

SCRAP BOOK

BASKETBALL..... 1931-32

News items in this scrapbook are from the Providence Journal-Bulletin, unless indicated otherwise.

Freshman Schedule

P.C. OP.

DURFEE TEXTILE
At Fall River, Mass., Tues., Jan. 12

ST. JOHN'S PREP
At PROVIDENCE, Sat., Jan. 30

ASSUMPTION COLLEGE
At Worcester, Mass., Sat., Feb. 6

BOSTON UNIV. FRESHMEN
At Boston, Mass., Wed., Feb. 10

ASSUMPTION COLLEGE
At PROVIDENCE, Thurs., Feb. 18

DE LA SALLE ACADEMY
At Newport, R. I., Friday, Feb. 19

BRYANT-STRATTON COLLEGE
At PROVIDENCE, Sat., Feb. 27

ST. JOHN'S PREP
At Danvers, Mass., Wed., March 2

DEAN ACADEMY
At PROVIDENCE, Wed., March 9

BROWN FRESHMEN
At BROWN GYM, Sat., March 12

Manager
JOHN J. GLENNON, '33 of New Bedford, Mass.

Wright & Ditson, Inc.

Official Outfitters
for all
Providence College
Athletic Teams

64 Pine Street, Providence, R. I.

Providence College

Basketball Schedules
1931-32

Director of Athletics
REV. F. J. BAESZLER, O. P.

Graduate Manager of Athletics
JOHN E. FARRELL

Varsity Basketball Schedule

|                                       | P.C. | OP. |                                       | P.C. | OP. |
|---------------------------------------|------|-----|---------------------------------------|------|-----|
| DARTMOUTH                      |      |     | MANHATTAN                      |      |     |
| At Hanover, N. H., Wednesday, Dec. 9  |      |     | At New York City, N. Y., Sat., Feb. 6 |      |     |
| NAVAL TRAINING STATION         |      |     | LOWELL TEXTILE                 |      |     |
| At PROVIDENCE, Saturday, Dec. 12      |      |     | At PROVIDENCE, Tuesday, Feb. 9        |      |     |
| YALE                           |      |     | BOSTON UNIVERSITY              |      |     |
| At New Haven, Conn., Tues. Dec. 15    |      |     | At Boston, Mass., Wednesday, Feb. 10  |      |     |
| SETON HALL                     |      |     | NEW HAMPSHIRE                  |      |     |
| At Newark, N. J., Friday, Dec. 18     |      |     | At Durham, N. H., Saturday, Feb. 13   |      |     |
| ST. JOHN'S                     |      |     | CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK       |      |     |
| At Brooklyn, N. Y., Saturday, Dec. 19 |      |     | At PROVIDENCE, Thursday, Feb. 18      |      |     |
| COAST GUARD ACADEMY            |      |     | ALUMNI                         |      |     |
| At New London, Conn., Sat., Jan. 9    |      |     | At PROVIDENCE, Saturday, Feb. 20      |      |     |
| HOLY CROSS INDEPENDENTS        |      |     | WORCESTER POLYTECHNIC          |      |     |
| At Worcester, Mass., Sat., Jan. 16    |      |     | At Worcester, Mass., Monday, Feb. 22  |      |     |
| HARVARD                        |      |     | SETON HALL                     |      |     |
| At Cambridge, Mass. Wed., Jan. 20     |      |     | At PROVIDENCE, Thursday, Feb. 25      |      |     |
| SPRINGFIELD                    |      |     | HOLY CROSS INDEPENDENTS        |      |     |
| At PROVIDENCE, Saturday, Jan. 23      |      |     | At PROVIDENCE, Saturday, Feb. 27      |      |     |
| ST. JOHN'S                     |      |     | MASSACHUSETTS STATE            |      |     |
| At PROVIDENCE, Saturday, Jan. 30      |      |     | At Amherst, Mass., Tuesday, March 1   |      |     |
| COLUMBUS CLUB                  |      |     | LOWELL TEXTILE                 |      |     |
| At Brooklyn, N. Y., Thursday, Feb. 4  |      |     | At Lowell, Mass. Friday, March 4      |      |     |
| PRATT INSTITUTE                |      |     | BROWN                          |      |     |
| At Brooklyn, N. Y., Friday, Feb. 5    |      |     | At PROVIDENCE, Saturday, March 12     |      |     |

William H. Ryan Printing, 181 Canal Street

Junior Varsity Schedule

|                                     | P.C. | OP. |   | P.C. | OP. |
|-------------------------------------|------|-----|---|------|-----|
| BRIDGEWATER NORMAL           |      |     | BRIDGEWATER NORMAL   |      |     |
| At PROV., Saturday, Dec. 12         |      |     | At Bridgewater, Mass. Sat., Jan. 16   |      |     |
| BRIDGEWATER NORMAL           |      |     | PROVIDENCE BOYS' CLUB  |      |     |
| At Bridgewater, Mass. Sat., Jan. 16 |      |     | At PROV. Saturday, Jan. 23  |      |     |
| BECKER COLLEGE               |      |     | NEW BEDFORD TEXTILE  |      |     |
| At PROVIDENCE, Tuesday, Feb. 9      |      |     | At PROV. Thursday, Feb. 25  |      |     |
| BECKER COLLEGE               |      |     | BECKER COLLEGE   |      |     |
| At Worcester, Mass., Sat., March 5  |      |     | At PROVIDENCE, Wed., March 9  |      |     |
| NAVAL HOSPITAL               |      |     | Varsity Captain WILLIAM C. GAINOR, '33 of Troy, N. Y. Varsity Manager THOMAS J. O'BRIEN, '32 of New Haven, Conn. Coach ALBERT McCLELLAN |      |     |

Three Dominican Basketball

Teams Schedule 41

Opponents This Year

'VARSITY TO FACE 24 LEADING TEAMS OF EASTERN SECTOR

Freshmen Have 10-Game List, with Jayvees Booking Seven

A total of 41 basketball games, including a 'Varsity schedule of 24 contests, was announced today for the Providence College hoop forces by Graduate Manager John E. Farrell. In addition to the 'Varsity card, seven second team contests have been booked, and 10 Freshman games, making the most elaborate lineup of intercollegiate contests ever booked for the Smith Hill athletes.

Outstanding in the 24-game 'Varsity list are the feature games with City College of New York, marking the first visit of the New Yorkers to New England in years, and home and home contests with St. John's College of Brooklyn, Eastern college champions last winter. Dartmouth, Yale, Brown, Harvard, Springfield, New Hampshire, Seton Hall College of New Jersey, Holy Cross and Manhattan are other opponents listed.

SEASON TO CLOSE

AGAINST BROWN

Listing Harvard for a game at Cambridge on Jan. 20, and Boston University at Boston on Feb. 10, marks a resumption of relations between the Friars and these colleges after a lapse of four years. Teams making their first appearance on a Dominican court list are Pratt Institute of Brooklyn, to be played when the locals make their second New York trip. Manhattan, Harvard, and Massachusetts State College at Amherst. The doubleheader, 'Varsity and Freshman, with Brown at the Brown gymnasium will close the season on March 12.

One of the features of the home schedule is the booking of an Alumni game, the first ever attempted in basketball. Baseball games with the graduates have long been a feature of the diamond cards, but this winter will mark the initial return of a graduate group of hoopsters. This game promises to be one of the brightest games of the year as such stars as Johnny Krieger and Bill McCue last year's leaders, Larry Wheeler, Stan Szydla and Eddie Wineapple, aces of the championship quintet of 1928-29 and Charles Murphy, 1928 captain and Heck Allen, who piloted the first 'Varsity team will return to compete against the present 'Varsity.

SEVEN GAMES LISTED

FOR JUNIOR 'VARSITY

With a wealth of promising material eager for competition, and with a strong array coming up from last year's crack Freshman quintet which lost but one game in nine, it was deemed advisable to arrange a short junior 'Varsity schedule. Seven games, including feature contests with Bridgewater Normal and New Bedford Textile, both of whom were opponents of the 'Varsity when the indoor game was first started at the Smith Hill college, comprise this list.

The Freshman list contains games with some of the best prep school teams of this vicinity. St. John's Prep, long a leader in scholastic court ranks, comes here to meet the 1935 aggregation in a prelim the night of the St. John's College 'Varsity clash, while Assumption College of Worcester is the prelim feature when C. C. N. Y. visits Providence.

Prospects for successful teams are bright according to Coach Al McClellan who is starting his fifth campaign as mentor of the Black and White court forces. With seven lettermen, headed by Capt. Chick Gainer, Ed Koslowski and Allan Brachen, the latter all-New England guard last winter, the first team is well fortified for its arduous campaign.

Other lettermen working out daily include John McCormac and Jim Welch, forwards, Franny Dromgoole, centre, and George Cody, back. Among the outstanding men coming up from the Freshman team of last year are Doc Ferrin, Dexter Davis, Ollie Roberge, Frank Reavey, John Morrison and George Tebbetts. Two newcomers pressing the regulars for 'Varsity assignments are Sam Shapiro and Bill Hyde, rugged guards who have starred in the daily scrimmages of the past week.

FRESHMAN SHOW

PROMISE OF ABILITY

The Freshman team promises to equal the strong array which wore the Friars colors last winter, as Coach Al McClellan has a likely looking group of hoopsters for his cub aggregation, which is working daily with the 'Varsity squad and is providing the veterans with plenty of opposition. Jack Leahy, a six foot six centre from Hartford, is the outstanding member of the first year outfit and is the tallest hoopster ever at the Smith Hill college.

Other clever performers include John Madden of Pittsfield, Mass., who shapes up as one of the finest prospects McClellan has ever had under his wing. Ed Stanislewski of Amherst, Mass., whose brother captained Massachusetts State College last winter; Paul Powers of Worcester, former St. John's high star; Al Feit of Paterson, N. J., who is a protege of Earl Grey, mentor of Krieger and McCue when those worthies were in high school; Bert Skipp of New Haven, and Paul Healy of New Bedford. Others listed to report this week include Joe Adamick, six foot two centre from Southbridge; Dick Burns of Warwick and Bill Kutniewski, former all-scholastic pivot man while at Commercial high.

'Varsity Schedule

(Games at home unless specified otherwise.)

Dec. 9, Dartmouth at Hanover, N. H.; 12, Naval Training Station; 15, Yale at New Haven; 18, Seton Hall College at Newark, N. J.; 19, St. John's College at Brooklyn, N. Y.; Jan. 9, Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn.; 16, Holy Cross Independents at Worcester, Mass.; 20, Harvard at Cambridge; 23, Springfield; 30, St. John's College; Feb. 4, Columbus Club at Brooklyn, N. Y.; 5, Pratt Institute at Brooklyn; 6, Manhattan College at New York city; 9, Lowell Textile; 10, Boston University at Boston; 13, New Hampshire at Durham, N. H.; 17, City College of New York; 20, Alumni; 22, Worcester Polytechnic Institute at Worcester; 25, Seton Hall College; 27, Holy Cross Independents; March 1, Massachusetts State College at Amherst; 4, Lowell Textile at Lowell; 12, Brown at Brown gym.

Junior Varsity Schedule

Dec. 12, Bridgewater Normal; Jan. 16, Bridgewater Normal at Bridgewater, Mass.; 23, Providence Boys' Club; Feb. 9, Becker College; 25, New Bedford Textile; March 5, Becker College at Worcester, Mass.; 9, Newport Naval Hospital.

Freshman Schedule

Jan. 12, Durfee Textile at Fall River, Mass.; 30, St. John's Prep; Feb. 6, Assumption College at Worcester, Mass.; 10, Boston University Freshmen at Boston, Mass.; 17, Assumption College; 19, De La Salle Academy at Newport; 27, Bryant-Stratton College; March 2, St. John's Prep at Danvers, Mass.; 9, Dean Academy; 12, Brown Freshmen at Brown Gym.

Providence College Announces Classy 24-Game Slate for Hoop Team

Gala Season In Prospect For Friars

Basketball Schedule Longest in History of Dominican Sports

By GERALD PRIOR
(News-Tribune Sports Writer)

Providence College appears to be in for a gala season on the basketball court. Coach Al "General" McClellan for the past two weeks has been working out the most promising squad in the history of Friar hoop activities and now Graduate Manager Johnny Farrell comes forward with a sweetly arranged schedule that promises to test aforesaid squad to the full limit of its capabilities.

Gerald Prior

The slate arranged by "Jawn" for the varsity hoopsters is the longest court list ever mapped out at the Smith Hill institution. In all the Black and White tossers will frolic in 24 games, 15 of which will be played on foreign floors with nine to be staged on the Dominicans' home surface, the college auditorium in Harkins hall.

Besides the varsity slate Farrell has also arranged junior varsity and freshman schedules, the Friars having adopted the three-term plan in order to provide sport for more students and to increase the opportunity of developing the plentiful material on hand. Drawn by the Friars' surge to the top in New England ranks during the last two years, a flock of high school stars registered at the college last fall and they're all working out for places on McClellan's freshman team. With these hopefuls added to the array of talent returning from last year's varsity and freshmen clubs, it's plain to see that the Dominicans will be well-stocked with lads to carry out the three-team system.

News-Tribune

FEATURE GAMES

That varsity schedule is studded with feature attractions, Dartmouth, Yale, Harvard, Brown, St. John's, City College of New York, Manhattan, Massachusetts State, Boston University, New Hampshire and the Holy Cross Independents being some of the high class opponents the McClellan-coached combination will meet.

One of the high spots on the schedule from a local standpoint will be the appearance here on Feb. 17 of the C. C. N. Y. array, marking the first time in years that the Gotham Collegians have traveled to New England for basketball competition. St. John's, the Friars' traditional rival, also will invade Providence on Jan. 30 and this game also should be one for the books as the Smith Hillers have always found the Flatbush flock tough opposition in any sport. Newcomers on the Black and White list are Harvard, Pratt Institute, Manhattan and Massachusetts State. The Harvard clash will mark the first athletic meeting between the Friars and the Crimson since 1928.

Another interesting feature of the list is the booking of a game with the Alumni on Feb. 20 when such former Black and White brilliants as Eddie Wineapple, Stan Szydla, Johnny Krieger, Bill McCue, Charley Murphy and Larry Wheeler will return to show their wares in the scene of their past triumphs.

The Dominicans have a home-and-away arrangement with the Holy Cross Independents, meeting the Purple at Worcester Jan. 16 and here Feb. 27. Holy Cross at the start of the current scholastic year dropped basketball from its schedule but a number of the students, including practically all of last year's great team, decided to carry on the sport themselves and were given permission by the college to use the name Holy Cross Independents. Both these games should provide real tests for the Friars.

Opening with the Dartmouth game at Hanover next Wednesday night the P. C. schedule will continue through January and February and wind up with the inter-city classic between the Friars and Brown in Brown gymnasium, March 12. This is one of the several double-headers on the Dominican bill, the Friar frosh being scheduled to play the Bruin yearlings on the same evening.

Just now McClellan is pushing the team hard for the Dartmouth opener. Daily practice sessions, featured by scrimmage, are being held and the athletes are rounding into shape rapidly. "Wild Bill" McCall, Dartmouth football star, and Mackey, whose sterling play enabled the Green to edge out the Dominicans last year, are the men whom the Friars will focus attention upon Wednesday.

VARSITY SCHEDULE

Dec. 9, Dartmouth at Hanover, N. H.; 12, Naval Training Station; 15, Yale at New Haven, Conn.; 18, Seton Hall College at Newark, N. J.; 19, St. John's College at Brooklyn, N. Y.; January 9, Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn.; 16, Holy Cross Independents at Worcester, Mass.; 20, Harvard at Cambridge, Mass.; 23, Springfield; 30, St. John's College; February 4, Columbus Club at Brooklyn, N. Y.; 5, Pratt Institute at Brooklyn, N. Y.; 6, Manhattan College at New York City; 9, Lowell Textile; 10, Boston University at Boston, Mass.; 13, New Hampshire at Durham, N. H.; 17, City College of New York; 20, Alumni; 22, Worcester Polytechnic Institute at Worcester, Mass.; 25, Seton Hall College; 27, Holy Cross Independents; March 1, Massachusetts State College at Amherst, Mass.; 4, Lowell Textile at Lowell, Mass.; 12, Brown at Brown gym.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Dec. 12, Bridgewater Normal; January 16, Bridgewater Normal at Bridgewater, Mass.; 23, Providence Boy's Club; Feb. 9, Becker College; 25, New Bedford Textile; March 5, Becker College at Worcester, Mass.; 9, Newport Naval Hospital.

FRESHMAN

Jan. 12, Durfee Textile at Fall River, Mass.; 30, St. John's Prep; Feb. 6, Assumption College at Worcester, Mass.; 10, Boston University freshmen at Boston, Mass.; 17, Assumption College; 19, De La Salle Academy at Newport, R. I.; 27, Bryant-Stratton College; March 2, St. John's Prep at Danvers, Mass.; 9, Dean Academy; 12, Brown Freshmen at Brown gym.

Friars To Be Represented By Three Basketball Teams

Games Scheduled for 'Varsity,
Jayvee and Freshman Quintets.

Basketball will be conducted on a large scale at Providence College this season with the announcement last night by John E. Farrell, graduate manager of athletics, that three teams—'Varsity, Junior 'Varsity and Freshman—will be fielded. This is the first time in history scheduled games for three Friar hoop teams will be played.

There is an abundance of good basketball material at Providence College and capable candidates for all three teams will be available. There is much enthusiasm in the court sport at the Smith Hill college this season and one of the most active, as well as most successful years is being predicted. The Friars have turned out some high class teams during the past four years, and judging from the pre-season work of the candidates this year's team is expected to continue the excellent play of its predecessors, if not surpass it.

The inauguration of a three-team plan should be a "provider" for future 'Varsity teams, as the experience that the players on the Junior 'Varsity and Freshman aggregations will receive will be of great value to them in bids for 'Varsity berths.

Open Against Dartmouth

The Friar hoop candidates have been going through their paces at a merry clip for the past two weeks and with the addition of players hitherto with the football squad joining the court group, preparations are well under way for the opening game of the season next Wednesday evening against the Dartmouth 'Varsity at Hanover.

Dartmouth handed the Friars a setback in last season's opener and the latter team is anxious to avenge this setback. The players have drilled faithfully for this game and the Indians will be tested to the limit.

There is much competition among the Friar players for 'Varsity berths and some hot individual tussles will be presented between now and Tuesday for positions. There are seven lettermen, including three of last year's regulars, with the squad. The returning three regulars on last year's quintet, which won 14 out of 19 games played, are Capt. Chick Gainer and Dick Brachen, guards, and Ed Koslowski, centre. All three have been showing to advantage in the drills.

Many Stars Available

The other four lettermen available include John McCormac and James Welch, forwards, "Franny" Dromgoole, centre, and George Cody, guard. McCormac and Welch are Seniors. Both are capable players but their play during the past three seasons has been overshadowed by William McCue and Johnny Krieger, two of the best hoopsters in Providence College history. McCormac and Welch will make determined bids to land the forward jobs this season.

Dexter Davis, a member of the last year's Freshman team, and Dromgoole are expected to give Koslowski the most trouble for the centre job. Both Davis and Dromgoole were excellent hoopsters in the Interscholastic League a few years back while performing for East Providence and Classical respectively. Oscar Perrin, forward, and George Tebbetts, guard, members of last year's basketball team, are other graduates from the yearling team, who will make serious bids for the 'Varsity. John Morrison, forward, and Frank Reavy, are other promising newcomers.

Substitutes on last year's 'Varsity who are with the squad include Ed Reilly and Ed Derivan, guards; William Grubert, centre, and Sam Shapiro and Bill Hyto, forward.

Outstanding candidates for the freshman team are John Leahy, centre, who is six feet, six inches tall, Ed Stanisiewski, guard, John Madden, forward and Al Feit, forward.

Providence College Athletes Turn to Basketball Now

More Than 35 Candidates Drill
Under Coach McClellan.
Scrimmages Held.

With comment on the deeds of the football team gradually ebbing down, basketball now assumes a major role on the Providence College athletic slate. During the past two weeks the court sport has been gradually crowding football out of the picture but yesterday marked the first time that it has held full sway.

More than 35 candidates, comprising players on the varsity and freshman squads, drilled under the watchful eye of Coach Al McClellan yesterday afternoon at the college gymnasium. Some of the players, who hitherto had confined their activities to the gridiron, reported for the first time yesterday while the majority merely continued work which was started two weeks ago.

Many Gridders Report

Among the gridders who reported for the first time yesterday were Franny Dromgoole, centre; Ollie Roberge, guard; Anthony Barbarito, forward; Eda Stanisewski, guard; Ed Derivan, guard, and George Cody, guard. Dromgoole and Cody were lettermen last year, while Roberge and Barbarito played on the yearling aggregation last season.

With the reporting of these players, Coach McClellan now will be able to begin serious work for the opening game of the season against the Dartmouth quintet one week from tomorrow at Hanover.

Prospects for a winning team this season are high despite the fact that two of the best hoopsters to wear the Black and White, Johnny Kreiger and Bill McCue, have graduated. McClellan's main task will be to find capable players to fill the shoes of Kreiger and McCue but as there is likely looking material on hand, the berths are expected to be filled by capable players.

McClellan is keeping a watchful eye on all of his players and as yet no player is sure of a position. It is true that some of the candidates have shown better than others but the "General" wishes to give the players all possible chance to show their worth.

A number of scrimmages have been held and the squad generally speaking is as far advanced as most college quintets for this time of the season. A scrimmage was held yesterday with four teams participating. Team A was composed of McCormac and Hyte at the forwards, Koslowski at centre, C pt. Gainor and Reilly at the guards.

Koslowski at Centre

It is most likely that Koslowski will again hold down the centre position on the Varsity but big Ed will receive plenty of competition for the berth. Capt. Gainor, Dick Brachen and George Cody are the veteran guards available for play. McCormac and Welch lead the forward candidates. McCormac was an understudy to Kreiger last season.

There are a number of promising players from last year's Freshman team, Oscar Perrin and John Morrison, forwards and Walter Corbett, guard, were among the early ones to report. Besides Barbarito and Roberge, Dexter Davis, Frank Reavy and George Boyle will be welcome additions to the Varsity.

With Koslowski, Brachen and Capt. Gainor as a nucleus for his team, McClellan has high hopes of piloting his team through another successful campaign. McClellan is starting his fifth season as the Friar basketball mentor. He also has charge of the yearling hoopsters.

Rules Interpretation Game Carded Tonight

The annual rules interpretation and demonstration game of the Rhode Island Board of Approved Basketball Officials will be conducted tonight at the City High School gymnasium beginning at 8 o'clock. Teams chosen from the Providence College Varsity squad, through the co-operation of Coach Al McClellan, will stage the demonstration game which will be refereed by Walter F. ("Pard") Pearce and Emory P. Danzell. Roy W. Howard, veteran Rhode Island referee, will give the interpretations and explain the rules as the game progresses.

