his one hand toss of the previous period to make the Providence total 34. Lowell spurted in the last two minutes when Jarek scored an easy goal and Savard made good on a try from the 15-foot line, but they were unable to overtake the McClellan-men.

Dean Strong at End of Game

Like the varsity tilt, the Freshman clash was hotly contested from start to finish. The Friar cubs piled up a commanding lead in the first 20 minutes of play and at the half time had a 22 to 12 advantage. Dean proved stronger in the second half, holding the locals to two field goals and two foul tosses, but was never able to make up the big lead the Dominicans collected at the start of the fray. Dexter Davis turned in the best playing in this tilt.

The summaries:

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (34)			LOWELL TEXTILE (29)
G.	F.	P.	G.	F.	P.
Krieger, H....	3	2	Savard, H....	0	2	2
McCue, H....	0	1	Moran, H....	0	0	0
Koslowski, C..	3	1	Jarek, H....	3	1	7
Gainor, I....	0	0	Kapala, C....	3	3	9
McCormac, I..	0	0	Kokoska, I..	4	1	9
Brachen, R....	7	4	Quigley, R..	0	0	0
			Mamber, R..	1	0	2

Total 13 8 34 Total 11 7 29

Referee—H. J. McGuinness. Time—20-minute periods.

PROV. COLLEGE FRESHMEN (28)			DEAN ACADEMY (20)
G.	F.	P.	G.	F.	P.
Worrall (c), H	3	1	Sherry, H..	2	0	4
Barbarito, H..	0	0	Daly, Rf ..	0	0	0
Perrin, Rf ..	3	2	Dinsmore, C..	0	0	0
Morrison, Rf..	0	0	Gigler, C ..	0	0	0
Davis, C	4	0	Cubell, C ..	1	0	2
Lacey, C.....	0	0	Weber, I...	3	0	6
Tebbetts, I..	0	0	Quinn, R...	2	0	4
Reavey, I...	0	0	Cataldo, R..	2	0	4
Corbett, I...	0	0
Roberge, R...	2	1
Wright, R...	0	0

Total 12 4 28 Total 10 0 20

Referee—C. A. Schurman. Time—Eight-minute periods.

Krieger and McCue, P. C. Co-Captains, End Athletic Careers at College

Have Been Basketball Stars Since Student Days in Paterson.—Latter Acts as Godfather for His Friend, a Convert

Paterson (N.J.) CALL

John Krieger and William McCue, inseparable pals and co-captains of the Providence College basketball team, have shot their last baskets for the Dominicans but they are going right on playing the game together as they have for ten years.

McCue is Krieger's godfather and Rev. Daniel M. Galliher, O. P., former dean of studies, was responsible for his reception into the Church. But that is another part of the story of these Paterson, N. J., men who have made sports history for Providence College.

Krieger is the son of Mrs. Mary Krieger of 69 Lafayette street, Paterson. McCue's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William McCue of 188 Vreeland avenue, that city. His father is a contractor.

When they receive their Ph.B. degrees in June they plan to return to their homes within a block of each other in Paterson and continue together at New Jersey Law School.

Some day there may be a firm of Krieger and McCue, they intimate, but in the meantime the combination of forwards that has been a big factor in bringing Providence College to the fore in basketball, will play for the Brooklyn K. of C. All-Collegiate team.

A few weeks ago the Friars' quintet lost one of their few games in several seasons to the Brooklyn aggregation but the curtain-like defense and the zestful sallies of this so-called Damon and Pythias of basketball apparently could not have escaped the notice of the K. of C. coaches.

At any rate, McCue and Krieger were corralled after the game and accepted the proffered opportunity to play with the All-Collegians next season in New York, opposing the best of college teams.

Ten years ago a couple of lads, a bit too light for football, took advantage of a chance to play basketball with improvised grammar school teams in Paterson. Sometimes there were only four on a side, but more often there were eight and ten.

JOHN KRIEGER

Four years of first team play for Central High School, each serving a year as captain, they climaxed by entering the Paterson City Basket Shooting Contest, an annual affair, and tied for first place.

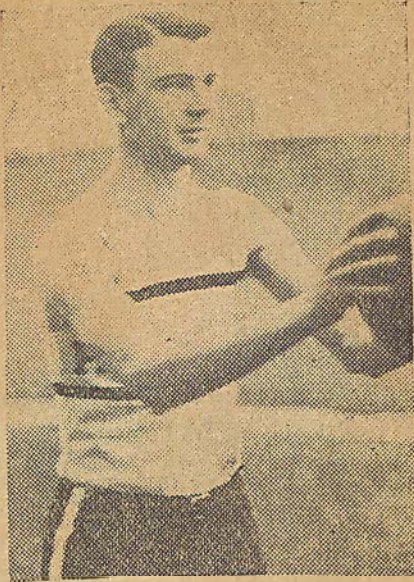

Each shot 69 out of 75 basket tries and both received a medal and invitations to go to Villa Nova, Lafayette and several small colleges.

It might have been Villa Nova were it not for a freshman ruling. A Dominican priest friend of McCue's suggested Providence College. Would Krieger object to going there? Not any more than Villa Nova if they could devote their extra curricula time to basketball.

The rest of the story has been told in the daily paper accounts of them since they won places on the Dominican Varsity squad in their freshman year.

Krieger has had an average of ten points a game, has been an All New England forward two successive years and won a place on the All-American second team last year. McCue, whose floor work paves the way for Krieger's shots, has been on the All-New England second team twice. The teams they have been the reported mainstays on have beaten Brown four straight, Holy Cross, six in a row and St. John's of Brooklyn and Springfield, three games each in succession.

Instead of trying to choose between the two, the Varsity team of last season elected them to a dual captaincy.

WILLIAM McCUE

Under their combined leadership, without forgetting the others on the squad, the coach and the college athletic authorities, Providence College last week won the New England Collegiate championship.

Throughout their college course they have roomed together on River avenue. On the Feast of the Immaculate Conception in 1929, Fr. Galliher baptized Krieger, formerly a Presbyterian, with McCue as sponsor. Thus the long friendship that had existed between them was molded into a spiritual relationship.

Scholastically they are among those in high standing. In other activities at the college they also have taken a prominent part. Krieger has a letter in baseball, is athletic editor of the Alembic, college publication, was president of the sophomore class and vice president in his junior year.

McCue was chairman of the junior prom committee and now is head of the Friars' Club, an honorary organization that is in charge of the welcoming of visiting teams.

Walking arm in arm off the court amid a rousing cheer after their final game for P. C. last week, these twins of basketball and brothers in creed, confided their plans to continue palling together both on the courts and, they hope, in the courts.

GAINOR TO LEAD FRIAR QUINTET

Troy Student, Also Amateur Boxer, Has Been Consistent Basketball Star.

William C. "Chick" Gainor of Troy, N. Y., regular left guard on the Providence College basketball team and amateur welterweight boxing champion of Southern New England, was elected captain of the Friar Varsity quintet for next season at a meeting of the lettermen yesterday. Gainor has served in three seasons for the Friars, although he is at present a Sophomore, having been forced to leave college at mid term last year when his father died.

Almost Unanimous

The election of Gainor was almost unanimous, and his choice is certain to prove a popular one with the entire student body of the Smith Hill college. He broke into the Varsity lineup as a substitute in his first season, alternating at guard and forward on the crack team of 1928-29 which finished its season with one of the finest records of any Eastern college. Last year he played left guard regularly until he dropped out of college at mid year. During the past winter he has started and played the greater part of every contest engaged in by the Dominicans.

Gainor is a graduate of Catholic Central high of Troy, where he starred in basketball and baseball. He has never competed in the latter sport at the local college. In addition to these activities Gainor has captured many awards in boxing, having won the amateur title of his home city, and two years ago the amateur welterweight championship of this State.