Coaches, players and any others in basketball will be welcome. The board of directors of the approved board, of which James P. Haughey is president, is particularly anxious to have as many high school players and coaches on hand as possible. Most of the board members' work is done among the schoolboy teams of Rhode Island and Mr. Haughey points out that this will be an excellent opportunity for the boys to learn just what they may expect from the referees during the coming season.

BASKETBALL RULES ARE INTERPRETED

R. I. Officials Watch Demonstration Game Staged by Friars at City Gymnasium.

Last evening the Providence College quintet put on an exhibition of the fine points of the game of basketball for the edification of the Rhode Island Officials' Association and the public at large who attended the affair held at the city high school gymnasium.

The Varsity and Freshman teams of the college played a well contested game throughout the first period, with the score being a tie at six all at the close of the initial quarter. With the renewal of play the Varsity showed its superior strength in defence and easily held the yearlings, and at the same time netted several brilliant scores.

Throughout the contest the rules were purposely violated that the spectators might be on the alert as to what to expect and be on guard for during the coming campaign. The officiating was capably handled by "Pard" Pierce and Walter Schurman, while the announcements of interest were taken care of in a most efficient manner by Roy Howard, the dean of officials. The festivities of the evening were in charge of J. P. Haughey, president of the board, who ran things off in a very fine manner.

The summary:

Providence College Varsity: Shapiro, Grubert, I. f.; Welsh, Perrin, r. f.; Koslowski, Roberge, c.; Gainer, Hyde, l. g.; Brackin, Riley, r. g.
Providence College Freshmen: Staniewski, Barbarito, l. f.; Power, Cobert, r. f.; Leahy, Davis, c.; Madden, Reavy, l. g.; Feit, Deviran, r. g. Referee—Pierce.

FRIARS HOLD FINAL DRILL FOR INDIANS

McCormac and Shapiro Will Play at Forward Against Dartmouth Tonight.

Lineups at Hanover:

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE. DARTMOUTH.
McCormac, l. f. .... l. f., J. Edwards
Shapiro, r. f. .... r. f., G. Edwards
Koslowski, c. .... c., Prince
Capt. Gainor, l. g. .... l. g., Krascewski
Brachen, r. g. .... r. g., Kramer

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

Manchester, N. H., Dec. 8.—The Providence College basketball squad of 14 players stopped here today on its way to Hanover and engaged in its final practice session for the opening game of the season with the Dartmouth five tomorrow night at Hanover. The Friars held their drill at the St. Anslem's gymnasium here.

Tomorrow's game should be close and well played as both teams will send veterans into the fray. McCormac and Shapiro will be at the forward berths for the Friars, Koslowski will be at centre, with Capt. Gainor and Brachen at the guards. The last three named faced the Indians last season, but for McCormac and Shapiro tomorrow night's assignments will be new to them. McCormac and Shapiro fill the two forward berths left open on the Dominican quintet by the graduation of Kreiger and McCue.

Captain Bill McCall and Harold Mackey, mainstays on last year's Dartmouth five, are not likely to start the game as they did not report to the team until Monday, due to their affiliation with the football squad, but both will see action before the game is over.

Dartmouth won a close game from the Providence team last season, but the latter showed good form in their practice today and the Indians will have to be at their best to repeat their 1930 triumph.

FRIARS BOW TO GREEN

Dartmouth Quintet Trims

Providence College 41-28

Jake Edwards, Mackey and McCall Star for Winners,
Koslowski for Losers.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

Hanover, N. H., Dec. 9.—With Jake Edwards flashing a sensational game, and aided by the addition of Mackey and McCall, football stars, a powerful Dartmouth basketball outfit scored a decisive 41 to 28 victory over an aggressive Providence College quintet here tonight.

Play Fast Throughout

Play was hard and fast throughout, with the locals pounding through in the second half to wipe away a Friar lead and pile up a commanding score which was never threatened as the game drew to a close. Providence more than held its own for the first 20 minutes of play and when the half-time whistle sounded left the court with a 14 to 13 advantage.

Dartmouth surged to the fore in the second stanza when Jake Edwards, former Worcester Academy flash, raced through the Friar defence for a pair of field goals, and Prince, who relieved Mackey at centre, sank a double dekker from under the hoop.

Strong replacements enabled the Big Green quintet to increase its lead as the period progressed. Kramer and Prince led in a consistent attack on the Dominicans' hoop and with but five minutes remaining had boosted their team total to 35 points to the Friars' 21. Providence rallied in the waning moments as Brachen caged two field goals on pivots from the foul line, but the locals' lead was too great to be overcome.

Koslowski Stars

Ed Koslowski, big centre for the Rhode Islanders, turned in the best game of the evening, starring at the pivot post for the entire game in spite of stern competition from Mackey and Prince. He shared the scoring honors on his team with Bracken with eight points each, while Edwards, of the locals, with 11, was high scorer of the fray.

The summary:

| DARTMOUTH (41) |    |    |    | PROVIDENCE (28) |    |    |    |
|----------------|----|----|----|-----------------|----|----|----|
| G.             | F. | P. |    | G.              | F. | P. |    |
| G. Edwards, rf | 1  | 0  | 2  | Gainor, lg      | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| J. Edwards, rf | 5  | 1  | 11 | Dromgoole, lg   | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Bruch, lf      | 0  | 2  | 2  | Hyte, lg        | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Stangle, lf    | 2  | 0  | 4  | Bracken, rg     | 4  | 0  | 8  |
| Mackey, c      | 0  | 1  | 1  | Dromgoole, rg   | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Prince, c      | 3  | 1  | 7  | Koslowski, c    | 2  | 4  | 8  |
| McCall, rg     | 4  | 1  | 9  | McCormac, lf    | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| Kraszewski, rg | 1  | 1  | 3  | Welch, lf       | 0  | 2  | 2  |
| Britten, lg    | 0  | 0  | 0  | Shapiro, rf     | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| Kramer, lg     | 1  | 0  | 2  |                 |    |    |    |
| Bennett, lg    | 0  | 0  | 0  |                 |    |    |    |
| Totals         | 17 | 7  | 41 | Totals          | 10 | 8  | 28 |

Referee—Couture. Umpire—Parker. Time
Two 20-minute halves.

Game played: DECEMBER 9, 1931

FRIARS TRIUMPH 62-22

FRIAR FIVE WHIPS NEWPORT SAILORS

Koslowski and Bracken Lead
Dominicans to 62-22
Victory.

By MICHAEL J. THOMAS

Flashing an excellent all-around game with Edward Koslowski and Dick Bracken leading its attack, the Providence College basketball team swamped the Naval Training Station quintet, 62 to 22, at Harkins Hall last night. With the exception of the first few minutes of play when the Sailors were at their best, the Friars had complete command of the game, exhibiting good team play, passing and shooting as its offensive gained effectiveness as the contest progressed.

The Sailors tried hard to stem the tide against them but their efforts proved fruitless before their more rangy and capable rivals. This much can be said for the Sailors—they did not give up the ship without putting up a courageous battle. Throughout the game the Newporters tried hard to increase their scoring, but the Friar defence refused to crack under the determined tactics of the opposition.

Friar Jayvees Win

In the preliminary game, the Providence College Junior Varsity team eked out a 29 to 28 decision over the Bridgewater Normal School quintet in a thrilling game, which saw the lead change hands many times. It was only a last-period rally that enabled the Friar Jayvees to come through victorious.

In the Varsity game, Koslowski and Bracken were outstanding, scoring 19 and 14 points, respectively. Koslowski, who was the outstanding player on the floor, made eight field goals and three foul shots while Bracken caged seven field goals from a guard position.

Koslowski played stellar basketball both on the offence and defence. The one-sidedness of the Friar victory can be traced to Koslowski's play at centre where he continually got the best of the jump over Frere, Newport centre. Most of the Friar plays were built around Koslowski.

Gainor Plays Well

Other players who looked good for the Friars were Shapiro and Hyte, newcomers to the team this year. Both played good all-round games and fitted well into the Friar machine. Hyte's speed was especially noteworthy. The old veterans of Friar basketball, Capt. Gainor and Welch, also turned in good games.

The score at halftime found the Friars ahead 25 to 10. The winners' offence was at its best in the second half when they began to score practically at will. In this session, the locals had the opposition bewildered by their excellent passing.

Rally in Second Half

The Sailors were only able to score

Game played:

December 12, 1931

seven field goals during the game, while their adversaries made 28 baskets. The Sailors caged eight foul shots to six by the winners.

During the first five minutes of play the Sailors played on practically even terms with the Friars, but they could not stand the fast pace, and the latter outfit ran away from their rivals. Koslowski and Bracken began to get range of the baskets and hooped 'em in from all angles of the court.

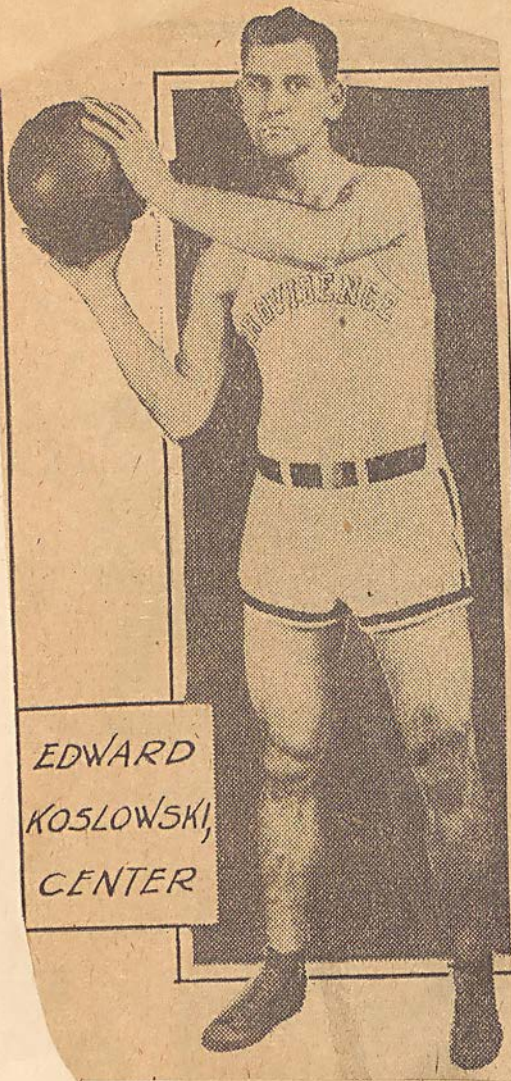

After the intermission, the Sailors were helpless before the fast play of the Friars, and from then on it was a matter of how high the Friar score would soar.

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (62) |           |          | NEWPORT NAVAL TRAINING (22) |          |           |   |
|-------------------------|-----------|----------|-----------------------------|----------|-----------|---|
| G.                      | F.        | P.       | G.                          | F.       | P.        |   |
| Welch, lf....           | 3         | 1        | Ferraro, lf....             | 2        | 1         | 5 |
| Perrin, lf....          | 1         | 0        | Blackbert, lf....           | 1        | 3         | 5 |
| Shapiro, rf....         | 2         | 1        | Skaiser (C), rf....         | 0        | 1         | 1 |
| Grubert, rf....         | 3         | 0        | Frere, c....                | 0        | 1         | 1 |
| Koslowski, c....        | 8         | 3        | 19L. Walden, lg....         | 2        | 0         | 4 |
| Roberts, c....          | 0         | 0        | Dandino, lg....             | 1        | 1         | 4 |
| Gainor (C), lg....      | 0         | 1        | 1W. Walden, rg....          | 1        | 1         | 3 |
| Reilly, lg....          | 0         | 0        |                             |          |           |   |
| Hyte, lg....            | 3         | 0        |                             |          |           |   |
| Bracken, rg....         | 7         | 0        |                             |          |           |   |
| Cody, rg....            | 0         | 0        |                             |          |           |   |
| Dromgoole, rg....       | 1         | 0        |                             |          |           |   |
| Total .....      | 28 | 6 | 7                    | 8 | 22 |   |

Referee—Haughey. Time—20-minute halves.

| PROV. COLLEGE JUNIOR VARSITY (29) |           |          | BRIDGEWATER NORMAL (28) |          |           |    |
|-----------------------------------|-----------|----------|-------------------------|----------|-----------|----|
| G.                                | F.        | P.       | G.                      | F.       | P.        |    |
| Barbarito, lf....                 | 1         | 1        | 3Ash, lf....            | 2        | 0         | 4  |
| St'n'w'ski, lf....                | 0         | 0        | Shockley, lf....        | 0        | 0         | 0  |
| Reavy, rf....                     | 1         | 1        | 3Welsh, rf....          | 4        | 3         | 11 |
| Power, rf....                     | 7         | 1        | 15E. Leahy, c....       | 3        | 1         | 7  |
| Davis, c....                      | 2         | 0        | Aberne, lg....          | 1        | 0         | 0  |
| B. Leahy, c....                   | 0         | 0        | Lowder, lg....          | 1        | 0         | 0  |
| Tebbetts, lg....                  | 1         | 0        | Cullen, rg....          | 2        | 0         | 4  |
| Madden, lg....                    | 1         | 0        | 2Teeling, rg....        | 0        | 0         | 0  |
| Derivan, rg....                   | 0         | 0        |                         |          |           |    |
| Felt, rg....                      | 1         | 0        |                         |          |           |    |
| Total .....                | 13 | 3 | 12               | 4 | 28 |    |

Referee—Schurman. Time—10-minute periods.

EDWARD
KOSLOWSKI,
CENTER

FRIARS DEFEAT

YALE 32-26

Koslowski Stars as Eli Five Loses First Game of Season

Friars Show Mid-Season Form in Scoring Victory at New Haven.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)
New Haven, Conn., Dec. 15.—A speedy Providence College basketball team which flashed the power which marked its mid-season play of a year ago, swept through Yale here tonight to score a 32 to 26 victory. The defeat was the first of the season for the Elis, and marked the Friars' second straight triumph and their third court victory over the locals in five years.

Big Ed Koslowski, rugged Providence centre, was the hero of the Friars' victory, and also the outstanding hoopster of the game. The big Sophomore ran wild all night, turning in a great exhibition in scoring seven field goals and a foul toss for 15 of the Friars' 32 points, and at the same time holding the two Yale pivot men to one field goal.

Superior Team Play

Superior team play, marked by a speedy offence and a strong defence, gave the Friars the decision. Providence took the lead at the start, only to lose it midway in the period, and then came back strong to claim the advantage of a 19 to 14 score at the half time. Yale tried hard to even the count in the second stanza, and at one time came within two points of the Dominicans, but the latter outfit had too much in reserve.

After Welch has started the night's scoring with a successful foul toss, Reese put Yale in the lead with the first field goal of the fray, a hawker from the side of the court. This goal starting an Eli scoring spree which ran their total to eight before the visitors got their range of the net. With Koslowski and Brachen leading the attack, the Yale lead was cut and three quarters of the way through the period Dromgoole, subbing for Brachen, caged a rebound to give Providence a 12 to 11 lead. Three field goals by Koslowski and a pretty one hand shot by Gainor made the count 19 to 14 as the midway whistle sounded.

Game played: December 15, 1931

Yale Comes Back

Providence ran its scoring to 25 soon after the second half started but Yale came back with a counter attack to make the battle a close one. Elliot, who relieved Saner, found the rim for three field goals in this attack which narrowed the Friars' lead to two points. The McClellan men had too much reserve, however, and as the game drew to a close Koslowski and Bracken, aided by splendid pass work on the part of their mates, piled up a commanding lead to claim the verdict.

The summary:

| PROVIDENCE       |    |       | YALE                    |    |       |
|------------------|----|-------|-------------------------|----|-------|
|                  | G. | F. P. |                         | G. | F. P. |
| Welch, lf....    | 0  | 2 2   | Nikkel, lf....          | 0  | 1 1   |
| Shapiro, rf...   | 0  | 1 1   | Saner, rf....           | 2  | 2 6   |
| Koslowski, c.    | 7  | 1 15  | Elliott, c....          | 3  | 1 7   |
| Gainor, lg...    | 1  | 2 4   | O'Neill, c....          | 1  | 0 2   |
| Hyte, rg.....    | 0  | 1 1   | O'Connell, lg.          | 0  | 1 1   |
| Bracken, rg...   | 2  | 3 7   | McGowan, lg.            | 2  | 3 7   |
| Droomg'le, rg    | 1  | 0 2   | Reese, rg....           | 0  | 0 0   |
|                  |    |       | Larsen, rg...           | 1  | 0 2   |
| Total.....       | 11 | 10 32 | Total.....              | 9  | 8 26  |
| Referee—Dickson. |    |       | Time—20 minute periods. |    |       |
| Umpire—Brenan.   |    |       |                         |    |       |

PROVIDENCE DOWNS YALE FIVE, 32 TO 26

Blue Team Fails to Hold Early Lead, Although Rallying Late in the Second Half.

KOSLOWSKI PROVES A STAR

Scores Fifteen Points and Combination Work With Bracken Is Feature.

Special to The New York Times.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 15.—Providence College trailed Yale during the first five minutes tonight, but closed the half with a 19 to 14 advantage and won, 32 to 26, giving Yale its first defeat of the season after two victories.

Ed Kolowski tallied fifteen of the visitors' points and was a tower of defensive strength. His fellow guard, Captain Bill Gainor, proved a bulwark which the Yale attack could not penetrate consistently. Acting Captain Ambrose McGowan starred in both offensive and defensive play for Yale, tying Carson Elliott, reserve forward, with seven points for high scoring honors among the Elis.

The line-up:

| Providence (32). |    |       | Yale (26).     |    |       |
|------------------|----|-------|----------------|----|-------|
|                  | G. | F. P. |                | G. | F. P. |
| Welch, lf.....   | 0  | 2 2   | Saner, lf..... | 2  | 2 6   |
| Shapiro, lf....  | 0  | 1 1   | Elliott.....   | 3  | 1 7   |
| McCormack.....   | 0  | 0 0   | Larsen.....    | 0  | 0 0   |
| Bracken.....     | 1  | 3 5   | Nikkel, lf.... | 0  | 1 1   |
| Koslowski, c...  | 7  | 1 15  | Larsen.....    | 1  | 0 2   |
| Bracken, rg...   | 1  | 0 2   | O'Neill, c.... | 1  | 0 2   |
| Droomgoole....   | 1  | 0 2   | O'Connell....  | 0  | 1 1   |
| Hyte.....        | 0  | 1 1   | Reese, rg....  | 0  | 0 0   |
| Gainor, lg.....  | 1  | 2 4   | O'Neill.....   | 0  | 0 0   |
|                  |    |       | McGowan, lg..  | 2  | 3 7   |
| Total.....       | 11 | 10 32 | Elliott.....   | 0  | 0 0   |
|                  |    |       | Total.....     | 9  | 8 26  |

Referee—Brennan. Umpire—Degnan. Time of halves—20 minutes.

FRIARS DOWN SETON HALL

28 TO 24

Dominicans Check Late Rally of Rivals to Score Triumph

Friars Hold 23-13 Lead at Half Time.—Bracken Leads in Scoring.

(Special to The Providence Journal.)
Newark, N. J., Dec. 18—Continuing the fine play which marked its victory over Yale earlier in the week, the Providence College Varsity basketball team scored its third straight triumph of the season by downing Seton Hall College 28 to 24 in a hard fought game here tonight. The game opened the Friars initial New York trip which will be concluded with the St. John's game tomorrow night.

Piling up a commanding lead in the first half of the game, the Friars had their backs to the wall in the second 20 minutes of play as the locals staged an uphill fight which narrowed the Dominicans' advantage to a pair of field goals. Only superior pass work and ability to hold possession of the ball in the final two minutes of play enabled the Rhode Islanders to avert a possible tie as the local hoopsters netted field goals from all corners of the court.

Coach McClellan of the Friars pulled a surprise in sending Franny Dromgocle in at a forward, but the latter more than filled the berth, racing all over the court and giving a splendid exhibition. With superior height and pass work, the Friars opened a consistent attack in the first few minutes of the play and within five minutes had a 11 to 2 lead. This advantage was maintained throughout the stanza and at the half time the McClellan men left the court with the count of 23 to 13 in their favor.

Field goals by Bracken and Shapiro and a foul toss by Koslowski opened the second half and incidentally concluded the Dominicans scoring for the night. The Setonians, with the cause apparently lost, came back strong and led by the splendid floor work of Captain Singleton and the accurate foul tossing of Madigan closed the visitors' big lead.

Game played: December 18, 1931—

With three minutes to play Singleton scored a field goal from the corner of the court. Madigan was fouled by Welch and made good on both throws to bring the Setonians' score to 23. Singleton contributed another marker after being fouled by Gainor, but at this juncture the Friars garnered the leather and proceeded to hold close possession until the final whistle sounded.

Dick Bracken, Providence guard, came into his own for the first time this season, scoring 13 of the Friars' points, while Koslowski was second high scorer of the night with nine points to his credit.

The summary:

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (28) |    |    | SETONS HALL COLLEGE (24) |                |    |    |    |
|-------------------------|----|----|--------------------------|----------------|----|----|----|
|                         | G. | F. | P.                       |                | G. | F. | P. |
| Dremgoole, lf.          | 1  | 0  | 2                        | Zd'ndw'cz, lf  | 2  | 2  | 6  |
| Welch, lf. . . .        | 0  | 0  | 0                        | Singleton, rf  | 2  | 3  | 7  |
| Shapiro, rf. . .        | 1  | 1  | 3                        | Bablak, c. . . | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| Koslowski, c. .         | 4  | 1  | 9                        | Madigan, lg.   | 0  | 4  | 4  |
| Gainor, lg. . .         | 0  | 1  | 1                        | Reiss, rg. . . | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Bracken, rg. .          | 6  | 1  | 13                       | Byrne, rg. . . | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Totals . . . .          | 12 | 4  | 28                       | Totals . . . . | 7  | 10 | 24 |

Referee—Schneider. Time—20-minute periods.

BROOKLYN QUINTET DEFEATS FRIARS

St. John's Is Winner 33 to 25;
Koslowski, Bracken Star for Providence.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 19.—St. John's College, Eastern basketball champions last year, continued in its winning record by downing Providence College here tonight by a 33 to 25 score in a hard-fought game. Both teams flashed some fine defensive play, with the locals featuring the entire contest by their superior pass work.