Wins Southern N. E. Title

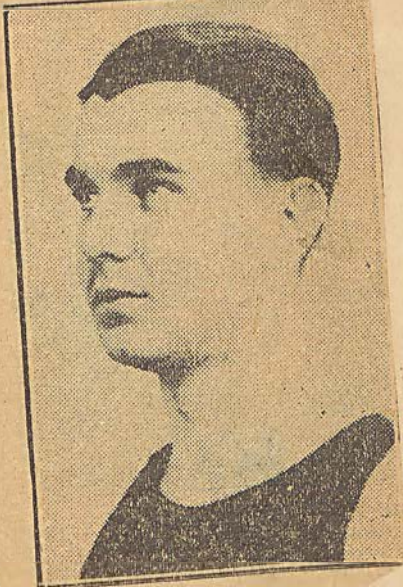

After a year lay-off, Gainor returned to the ring here three weeks ago to win the Southern New England amateur title in impressive style. At present he is training to compete in the New England championships to be held in Boston and has high hopes of winning his way to the Nationals.

In addition to the award of Varsity insignia to Louis A. Imbriano, '31, of Revere, Mass., manager of the Varsity team, letters were granted to the following players, all of whom participated in the election: Captains John Krieger, '31, and William McCue, '31, both of Paderson, N. J.; Captain-elect William C. Gainor, '33, of Troy, N. Y.; Edward Koslowski, '34, of Bridgeport, Conn.; Allan Bracken, '34, of Portchester, N. Y.; John McComnac, '32, of Webster, Mass.; George R. Coder, '32, of Woonsocket; Francis J. Dromgoole, '33, of this city, and James E. Welch, '32, of Hartford, Conn.

Class Numerals

Award of class numerals was made to the following members of the Freshman basketball team which lost but one game of nine played: Capt. Dale Worrall of Attleboro, Mass.; Oscar Perrin of Albany, N. Y.; Oliver Roberge of Bristol, Conn.; George Tebbetts of Nashua, N. H.; Dexter Davis and Frank Reavey, both of East Providence; Walter Corbett of Somerville, Mass.; Milton Lacy and Bernard McGarry, both of this city; John Morrison and Joseph Wright, both of Staten Island, N. Y., and Anthony Barbarito of New Haven, Conn. Varsity award was granted to Thomas J. O'Brien, Jr., '32, of New Haven, Conn., manager of the team.

CAPTAINS AND FORWARDS

Johnny Krieger, right, and Bill McCune, co-captains and co-forwards.

COLLEGE HUMOR HONORS KRIEGER

Friar Star on All-America Second Team Selected by Sports Magazine.

John E. Krieger, Senior classman and co-captain of the Providence College Varsity basketball team during the past winter, was named as one of the forwards on the second All-American basketball team announced by College Humor magazine yesterday following a nation-wide poll of college cage coaches. The selection of Krieger for such an honor is unusual in that it marks the second time in as many seasons that he has been recognized, having been named on the same team last year.

Krieger is paired on the second team with Ray Stecker, clever forward of the Army quintet, while Gregory, centre for Columbia, eastern intercollegiate champions, and Caldwell, Southern California guard, and Wesley Fesler, versatile Ohio State athlete, complete the select quintet. Only one Eastern player, Max Posnack of St. John's in Brooklyn, was named on the first All-American quintet.

In commenting on the selection of the team, Les Gage, sports editor of the magazine, states: "The All-American selections are presented after a comprehensive examination of every athletic conference and all universities and colleges. Recommendations have been received and studied with care and precision, and advice has been tendered by a group of the country's most eminent teachers of the game."

Of Krieger the following is reported: "For three years the offensive principal of Coach Al McClellan's Providence College five has been John Krieger, with an average of more than 10 points per game during that period. Krieger has not disregarded his defensive assignments as many high scoring forwards are wont to do. He has been an able team man and is a crack shooter when on the run."

Tribute is also paid to the sterling play of William McCue, co-captain of the Friar quintet during the past year, and running mate at the forwards with Krieger since the two Paterson stars matriculated at the Smith Hill college four years ago, with the comment that "McCue of Providence was the ideal type of floor-worker and feeder, the illustrious associate of Krieger in a fast, passing offensive."

The 15 outstanding basketeers named as the result of the poll are as follows: First all-American team, Reiff of Northwestern and Posnack of St. John's, forwards; Hood of Alabama, centre; Collins of Missouri and Wooden of Purdue, guards. Second team, Krieger of Providence and Stecker of Army, forwards; Gregory of Columbia, centre; Caldwell of Southern California and Fesler of Ohio State, guards. Third team, Romney of Brigham Young and Hayman of Syracuse, forwards; McClay of Nebraska, centre, and Ario of Montana State, and Sexton of Alabama, guards.

Among those given honorable mention on the roll were McCue of Providence, Snyder of Brown, Singleton of Seton Hall, Horwitz of Yale, Myers of Springfield, and Tiffany of Northeastern, Farrell of Holy Cross, Linehan of Yale, Cochran of Tufts, Savard of Lowell Textile and Picken of Dartmouth.

All-Americans in BASKETBALL

FIRST TEAM

Reiff	(Northwestern)	Forward
Posnack	(St. John's)	Forward
Hood	(Alabama)	Center
Collings	(Missouri)	Guard
Wooden	(Purdue)	Guard

SECOND TEAM

Krieger (Providence).....	Forward.....	Romney (Brigham Young)
Stecker (Army).....	Forward.....	Hayman (Syracuse)
Gregory (Columbia).....	Center.....	McClay (Nebraska)
Caldwell (So. California).....	Guard.....	Ario (Montana State)
Fesler (Ohio State).....	Guard.....	Sexton (Arkansas)

THIRD TEAM

By Les Gage

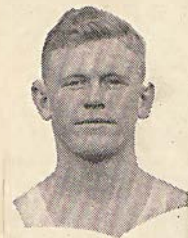

Posnack of
St. John's of Brooklyn.

BASKETBALL coaching has become so highly specialized that there are an increasingly large number of fine players developed in the smaller schools each year. COLLEGE HUMOR'S All-American basketball selections are presented after a comprehensive examination of every athletic conference and all universities and colleges. Recommendations have been received and studied with care and precision. Advice has been tendered by a group of the country's most eminent teachers of the game.

Without the assistance of those cage coaches it would have been impossible to assure all teams fair and unbiased consideration in naming the year's roll of honor. Valued comments were received from Dr. H. C. Carlson of Pitt, Sam Barry of Southern California, Marshall Diebold of Carleton College, Rollie Williams of Iowa, George Edwards of Missouri, A. A. Schabinger of Creighton University, James Freeman of St. John's College of Brooklyn, Chuck Bassett of Arkansas, C. S. Edmundson of the University of Washington, Schubert

Hood of Alabama.

Dyche of Montana State, Leo Novak of the U. S. Military Academy, W. H. Britton of Tennessee and Al McClellan of Providence College.

The ranking centers in intercollegiate basketball this past season were Hood of Alabama, Gregory of Columbia, McClay of Nebraska, Daniels of Michigan, Begovich of St. John's of Brooklyn, Reeves of Indiana Central, Albright of Pittsburgh, Patterson of Yale, Humphrey of Grinnell, Crawford of Carleton, Dickey of Indiana, Chubbuck of Connecticut State, Clark of Utah, Hoke of Texas A. & M., Huhn of Missouri and Conroy of New Hampshire.

James Hood, dubbed "Lindy" because of his resemblance to Colonel Lindberg, is placed at the pivot position on the first All-American quintet. The Alabama center is six feet five inches in height and weighs more than two hundred pounds. His development has been little short of phenomenal, for he had never performed on an indoor court before enrolling at the University of Alabama in 1928. Hood has been the key-man in his team's offense and the main reason that Alabama has been undefeated in the Southern Conference for three years. He is an excellent jumper, exceptionally fast and shifty for his size, a valuable rebound man and deadly shot at close range.