After failing to cope with the Johnites attack in the first half, Providence came back strong to battle on fairly even terms, for the greater part of the second stanza. A spirited rally narrowed the locals' lead to four points, but the Indians had too much reserve and as a result were able to pull away to a comfortable advantage.

Dick Bracken and Ed. Koslowski were the best bets for the Friars, turning in some fine floor work and collecting 17 of their team's total, while Neary, giant centre, and Lazar, speedy forward, led the locals' offence.

Play was nip and tuck until midway in the opening half when the locals uncovered a consistent attack on the Friar hop which enabled them to pile up a commanding lead. With the count six to six, the Providence points the result of accurate tosses by Koslowski and Shapiro, St. John's went ahead on Lazar's pretty field goal on a pivot off the foul line.

The Dominicans were unable to cope with the faster and rougher game of the locals and as a result were at a loss to halt the ensuing barrage on their net. Poliskin, ace of the Indians crack Freshman team of last year, raced through three times to score spectacular goals on one-hand tosses at the hoop. Koslowski and Bracken kept Providence in the battle, however, with field goals as the period drew to a close with St. John's on the long end of an 18 to 10 score.

Welch opened the scoring in the second half by converting on Lazar's foul and then added to the Friar cause with a pretty hawker from the side of the court. Lazar scored a goal after a dribble the length of the court, but Bracken kept Providence in the running with a double-decker on a pivot from the foul line.

At this juncture St. John's uncorked a scoring spurt with Neary and Poliskin as the spear heads of the attack, and pulled ahead by 12 points before Providence rallied. The final 10 minutes produced some fast action with the Friars trying hard to cut down the locals' lead.

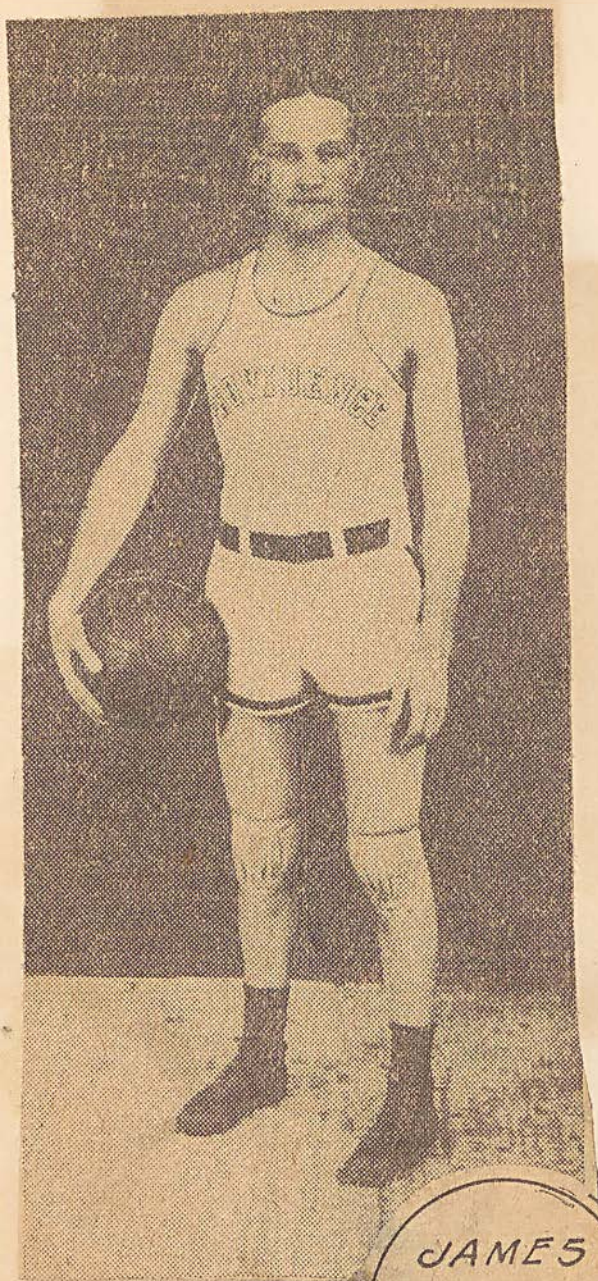

The summary:

| ST. JOHN'S COL. (33) |    |    | PROV. (25) |                   |    |   |   |
|----------------------|----|----|------------|-------------------|----|---|---|
| G.                   | F. | P. | G.         | F.                | P. |   |   |
| Slott, lf. ....      | 2  | 0  | 4          | Bromgoole, lf     | 0  | 1 | 1 |
| McGuinness, lf.      | 0  | 0  | 0          | Welch, lf. . . .  | 1  | 2 | 4 |
| Lazar, rf. ....      | 4  | 1  | 9          | Shapiro, rf. . .  | 1  | 1 | 2 |
| Neary, c. ....       | 4  | 1  | 9          | McCorm'k, rf      | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| Hill, c. ....        | 0  | 0  | 0          | Koslowski, c. . . | 4  | 0 | 8 |
| Poliskin, lg. . .    | 4  | 0  | 8          | Galnor, lg. . . . | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| McCutcheon, lg       | 1  | 0  | 2          | Hyte, lg. ....    | 0  | 0 | 0 |
| Smith, rg. ....      | 0  | 1  | 1          | Bracken, rf. . .  | 4  | 1 | 9 |
| Carroll, rg. ....    | 0  | 0  | 0          |                   |    |   |   |

Totals . . . . 15 3 33 Totals . . . 10 5 25

Referee—Murray, E. I. A. Umpire—Carroll, E. I. A. Time of halves—20 minutes.

Game played: December 19, 1931

JAMES
WELCH,
FORWARD

Koslowski and Shapiro Star As Friars Triumph 38 to 27

Charity Game at New London

Attracts Large Crowd.

Play is Fast.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

New London, Conn., Jan. 9.—The strong Providence College quintet proved too formidable for the Coast Guard Academy five in a hard-fought game here tonight, the Friars coming through with a 38 to 27 decision. The game was the first court tilt staged in this vicinity for the benefit of the unemployed and attracted the largest crowd ever to witness a basketball contest here.

Superior team play, featured by the individual efforts of Sam Shapiro, rangy right forward, and Ed Koslowski, rugged centre, provided the Friars with the needed power to overcome the aggressiveness of the locals.

Providence led at half-time by 13 points, but was forced to battle for the tilt in the second 20 minutes of play when the Guardsmen unleashed a fast running attack which at one time cut the Dominican lead to four points.

With the verdict assured, Coach McClellan rushed his reserves into action in the final minutes of play and this aggregation boosted the total three markers when Roberge counted on a foul toss and Reavey tallied on a retap under the hoop.

Play was close for the first 10 minutes of the opening period, with both teams even in the scoring. Providence found it difficult to break through the Cadets' five-man defence until Coach

McClellan shifted his offence, sending Hyte, Dromgoole and McCormac into action. Hyte put the Friars in the lead, 10 to 9, on an easy shot from under the basket, and Welch and Shapiro scored seven more points in short order to boost the lead.

In the final minute of the period Hyte scored a hawker from deep court, and Koslowski sank a field goal from the corner of the court to give Providence a 21 to 9 lead at the half.

As in the opening stanza, both teams battled evenly at the start of the second period, with the Cadets pulling up on the Friars as the result of accurate shooting by Fabik, Forney and Rea. With the score 27 to 23 for Providence, Coach McClellan rushed Capt. Gainor and Bracken, his star guards, back into action to halt the Cadets' scoring spree.

Gainor counted on a shot from inside the foul line, and this goal started the Friars' rally. Koslowski and McCormac found the hoop for scores, and in the final five minutes the visitors pulled away to a commanding lead which assured them of their fourth victory of the season.

| PROVIDENCE (38) |    |    | COAST GUARD (27) |               |    |   |    |
|-----------------|----|----|------------------|---------------|----|---|----|
| G.              | F. | P. | G.               | F.            | P. |   |    |
| Welch, lf       | 1  | 0  | 2                | Rea, lf       | 2  | 0 | 4  |
| McCormac, lf    | 1  | 1  | 3                | Nickelson, lf | 0  | 0 | 0  |
| Perrin, lf      | 0  | 0  | 0                | Forney, rf    | 3  | 1 | 7  |
| Shapiro, rf     | 3  | 4  | 10               | Zittel, c     | 3  | 0 | 6  |
| Grubert, rf     | 0  | 0  | 0                | Weller, c     | 1  | 0 | 2  |
| Koslowski, c    | 2  | 2  | 6                | Fabik, lg     | 1  | 3 | 5  |
| Roberge, g      | 0  | 1  | 1                | Corsi, rg     | 0  | 1 | 1  |
| Gainor, lg      | 1  | 0  | 2                | Crotty, rg    | 1  | 0 | 2  |
| Dromgoole, lg   | 1  | 0  | 2                |               |    |   |    |
| Rellly, lg      | 0  | 0  | 0                |               |    |   |    |
| Bracken, rg     | 3  | 0  | 6                |               |    |   |    |
| Hyte, rg        | 2  | 0  | 4                |               |    |   |    |
| Reavey, rg      | 1  | 0  | 2                |               |    |   |    |
| Totals          | 15 | 8  | 38               | Total         | 11 | 5 | 27 |

Referee—Ahern. Time—20-minute periods.

Game played: January 9, 1932

dependents Meet Strong Providence Quintet

FRIARS FAVORED TO END PURPLE STREAK

Invaders, Victorious Over Yale, Boast Powerful Team—Locals Confident—
St. John's Will Meet Bartlett

By BARNEY MADDEN

Aroused by the long succession of defeats handed them by Providence College when they were the official basketball representatives of their college, the Holy Cross Independents will make a spirited fight for vengeance tonight when they encounter the proud, polished and powerful Friar forces in St. John's gymnasium.

Never has a Holy Cross court team repulsed the Friars, and never has the opportunity to do so been brighter. The Independents, last season's varsity with a year's added experience, present a strong, swift and shrewd organization that is well conditioned and spilling for a chance to terminate the Providence rule.

The Dominicans, although twice defeated this year by outstanding quintets, are as formidable, if not more so than ever before. True, they fell before Dartmouth and St. John's, but the Big Green is considered the cream of New England and St. John's ranks with New York's best. Since bowing before Dartmouth in the opening game of the season, Providence has come along well, toppling, among others, Yale's capable quintet. The Friars were six points better than Yale whereas Dartmouth later beat the Blue by a solitary point.

Thrilling Game Expected

In years past Providence and Holy Cross have staged thrilling, spectacular battles, with the Friars always winning out by a very slender margin. Tonight may be another story entirely, for the Independents have proved their class and seem capable of holding their own with virtually any college or club quintet in New England.

Capt. Ted Leary's Independents have triumphed impressively in all seven starts this season and are confident that they can make the visiting quintet Victim No. 8. The Independents have progressed steadily all season, displaying better form and greater speed in each succeeding game until, in the latest start against the re-inforced Worcester Y. M. H. A., they played at a sizzling clip until victory was a foregone conclusion.

Worcester
Telegram-GAZETTE

Providence, like the Purple, depends mainly upon clever teamwork, although each of the Friars is a star in his own right. Tonight's game, which is likely to develop into the fastest and most exciting of the local season, should also be one of the most artistic seen here in some time. The Independents also boast a smart passing game, with speed and agility as added features. The Dominicans' style of play is virtually a duplicate, which leads to the expectation that the 1932 Providence-Holy Cross series will overshadow those of the past in brilliance.

The Independents have worked hard to fit themselves for this battle and have a fine chance of snapping the Friars' streak. With such speed merchants as Donovan and Schoenrock to pace them, the Independents expect to win, principally because they think they can cover more territory and cover it faster than their opponents. Hickey, Donovan's front court running mate, while not as fast as Donovan, is very shrewd, an accurate shot, a superb floor-worker and a clever defensive player who drops back to protect his own basket when Schoenrock speeds down the floor.

As usual, tonight's game will place a heavy burden on the shoulders of Luke Driscoll, but Driscoll can take good care of himself in any company. The willowy Holy Cross star is really the backbone of the Independents' attack, being middle man in most of their pass plays. He is especially valuable under the basket, where his exceptional ability as a ball handler asserts itself most.

As stationary guard, Holy Cross boasts one of New England's best hoop protectors in Ted Leary, who is as omnipresent as a stiff neck and as hard to shake as a Summer cold.

Although the Independents are decidedly clever and powerful, the Dominicans will give them all they can handle. The visitors, as a matter of fact, are generally favored to win, and not without much good reason. They will have a big advantage in height, have been playing together as long as the Independents have, and in addition, they enjoy the benefits of coaching, while the Purple is struggling to keep intact the system expounded by Jack Reed when he was their coach.

Providence has lost a couple of brilliant performers since they were here last, but still is ranked with the four leading college quintets in New England. Needless to say, things should hum in St. John's gym this evening.

Henry McGuiness, veteran Brighton official, and Dick Roberts of Fitchburg will handle the main game. Roberts will referee the schoolboy contest which starts at 7.30 o'clock.

St. John's High will oppose Bartlett High of Webster in the first game of the double feature, the game starting at 7.30 o'clock. This will be St. John's third encounter of the week, having beaten St. Louis High and been beaten by Commerce.

Providence College Nips

H. C. Independents

in Overtime

FRIARS SCORE 35-31 VICTORY IN THRILLER

Lead Shifts Often as Luke Driscoll Paces
Smaller Worcester Team in Hectic Battle—Crowd Boos Referee

By BARNEY MADDEN

In as hard, hectic and hair-raising a struggle as the toil-worn walls of St. John's gymnasium ever has housed, the sensational giants of Providence College conquered a fighting Holy Cross Independent quintet last night 35 to 31, but only after the weary rivals had fought through two regulation periods and one five-minute overtime session.

Maintaining a blistering pace, the contending teams waged a bruising battle all the way, keeping the crowd that jammed the hall and literally hung from the girders, in constant uproar. The game was spectacular in every respect, terrifically fast, rugged—too rugged at times—and studded with feats of individual brilliance and team achievements that left the players exhausted at the finish.

So heated was the game and so excited the throng that booing, almost unheard of in Worcester, broke out spasmodically and once in the second half when the pace was particularly hot, the crowd, incensed by what it construed a faulty officiating by Referee McGuinness, caused a halt by jeering the official steadily for eight minutes.

Crowd Rides Officials

Both Referee McGuinness and Umpire Roberts were subjected to the wrath of the crowd on occasions, but when McGuinness called a personal on Donovan for blocking MacCormack bedlam broke loose and the efforts of the players and officials to still the gathering were unavailing.

Providence, with a team of six-footers, subjected the Independents, who were almost tiny in comparison, to considerable roughing, although it was evident that the speed and closeness of the game, rather than any rancor on the part of the players, was responsible. Luke Driscoll, lanky but lean Holy Cross center, was reeling about the floor, virtually exhausted, through the last 10 minutes of the game, having been badly buffeted as he turned in the greatest game of his colorful career.

Worcester Telegram-Journal

As the game neared fever pitch in the waning minutes, MacCormack and Driscoll nearly came to blows but quick work on the part of the players effected a change of heart. Driscoll had emerged successful from a tugging match with MacCormack for the ball and as he walked away MacCormack pushed him and Driscoll immediately signified his willingness to do battle. The incident, however, was the only evidence of bad blood in the nerve wracking skirmish.

Score Always Close

The game was almost a deadlock from start to finish. Holy Cross scored first, and led at the half, but the superiority of size and number in the Providence camp prevailed in the end. It was, however, as satisfying and spectacular game as Worcester ever has witnessed.

Eddie Hickey scored the first basket of the game, less than five seconds after the start and from that point until near the end of the first half the lead changed almost constantly. Bracken deadlocked the count with a short flip and Koslowski, the Friars' huge center, put his team ahead by successfully shooting a free try. Hickey tied it up again with a shot from the charity line and Gainor, Providence's amateur boxing champion and captain, swept the Friars ahead by a heave from the center of the floor. Hickey succeeded with two free flips to tie the score again but once more Gainor fired from afar and Providence again was in front, now 7 to 5. Driscoll, hurled to the floor when he attempted to break out of a mass of Providence players, scrambled to his feet to shoot and now the count again and Capt. Ted Leary gave his mates the lead with a long shot.

New Men Rushed In

Driscoll and Schoenrock scored again and with Holy Cross in front, 13 to 7, the Providence bench decided upon replacements. Red MacCormack, a small, wiry performer, whose specialty is floor work, replaced Grubert, the Friars six-foot, four-inch starting forward and Hyte, another six-footer was injected to replace Captain Gainor.

Koslowski and MacCormack scored shortly but Driscoll looped a pretty basket to keep the Independents lead intact. Koslowski converted a free try and Leary scored from the floor as the half ended.

Shapiro and Koslowski scored as the second half opened to again tie the score before Driscoll broke it with a beautiful shot from the side court and a free try. Koslowski and Shapiro again repeated for four points.

Schoenrock regained the lead with a sparkling shot and then Dromgoole and MacCormack fired long heaves to give the Friars a new margin. Donovan tore madly down the court to take a fast pass and score but Bracken regained the Friars' lead with an overhead pop. Driscoll disentangled himself from a mass of arms and legs to score and Hickey deadlocked the count just as the period ended by caging one of the two free tries he had been allotted. The weary Driscoll had scored on the play but a foul had previously been committed and instead of the field goal Hickey was accorded the charity shot.

Lose in Overtime

Weary, almost exhausted the small Independents returned for the extra period and fought with all their fury but Shapiro, Koslowski and Shapiro again scored in rapid succession before Schoenrock looped a thrilling shot from the corner. Eddie Donovan was ejected for oversubscribing the personal foul quota shortly thereafter and Shapiro cashed in on both free flips. Schoenrock scored twice from the foul stripe as the game ended.

Koslowski and Shapiro topped the scorers with 10 points apiece but it was Luke Driscoll, the wounded veteran of the Independents, who gave the greatest exhibition. Roughed, pushed and tripped, Driscoll, his leg incased in tape because of a malignant charley-horse, played superbly. He rescued the ball off both backboards countless times, broke up Providence offensives, held the brilliant Koslowski well in check, and all this despite a weakened leg that three times caved under him.

PROVIDENCE

|                     | fg | fp | tp |
|---------------------|----|----|----|
| Grubert lf .....    | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| MacCormack lf ..... | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| Shapiro rf .....    | 4  | 2  | 10 |
| Koslowski c .....   | 4  | 2  | 10 |
| Gainor lg .....     | 2  | 0  | 4  |
| Hyte lg .....       | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Bracken rg .....    | 2  | 0  | 4  |
| Dromgoole rg .....  | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Totals .....        | 15 | 5  | 35 |

H. C. INDEPENDENTS

|                        | fg | fp | tp |
|------------------------|----|----|----|
| Donovan lf .....       | 2  | 0  | 2  |
| Jim Nicholson lf ..... | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Joe Nicholson lf ..... | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Hickey rf .....        | 1  | 4  | 6  |
| Driscoll c .....       | 4  | 1  | 9  |
| Leary lg .....         | 2  | 0  | 4  |
| Schoenrock rg .....    | 4  | 2  | 10 |
| Totals .....           | 12 | 7  | 31 |

Referee, McGuinness. Timer, Roberts.

Friars Win Overtime Game from Crusader Independents

Halt Eight-Game Victory Streak of Worcester Team by 35 to 31 Triumph.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

Worcester, Mass., Jan. 15.—The Providence College basketball team smashed the eight game victory streak of the Holy Cross Independents in a thrilling overtime tilt here tonight, winning an exciting game 35 to 31. The victory was the fifth of the season for the Friars.

A crowd of 1400 was in constant bedlam as the lead see-sawed throughout the game with count deadlocked at 27 apiece after 40 minutes of play. Superior condition and teamwork enabled the Dominicans to take the lead as soon as the overtime started and to pile up an advantage which the locals were unable to erase.

In the overtime, Shapiro, one of the Friar heroes of the clash, gave Providence a two point lead when he dribbled down the side of the court and made a difficult basket. A moment later Koslowski sent the Friar rooters into an uproar when he tallied on an overhead shot from under the nets. Bracken made it a six point lead a minute later when he took Shapiro's pass from out of the bounds and tallied.

Schoenrock roused the Crusaders with a field goal from the corner of the court, but Shapiro evened the score when he made two foul goals for the final Friar points. Providence resorted to freezing the ball as the time waned, and held the Crusaders to a brace of foul shots which Schoenrock made after being fouled by McCormac.

Play was nip and tuck from the start, with the rival centres, Koslowski and Driscoll, leading the offences. Midway through the period the Crusaders pulled away to a 13 to 7 lead, but the Dominicans came back strong to narrow the count to 17 to 13 as the half ended.

Providence opened strong in the second stanza, with Koslowski knotting the count after Shapiro had caged a goal from mid-floor. Holy Cross surged ahead due to the efforts of Driscoll, but after seven minutes of spirited action which had the crowd in a constant uproar, Shapiro flipped in a one-hand shot from under the hoop to give Providence a 21 to 20 lead.

The Friars pulled ahead to a 27 to 24 advantage, but in the final minutes of play the Crusaders caused a near riot as Schoenrock slipped an easy score through the hoop on an easy shot from under the rim, and then Hickey converted a foul shot on a personal by Koslowski to tie the score at 27 all.

Superior power enabled the visitors to sweep ahead in the extra-period. Four players, Koslowski and Shapiro of the Friars, and Driscoll and Schoenrock of the Independents, tied for the high scoring honors of the fray with 10 points each. The Crusaders meet the Dominicans in a return game at the Rhode Island Auditorium on Feb. 27.

The summary:

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (35) |    |    |    | HOLY CROSS INDEPENDENTS (31) |    |    |    |
|-------------------------|----|----|----|------------------------------|----|----|----|
|                         | G. | F. | P. |                              | G. | F. | P. |
| Grubert, lf...          | 0  | 0  | 0  | Donovan, lf...               | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| McCormac, lf...         | 2  | 1  | 5  | Jos Nich'n, lf...            | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Shapiro, rf...          | 4  | 2  | 10 | Hickey, rf...                | 1  | 3  | 5  |
| Koslowski, c...         | 4  | 2  | 10 | Jim Nich'n, rf...            | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Gainor, lg...           | 2  | 0  | 4  | Driscoll, c...               | 4  | 2  | 10 |
| Hyle, lg...             | 0  | 0  | 0  | Leary, lg...                 | 2  | 0  | 4  |
| Bracken, rg...          | 2  | 0  | 4  | Schoen'ck, ig...             | 4  | 2  | 10 |
| Dromgoole, rg...        | 1  | 0  | 2  |                              |    |    |    |
| Total.....              | 15 | 5  | 35 | Total.....                   | 12 | 7  | 31 |

Referee—H. J. McGuinness. Time—20-minute periods. Umpire—R. Roberti.