Wooden of Purdue.

Romney of Brigham Young.

George Gregory, the colored boy who led Columbia University to another championship, and Martin Begovich of St. John's, were the best centers in the East. The former was a great ball-hawk and very clever at handling the ball. Gregory possessed a deadly shooting eye and was an untiring worker. Begovich was a smart player about whom the St. John's close-in pivot play revolved. He was high scorer on

Stecker of the Army.

Coach Freeman's five—a good passer and admirable defensive player.

Don McClay of Nebraska was the outstanding pivot-man in the Middle West and was given a shade over the leading centers in the Big Ten Conference. Coach Bassett of Arkansas commends Captain Cecil Hoke of Texas A. & M. "Hoke was a master of body and foot movements and an excellent shot. His defensive work was the best of all centers in the Southwest, and he led his team in scoring." Carleton's tip-off man, Skip Crawford, was a great offensive star, always using to advantage his six feet five inches of height. Clark of Utah, a vigorous, high scoring center, was the best in the Rocky Mountain league.

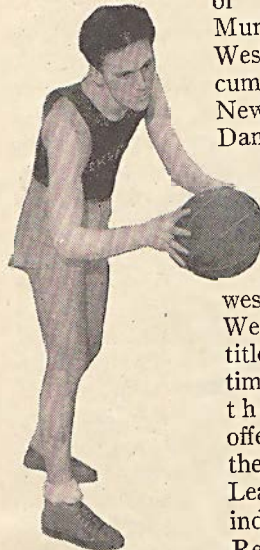

It is extremely perplexing to indicate a preference among an impressive list of forwards which includes such skillful offensive players as Reiff of Northwestern, Posnack and Kinsbrunner of St. John's, Stecker and Krueger of the Army, Romney of Brigham Young, Krieger and McCue of Providence, Hayman of Syracuse, Kowallis of Pittsburgh, Bishop of Kansas, Van Ackeren of Creighton, Singleton of Seton Hall College, Harper of Illinois, Grove of Michigan State, Kellar of Purdue, Fisher of Nebraska, Highfill of Oklahoma A. & M., Loose of Minnesota, Perrin of Carleton, Roadcap of Iowa State, King of Drake, Spicer of Kentucky, Snyder of Brown, Myers of Springfield, Horwitz of Yale, Myllykangas of Dartmouth, Tiffany of Northeastern, DePhillips of C. C. N. Y., Sumner of Texas Christian, Swanson of Washington, Munday of Illinois Wesleyan, Linthicum of U. C. L. A., Newbold of Notre Dame, Bender of Columbia and Montgomery of Geneva.

Caldwell of Southern California.

Dutch Lomborg's Northwestern five took the Western Conference title for the first time in history, and the strong Wildcat offensive was led by the rangy Joe Reiff. Leading the league's individual scorers, Reiff played brilliantly in Northwestern's front line.

Reiff of Northwestern.

His height made him a valuable follow-up man, and his shooting was consistently accurate at short range and long. Max Posnack, St. John's team leader, was one of the most accomplished passers in the country and a strategist. An expert basket shooter, Posnack was also a splendid defensive player and an uncanny free-thrower. He made ninety per cent of his attempts from the foul line in the four years he played with St. John's College. The Brooklyn athlete has been chosen on all-city teams in New York during his college athletic career.

In recent years the little Providence College quintet has enjoyed an exceptional record in competition with all of the strong teams in the East. For three seasons the offensive principal of Coach Al McClellan's five has been Johnny Krieger of Providence College.

Krieger, with an average of more than ten points per game during that period. Krieger has not disregarded his defensive assignments as many high scoring forwards are wont to do. The clever Providence player has been an able team man and crack shooter when on the run. Stecker of the Army, who sprang into prominence as a member of the Cadet's back-field last fall was another forward who played a fine brand of defensive ball. He was a splendid dribbler, a dead shot and a fine passer. Like Krieger, Stecker was always good for ten or twelve points a contest.