Game played: January 16, 1932

Game played: January 16, 1932

BRIDGEWATER FIVE VICTOR OVER FRIARS

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

Bridgewater, Mass., Jan. 16.—The strong Bridgewater Normal quintet defeated the junior Varsity quintet of Providence College, rallying in the final minutes of play to claim a 36 to 33 decision. The victory avenged a one-point setback sustained at the hands of the Friar Seconds in Providence last month.

Eddie Welch of the locals was the individual star of the clash, making 15 points, while Ed Stanisiewski, guard, with 10 points, and George Tebbetts, Dominican leader, with five points, were the best for the losers.

Play was close throughout the first half, with Dexter Davis, lanky centre of the Dominican junior Varsity, featuring with his all-round play. The local aggregation broke an 11 to 11 tie as the period drew to a close, and with Welch leading the way pulled ahead to an 18 to 11 advantage at halftime.

In the second half the Friars sent Jack Leahy, six foot six centre, and Al Feit, aggressive guard, into active. Leahy proceeded to garner the taps and Ed Stanisiewsky brought the large crowd to its feet with his spectacular scoring, caging three successive field goals, which were followed by a counter by Leahy which gave the Friars the lead again.

Play continued close for the remainder of the tilt. Providence moved into a three-point lead only to surrender it a few minutes later when the Normal School hoopsters found their range and boosted their lead to 32 to 25. Capt. Tebbetts returned to the game and the Friars spurted to the fore again, with Power, Leahy, Feit and Stanisiewski scoring to give the Dominicans a one-point advantage.

Lowder, local guard, sent the court into an uproar when he tallied a spectacular hawk from the corner of the court to regain the lead, and then Cullen duplicated with a two pointer from the opposite side of the playing surface. The final gun sounded with the Friars striving desperately to erase the three-point margin.

| PROVIDENCE COL.JUNIOR VARSITY (33) |   |   | BRIDGEWATERNORMAL (36) |   |   |
|--|---|---|----------------------------|---|---|
| G. F. P.                               |   |   | G. F. P.                   |   |   |
| Barbarito, lf...                       | 0 | 0 | 0                          | 1 | 4 |
| Stanisiewski, lf                       | 5 | 0 | 10                         | 6 | 3 |
| Morrison, rf...                        | 1 | 0 | 2                          | 4 | 1 |
| Power, rf.....                         | 2 | 0 | 4                          | 2 | 1 |
| Davis, c.....                          | 1 | 0 | 2                          | 1 | 3 |
| Leahy, c.....                          | 2 | 2 | 6                          |   |   |
| Tebbetts, lf...                        | 2 | 1 | 5                          |   |   |
| Feit, lg.....                          | 2 | 0 | 4                          |   |   |
| Reavey, rg...                          | 0 | 0 | 0                          |   |   |
| Madden, rg...                          | 0 | 0 | 0                          |   |   |

Total ..... 15 3 33      Total ..... 15 3 36
Referee—Cogan. Time—20-minute periods.

Front row, left to right: Edward Reilly, guard; John McCormac, forward; George Tebbetts, guard; James Welch, forward, and Oscar Perrin, forward. Middle row, left to right: William Hye, guard; Edward Koslowski, centre; William Gainor, captain and guard; Allan Bracken, guard; Wilbur Grubert, forward, and Samuel Shapiro, forward. Back row, left to right: John Glennon, assistant manager; Frank Reavey, centre; George Cody, guard; Albert McClellan, coach; Oliver Roberge, centre; Francis Dromgoole, forward, and Thomas J. O'Brien, manager.

FRIARS SEEK SIXTH VICTORY TONIGHT

Providence College Five to Play
Harvard in Cambridge.
In Good Shape.

The Providence College basketball team will be after its sixth victory of the season tonight at Cambridge when it meets the Harvard basketball team. The Friars defeated the Holy Cross Independents last Friday, exhibiting a fast brand of basketball in winning, and as a result are favored to down the Crimson tonight.

This will be the eighth game of the season for the locals, who have been downed only twice. Dartmouth and St. John's are the only teams to lower the colors of the Friars this season. They will have an opportunity to avenge the defeat received from St. John's in a return game to be played here.

Coach Al McClellan has put his charges through two hard drills for the Harvard game. There will be changes in the lineup. James Welch, veteran, will be able to use his speed to advantage in the large Harvard gymnasium. He will be at one of the forwards with Sam Shapiro, who was one of the heroes in the triumph over the Holy Cross Independents.

Reliable Ed Koslowski will be at centre. Koslowski has been a big factor in all Friar games this season. At guards will be Capt. Chick Gainor and Dick Bracken.

Harvard lost its last game to M. I. T., 14 to 12, and the players will be anxious to get back into the victory column when they face the Friars. Providence College has a good team and at present is in top form. Thus, Harvard will have to be at its best to eke out a triumph.

Following are the players who will leave this afternoon after classes for Cambridge:

Capt. Chick Gainor, Dick Bracken, Ed Koslowski, James Welch, Sam Shapiro, Oc Ferrin, John McCormac, George Cody, Francis Dromgoole, Wilbur Grubert, Ed Reilly, Ollie Roberge, William Hyte, Frank Reavey and George Tebbetts.

FRIAR QUINTET VICTORIOUS OVER HARVARD. FIVE

37 TO 25

Sam Shapiro Leads Attack For Friars With 14 Points

Providence College Five Ahead
20 to 11 at Halftime in Slow Game.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 20.—The strong Providence College Varsity basketball team scored a decisive 37 to 25 decision over Harvard here tonight in the first court tilt to be staged between the two colleges. The victory was the sixth of the season and gives Friars the unique honor of being the only quintet to down both Yale and Harvard this season. A crowd of close to 800 witnessed the clash.

Sam Shapiro, former Lynn star, provided the fireworks in what was a slow and rather listless game. The rangy Friar left forward was the high scorer of the evening, collecting 14 points as the result of six field goals and two successful free tosses. His individual play was the best of the game.

Friars Gain Lead

The large floor slowed the usual strong offence of the Dominicans, and only at the close of the first half did they flash their strongest attack when 11 points were chalked up in four minutes of play to give them a lead which was never threatened during the remainder of the tilt.

Harvard's best bets were the rangy Pattison at centre, who led his team's scoring with 10 points, and Carl Hageman, football captain, who played a smashing game on the defence.

After three minutes of play Welch opened the evening's scoring when he converted on Baskerville's personal, and Kosloweki added another marker a moment later when fouled by Pattison. For the ensuing 12 minutes of play the action was slow with neither team showing any real strength. The lead changed three times, with the Friars scoring but one field goal and the remainder of their markers on fouls.

Game played: January 20, 1932

With the count 9 to 8 against them the Rhode Islanders suddenly came to like and unleashed an offensive attack which completely bewildered the Crim-son hoopsters and gave the large crowd its only excitement of the evening. Hyte scored a hawket from the side of the court to start the barrage, and a min-ute later Shapiro flipped a one-hand shot through the rim from the corner of the playing surface to increase the Providence Lead.

Providence Leads 20 to 11

Bracken took a pass from Koslowski under the hoop and tallied, and Sha-piro caged a goal from beyond the foul line a few seconds later to boost the total to 16. McCormac scored from mid-floor, and Koslowski tapped a rebound back through the meshes to give the Providence outfit a 20 to 11 lead as the half-time gun sounded.

In the second half Harvard rallied and at one time closed the gap in the scor-ing to 25 to 19, but the visitors had too much reserve, and as a result managed to keep a comfortable lead. Toward the close of the game accurate tosses by Cody, Shapiro and Bracken sent the Friars far out in front to assure them of the verdict.

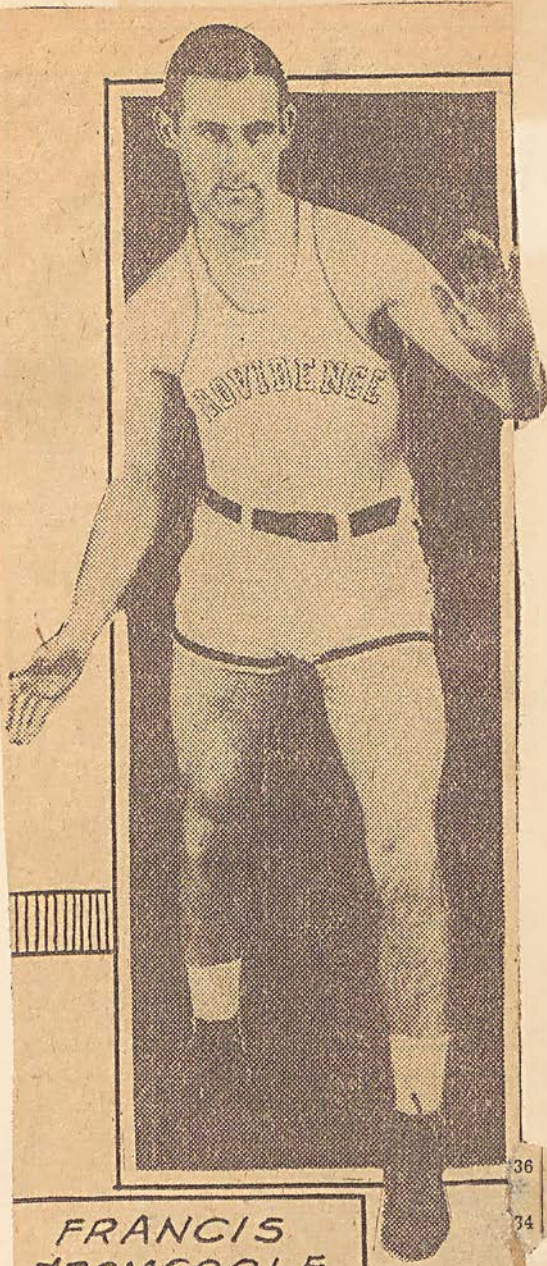

The summary:

| PROV. COLLEGE (37) |    |       | HARVARD (25)      |    |       |
|--------------------|----|-------|-------------------|----|-------|
|                    | G. | F. P. |                   | G. | F. P. |
| Welch, lf . . . .  | 0  | 1     | Baskerville, lf   | 0  | 0     |
| McCormac, lf       | 1  | 0     | Schroeder, lf     | 0  | 0     |
| Shapiro, rf . . .  | 6  | 2     | Matur'vich, rf    | 1  | 1     |
| Perrin, rf . . . . | 0  | 0     | Rauh, rf . . . .  | 0  | 0     |
| Koslowski, c . .   | 1  | 2     | Pattison, c . . . | 4  | 2     |
| Roberts, c . . .   | 0  | 0     | Upton, c . . . .  | 0  | 1     |
| Gainor, lg . . . . | 0  | 0     | Reisner, lg . . . | 2  | 2     |
| Hyte, lg . . . .   | 2  | 1     | Huppuch, rg . . . | 1  | 0     |
| Bracken, rg . .    | 3  | 1     | Hageman, rg . .   | 1  | 1     |
| Reavy, rg . . . .  | 0  | 0     |                   |    |       |
| Cody, lg . . . .   | 1  | 1     |                   |    |       |
| Dromgoole, lf . .  | 0  | 1     |                   |    |       |
| Grubert, rf . . .  | 0  | 0     |                   |    |       |

Total . . . . 14 9 37 Total . . . . 9 7 25
 Referee—H. J. McGuinness. Umpire—G. Clark. Time—20 minutes.

SAM SHADIRO,
LEFT FORWARD

FRANCIS
DROMGOOLE,
CENTER

FRIARS VICTORIOUS OVER SPRINGFIELD

Dominicans Rally in Second Half to Win 34 to 31; Victory Is 7th of Season.

The Springfield College basketball team threw a real scare into the Providence College camp during three-quarters of the route of last night's game at Markins Hall but the Friars got their scoring range midway in the second half and finally emerged victorious 34 to 31. This was the seventh victory in nine games for the local team this season. In a preliminary game the Providence College Junior 'Varsity five defeated the Providence Boys' Club team 35 to 24.

It was the excellent long range shooting of Bill HYTE, John McCormac and Sam Shapiro that stemmed the tide which had been surging against the Friars. All three of these stellar players came through with beautiful long shots at most opportune times during the game.

Both teams played good basketball. Springfield had the advantage during the first half, piling up a 19 to 12 lead but the visitors could not match the fast play of their adversaries in the second half when the latter staged a fast passing attack that had the opposition bewildered.

Show Strong Defence

Springfield showed an exceptionally strong defence in the first half. The Friars were kept from getting within scoring distance most of the time and when they did, the Springfield defence hurried their shots. In the second half the Friars mixed brilliant individualistic play with teamwork and met with success on both ends. Most of the long shot efforts of HYTE, McCormac and Shanet with success and Bracken was and to hoop the short ones. The game was well played and a fairly large crowd was kept on edge throughout the contest by the close play.

Springfield started in whirlwind fashion. Wells opened the scoring for the visitors but Bracken tied the count at 2-all. Field baskets by Quirk and Seawagen and a foul shot by Meyers in quick succession gave Springfield a 7-2 lead. Wells counted on a fine pass from Seawagen to put the count 9-2 for Springfield. Wells and Crutch made the count 12-2 on a field goal and a foul.

Game played: January 23, 1932 —

Friars Add Speed

The Friars put on added speed here. Bracken made two field goals and a foul shot and Hyte came through with a foul shot to put the count 12-8. Quirk of the visitors made a field goal but Shapiro scored a basket for the Friars to put the count 13 to 10 for Springfield.

Seawagen added a basket to the Springfield cause and Meyers came through with a foul shot to increase their team's lead to 16 to 10. Shapiro scored a field goal on a brilliant one-handed side shot. Quirk and Seawagen added three points to Springfield's score to make the count 19 to 12 at halftime.

McCormac made the count 19-14 by scoring on a side shot for the Friars. Shapiro caged two fouls and Bracken on a pass from Hyte caged a "two pointer" to put the score 19-18. Seawagen made a brilliant one arm shot to put Springfield ahead 21 to 18.

Dominicans Forge Ahead

A long field goal by Hyte and a foul shot by McCormac tied the count at 21 all. The Friars went into the lead for the first time when McCormac caged a long one. Shapiro put the locals further ahead, 25 to 22, on another long shot. Seawagen scored for Springfield but Koslowski retaliated for Providence. Quirk scored for Springfield to decrease the Friar lead to 27 to 26 but McCormac scored another long tom and a foul shot to give his team a 30-26 advantage.

Two foul shots by Dromgoole and another long tom by Hyte gave the Friars their 34 points total while during the remainder minutes, Springfield could add only five points to its total and victory went to the Friars.

The summaries:

| PROVIDENCE (34)  |    |    | SPRINGFIELD (31)           |                  |    |    |    |
|--|----|----|----------------------------|------------------|----|----|----|
| G.   | F. | P. | G.                         | F.               | P. |    |    |
| McCormac, lf.  | 3  | 2  | 8                          | Crutch, lf.      | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Shapiro, rf.   | 3  | 2  | 8                          | Wells, rf.       | 2  | 2  | 6  |
| Dromgoole, rf.   | 0  | 2  | 2                          | Randall, rf.     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Koslowski, c.  | 1  | 0  | 2                          | Seawagen, c.     | 3  | 4  | 10 |
| Gainor, lg.  | 0  | 0  | 0                          | Quirk, lg.       | 3  | 3  | 9  |
| Hyte, lg.  | 2  | 1  | 5                          | Meyers, rg.      | 0  | 2  | 2  |
| Bracken, gg.   | 4  | 1  | 9                          | Holmstead, rg.   | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Total  | 13 | 8  | 34                         | Total            | 10 | 11 | 31 |
| Referee—J. S. Parker. Time—15-minute halves. Umpire—J. P. Haughey. |    |    |                            |                  |    |    |    |
| PROV. COLLEGE JUNIOR VARSITY (35)                                  |    |    | PROVIDENCE BOYS' CLUB (24) |                  |    |    |    |
| G.   | F. | P. | G.                         | F.               | P. |    |    |
| Barbanto, lf.  | 3  | 1  | 7                          | Ironin, lf.      | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| Power, lf.   | 1  | 0  | 2                          | Zubiago, lf.     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Wright, rf.  | 0  | 0  | 0                          | Zawski, rf.      | 8  | 1  | 17 |
| Stamewski, rf.   | 5  | 0  | 10                         | Jardoza, c.      | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Reavy, c.  | 3  | 0  | 6                          | Philibosian, lg. | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Leahy, c.  | 2  | 0  | 4                          | Parker, rg.      | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Derivan, lg.   | 0  | 1  | 1                          | Perry, rg.       | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Madden, lg.  | 0  | 1  | 1                          |                  |    |    |    |
| Tebbetts, rg.  | 1  | 0  | 2                          |                  |    |    |    |
| Feit, rg.  | 1  | 0  | 2                          |                  |    |    |    |
| Total  | 16 | 3  | 35                         | Total            | 11 | 2  | 24 |
| Referee—Etter.   |    |    |                            |                  |    |    |    |

McClellan Pushes Friar Five Hard for Vengeance Victory Over St. John's

High-Scoring Shapiro and Mates Set

Game at Auditorium "Rubber" Contest Between Old Rivals

By GERALD PRIOR

(News-Tribune Sports Writer)

A leg-weary gang of athletes leaves Harkins Hall at Providence College every night this week after two hours or so of strenuous running, twisting, jumping, shifting and what-

Gerald Prior

not under the eyes of a stern taskmaster. This hard-working crew is Coach Al McClellan's Providence College basketball squad which this Saturday evening moves over to the Auditorium to entertain the Redmen of St. John's in a court conflict that is expected to be a hammer from whistle to gong.

The St. John's brilliants are one of the two teams able to boast of a victory over McClellan's Friars this season. They tripped the Dominicans up on Dec. 19 when the Providence forces invaded Brooklyn, home stamping-grounds of the Redmen. Dartmouth is the other club which has lickel the Friars but the Dominicans won't get another shot at the Green this season and so they're concentrating all their vengeance on the St. John's crew.

Since that St. John's defeat "General" McClellan has pepped the Friars up considerably. They've whacked four opponents in a row and none of said opponents were exactly cream-puffs. The quartet included Coast Guard Academy, Holy Cross Independents, Harvard and Springfield, all capable exponents of the hoop pastime.

News-Tribune

ATTACK ARRANGED

The Friars during their post-Christmas campaign have altered their style of attack somewhat. In their pre-Yuletide start most of the scoring punch was centered in husky Ed Koslowski at centre and Dick Brachen who does the right guarding. Now McClellan has concentrated the major part of his attack in his forwards, being moved to this change by the shrowing of Sam Shapiro, a slippery, elusive lad from Lynn, who is sporting a Friar jersey for the first time. In the last four Friar starts this Shapiro has chalked up some 42 rallies, which isn't at all bad. He's a sweet passer, too, pairing in elegant fashion with either little Jimmy Welch or Johnny McCormac, who share the left forward role in the Dominican hoop-up. Saturday night it'll probably be Shapiro and McCormac at the forwards when the whistle toots.

Koslowski will be in there at centre as usual. Big Ed, despite the fact that he has run behind Shapiro in the scoring of late, is still heading the Friars tallying parade with a total of 81 points for his season's work. Brachen is second with 77. Then comes Shapiro with 59.

For guards against St. John's McClellan will use Brachen at his regular post pairing with Capt. Chick Gainer, but Bill Hyte, a new comer this year, is slated to see plenty of service at this end of the court. Hyte was a ball of fire against Springfield last Saturday night hooping in several long ones which aided the Friars greatly in carving out their 34-31 decision.

STILL ON COMBINATION

This combination of first string talent represents one of the finest arrays in the East and one that from all appearances will have to be figured in when the experts start picking out an Eastern championship team at the end of the season. Besides these first stringers McClellan is able to count upon the services of such capable reserves as Franny Dromgoole, that hard-trying product of local schoolboy play; big Olie Roberge, George Cody, Ed Reilly, Will Grubert and George Tebbets, all well fitted to step in there and show with the 'varsity.

Hopes of a revenge win over the Redmen are running high at the college and the student body will be out in force at the Auditorium. Old rivals in all forms of sport, Providence and St. John's are particularly close foes in basketball. They've been fighting it out on the court since 1927 and during that time each has won three games, making Saturday's fray here a "rubber" engagement. St. John's has been stopped only once this season, that defeat coming at the hands of C. C. N. Y. which will be the guest of the Friars at the Auditorium later on this season.

The game will mark the first time a basketball clash has been staged at the Auditorium and a special floor is being laid out for the affair. Preceding the contest will be a clash between the Providence College freshmen and St. John's prep. The Friar frosh are a smart lot this year, featuring Jack Leahy, six feet, six inches of jumping centre and the tallest man ever to grace a Dominican hoop team.

Discussing Plans For Friar Game

Here are the players on the St. John's College basketball team which will oppose Providence College at the Auditorium on Saturday. Left to right, George Slott, left forward; Nat Lazar, right forward; Capt. Tom Neary, centre; Mac Pollskin, left guard, and Irving Smith, right guard.

Thrilling Battle Expected Between Friars and St. John's

Providence College Five to Play
Brooklyn Team Tonight. at Auditorium.

The St. John's and Providence College basketball teams, keen rivals since 1927, will meet at the Auditorium in tonight's major contest of the Eastern front. The game will have an important bearing in the race for the collegiate basketball championship of the East. Both quintets are rated among the strongest in the East and their meeting tonight is expected to produce some close competition.

An excellent preliminary game also is on schedule. In this fray the Providence College Freshmen will oppose the crack St. John's Prep School five. This contest will start at 8 o'clock and the major game at 9:15.

The game between the Friars and the Redmen has attracted much interest and it is expected that a large crowd will be at hand to watch the teams play. This will be the first basketball game ever staged at the Auditorium.

13 Victories in 15 Games

The Redmen will enter the fray with a record of 13 victories in 15 games. They have lost only to C. C. N. Y. and Manhattan. The defeat received at the hands of the latter was a big upset and it was only over-confidence that enabled the Jaspers to win, 29 o 27. The Friars have played nine games, winning seven and losing. Dartmouth hung a defeat on the locals in the opening game of the season and St. John's won, 33 to 25, in the first game between them at Brooklyn.

It will be this defeat that the Dominicans will be anxious to avenge tonight. The players are confident of victory. They have worked hard during the past three days for the game and the Redmen will have to show some exceptionally good basketball to emerge victorious. The count now stands 4 to 3 in the five-year-old series, with St. George's leading.