Elwood Romney, the younger brother in a family of famous college athletes, topped the scoring list of the Rocky Mountain Conference. Playing for his brother, Coach Ott Romney of Brigham Young, the lithe sophomore registered approximately fifteen points per game. Captain Louis Hayman of Syracuse was a hard driving dribbler and an ideal forward who led the attack in one of the most effective scoring machines in the East. Creighton had one of the country's most brilliant performers in Maurice VanAckeren. Tom Bishop of Kansas and Morris Fisher of Nebraska were the best of the forwards in the Big Six, one of the strongest basketball leagues in the United States. This pair were ranked with VanAckeren and Hayman by Coach Schabinger of Creighton as the four most proficient forwards among the teams he observed this past winter.

The Army had a fine running mate for Stecker, a left-handed forward named Krueger, who could dribble, pass and shoot and was a dependable defender. McCue of Providence was the ideal type of floor-worker and feeder, the illustrious associate of Krieger in a fast, passing offensive. Mac Kinsbrunner of St. John's was a smart, all-around exponent of the game and Carey Spicer of Kentucky was a forward who could hit the goal from all angles and change his pace nicely with an evasive pivot. The 1931 Pitt five did not have another Charley Hiatt, but Coach Carlson expects great things of Kowallis, who played brilliantly at times during the recent campaign.

Rolland Williams, the Iowa coach, pronounced Kellar of Purdue the most deceptive forward he had seen during the current season. "Kellar was always cool and collected when under fire and worked beautifully during a game. You dared not give the Purdue boy an open shot within thirty feet of the basket." Williams further praised Kellar when he indicated that he was a smooth working, well coordinated forward. Loose of Minnesota was a shifty man with a nice finesse and an accurate eye, and Perrin of Carleton distinguished himself by earning an All-Midwest Conference berth for the third consecutive year. Dick Linthicum had a successful year with the University of California at Los Angeles. He was a clever left-handed dribbler and could shoot in close with either hand.

Fesler of Ohio State.

Superior defensive men seemed concentrated in the West, where the guarding phase of the game has always been emphasized much more than in the East and South. Among the skillful guards we find such experts as Wooden of Purdue, Collings of Missouri, Caldwell of Southern California, Fesler of Ohio State, Ario of Montana State, Sexton of Arkansas, Katz of Syracuse, Marshall of Northwestern, Altenhof of Michigan, Paul and Chmielewski of Wisconsin, Arture of Pittsburgh, Hokup of Nebraska, Dodd of Tennessee, Cilseuk of Minnesota, Haga of Michigan State, Linehan of Yale, Farrell of Holy Cross.

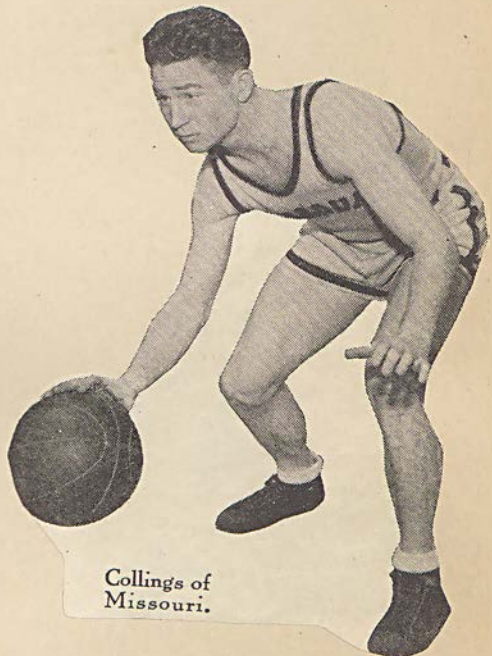

, Douglas of Grinnell, Larkins of Ohio State, Steideman of Washington U., Cochran of Tufts, Auker of Kansas Aggies, Picken of Dartmouth, Hunt of St. Louis University, Savard of Lowell Textile, Skeeters of Southern Methodist, Page of Kansas, Atkins of Texas Christian, King of Marquette and Galitz of Bradley.