LINEUPS AT AUDITORIUM

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE  | ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE   |
|---------------------|--|
| Shapiro, l. f. .... | l. f., Lazar   |
| McCormac, c. ....   | r. f., Slott   |
| Welch, r. f. ....   | c., Neary  |
| Koslowski, c. ....  | l. g., Smith   |
| Gainor, l. g. ....  | r. g., Pouskin   |
| Bracken, r. g. .... | Officials—Henry McGuinness, referee. Oswald Tower, umpire. |

The C. C. N. Y. five, which is rated as the strongest team in the East by many, will play the Friars at the Auditorium, Thursday, Feb. 18, and if the Friars are able to get by St. John's tonight and C. C. N. Y. on Feb. 1, they will have a good claim for the Eastern title, providing other opponents are defeated.

Coach Al McClellan of the Friars was undecided last night who he would start at right forward. James Welch and John McCormac, both veterans, are in line for the assignment. McCormac played a stellar game against Springfield last Saturday and this performance may get him the starting assignment.

The four other berths will be filled by the regular players. Sam Shapiro will be at left forward. Ed Koslowski, high scorer on the team, will be at centre, Capt. Chick Gainor will play left guard and Dick Bracken at right guard.

Lazar at Left Forward

The regular St. John's lineup will start. Lazar, sensational Sophomore player, will be at left forward and Slott will play right forward. Neary will be at centre, Smith at left guard and Pouskin at right guard.

Both teams have shown some exceptionally good basketball this season. The fans will be provided with some good passing as both teams excel in this branch of play. St. John's employs a deceptive passing attack which has played havoc with the opposition all season.

The entire Providence College student body will be present at the game and the Friar band will be on hand with all its flourish.

ST. JOHN'S FIVE NOSES OUT PROVIDENCE

30-26

St. John's Rallies in Final Minutes to Top Friar Five

Dominican Yearlings Gain 28-20
Victory in Preliminary Contest.

The St. John's College basketball team of Brooklyn proved its durability last night at the Auditorium when in face of impending defeat, it rallied its forces late in the game to check a determined rally of the Providence College quintet and emerge victorious 30 to 26. The Friar yearlings downed St. John's Prep of Danvers, Mass., 28 to 20 in a preliminary game.

The first half of the game found the Redmen thoroughly dominating the play, but in the second half the Friars uncorked excellent basketball to wipe out an 18 to 12 deficit sustained in the first half. Not only was the St. John's lead dissolved by this Friar rally but with only seven minutes remaining the locals enjoyed a 24 to 20 lead. But the strong passing game of the Redmen was not to be denied and with Slatt leading a late attack, they regained their advantage and by a clever "stalling" game protected their four point margin until the end.

Both teams played good basketball and the crowd of 2000 fans which watched the inauguration of the game at the Auditorium witnessed some real competition between two of the leading college teams in the East. This was the 14th victory in 16 games for the Redmen and the triumph gave them a 5 to 3 edge in the five-year-old series between the two teams. The defeat was the third sustained by the Friars in 10 games and the second to St. John's this season.

Game played: January 30, 1932

Many Coaches See Game

Included in the gathering were a number of coaches of college and schoolboy quintets. Nat Holman, mentor of the crack C. C. N. Y. team, which will play the Friars later in the season, saw the game.

The Friars were away off on their foul shooting, making only two of 11 attempts. The locals can trace back their setback to this department of play as both quintets caged 12 field goals.

Sam Shapiro, Providence College right forward, was the outstanding performer. Sam, who has been playing a sensational game for the Friars this season, scored one-half of his team's total points and most of his baskets were spectacular. Slatt of the visitors was instrumental in his team's triumph. He was the high scorer of the game with 14 points and it was his baskets late in the game which turned victory into defeat for the Brooklynites. Slatt made four out of five shots.

Friars Off Stride

The Friars were far from their true stride in the first half. With the exception of the first few minutes of play in this session, the Redmen had things their own way. The fast passing attack of the visitors annoyed the locals. The Dominican defence in this session was weak.

Lazar of the winners opened the scoring with a foul shot. Koslowski gave the Friars a 2-1 lead when he broke through the St. John's defence for a field goal. He made it 4 to 1 in favor of the Friars with a short goal soon after. Lazar gave the Redmen a 6 to 4 lead when he caged two baskets in quick succession. Slatt added three points to the St. John's total on a field goal and a foul shot. Poliskin and Neary continued the brilliant offensive of the visitors and each made a field goal to give their team a 13 to 4 advantage.

Shapiro counted on a long shot for the Friars but Slatt made it 15 to 6 for St. John's on a field goal. Shapiro came through with two field goals in rapid order and cut St. John's lead to 15 to 10. Koslowski made it 15 to 12 with a long two-pointer but Slatt came through with a field goal and a foul shot just before the first half ended to give St. John's an 18 to 12 margin at halftime.

Dominicans Take Lead

Shapiro opened the second by scoring three points on a field goal and a foul. Koslowski cut the Redmen's lead to 18 to 17 when he caged a short one on a pass from Shapiro. Bracken on a pass from Koslowski scored two points to give the Friars a 19 to 18 lead. McGuinness regained the advantage for St. John's on a field goal soon after. Shapiro and Bracken increased the Friar advantage to 23 to 19 on two field goals. Bracken made it 24 to 19 for the Friars with a foul shot.

Lazar came through with three points to cut the Dominican lead to 24 to 22. Slatt tied the count at 24 all on two foul shots. Shapiro made a difficult side shot to give the Friars a 26 to 24 advantage but from this point, the Redmen stemmed the tide that was surging against them. Slatt came through with two field goals to give the Redmen a 28 to 26 lead and Poliskin ended the scoring with an easy shot to bring the final count 30 to 26.

The summaries:

| ST. JOHN'S (30)             |    |    | PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (26) |    |    |
|-----------------------------|----|----|-------------------------|----|----|
| G.                          | F. | P. | G.                      | F. | P. |
| Smith, lf. ....             | 0  | 0  | 0                       | 0  | 0  |
| Lazar, rf. ....             | 3  | 2  | 8                       | 0  | 0  |
| McGuinness, rf. ....        | 1  | 0  | 2                       | 6  | 1  |
| Neary, c. ....              | 1  | 0  | 2                       | 0  | 0  |
| Slatt, lg. ....             | 5  | 4  | 14                      | 4  | 0  |
| Poliskin, rg. ....          | 2  | 0  | 4                       | 0  | 0  |
| Brennan, rg. ....           | 0  | 0  | 0                       | 0  | 0  |
|                             |    |    | Gainor, lg. ....        | 0  | 0  |
|                             |    |    | Hyte, lg. ....          | 2  | 1  |
|                             |    |    | Bracken, rg. ....       | 2  | 1  |
| Total . . . . .             | 12 | 6  | 30                      | 12 | 2  |
| Referee—McGuinness.         |    |    | Time—15-minute          |    |    |
| halves. Umpire—Towner.      |    |    |                         |    |    |
| PROV. COLLEGE FRESHMEN (28) |    |    | ST. JOHN'S PREP (20)    |    |    |
| G.                          | F. | P. | G.                      | F. | P. |
| Staniewski, lf. ....        | 2  | 0  | 4                       | 2  | 1  |
| Skip, lf. ....              | 0  | 0  | 0                       | 1  | 1  |
| Power, rf. ....             | 2  | 1  | 5                       | 2  | 0  |
| Adamick, rf. ....           | 0  | 0  | 0                       | 2  | 0  |
| Leahy, c. ....              | 3  | 0  | 6                       | 2  | 0  |
| Healey, c. ....             | 0  | 0  | 0                       | 0  | 0  |
| Madden, lg. ....            | 2  | 0  | 4                       | 0  | 0  |
| Fairbrother, lg. ....       | 0  | 0  | 0                       | 0  | 0  |
| Kutniewski, rg. ....        | 2  | 1  | 5                       | 0  | 0  |
| Felt, rg. ....              | 2  | 0  | 4                       | 0  | 0  |
| Total . . . . .             | 13 | 2  | 28                      | 9  | 2  |
| Time—10-minute periods.     |    |    |                         |    |    |

Friars Book Three Games in New York This Week

Play Columbus Club Thursday,
Pratt Institute Friday and Manhattan Saturday.

The Providence College basketball team faces its busiest week of the season with three games carded in as many days on the road. The Friars will make their second trip to New York this week and will meet the Columbus Club five on Thursday at Brooklyn, the Pratt Institute five on Friday, also at Brooklyn, and the Manhattan College team Saturday in New York.

The Friars should be able to chalk up three victories if they continue to play the fast game they have displayed during the past month. Despite the fact that the locals have twice lost to St. John's and Manhattan has downed the Redmen, the Friars are rated as slight favorites to down the Jaspers.

That defeat received from St. John's last Saturday practically killed the chances of the Friars for the Eastern collegiate basketball crown. In both games that the Redmen triumphed over the Friars, the margin of victory by the former was slim. It was only a late rally that enabled the Redmen to win at the Auditorium last Saturday and had the Friars elected to play a conservative game when they held a 24 to 20 lead with only six minutes of play remaining, they may have come out victorious.

Slow in Hitting Stride

Instead of concentrating wholly on the defence while enjoying a four-point advantage, the Friars continued their wide open game and this allowed Slatt, St. John's diminutive and elusive forward, to come through with the winning baskets.

A true indication of the ability of the Friars was manifested in the second half, when they uncorked a brand of basketball that had the Redmen bewildered. The Dominicans have been slow in hitting their real stride during games this season. In both the Springfield and St. John's games, the Friars were woefully weak on both offence and defence during the first half. This enabled the opposition to get a comfortable margin.

Against Springfield, the characteristic comeback of the team in the second half met with success, but against the Redmen the results were not so successful. If the Friars are to get anywhere in their future major games, the players will have to show big improvement over their first half performances in past games.

Shapiro Star Performer

In the first half against the Redmen, the Friars were way off on shooting. Time after time easy baskets were missed. This may have been due to the tenseness of players who realized the importance of the game. In the second half, the players were shooting baskets from all corners of the court.

The fans hardly believed that it was the same Friar quintet which played in the second half so fast was its attack, and so strong its defence in contrast with its work in the opening session.

To Sam Shapiro, one of the best basketball prospects to enter Providence College, went individual honors of the game. Despite the fact that he was the least experienced player on the court in point of Varsity experience, Shapiro proved to be the best individual performer.

Coach Al McClellan continued to experiment with his players at the left forward position. One of the two forward berths left open by the graduation of Kreiger and McCue is being filled by Shapiro but McClellan is having difficulty in finding a performer to fill the other position to his satisfaction. He used three players at that berth Saturday. They were John McCormac, "Franny" Dromgoole and James Welch. Dromgoole is the most aggressive of the trio but he lacks polish.

If McClellan can get his players to maintain the fast pace they displayed against the Redmen in the second half of Saturday night's game, Friar supporters will have much to cheer about before the season is over.

Friar Five Falls Easy Victim Before Columbus Club 31-20

Locals Unable to Hold Early Lead in Slow Game Played at Brooklyn.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 4.—The powerful Columbus Club quintet proved too strong for the Providence College basketball team here tonight and as a result handed the Friars a 31 to 20 defeat in a slow game. The Dominicans were off form and turned in what was probably their weakest performance of the season. The Friars exhibited ragged teamwork.

The visitors took the lead at the beginning of the game and held it till midway through the period when the locals rushed Ed. Keating to the breach and the former St. Francis College star immediately pushed the Caseys to the fore. A fast moving Columbus attack piled up a sizeable lead.

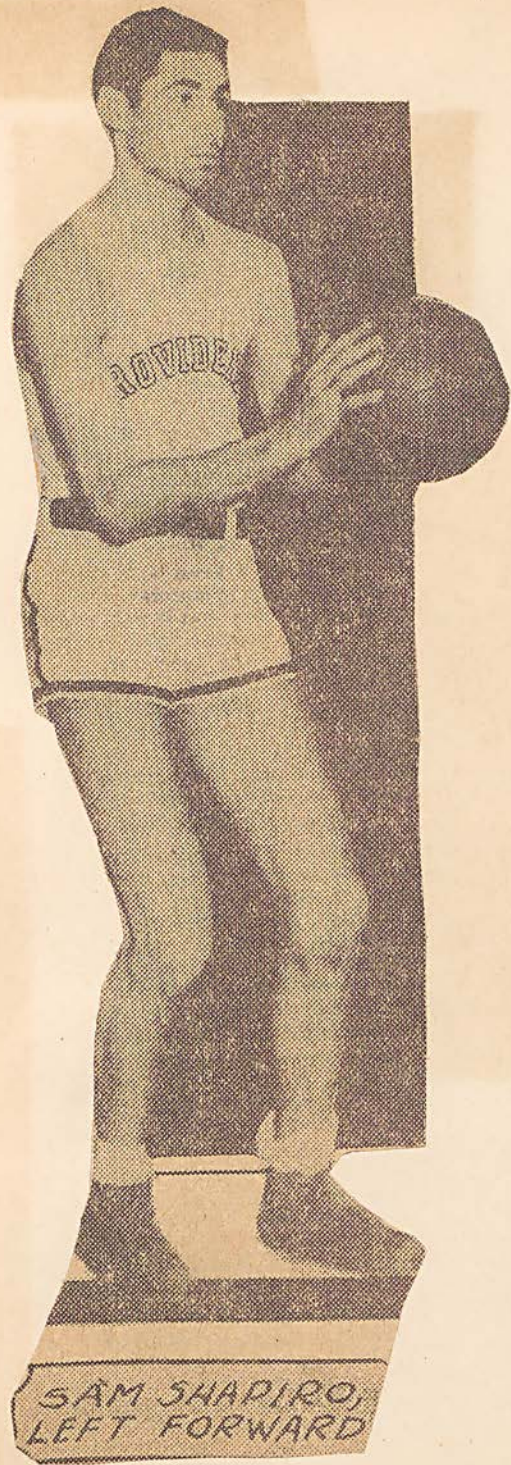

With the count 18 to 10 against them at halftime, Providence rallied temporarily at the beginning of the second half when Bracken broke loose for a pair of field goals, but the surge was short lived, as the Caseys were not to be denied in their quest of a victory. For the first time this season big Koslowski, Dominican centre, was held scoreless from the field, his lone points resulting from three successful foul tosses.

With his first team failing to click, Coach McClellan sent his reserve forces into action in the second half, with Roberge and Cody turning in the best work.

| COLUMBUS CLUB (31) |    |    |    | PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (20) |    |    |    |
|--------------------|----|----|----|-------------------------|----|----|----|
| G.                 | F. | P. |    | G.                      | F. | P. |    |
| McNenney, lf.      | 2  | 1  | 5  | McCormac, lf.           | 2  | 0  | 4  |
| Garvey, lf.        | 0  | 0  | 0  | Dromg'le, lf.           | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Lang, rf.          | 0  | 0  | 0  | Welch, lf.              | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| McDonald, rf.      | 0  | 1  | 1  | Shapiro, rf.            | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| Denzer, c.         | 2  | 0  | 4  | Koslowski, c.           | 0  | 3  | 3  |
| Mortell, lg.       | 1  | 0  | 2  | Gainer, lg.             | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Clugh, lg.         | 1  | 4  | 6  | Hyte, lg.               | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Crane, rg.         | 0  | 1  | 1  | Roberge, lg.            | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Keating, rg.       | 5  | 2  | 12 | Bracken, rg.            | 3  | 2  | 8  |
|                    |    |    |    | Cody, rg.               | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Total              | 11 | 9  | 31 | Total                   | 7  | 6  | 20 |

Referee—P. Kennedy, E. I. A. Umpire—E. Shaw, E. I. A. Time—20-minute periods.

Game played: February 4, 1932

SAM SHAPIRO,
LEFT FORWARD

Providence College Five

Triumphs Over Pratt 37-19

Friars Snap Winning Streak of Brooklyn Club.—Kaslowski Stars.

(Special to the Providence Journal)
Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 5.—Showing a complete reversal of form over last night's play, the Providence College basketball team ran roughshod over the strong Pratt Institute quintet here tonight, scoring a 37 to 19 win for their eighth triumph of the season. The defeat was the second of the year for the locals, who boasted a string of six straight wins, including triumphs over Muhlenberg and Dickinson.

Big Ed Koslowski, Trojan of the Friar forces, again bore the brunt of the work and in so doing turned in his usual fine game from the pivot post, outjumping and outscoring his two rivals. Kozzy tossed 12 points into the Dominicans' total to take the high scoring honors of the night, while Bracken ran him a close second with 11 markers.

The smallness of the court and the glass back boards gave the visitors trouble for the first 15 minutes of play, but once the McClellan men got under way there was little doubt about the outcome, although Pratt was aggressive throughout. It took four minutes of play in the opening period before Shapiro found the scoring pit with a toss from close to mid-floor.

Providence surged into the lead as the game progressed, but was hard pressed to keep their margin, as Pratt flashed a speedy offence which enabled it to keep very much in the running. The superior heights of the Friars counted in their favor as the periods drew to a close and with Bracken and Koslowski doing the bulk of the scoring they were able to leave the court at midtime with a 20 to 11 advantage.

In the second half the visitors showed even better form and as a result went far out in front. Coach McClellan rushed his reserve forces into play in the latter stage of this period in an effort to give his first string performers some rest so that they may be ready for their important tussle with Manhattan tomorrow night.

The summary:

| PROVIDENCECOLLEGE (37) |    |    | PRATT (19)              |    |    |
|----------------------------|----|----|-------------------------|----|----|
|                            | G. | F. | G.                      | F. | P. |
| McCormac, M.               | 2  | 1  | 5                       | 2  | 1  |
| Welch, lf.                 | 0  | 1  | 1                       | 0  | 0  |
| Shapiro, rf.               | 2  | 0  | 4                       | 0  | 0  |
| Dromgoole, rf.             | 0  | 2  | 2                       | 3  | 2  |
| Koslowski, c.              | 5  | 2  | 12                      | 1  | 2  |
| Roberge, c.                | 0  | 0  | 0                       | 0  | 0  |
| Gainor, lg.                | 1  | 0  | 2                       | 1  | 0  |
| Cody, lg.                  | 0  | 0  | 0                       | 0  | 0  |
| Bracken, rg.               | 3  | 5  | 11                      | 0  | 1  |
| Hyte, rg.                  | 0  | 0  | 0                       | 0  | 0  |
| Total                      | 13 | 11 | 37                      | 7  | 5  |
| Referee—T. Degnan.         |    |    | Total                   | 7  | 5  |
|                            |    |    | Time—20-minute periods. |    |    |

Game played: February 5, 1932

Game played: February 6, 1932

PROVIDENCE IS WINNER HERE

Dominican Freshmen Top
Assumption Cagers
By 37 to 17

TAKE EARLY LEAD

Friars Score 13 Points Before Blue and White Tallies

Providence College's brilliant freshman basketball team gave Assumption College a lesson in the court pastime yesterday as it romped to a 37-17 victory at the Greendale court despite the brave attempts of the Blue and White to overcome the spectacular outfit that represented the Friars.

Not until the visiting Friars had run up a total of 13 points did the Greendale cagers dent the hoop for the first time, and then it proved more or less of a romp for Providence, although the team got but two more points in the first half which ended with the score book showing a 15-8 advantage over the Worcester five.

It was not until late in the third period that the Assumption five rallied its forces and started to make inroads in the large Providence lead.
But the team fought for a cause that was already lost and their efforts availed them naught. Leahy, brilliant center of the Friars, did considerable damage in the final periods as he repeatedly scored baskets to lead the scorers with 14 points.

Paul Power, a Worcester boy and former North High and St. Peter's High athlete who also played with the Holy Cross freshmen, gave a good exhibition of floor work for Providence. Capt. Eddie Lusignan starred for Assumption.

The summary:

PROVIDENCE 1935

|                       | fg | fr | tp |
|-----------------------|----|----|----|
| Stanisiewski lf ..... | 4  | 0  | 3  |
| Fairbrosher lf .....  | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Power rf .....        | 3  | 0  | 6  |
| Kutniewski rf .....   | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Leahy c .....         | 7  | 0  | 14 |
| Adamic c .....        | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Madden lg .....       | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Skipp lg .....        | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Felt rg .....         | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| Totals .....          | 18 | 1  | 37 |

ASSUMPTION

|                      | fg | fr | tp |
|----------------------|----|----|----|
| D. Cyr lf .....      | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Tessier lf .....     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Fleury lf .....      | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Lusignan rf .....    | 4  | 1  | 9  |
| Lemire rf .....      | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Gaudreau rf .....    | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Aubuchon c .....     | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Rheault lg .....     | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Deslauniers lg ..... | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Houle rg .....       | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Totals .....         | 8  | 1  | 17 |

Referee, E. Duntun. Timers, LeClerc and Ladouceur.

Worcester Telegram-Gazette

FRIARS NOSE OUT MANHATTAN 23-22

Game played: February 6, 1932

Ed Koslowski Tallies Winning Points with Conversions in Final Minute.

(Special to the Providence Journal)
 Manhattan College, New York, Feb. 6.
 —A brilliant last half rally earned the Providence College quintet a 23 to 22 victory over the Manhattan team here tonight. Trailing 13 to 5 at the half time the Friars came back to fight their way into the lead. Ed Koslowski, star centre, tallied the winning points when he converted two foul tries in the final minute of play.

| PROVIDENCE     |    |    | MANHATTAN |               |    |   |    |
|----------------|----|----|-----------|---------------|----|---|----|
| G.             | F. | P. | G.        | F.            | P. |   |    |
| McCormac, lf.  | 0  | 2  | 2         | Smith, lf-c.  | 1  | 0 | 2  |
| Welch, lf.     | 0  | 1  | 1         | McCormick, rf | 2  | 4 | 2  |
| Shapiro, rf.   | 2  | 0  | 4         | Hogan, c.     | 0  | 0 | 0  |
| Hyle, rf.      | 0  | 0  | 0         | Leonard, c.   | 0  | 0 | 0  |
| Koslowski, c.  | 3  | 3  | 9         | Hassett, lg.  | 2  | 3 | 7  |
| Gainor, lg.    | 1  | 0  | 2         | Kelleher, rg. | 2  | 1 | 5  |
| Cody, lg.      | 0  | 0  | 0         |               |    |   |    |
| Bracken, rg.   | 2  | 1  | 5         |               |    |   |    |
| Drumgoole, rg. | 0  | 0  | 0         |               |    |   |    |
| Totals         | 8  | 7  | 23        | Totals        | 7  | 8 | 22 |

Referee—Norton (E. I. A.); Umpire—Dennett (E. I. A.). Time—20-minute periods.

~~NY Times~~

MANHATTAN LOSES IN FINAL MINUTE

Bows to Providence, 23-22, for Initial Defeat on Home Court in Two Years.

KOSLOWSKI'S FOULS DECIDE

Visitors' Star Sinks 2 Free Throws to Give Team Lead for First Time in Closing Seconds.

The Providence College quintet, led by Ed Koslowski, gained a 23 to 22 last minute victory over Manhattan College in the Manhattan gymnasium last night. The Jaspers, who led at the intermission, 13 to 5, saw their lead whittled until, with Providence trailing by a point, Koslowski sank two fouls to give the Green its first home court defeat in two years.

Johnny McCormick of Manhattan tallied eight points to gain scoring honors. Koslowski and Bracker of Providence each tallied 7.

Manhattan was brilliant in the first half, which was featured by accurate shooting by Captain Kelleher and Hassett. The Jaspers close guarding held the visitors to a single field goal in this session.

The line-up:
 Providence (23).
 McCormac, lf. 0 2 2
 Welch 0 1 1
 Drumgoole 0 0 0
 Shapiro, rf. 2 0 4
 Hyle 0 0 0
 Koslowski, c. 2 3 7
 Gainor, lg. 1 0 2
 Bracker, rg. 3 1 7
 Cody 0 0 0
 Total 8 7 23
 Referee—J. Norton, E. I. A. Umpire—H. Bennett, E. I. A. Time of periods—20 minutes.

Manhattan (22).
 McCormick, lf. 2 4 2
 Smith, rf. 1 0 2
 Leonard 0 0 0
 Hogan, c. 0 0 0
 Kelleher, lg. 2 1 5
 Hassett, rg. 2 3 7
 Total 7 8 22

PROVIDENCE NIPS MANHATTAN, 23-22

Friars Come Back After Very Poor Start

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 (AP)—Providence College upset Manhattan, 23 to 22 in a tight basketball duel here tonight.

Completely outplayed in the first half, the invaders put on a rousing rally in the second period for 18 points and their one-point victory. They were baffled by Manhattan's great defense in the first half and the locals had a lead of 13 to 5 as the second half opened. Ed Koslowski won the game for Providence in the last two minutes of play by sinking two foul shots.

Lineups:

| PROVIDENCE   |    |    | MANHATTAN |             |    |    |    |
|--------------|----|----|-----------|-------------|----|----|----|
|              | fg | ft | tp        |             | fg | ft | tp |
| McCormack lf | 0  | 2  | 2         | Smith rf    | 1  | 4  | 6  |
| Welch lf     | 0  | 1  | 1         | Hogan c     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Shapiro rf   | 2  | 0  | 4         | Kelleher lg | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| Koslowski c  | 2  | 3  | 7         | Hassett rg  | 2  | 3  | 9  |
| Gainor lg    | 1  | 0  | 2         |             |    |    |    |
| Bracken rg   | 3  | 1  | 7         |             |    |    |    |
| Totals       | 8  | 7  | 23        | Totals      | 7  | 8  | 22 |

Referee, John Norton, E. I. A. Umpire, Harry Bennett, E. I. A. Half-time score, Manhattan 13, Providence 5.

NY Post?

FRIARS WIN EASILY

Providence College Five Defeats Lowell Textile 40-24

Dick Bracken High Scorer with 11 Points.—P. C. Jayvees
Triumph 37-24.

The Providence College basketball team scored its 10th victory of the season last night at Harkins Hall in easy fashion when it scored a 40 to 24 triumph over the Lowell Textile quintet. The Friars won in methodical manner and were not called upon to flash their best game. In a preliminary contest the Providence College Junior Varsity five defeated the Becker College quintet of Worcester, 37-24.

The Lowell offensive was weak. The only time that the visitors penetrated the defence of the Dominicans was in the first five minutes of play, when a sustained offensive gave Lowell a 7 to 3 lead. Once the Friars got started, however, there was no doubt as to the final result.

Bracken High Scorer.

Dick Bracken, Friar guard, was the high individual scorer with 11 points. He caged four field goals and three foul shots. Edward Koslowski and Sam Shapiro also played stellar games for the locals but it was Capt. Chick Gainer who turned in the best all-around performance. He contributed five points toward his team's cause and was continually doing damage to the Lowell offensive throughout the time he played. Sullivan starred for the losers.

With Baranowski and Moran caging early baskets, Lowell took a 4 to 1 lead with five minutes of play gone. Bracken caged a foul shot for the Friar point. Koslowski diminished the Lowell lead to 4 to 3 by scoring a field goal. Kokoška, however, retaliated for Lowell with a long shot. Baranowski followed with a field goal to give Lowell a 7 to 3 advantage.

Here the Friars got started. Bracken came through with a brilliant one hand shot from the foul line. Gainer scored two baskets in quick succession to put the Friars ahead 8 to 7. Shapiro made it 10 to 7 on a long shot and Bracken added two more points to Dominican count with a field goal. Jarek scored a long tom for the visitors to make the count 12 to 9. Baskets by Koslowski, Shapiro and Welch in rapid order increased the Dominican lead to 16 to 9.

Savard made three foul shots for Lowell but Bracken's field goal and a foul shot by Koslowski enabled the Friar to lead 21 to 13 at halftime.

In the second half, Lowell was unable to penetrate the Friar defence with any degree of consistency while the Friars scored at frequent intervals to make comfortable its lead until the final whistle.

The summaries:

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (40) |    |       | LOWELL TEXTILE (24) |    |       |
|-------------------------|----|-------|---------------------|----|-------|
|                         | G. | F. P. |                     | G. | F. P. |
| Shapiro, lf . . .       | 2  | 0 4   | Sullivan, lf . . .  | 2  | 0 4   |
| Welch, lf . . .         | 3  | 1 7   | Moran, lf . . .     | 2  | 0 4   |
| McCormac, lf. .         | 0  | 0 0   | Kokoška, rf . . .   | 2  | 1 5   |
| Dromgoole, rf. .        | 1  | 0 2   | Savard, c . . .     | 1  | 3 5   |
| Koslowski, c . .        | 2  | 2 6   | Baranowski, lg .    | 2  | 0 4   |
| Roberge, c . . .        | 0  | 0 0   | Mamber, lf . . .    | 0  | 0 0   |
| Bracken, lg. . .        | 4  | 3 11  | Jarek, rg . . .     | 1  | 0 2   |
| Cody, lg . . . .        | 0  | 0 0   |                     |    |       |
| Gainer, rg . . .        | 2  | 1 5   |                     |    |       |
| Hyte, rg . . . .        | 1  | 3 5   |                     |    |       |

Total . . . . 15 10 40 Total . . . . 10 4 24
Referee—Parker. Time—15-minute halves.

PROV. COLLEGE BECKER COLLEGE JR. VARSITY (37) (24)

| PROV. COLLEGE JR. VARSITY (37) |    |       | BECKER COLLEGE (24) |    |       |
|--------------------------------|----|-------|---------------------|----|-------|
|                                | G. | F. P. |                     | G. | F. P. |
| Wright, lf. . .                | 1  | 1 3   | Rogers, lf . . .    | 4  | 3 11  |
| Staniswksi, lf .               | 3  | 0 6   | Hanson, rf. . .     | 0  | 0 0   |
| Morrison, lf. .                | 0  | 1 1   | Larviere, rf. .     | 0  | 0 0   |
| Barbarito, rf. .               | 0  | 0 0   | Wright, c. . .      | 2  | 1 5   |
| Power, rf. . . .               | 2  | 0 4   | Swenson, c. . .     | 0  | 0 0   |
| Davis, c. . . .                | 1  | 0 2   | Galkowski, lg. .    | 1  | 0 2   |
| Leahy, c. . . .                | 1  | 1 3   | Cragan, rg. . .     | 3  | 0 6   |
| Adamick, c. . .                | 1  | 0 2   |                     |    |       |
| Reavey, lg. . .                | 2  | 0 4   |                     |    |       |
| Madden, lg. . .                | 0  | 0 0   |                     |    |       |
| Kutniewski, lg .               | 2  | 0 4   |                     |    |       |
| Tebbetts, rg. .                | 1  | 1 3   |                     |    |       |
| Feit, rg. . . .                | 2  | 1 5   |                     |    |       |

Total . . . . 16 5 37 Total . . . . 10 4 24
Referee—C. A. Schurman. Time—Four 10-minute periods.

Game played: February 9, 1932

Bracken Stars as Friar Five Triumphs Over B. U. 52 to 40

Scores 21 Points.—Mazzerlla Best Performer for Losers in Game at Boston.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)

Boston, Mass., Feb. 10.—Providence College won from Boston University at basketball here tonight, 52 to 40. Bracken, Providence right forward, played a sensational game, caging seven baskets from the floor and shooting seven from tries. Shapiro, Providence right forward, accounted for 11 more points with four shots from the floor and three from the foul line.

Mazzerlla, B. U. left forward, scored four baskets. Gainor, Hyte and Reilly starred on the defence for the Friars.

The summary:

| PROVIDENCECOLLEGE (52) |    |    | BOSTONUNIVERSITY (40) |    |    |
|----------------------------|----|----|---------------------------|----|----|
| G.                         | F. | P. | G.                        | F. | P. |
| Shapiro, rf...             | 4  | 3  | 11                        | 2  | 4  |
| Perten, rf...              | 1  | 0  | 2                         | 6  | 14 |
| Welch, lf...               | 3  | 0  | 6                         | 3  | 7  |
| McCormac, lf...            | 1  | 0  | 2                         | 3  | 6  |
| Koslowski, c...            | 2  | 2  | 6                         | 4  | 0  |
| Droomgoole, c...           | 0  | 0  | 0                         | 0  | 0  |
| Bracken, rg...             | 7  | 7  | 21                        | 0  | 0  |
| Cody, rg...                | 0  | 0  | 0                         | 0  | 0  |
| Roberts, rg...             | 0  | 0  | 0                         | 0  | 0  |
| Tebbetts, rf...            | 0  | 0  | 0                         | 1  | 1  |
| Gainor, lg...              | 1  | 1  | 3                         |    |    |
| Hyte, lg...                | 0  | 0  | 0                         |    |    |
| Reilly, lg...              | 0  | 1  | 1                         |    |    |
| Totals                     | 19 | 14 | 52                        | 14 | 40 |

FRIAR FRESHMEN WIN

Boston, Mass., Feb. 10.—The Providence College Freshmen scored a decisive victory over the Boston University yearlings, beating them 55 to 21. The home team cubs shot but nine baskets from the floor while the visiting team caged 25 baskets and three foul line shots. The B. U. Freshmen made three free try shots. Fairbrother and Madden with four baskets each and Leahy with five, led the visiting team in individual scoring. Ten Providence players took part and every player scored at least one basket from the floor.

The summary:

| PROVIDENCECOLLEGE '35 (55) |    |    | BOSTONUNIVERSITY '36 (21) |    |    |
|--------------------------------|----|----|-------------------------------|----|----|
| G.                             | F. | P. | G.                            | F. | P. |
| Power, rf...                   | 1  | 0  | 2                             | 1  | 3  |
| Fairbrother, rf...             | 4  | 0  | 8                             | 0  | 0  |
| Stan'wiski, lf...              | 2  | 0  | 4                             | 1  | 0  |
| Kutnie'ki, lf...               | 2  | 0  | 4                             | 0  | 0  |
| Skipp, lf...                   | 3  | 3  | 9                             | 0  | 0  |
| Leahy, c...                    | 5  | 1  | 11                            | 2  | 1  |
| Adamic, c...                   | 1  | 1  | 3                             | 0  | 0  |
| Felt, rg...                    | 2  | 0  | 4                             | 2  | 1  |
| Madden, lg...                  | 4  | 0  | 8                             | 1  | 0  |
| Healy, lg...                   | 1  | 0  | 2                             |    |    |
| Total                          | 25 | 5  | 55                            | 9  | 3  |

Game played: February 10, 1932

GEORGE R. TEBBETTS, SUB GUARD

FRIARS HOLD WILDCATS SCORELESS FROM FLOOR.

WIN 23 TO 7

Granite State Five Scores But Seven Free Baskets

12th Win of Season for Dominicans Dents New Hampshire's Undeclared Record.

(Special to the Sunday Journal)
Durham, N. H., Feb. 12.—The Providence College basketball forces held New Hampshire scoreless from the floor here tonight, to win a 23 to 7 decision.

The victory smashed the Wildcats from the undefeated record and gave them their first setback in league starts. The Friars' victory is their 12th of the season. The Providence outfit was superb on defence, holding the locals to seven points, all of which resulted from free tries from the 15-foot line. Even the Dominican reserves, who drew action in the waning moments of the second period, proved capable of holding the Wildcat cagers in check.

The first period was very closely contested with both teams fighting hard to break through for scores. The Friars tallied first with Bracken tossing the ball in after taking a long pass from Koslowski. After 10 minutes of play the only additional score was a successful Koslowski foul shot.

At the end of 16 minutes Conroy, New Hampshire captain, was banished on fouls. Welch converted on the Wildcat leader's fourth personal and Trzuskowski made good on a foul by Koslowski. Providence led at the half by a 6 to 2 score.

Sensational field goals by Welch and Koslowski soon after the start of the second period sent the visitors into a sizable lead. For the remainder of the stanza the Dominicans dominated the play, boosting their total slowly but surely while an air tight defence completely frustrated all attempts of the locals to rim the hoop for scores.

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (23) |    |    |    | NEW HAMPSHIRE (7) |    |    |    |
|-------------------------|----|----|----|-------------------|----|----|----|
|                         | G. | F. | P. |                   | G. | F. | P. |
| Welch, lf...            | 1  | 1  | 3  | Koehler, lf...    | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Perrin, lf...           | 0  | 0  | 0  | Foster, lf...     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| McCormac, lf...         | 0  | 0  | 0  | Gormley, rf...    | 0  | 4  | 4  |
| Shapiro, rf...          | 2  | 2  | 6  | Eustis, rf...     | 0  | 1  | 1  |
| Reiley, rf...           | 0  | 0  | 0  | Trzuskowski, c... | 0  | 1  | 1  |
| Koslowski, c...         | 1  | 3  | 5  | Tarcomski, c...   | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Roberg, c...            | 0  | 0  | 0  | Bronzst'n, lg...  | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Reavey, c...            | 0  | 0  | 0  | Ferrini, lg...    | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Gainor, lg...           | 0  | 0  | 0  | Conroy, rg...     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Hyte, lg...             | 1  | 0  | 2  | Armstrong, rg...  | 0  | 1  | 1  |
| Tebbetts, lg...         | 0  | 0  | 0  |                   |    |    |    |
| Bracken, lg...          | 3  | 1  | 7  |                   |    |    |    |
| Dromgoole, rg...        | 0  | 0  | 0  |                   |    |    |    |
| Cody, rg...             | 0  | 0  | 0  |                   |    |    |    |
| Total .....             | 8  | 7  | 23 | Total .....       | 0  | 7  | 7  |

Referee—J. C. Haughey. Time—20-minute periods. Umpire—G. Hoyt.

Game played? February 13, 1932

C. N. Y. Quintet Risking Title Claims Against Friars Here

LAVENDER, BEATEN ONLY ONCE, HOLDS VICTORY OVER ST. JOHN'S

Temple Scored Only Triumph Over Nat Holman's Club;
Unbeaten Friar Yearlings
Meet Dean in Prelim

By ROBERT M. HOWARD

Hailed as the best basketball team in the East, the City College of New York quintet will risk its claim to sectional titular honors when it opposes Providence College at the Auditorium tomorrow night in the feature contest on the Friars' home schedule.

The game will follow a preliminary between the unbeaten Providence College Freshmen and Dean Academy at 8 o'clock. The Varsity game probably will start about 9 o'clock.

Tomorrow night's game will be the second college contest on the new playing surface at the Auditorium. A large crowd saw the Friars fall before St. John's 30-26 at the North Main street arena on Jan. 30, and an even larger attendance is in prospect tomorrow night.

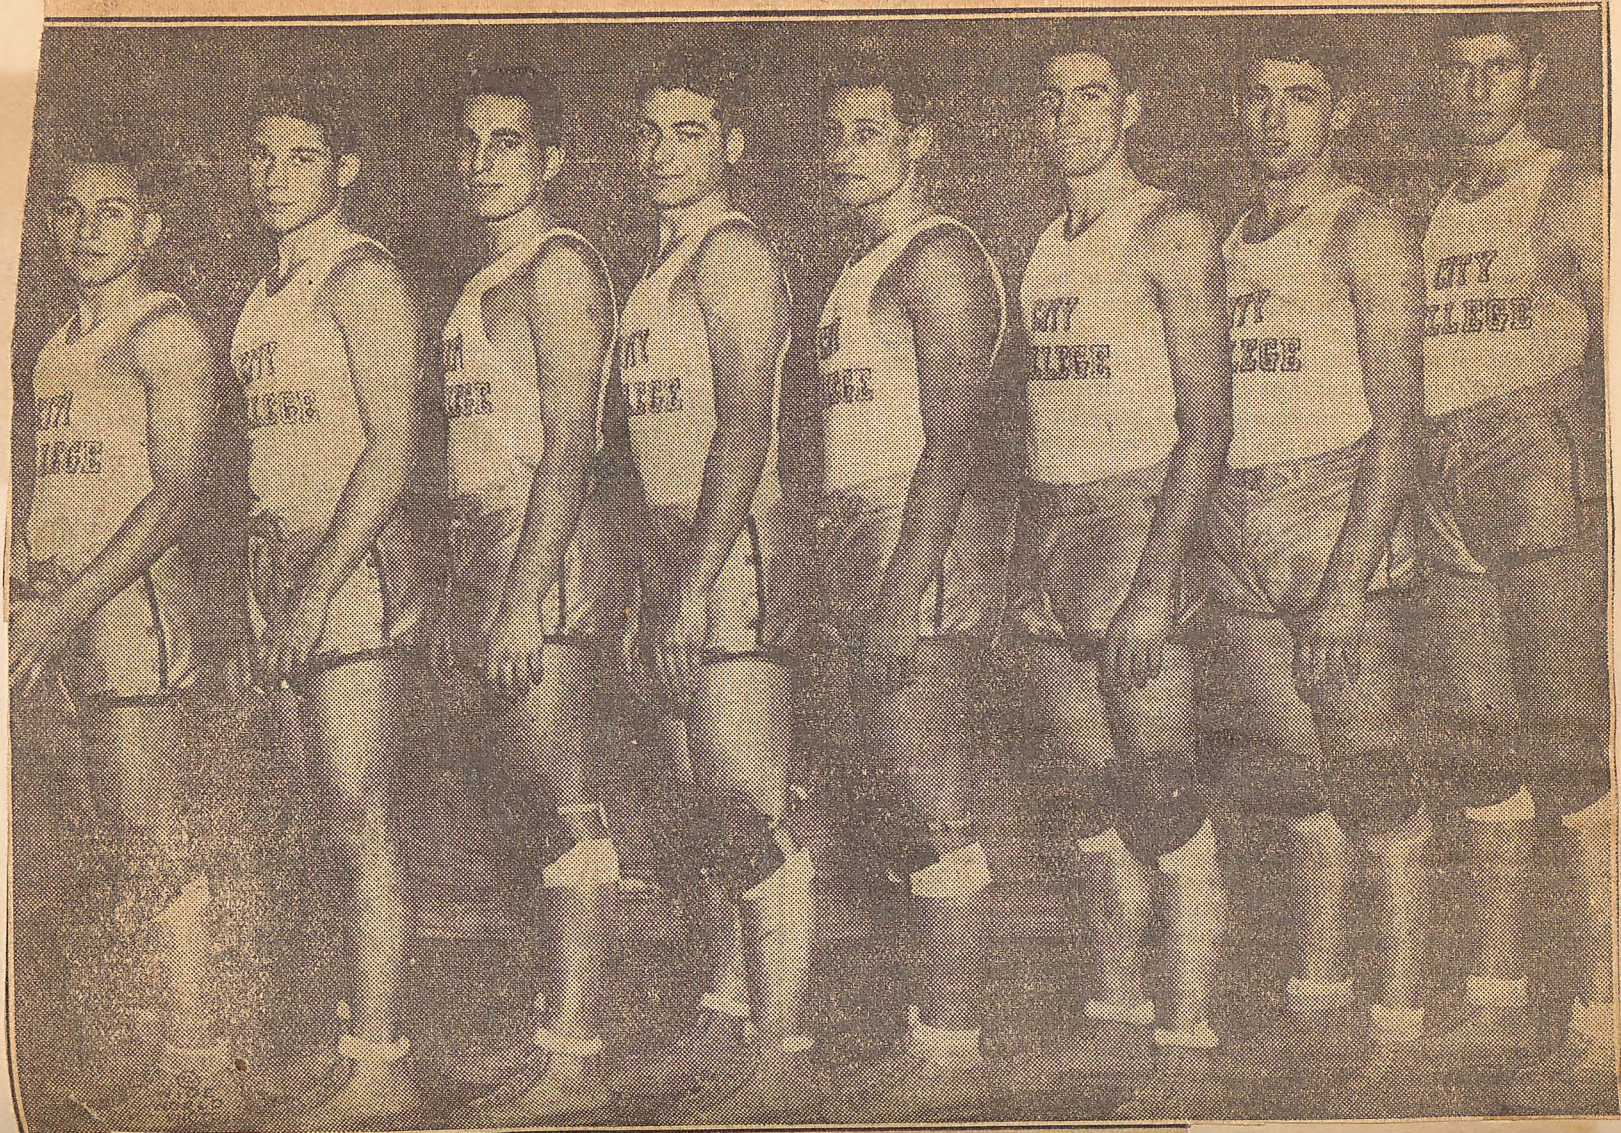

Coaches and officials from Boston and Western Massachusetts will come to Providence for a glimpse of Nat Holman's smooth-working quintet, and most of the coaches are expected to bring members of their squads.

The Providence players have newfound confidence in their ability to defeat the Lavender quintet, as a result of a remarkable victory scored over New Hampshire in Durham last Saturday. The previously unbeaten Wildcats could not score a field basket for the entire 40 minutes of playing time, and now the Dominicans are hoping that they will be able to show to as good advantage this week.

Coach Al McClellan is inclined to credit the unusual outcome of the game as much to luck as to the skill of his players, but usually it requires more than luck to keep a good team from scoring at least once from the floor.

Reports from Durham indicate that the Friars played so close a guarding game, and hurried their opponents so much when the latter got within range of the basket that most of the Wildcats' shots went far astray. New Hampshire played much the same type of basketball which C. C. N. Y. is expected to use, attempting to work blocking and pivot plays, but with no success whatever.

C. C. N. Y. Basketball Squad That Will Face Friars

The Lavender team, victor over the leading court squads of the East.

C. C. N. Y. QUINTET

LOST ONLY TO TEMPLE

The Lavender quintet has lost only one game in 11 regularly scheduled contests, but its average of points a game is just under that of the Friars. City College lost to Temple in Philadelphia by five points in a game played on a floor which had been waxed for a dance.