Johnny Wooden of Purdue displayed the same flashy form that made an All-American of him in his first year of competition. The little Boilermaker was a lightning fast dribbler—the ideal floor guard who could crash through and score when traveling at top speed. He could also hit them consistently from midfloor. Wooden lacked nothing as a defensive player, for he was shifty on his feet and clever at covering his man. Cool and resourceful always, Max Collings was not only the leader of Missouri's defense but the brains of the attack as well. He was a great dribbler, an excellent passer and had scoring ability.

Wesley Fesler was just as versatile in basketball as he was on the gridiron last fall, and Coach Harold Olsen used him at all positions at different times during the season. Fundamentally, Fesler possessed every quality of a guard, for he was rugged and a splendid defensive man. He could dribble, pass and shoot equally well. Sam Barry used his star guard at Southern California, Web Caldwell, for the jump at center. Caldwell was a powerful boy who was valuable to the coast five in all departments of play. He captained his team, which has been the class of that section since Sam Barry left Iowa to assume the coaching responsibilities there.

A hold-over from the celebrated Bobcat quintet of Montana State College, Keith Ar'o stood out as the best guard in the section. Wisconsin's veteran guards, Ted Chmielewski and John Paul, gave Doc Meanwell's five an airtight defense until their graduation in mid-season. "Doc" Sexton was the ranking defensive performer in the Southwest. The Arkansas recruit was an unerring passer and excellent floor man.

Bobby Dodd, Tennessee's All-American quarterback, was one of the leading guards in the South. Coach McClellan of Providence paid a great tribute to Holy Cross's captain, Jim Farrell: "He follows his man closely, switching with ease to protect his own goal on block plays, and turns in as fine a defensive game as could be desired."

Collings of Missouri.

HARD GATE

new
LOOMS FOR DOMINICANS

Coast Guard Five Expected
to Prove Strong Foe
Tonight

P. C. IN SHAPE

Friar Stars Ready to Battle
for Season's Fourth
Win

*Prov. News - Providence
Sat. Jan. 17, '31*

The La Salle Academy gym will be the scene of a busy evening tonight when the strong Providence College basketball squad engages in a double bill which promises to furnish action enough to satisfy the most rabid basketball fan. In the preliminary clash the undefeated Friar freshman team meets the Providence Boys' Club, while the 'varsity tilt will bring together the Friar regulars and the Coast Guard Academy quintet.

The Cadets pushed Harvard to the limit at Cambridge earlier this week, and were nosed by a 32 to 28 count in the final minute of play, and as a result will invade here tonight determined to tack a setback on the Smith Hillers. In Montgomery and Forney, forward and centre, respectively, the Connecticut club boasts a pair of fine court performers who will give the locals plenty of trouble.

Coach Al McClellan of the Friars stated last night that his team would be prepared to give its best exhibition of the year, and if such is to be the case local fans will be in for a basketball treat. The Dominicans are in the top flight among the eastern colleges when it come to basketball, and when they are traveling at top speed they are practically unbeatable.

BRACHEN VISITORS STAR

Much interest tonight will centre around the play of Dick Brachen, rangy guard who sprang into the spotlight in the Holy Cross game last week when he ran wild at Worcester to cage seven floor goals and a foul shot to defeat the Crusaders. Brachen promises to be another Eddie Wineapple, with his spectacular one hand shots from the corner of the court, such as the former Dominican ace used to toss them.

The prelim clash, slated to get under way at 7:30 will be something more than a mere "fill in" game, as the Friar cubs boast what shapes up as one of the best college freshman teams in New England. They showed class in mugging up a 43 to 26 score over the Holy Cross freshman, and they will be geared in high to perform similarly on the Boys' Club.