But Temple later fell before Fordham, and City College walloped the Rams 37-13 last Saturday night after metropolitan experts had predicted that Holman's team had gone stale.

City College's most satisfying triumph was scored over St. John's, the crack Brooklyn outfit which gave Providence College two of the four defeats it has suffered this year. The final score was 28-18, with the Lavender piling up 10 points in an overtime period after finding the score tied at 18-18 at the expiration of regular playing time.

The Lavender team is not unusually large physically, although Goldman, the centre, is one of the best jumpers in the East. Holman has developed speed, passing and teamwork to almost the highest degree of perfection possible to overcome whatever physical qualifications his players may lack, and Dr. James Naismith, the inventor of the game of basketball and now director of athletics at University of Kansas, has paid this year's City College team the supreme tribute by terming it the best basketball team he ever saw.

Yet the Friars are looking forward confidently to tomorrow's game. Their showing against New Hampshire was just the thing needed to add the last bit of confidence. Providence has won 12 of its 16 games, and has scored an average of almost 34 points per game. Its average is a fraction of a point better than that of the Lavender.

The Dominicans have played fine basketball this year, despite the fact that they lost by graduation last year Johnny Kricger and Bess McCue, the greatest scoring combination in the history of the sport on Smith Hill.

Sam Shapiro, the speedy Lynn boy, came along just in time to fill one forward position, and Coach McClellan has Jimmy Welch, John McCormac and Franny Dromgoole to choose from for the other berth. Welch probably will get the call tomorrow, but the other two will see plenty of service.

At centre, Providence has Ed Koslowski, and the Friars are ready to match him against Goldman or any other pivotman in the East. Robby Roberge will be ready for reserve duty at the tipoff position.

Capt. Chick Gainer, who was an amateur boxer of considerable renown while earning a regular position on the Friar team, and Dick Brachen will be in the guard positions, with Bill Hyte and George Cody in reserve.

Providence has been defeated this year by Dartmouth, the strong Columbus club of Brooklyn and twice by St. John's. The setback at the hands of Dartmouth was sustained in the opening game of the season, and since losing to the Columbus Club, the Friars have won five in a row.

COMPARATIVE SCORES

FAVOR VISITORS

On the basis of comparative scores against the same opponents, City College will rule a favorite. The Lavender defeated Dartmouth and St. John's, and gained an 11-point advantage over Manhattan, nosed out by Providence by a single marker. Yet basketball is a game in which anything can happen, and the Friars have more than an outside chance of winning.

The preliminary game will bring together the undefeated Friar yearlings and Dean Academy, which has a record of 10 victories in 11 starts. Dean has gotten along well without a tall man on the squad, but with Bergin Leahy, the 6 foot, 5-inch centre for the Dominicans, in action, the prep school lads may find the ball going over their head most of the time.

In addition to Leahy, the Providence Freshman lineup will include Ed Stanisewski and Paul Power at forward and Captain Johnny Madden and Al Felt, guard, with Bill Kutniewski ready for reserve duty.

EDWARD
KOSLOWSKI,
CENTER

C. C. N. Y. Five Easily Trims Providence College 37 to 20

Visitors Display Brand of Basketball Seldom Seen in This City.

Playing a brand of basketball that has seldom been equalled in this city, the crack City College of New York basketball quintet materially strengthened its prospects for the Eastern championship by handing the Providence College five a convincing 37 to 20 defeat at the Auditorium last night before 2000 fans.

This was the 12th victory in 13 games for the Lavender five, which has lost only to Temple this season. In the preliminary contest, the Providence College Freshman five remained undefeated by trouncing the strong Dean Academy hoopsters, 39 to 32.

Basketball fans who attended last night's game undoubtedly will not object to the awarding of the Eastern championship to Nat Holman's team. They saw C. C. N. Y. exhibit a real top-notch game and many were of the opinion that it was the best college quintet to ever hit this town.

Friars Bewildered

The Friars were bewildered by the excellent passing and fast play of the Gothamites. The locals never had a chance. So superior were the visitors that victory was conceded to them by many soon after play started.

The Dominicans tried hard to cash in on the big opportunity at hand but it was not their night. They could never get started. Their offensive tactics were bottled by the clever play of their adversaries and the C. C. N. Y. cause was further aided by wretched shooting of the Friars. Neither from the foul line nor from the floor could the Dominicans find the hoop with any consistency.

Dick Bracken was presented with many opportunities to add to the Friar score via the foul route but he did not have his touch with him last night. Out of 12 foul shots he was able to cage only two. In contrast to Bracken's dismal foul shooting was Davidoff's exceptionally good work in this department. He made seven shots out of nine attempts.

Davidoff Outstanding

Davidoff was the outstanding performer. He caged the ball practically every time he handled it. He tallied 15 points. He was ably aided by Spahn, who contributed 11 points towards his team's cause. These two were most brilliant for the winners but White, Goldman and Wishnevitiz fitted perfectly into Holman's smooth running team.

As a unit, the Lavender outfit worked with precision. There was nary a flaw in its teamwork. The only apparent weakness displayed by the players was the missing of easy shots under the baskets at spasmodic intervals. Had they caged these apparently "easy ones" their score would have reached the half-century mark.

The Friars exhibited their weakest team play of the season. It was practically all individualism by the McClellan's players. They took altogether too many long shots. These long shots were continually missed by wide margins, but still the Friars persisted in relying on them for points.

Davidoff opened the scoring with a long field goal. Bracken came through a foul shot to make the count 2 to 1, but it was fully eight minutes before the losers could get another point. In the meantime, Wishnevitiz, Spahn and Davidoff were caging the ball with regularity for C. C. N. Y. The latter was ahead 12 to 1 before Koslowski made a basket for the Friars. Bracken made the count 12 to 6 on a short field goal, but again the fast passing of the New Yorkers got working and then ran up a 23 to 7 lead at halftime. HYTE scored the other Friar point on a foul shot.

No Rally Forthcoming

Friars supporters looking for the team's customary second half rally were disappointed. Shapiro raised their hopes momentarily with a brilliant field goal, but soon the heavy C. C. N. Y. artillery again got started and it got to be a matter of how high their score would mount.

Shortly after midway in the second half, Holman sent in his second team. The reserves did not add much to the N. Y. C. C. count, but they managed to keep the Friars from doing any damage.

The summaries:

| C. C. N. Y. (37) |    |    |    | PROV. COLLEGE (20) |    |    |   |
|------------------|----|----|----|--------------------|----|----|---|
| G.               | F. | P. |    | G.                 | F. | P. |   |
| White, lf        | 0  | 0  | 0  | Shapiro, lf        | 1  | 1  | 3 |
| Kaufman, lf      | 1  | 0  | 2  | Dromgoole, lf      | 2  | 0  | 4 |
| Davidoff, rf     | 4  | 7  | 15 | Welch, rf          | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| Gillity, rf      | 0  | 0  | 0  | McCormac, rf       | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| Goldman, c       | 0  | 1  | 1  | Koslowski, c       | 1  | 2  | 4 |
| Soloman, c       | 0  | 1  | 1  | Bracken, lg        | 2  | 2  | 6 |
| Spahn, lg        | 4  | 3  | 11 | Reilly, lg         | 0  | 0  | 0 |
| Siegel, lg       | 0  | 0  | 0  | Gainor, rg         | 1  | 0  | 2 |
| Wishnevitiz, rg  | 2  | 3  | 7  | HYTE, rg           | 0  | 0  | 1 |

Totals ... 11 15 37      Totals ... 7 6 20
 Referee—McGuinness.      Time 15-minute

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE DEAN ACADEMY (32)

| LEGE FRESHMAN (39) |    |    |    | G. F. P.      |    |    |    |
|--------------------|----|----|----|---------------|----|----|----|
| G.                 | F. | P. |    | G.            | F. | P. |    |
| Power, lf          | 0  | 0  | 0  | Gallucci, lf  | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Staniewski, lf     | 4  | 2  | 10 | Quinn, rf     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Kutnewski, rf      | 3  | 0  | 6  | Siegel, rf    | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Leahy, c           | 3  | 1  | 7  | Sherwood, c   | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Adamick, c         | 0  | 0  | 0  | Botucelli, c  | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Madden (c), lg     | 4  | 2  | 10 | Conlon, lg    | 4  | 3  | 11 |
| Felt, rg           | 3  | 0  | 6  | Sutcliffe, rg | 3  | 2  | 8  |

Total ... 17 5 39      Total ... 13 6 32
 Referee—Haughey.      Time—10-minute periods.

Game played: February 18, 1932

PERFECTION ON COURT IS GOAL OF VICTORIOUS C. C. N. Y. FIVE

Nat Holman Brings Poised and Confident Team Here to Beat Friars

By ROBERT M. HOWARD

"We aim for perfection. It may be a high goal, but it is the one we have set, and the one for which we are always working." That is the way Nat Holman sums up the performance of his City College basketball team, which defeated Providence College 37-20 at the Auditorium last night.

"I try to teach the boys that the game is not won in the first few minutes. They are told to keep moving, and not to take the chance of losing the ball, but they are also taught to find out where they will be strongest before they try a lot of shots."

Holman cited the poise of his quintet as one of the outstanding differences between the two teams, and there is no doubt that this quality was evident in the Lavender outfit. The visitors held possession of the ball for most of the early minutes of the game, with the Friars unable to work it toward their opponents' basket. Davidoff's clean basket from midcourt served further to disconcert Providence and City College went along smoothly.

ADVANTAGE COMPLETELY WITH C. C. N. Y. TEAM

The advantage in handling the ball, passing and accuracy in shooting was all with Holman's team. The Lavender team worked its block and pivot plays carefully and to good effect, always passing the ball back to mid-court when there was no opening. At the same time, the visitors played a sterling defensive battle, and most of the Friars' shots were taken when they were off balance.

Holman had a word to say against indiscriminate basket shooting. "We try to play percentage basketball, knowing that because most of the boys are accurate shots a certain number of reasonable attempts will result in scores."

The City College mentor expressed the opinion that the Friars were capable of better basketball than they displayed last night, and this appeared to be true

Eleven minutes of playing time had elapsed before Dick Bracken pivoted around from the free-throw line and tossed in a two-pointer.

Bracken also scored Providence's only other field goal in the first half, the latter coming on a pass into the court a few minutes after his first shot.

Providence did better in the second half, having more success in its efforts to hold the ball. Shapiro, Dromgoole, Koslowski and Gainor all had field baskets, but the Friars continued to miss a great percentage of their shots.

Holman's second team, which he credits with having a great deal to do with the success of his starting quintet played the last eight minutes, and contented itself mostly with keeping possession of the ball, although without flagrant attempts to "freeze" it.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

NOT CONSIDERED ESSENTIAL

Holman made the rather surprising statement that only two of his regulars, Goldman, the centre, and Spahn, a guard, played basketball in high school. He intimated that he does not regard the lack of previous experience as a handicap, for he said, "If a great high school star comes along we make him over to fit our system, and do not try to adapt our system to him."

Davidoff is the only member of the team who is a Senior. Wishnevitz, Spahn and White are Juniors, and Goldman is a Sophomore. The team has been practicing since about seven weeks before the start of the regular season, and Holman said that in the preliminary period the team played practically a full season of basketball.

Other college squads, club teams and professional quintets, including the Celtics, for whom Holman once starred, furnished the opposition in November and December, and the team now leaves the impression that it is coasting along, with its strongest opposition behind.

Playing Good Basketball for Friar Freshman

PROVIDENCE
COLLEGE

JOHN MADDEN
Left Guard

EDWARD SLANISIEWSKI,
Right Forward

Game played February 19, 1932

FRIAR YEARLINGS BEAT DE LA SALLE

Newporters Lose 36 to 29 for Second Defeat in 16 Games.

The undefeated Providence College Freshman basketball team downed the crack De La Salle Academy quintet 36 to 29 in a fast game at the De La Salle Academy gymnasium last night.

This was the second defeat in 16 starts for De La Salle. The homsters jumped into an 11 to 10 advantage during the fire period.

Staniewski put the Freshmen in command of the situation in the second period when he made four baskets in quick fashion. The yearlings led, 20 to 13, at the end of the half.

In a preliminary contest, the St. Joseph's quintet defeated the St. Augustine team, 29 to 18, in a Catholic Grammar School League game.

| PROVIDENCE COL.FRESHMEN (36) |    |    | DE LASALLE (29) |                |    |    |    |
|----------------------------------|----|----|---------------------|----------------|----|----|----|
| G.                               | F. | P. | G.                  | F.             | P. |    |    |
| Maddes, lf...                    | 2  | 1  | 5                   | Connerton, lf  | 2  | 5  | 9  |
| Adonic, lf...                    | 0  | 0  | 0                   | Fitzgerald, rf | 1  | 2  | 4  |
| Staniewski, rf                   | 9  | 1  | 19                  | Cooney, rf...  | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Healey, rf...                    | 0  | 0  | 0                   | Martland, c... | 4  | 0  | 8  |
| Leahy, c....                     | 1  | 0  | 2                   | Donovan, lg... | 2  | 3  | 3  |
| Powers, c....                    | 0  | 0  | 0                   | Harris, rg...  | 1  | 1  | 3  |
| Kutniewski, lg                   | 4  | 1  | 0                   |                |    |    |    |
| Fairbrother, lg                  | 0  | 0  | 0                   |                |    |    |    |
| Felt, rg.....                    | 0  | 1  | 1                   |                |    |    |    |
| Bostick, rg...                   | 0  | 0  | 0                   |                |    |    |    |
| Total, ....                      | 16 | 4  | 36                  | Total, ....    | 9  | 11 | 29 |

Referee—G. Lubinski. Time—Four 8-minute periods.

MADDEN WINS MORE HONORS

Pittsfield Boy Elected to the Friars' Club at Provi- dence College

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 25.—
Further honors were bestowed on John Madden, freshman basketball captain of Providence College, during the past week when the former Pittsfield (Mass.) High star was elected to the Friars' Club at the college. This honor is the highest that a first-year man can attain aside from the post of president of his class.

The Friars' club is an honorary organization composed of 18 selected members of the student body who act as the social representatives of the college. All visiting athletic teams are attended by this organization, and many of the extra-curricula activities are directly under its jurisdiction.

Membership is limited to 18 active members, proportionately divided among the four classes: Six seniors, five juniors, four sophomores and three freshmen. In winning recognition by being elected to such membership Madden holds the distinct honor of obtaining two major awards his first year, as he was chosen captain of the freshman basketball team last month.

Berkshire Eagle

His Team Unbeaten

Under the capable leadership of Madden the Friar yearling basketball team has set a record in winning five straight games, and has yet to taste defeat. Wins have been scored over St. John's Prep, Dean Academy, Assumption College, Boston University freshmen and De LaSalle Academy. In scoring these wins the freshmen have flashed some brilliant basketball and have given assurance of another powerful varsity five for the local college another year.

The defeat meted out by Captain Madden and his mates to the powerful team of Dean Academy was but the second in 13 games for the prepsters, who bowed to the Navy Plebes in their other setback. The Dean game had a decided Pittsfield tinge when Captain Johnny Madden of the Friars was pitted against Johnny Nilan, former Pittsfield High leader and at present on the court squad at Dean.

De LaSalle Academy of Newport, one of the teams to compete in the Catholic High School tournament in Pittsfield a year ago, dropped its second game in 13 when the Friar cubs traveled to Newport a week ago to register a 36 to 29 win for this fifth straight triumph. With four games remaining the yearlings have high hopes to complete their campaign undefeated.

FRIAR 'VARSITY FIVE TOPS ALUMNI 35-31

Winners Come from Behind to Triumph Over Graduates.
Sophomores Win Prelim.

Coming from behind in the second half of its game in characteristic fashion, the Providence College basketball team downed the Alumni quintet 35-31 at Harkins Hall last night. The game marked the beginning of basketball relationship between Alumni and Varsity teams. In a preliminary contest, Dominican Sophomores scored a 19-16 victory over their Freshman rivals.

Providence College opened the fourth quarter with a two-point lead, the score at that time was 24-22. Krieger, McCue, Wheeler, Wineapple and Szydlia made up the Alumni lineup in the final quarter of play, and these five were able to break through the Friar Varsity defence for only seven points, three of which were from the foul line.

With but four minutes of the final quarter remaining, the score stood 30-29 in favor of the Varsity. In a vain effort to forge ahead, the Alumni basketballers tried shots from all corners of the floor but were unable to find the hoop.

The Friar Varsity team drew first blood, one minute after the tap, when Brachen netted an overhead shot on a pass from Gainor. He added another a minute later when he scored on a free throw. The Alumni started their scoring when Wineapple scored from under the basket on Wheeler's pass, and then tied the score with a free throw. The first period found the Varsity on the defence.

At the termination of the first quarter the count stood 12-16 in favor of the graduates. Throughout the second quarter the graduates continued their speedy pace but soon started to slow.

"Larry" Wheeler, rangy centre for the graduates, now coaching at Portsmouth Priory, sank the longest shot of the evening from mid-floor, in the third quarter to tie the score 22-22 all, with but five seconds to play. The third quarter ended following Koslowski's long shot from the side court, to place the Varsity in the lead.

Krieger arrived to play for the graduates during the final quarter. Krieger opened the scoring for his outfit, when he took the ball from the backboard to score. On the same play, he was awarded two free throws, and counted on both of them. This placed the alumni within two points of their rivals. Wineapple tied the score for the graduates when he received Wheeler's pass from under the basket, and scored.

The summaries:

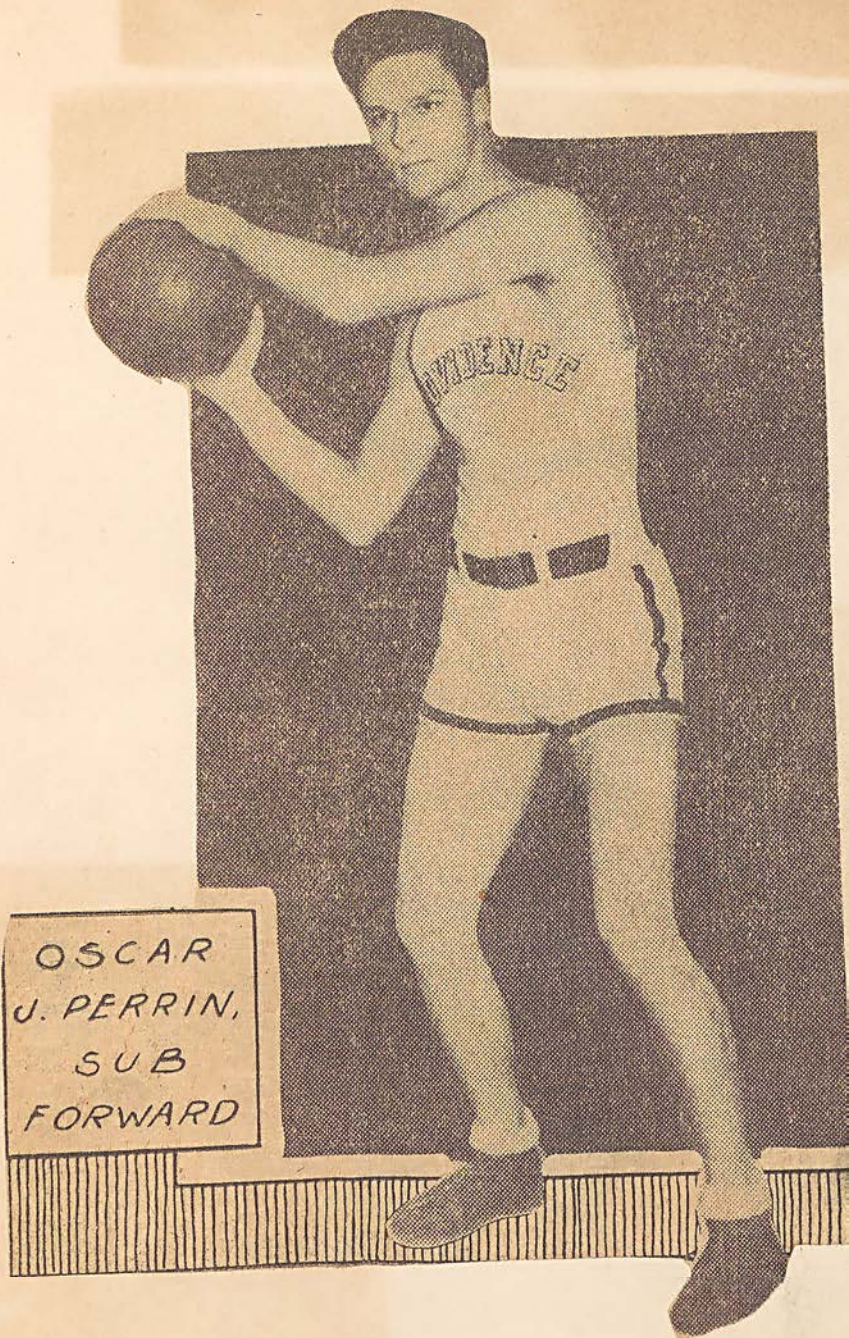

| SOPHOMORES (19) |    |    | FRESHMEN (16) |               |    |   |    |
|-----------------|----|----|---------------|---------------|----|---|----|
| G.              | F. | P. | G.            | F.            | P. |   |    |
| Lacy, H.        | 3  | 1  | 7             | Sholovitz, H. | 0  | 0 | 0  |
| Matassa, rf.    | 0  | 0  | 0             | Galligan, H.  | 0  | 0 | 0  |
| Keegan, c.      | 0  | 0  | 0             | Smith, rf.    | 3  | 0 | 6  |
| Reilly, lg.     | 1  | 1  | 3             | Maguire, rf.  | 0  | 0 | 0  |
| Doyle, lg.      | 0  | 0  | 0             | Gobis, c.     | 0  | 0 | 0  |
| Boyle, rg.      | 4  | 1  | 9             | Dillon, c.    | 2  | 1 | 5  |
| Schott, rg.     | 0  | 0  | 0             | Lyons, lg.    | 0  | 0 | 0  |
|                 |    |    |               | Matruska, lg. | 1  | 1 | 3  |
|                 |    |    |               | Brennan, rg.  | 1  | 0 | 2  |
| Total           | 8  | 3  | 19            | Total         | 7  | 2 | 16 |

Time—Four 10-minute periods.