HARD GAME

Gene

LOOKS FOR DOMINICANS

Coast Guard Five Expected
to Prove Strong Foe
Tonight

P. C. IN SHAPE

Friar Stars Ready to Battle
for Season's Fourth
Win

*Prov. News - Fall River
Sat. Jan. 17, '31*

The La Salle Academy gym will be the scene of a busy evening tonight when the strong Providence College basketball squad engages in a double bill which promises to furnish action enough to satisfy the most rabid basketball fan. In the preliminary clash the undefeated Friar freshman team meets the Providence Boys' Club, while the 'varsity tilt will bring together the Friar regulars and the Coast Guard Academy quintet.

The Cadets pushed Harvard to the limit at Cambridge earlier this week, and were nosed by a 22 to 28 count in the final minute of play, and as a result will invade here tonight determined to tack a setback on the Smith Hillers. In Montgomery and Forney, forward and centre, respectively, the Connecticut club boasts a pair of fine court performers who will give the locals plenty of trouble.

Coach Al McClellan of the Friars stated last night that his team would be prepared to give its best exhibition of the year, and if such is to be the case local fans will be in for a basketball treat. The Dominicans are in the top flight among the eastern colleges when it come to basketball, and when they are traveling at top speed they are practically unbeatable.

BRACHEN VISITORS STAR

Much interest tonight will centre around the play of Dick Brachen, rangy guard who sprang into the spotlight in the Holy Cross game last week when he ran wild at Worcester to cage seven floor goals and a foul shot to defeat the Crusaders. Brachen promises to be another Eddie Wineapple, with his spectacular one hand shots from the corner of the court, such as the former Dominican ace used to toss them.

The prelim clash, slated to get under way at 7:30 will be something more than a mere "fill in" game, as the Friar cubs boast what shapes up as one of the best college freshman teams in New England. They showed class in running up a 43 to 26 score over the Holy Cross freshmen, and they will be geared in high to perform similarly on the Boys' Club.

HARD GANE

five
LOOMS FOR DOMINICANS

Coast Guard Five Expected
to Prove Strong Foe
Tonight

P. C. IN SHAPE

Friar Stars Ready to Battle
for Season's Fourth
Win

*Prov. News - Providence
Sat. Jan 17, '31*
The La Salle Academy gym will be the scene of a busy evening tonight when the strong Providence College basketball squad engages in a double bill which promises to furnish action enough to satisfy the most rabid basketball fan. In the preliminary clash the undefeated Friar freshman team meets the Providence Boys' Club, while the 'varsity tilt will bring together the Friar regulars and the Coast Guard Academy quintet.

The Cadets pushed Harvard to the limit at Cambridge earlier this week, and were nosed by a 32 to 28 count in the final minute of play, and as a result will invade here tonight determined to tack a setback on the Smith Hillers. In Montgomery and Forney, forward and centre, respectively, the Connecticut club boasts a pair of fine court performers who will give the locals plenty of trouble.

Coach Al McClellan of the Friars stated last night that his team would be prepared to give its best exhibition of the year, and if such is to be the case local fans will be in for a basketball treat. The Dominicans are in the top flight among the eastern colleges when it come to basketball, and when they are travelling at top speed they are practically unbeatable.

BRACHEN VISITORS STAR

Much interest tonight will centre around the play of Dick Brachen, rangy guard who sprang into the spotlight in the Holy Cross game last week when he ran wild at Worcester to cage seven floor goals and a foul shot to defeat the Crusaders. Brachen promises to be another Eddie Wineapple, with his spectacular one hand shots from the corner of the court, such as the former Dominican ace used to toss them.

The prelim clash, slated to get under way at 7:30 will be something more than a mere "fill in" game, as the Friar cubs boast what shapes up as one of the best college freshman teams in New England. They showed ~~them~~ in running up a 43 to 26 score over the Holy Cross freshman, and they will be geared in high to perform similarly on the Boys' Club.

W. B. No. 101

PATENTED