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (35) |    |    | ALUMNI (31) |                |    |    |    |
|-------------------------|----|----|-------------|----------------|----|----|----|
| G.                      | F. | P. | G.          | F.             | P. |    |    |
| Welsh, H.               | 0  | 2  | 2           | Murphy, H.     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Hyte, H.                | 1  | 0  | 2           | Krieger, H.    | 1  | 3  | 5  |
| Shapiro, H.             | 2  | 0  | 4           | McCue, rf.     | 0  | 2  | 2  |
| Gody, rf.               | 0  | 0  | 0           | Allen, rf.     | 2  | 0  | 4  |
| K'sl'ski, c.            | 5  | 0  | 10          | Wheeler, c.    | 1  | 2  | 4  |
| Gainor, lg.             | 1  | 0  | 2           | Nawrocki, c.   | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Dr'm'gle, lg.           | 1  | 2  | 4           | Wineapple, lg. | 5  | 3  | 13 |
| Brachen, rg.            | 3  | 5  | 11          | Szydlia, rg.   | 1  | 1  | 3  |
| Relley, rg.             | 0  | 0  | 0           | Resnicki, rg.  | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Totals                  | 13 | 9  | 35          | Totals         | 10 | 11 | 31 |

Referee—McGee. Time—Four 10-minute periods.

Game played: February 20, 1932

OSCAR
J. PERRIN, SUB
FORWARD

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE FIVE SWAMPS WORCESTER

TECH 54 TO 24

Reilly Stars as Friar Team Scores 14th Win of Season

Coach McClellan of Winners Uses Subs During Three-quarters of Game.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)
Worcester, Mass., Feb. 22.—The Providence College Varsity basketball team ran wild here tonight to score its 14th victory of the season by downing Worcester Polytechnic Institute by a 54 to 24 count. The Friars were never even threatened in their wild scoring spree and Coach Al. McClellan used his reserve forces for three-quarters of the tilt.

Eddie Reilly, Sophomore performer from Bridgeport, turned in the outstanding scoring performance for the visitors, collecting 12 points. The Friars started with a rush and worked with clock-like precision.

The Friars had a 13-point lead before the Engineers were able to break through for a score, with Smith, high scorer of the night, turning the trick on a hook shot from under the hoop. After the Providence first team had piled up a 21 to 3 lead, Coach McClellan sent his strong reserve forces, consisting of Roberge, Reilly, Perrin, Cody and McCormac, into action.

The second team left the floor at the half time with a 31 to 10 lead, and as a reward for their fine play Coach McClellan sent them back into action for the entire second half, given the regulars their first real rest of the season. With Reilly, Roberge and Cody leading the attack, the visitors passed in and around the locals and had matters all their own.

The Engineers were on the defence nearly all the game, with Smith, lanky forward, the only hoopster able to break through to the Providence net for points. The Friars passed the 50 mark when Tebbetts made a sensational overhead shot for a score, and Perrin concluded the damage with two successful free tries a minute before the final gun.

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (54) |                         |    |    | WORCESTER POLYTECH (24) |    |    |    |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|----|----|-------------------------|----|----|----|
|                         | G.                      | F. | P. |                         | G. | F. | P. |
| Droomgoole, lf.         | 2                       | 0  | 4  | Purrin'ton, lf.         | 2  | 0  | 4  |
| Perrin, lf. c.          | 1                       | 2  | 4  | Smith, rf.              | 4  | 5  | 13 |
| Welch, lf.              | 0                       | 1  | 1  | H'h'k'n's n. rf.        | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Shapiro, rf.            | 2                       | 0  | 4  | Skwarek, c.             | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| McCormac, rf.           | 1                       | 0  | 2  | Noreika, c.             | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Koslowski, c.           | 1                       | 1  | 3  | Gartrell, lg.           | 1  | 2  | 4  |
| Roberge, c.             | 4                       | 0  | 8  | Asp, rg.                | 0  | 1  | 1  |
| Gainor, lg.             | 3                       | 0  | 6  |                         |    |    |    |
| Reilly, lg.             | 5                       | 2  | 12 |                         |    |    |    |
| Tebbetts, lg.           | 1                       | 0  | 2  |                         |    |    |    |
| Bracken, rg.            | 2                       | 2  | 6  |                         |    |    |    |
| Cody, rg.               | 1                       | 0  | 2  |                         |    |    |    |
| Hyte, rg.               | 0                       | 0  | 0  |                         |    |    |    |
| Totals                  | 23                      | 8  | 54 | Total                   | 8  | 8  | 24 |
| Referee—Ball.           | Time—20-minute periods. |    |    |                         |    |    |    |

ame played: February 22, 1932

REILLY ELEVATED TO FRIAR 'VARSITY

Sophomore Guard May Win
Starting Berth Against Seton Hall Quintet.

The excellent performance by Ed Reilly, substitute sophomore guard, in last Monday's game against Worcester Tech. may result in a shakeup of the Providence College basketball team for the game with Seton Hall here tomorrow night. Coach Al McClellan of the Friars elevated the Bridgeport youth to the 'Varsity during yesterday's scrimmage and the mentor indicated that Reilly may retain his first string post against Seton Hall.

In case Reilly's promotion stands, Dick Bracken, regular guard, will be shifted to the open forward position to team with the brilliant Sam Shapiro. Coach McClellan has had trouble all season in filling one forward berth and the shifting of Bracken to the post from his back court position may be the solution to the problem. Reilly will team at guard with Capt. Chick Gainor.

The Friars already have scored one victory over Seton Hall this season, defeating the New Jersey team on its home floor 28 to 24 and prospects of another victory are high. Seton Hall has a veteran team and the locals will have no opportunity to lapse in their play if they are to return victorious.

The Dominicans have another hard game scheduled on Saturday when they will oppose the Holy Cross Independents at the Auditorium in a return game. In the first meeting between the two clubs, the Friars were victorious in an overtime contest.

McClellan's charges came back in fine fashion against Worcester Tech after their setback at the hands of C. C. N. Y. last Thursday. The easy manner in which the Lavender outfit triumphed over the Friars has spurred the latter players and undoubtedly they will give extra efforts in their future games to win.

In the preliminary game tomorrow night, the Providence College Junior 'Varsity team will oppose the New Bedford Textile five.

Providence College Quintet Swamps Seton Hall 51 to 21

Friar Jayvee Five Trounces
New Bedford Textile
Hoopsters 41-26.

Edward Reilly, Sophomore guard, made an auspicious debut as a regular on the Providence College basketball team last night as the Friars swamped the Seton Hall quintet of New Jersey, 51 to 21, at Harkins Hall, to score their 15th victory of the season. The Bridgeport youth was given a starting assignment as a result of his stellar play as a substitute in the Worcester Tech game last Monday and he justified the confidence Coach Al McClellan placed in him. Reilly contributed 19 points toward the Dominican cause while exhibiting an excellent all-round performance.

Dick Bracken, regular guard, was shifted to forward to make room for Reilly in the lineup and he, also, did well at his new job.

Although not given much opposition, the Friars played well as a unit. They encountered no trouble in breaking through the Seton Hall defence and all in all they had an easy time in winning.

The losers were far off form, displaying a much inferior brand of basketball than they did against the Friars in their first meeting at New Jersey when the latter won out by a 28 to 24 count. The passing of the team was markedly poor and the players showed hardly any semblance of team play. Capt. Singleton was the outstanding performer for the losers, scoring 12 points.

In the preliminary game, the Providence College Junior Varsity team scored a 41 to 28 triumph over the New Bedford Textile team. Anthony Barbarito was the high scorer in this game with 16 points.

Taking advantage of an opportunity to use his reserves, Coach McClellan sent in a number of substitutes against Seton Hall. The Friars have a hard assignment on Saturday night at the Auditorium against the Holy Cross Independents.

The Friars came through with another excellent defensive performance, holding the New Jersey boys to six field goals during the game, three in each half. It was not until near the end of the first half that Seton Hall scored its first "two-pointer."

The Friars started with a strong offensive, piling up an 11-to-1 lead after five minutes of play. Bracken, Gainer and Koslowski led this attack. Field goals by Gainer, Shapiro and Koslowski brought the Dominican count to 22 to 1. At this point in the game, Babiak scored the first Seton Hall basket on a long shot. Bracken came through with a field goal to put the Friars ahead 24 to 3. With Capt. Singleton playing a major role, Seton Hall staged its strongest offensive spurt near the end of the half and brought the count to 24 to 11 at half time.

The visitors were unable to maintain this pace after resumption of play in the second half. The Friars began to score practically at will and during the remaining time it was merely a question of how high their score would mount.

The summaries:

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (51) |    |       | SETON HALL (21)       |    |       |
|-------------------------|----|-------|-----------------------|----|-------|
|                         | G. | F. P. |                       | G. | F. P. |
| Bracken, H. . . . .     | 4  | 3 11  | Zdanew'cz, H. . . . . | 0  | 1 1   |
| Welch, H. . . . .       | 1  | 0 2   | Reiss, H. . . . .     | 0  | 1 1   |
| Shapiro, H. . . . .     | 4  | 1 9   | Singleton, H. . . . . | 4  | 4 12  |
| Dromgoole, H. . . . .   | 0  | 0 0   | Babiak, C. . . . .    | 2  | 3 7   |
| Gody, H. . . . .        | 1  | 0 2   | Eslar, H. . . . .     | 0  | 0 0   |
| Koslowski, C. . . . .   | 3  | 1 7   | Madigan, H. . . . .   | 0  | 0 0   |
| Roberge, C. . . . .     | 0  | 1 1   |                       |    |       |
| Gainer, H. . . . .      | 2  | 3 7   |                       |    |       |
| Hyte, H. . . . .        | 0  | 0 0   |                       |    |       |
| Reilly, H. . . . .      | 4  | 2 10  |                       |    |       |
| Ferrin, H. . . . .      | 0  | 0 0   |                       |    |       |
| McCormac, H. . . . .    | 1  | 0 2   |                       |    |       |
| Total . . . . .         | 20 | 11 51 | Total . . . . .       | 6  | 9 21  |

Referee—Clark. Umpire—Haughey. Time—20-minute halves.

| PROV. COLLEGE JUNIOR VARSITY (41) |    |       | NEW BEDFORD TEXTILE (26) |    |       |
|-----------------------------------|----|-------|--------------------------|----|-------|
|                                   | G. | F. P. |                          | G. | F. P. |
| Wright, H. . . . .                | 1  | 0 2   | McArdle, H. . . . .      | 2  | 3 7   |
| Morrison, H. . . . .              | 4  | 0 8   | Gero, H. . . . .         | 1  | 0 2   |
| Barbarito, H. . . . .             | 8  | 0 16  | Clark, H. . . . .        | 2  | 1 5   |
| Fowers, H. . . . .                | 2  | 0 4   | Cushman, C. . . . .      | 4  | 1 9   |
| Davis, C. . . . .                 | 1  | 2 4   | York, C. . . . .         | 0  | 0 0   |
| Felt, C. . . . .                  | 1  | 0 2   | Williams, H. . . . .     | 0  | 0 0   |
| Reavy, H. . . . .                 | 2  | 0 4   | Demarest, H. . . . .     | 0  | 0 0   |
| Madden, H. . . . .                | 0  | 1 1   | Crowley, H. . . . .      | 1  | 1 3   |
| St'n'wski, H. . . . .             | 0  | 0 0   |                          |    |       |
| Total . . . . .                   | 19 | 3 41  | Totals . . . . .         | 10 | 6 26  |

Referee—Schurman. Time—10-minute periods.

Game played: February 25, 1932 —

Friars Come from Behind; Top Purple Independents

Flashy Attack Gives Dominican Basketball Five 46 to 33 Victory.

A brilliant second half offensive featured by excellent shooting and passing enabled the Providence College basketball team to score a 46 to 33 triumph over the Holy Cross Independents at the Auditorium last night. This was the second victory of the season over the Independents and 16th in 21 games. In the preliminary contest, the Providence College Freshman quintet scored its sixth straight victory by downing the Bryant & Stratton hoopsters, 51 to 29.

The Holy Cross Independents flashed exceptionally good basketball in the opening half and took an 18 to 14 lead at halftime, but the players did not maintain their fast pace after replay. The Friars also played well in the first half but their second half performance was far superior. The Independents during the second 20 minutes of play could do nothing with the Dominican defence while they were having considerable trouble stopping the Friar offensive.

Both Centres Star

The revamped Friar lineup worked well, and it is likely that Coach Al McClellan will keep Ed Reilly at guard and Dick Bracken at forward. Both turned in good performances. Bracken was the high scorer of the game with 13 points. Reilly made only three points, but he devoted most of his efforts to stopping the Holy Cross offensive drives, and he turned in a good job.

Both centres, Luke Driscoll of the Independents and Ed Koslowski of the Friars, starred. Driscoll led his team in scoring with 11 points. Koslowski contributed 12 toward the Friar cause. Driscoll was especially brilliant in the opening half. He was continually fed with the ball by his mates and his shots met with success, but in the second half he tired and there was a lapse in his play. The Friars showed some good teamwork, while the Independents turned to individual tactics after playing well as a unit during the opening half.

Hickey of the losers opened the scoring with a foul shot. Two foul shots by Bracken and a side basket by Koslowski put the Friars in the lead 4 to Driscoll brought the count 4 to 3 with a field goal and a foul shot. Gainor made a long tom but Hickey retaliated for Holy Cross to make the count 7-6 for the Friars. Shapiro added three points to the Friar count but Shoenrock came through points to put Holy Cross ahead 13 to 12. Hickey and Shoenrock scored field goals for Holy Cross and Shapiro made one for the Friars to make the score 18 to 14 in favor of the Independents at halftime.

Friars Launch Attack

During the first three minutes of the second half, the Independents increased their advantage 23 to 16. Driscoll and Leary made the Holy Cross points while Koslowski scored a "two-pointer" for the Friars. At this point in the game, the Friars staged their strongest offensive. Bracken started and led this offensive. The Dominicans found the Holy Cross defence weakening and ran up a 36 to 26 lead.

At this point, the Friar subs were sent in and they added three more points to the team's score while Holy Cross was making five.

The summaries:

| PROVIDENCECOLLEGE (46)     |    |    | HOLY CROSSINDEPENDENTS (33) |                   |    |                   |    |
|--------------------------------|----|----|---------------------------------|-------------------|----|-------------------|----|
| G.                             | F. | P. | G.                              | F.                | P. |                   |    |
| Bracken, lf...                 | 4  | 5  | 13                              | Hickey, lf...     | 3  | 2                 | 6  |
| Dromgoole, lf...               | 0  | 0  | 0                               | Donovan, rf...    | 2  | 0                 | 4  |
| Shapiro, rf...                 | 5  | 0  | 10                              | Joe Nich'n, rf... | 0  | 0                 | 0  |
| McCormac, rf...                | 1  | 0  | 2                               | Driscoll, c...    | 4  | 3                 | 11 |
| Koslowski, c...                | 6  | 0  | 12                              | Dunn, c...        | 0  | 0                 | 0  |
| Roberge, c...                  | 0  | 0  | 0                               | Leary, lg...      | 1  | 0                 | 2  |
| Reilly, lg...                  | 1  | 1  | 3                               | Jim Nie'n, lg...  | 0  | 0                 | 0  |
| Cody, lg...                    | 0  | 0  | 0                               | Shoen'r'k, rg...  | 4  | 0                 | 8  |
| Gainor, rg...                  | 3  | 0  | 6                               |                   |    |                   |    |
| Hyte, rg...                    | 0  | 0  | 0                               |                   |    |                   |    |
| Total                          | 20 | 6  | 46                              | Total             | 14 | 5                 | 33 |
| Referee—Parker.                |    |    | Umpire—Roberts.                 |                   |    | Time              |    |
| —20-minute halves.             |    |    |                                 |                   |    |                   |    |
| PROVIDENCECOLLEGE FRESHMEN |    |    | BRYANT &STRATTON            |                   |    |                   |    |
| G.                             | F. | P. | G.                              | F.                | P. |                   |    |
| Stanislawski, lf...            | 6  | 1  | 13                              | Chase, lf...      | 0  | 0                 | 0  |
| Smith, lf...                   | 0  | 0  | 0                               | Del Santo, lf...  | 4  | 0                 | 8  |
| Power, rf...                   | 4  | 0  | 8                               | Collison, rf...   | 7  | 1                 | 15 |
| Fairbrother, rf...             | 1  | 0  | 2                               | Bassett, c...     | 0  | 0                 | 0  |
| Skipp, c...                    | 3  | 0  | 6                               | Kimball, c...     | 1  | 0                 | 2  |
| Tesoro, c...                   | 0  | 0  | 0                               | Parrillo, lg...   | 0  | 0                 | 0  |
| Madden (C), lg...              | 1  | 1  | 3                               | Holmes, lg...     | 0  | 0                 | 0  |
| Healey, lg...                  | 1  | 1  | 3                               | Kirkland, rg...   | 2  | 0                 | 4  |
| Feit, lg...                    | 5  | 1  | 11                              |                   |    |                   |    |
| Bostick, rg...                 | 2  | 1  | 5                               |                   |    |                   |    |
| Total                          | 23 | 5  | 51                              | Total             | 14 | 1                 | 29 |
| Referee—Pearce.                |    |    | Time—Two                        |                   |    | 20-minute halves. |    |

Game played: February 27, 1932

FRIARS IN COURT CONTEST TONIGHT

Dominicans to Clash with Massachusetts State Five at Amherst.

The Providence College basketball team, now on the final stretch of its 1931-32 campaign, will play the Massachusetts State basketball team tonight at Amherst, Mass. The Friars have one other game scheduled this week against Lowell Textile at Lowell. With these two games played, the Friars will point towards their final and one of the objective contests of the season against the Brown quintet on Saturday, March 12.

The Friars have high hopes of winning these remaining contests and end their season with 19 victories in 24 games. Barring unforeseen happenings, the Dominicans will enter all three games as favorites. The Lowell team was easily downed by the Friars in the first of their two-game series here. Mass State has a fairly good team but the locals should emerge victorious.

Both the Providence College Freshman and Junior Varsity quintets have contests scheduled this week. Tomorrow evening the undefeated yearlings will play a return game with St. John's Prep at Danvers, Mass. The Friar Freshman have won seven straight games. Saturday evening the Junior Varsity will journey to Worcester for a return engagement with the Becker College quintet. The Friar Jayvees have played five games, winning four and losing one. The loss was received at the hands of the Bridgewater Normal five, but the Friars avenged this defeat in a return game.

The Friar Varsity showed some good basketball last week in defeating Worcester Tech, Seton Hall and the Holy Cross Independents. The latter team gave the Dominicans the hardest game but McClellan's charges had enough reserve power in the second half to emerge victorious.

The change in the line-up involving Ed Reilly and Dick Bracken has worked well. Reilly's stellar play in recent drills and games last week have won him a regular guard position. Dick Bracken was shifted from guard to forward and he is continuing his stellar play at his new berth.

The other Friar regulars also played good basketball last week. Sam Shapiro continues to display his flashy basket shooting. Ed Koslowski and Capt. Chick Gainor also have played to advantage.

FRIAR FIVE WINS 36 TO 21

Bracken and Shapiro Lead Attack Against Mass. State

Friars Score 17th Victory; Ed
Koslowski Receives Ankle Injury.

(Special to the Providence Journal.)
Amherst, Mass., March 1.—Flashing a strong scoring combination in Dick Bracken and Sam Shapiro, rangy forwards, the Providence College Varsity basketball team scored its 17th victory of the season by downing Massachusetts State College here tonight, 36 to 21. The Friars led throughout the game and were never seriously threatened.

Bracken, at his new left forward assignment where he was moved to make way in the lineup for Eddie Reilly, was the high scorer of the fray, featuring with his sensational one hand shots from under the hoop. Shapiro with nine points aided the Friar cause in addition to continually feeding Bracken on a double pivot play inside the foul line.

The tilt was marred by one mishap for the Rhode Islanders, however, as Ed Koslowski, veteran centre, sustained a slight ankle sprain midway in the second stanza and as a result had to give way to Ollie Roberge. The latter turned in some fine work at the pivot post and aided the visitors to maintain their commanding lead. Providence scored first, when Bracken scored a foul shot. Fletcher of the State outfit counted on Koslowski's foul a minute later, and then the Friars broke loose to run up a sizable lead. Bracken and Shapiro led in this scoring spree with seven points apiece and as a result the Friars left the court at themidtime with a lead of 19 to 10.

Louis Bush, the locals clever forward and high scorer of the nation in football last fall, turned in the best work for the State collegians, with a total of ten points. In spite of his efforts to narrow the lead of the invaders in the second half, the Friars continued their scoring activities and ran their string to 30 points before the reserves were rushed into action. In action, in the waning moments of play.

The summary:

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (36) |   |          |    | MASS. STATE (21) |   |          |    |
|-------------------------|---|----------|----|------------------|---|----------|----|
| G. F. P.                |   | G. F. P. |    | G. F. P.         |   | G. F. P. |    |
| Bracken, lf...          | 5 | 5        | 15 | Lolko, lf...     | 1 | 1        | 3  |
| Welch, lg...            | 0 | 0        | 0  | Hanson, lf...    | 0 | 0        | 0  |
| Shapiro, rf...          | 4 | 1        | 9  | Bush, rf...      | 4 | 2        | 10 |
| McCormac, rf            | 0 | 0        | 0  | Fletcher, c...   | 1 | 2        | 4  |
| Koslowski, c...         | 2 | 0        | 4  | Reynolds, lg...  | 0 | 0        | 0  |
| Roberge, c...           | 1 | 0        | 2  | Ahlstrom, lg...  | 0 | 1        | 1  |
| Reavey, c...            | 0 | 0        | 0  | Foley, rg...     | 1 | 1        | 3  |
| Cody, lg...             | 0 | 0        | 0  | Poster, rg...    | 0 | 0        | 0  |
| Gainor, lg...           | 0 | 0        | 0  |                  |   |          |    |
| Hydte, lg...            | 0 | 0        | 0  |                  |   |          |    |
| Reilly, rg...           | 2 | 0        | 4  |                  |   |          |    |
| Dromgoole, rg           | 1 | 0        | 2  |                  |   |          |    |

Totals .... 15 6 36    Totals .... 7 7 21
Referee—Winters. Umpire—Feldman. Time
—20-minute periods.

Game played:

March 1, 1932

Providence College Freshman Basketball Squad

Front row, left to right: Gordon Fairbrother, f; Paul Healy, f; Paul Power, f; Captain John Madden, g; Austin Smith, f; John Tesoro, g.
Back row, left to right: Charles A. Murphy, assistant coach; Edward Stanisiewski, f; Al Feit, g; Bergin Leahy, c; Albert McClellan, coach; Joseph Adamick, c; Joseph Swift, g; John Glennon, manager.

St. John's Prep Five Subdues Friar Freshman Team 32-30

Dominican Yearlings Lose First Game of Season.—Brooks
Scoring Deciding Points.

Danvers, Mass., March 2.—St. John's Prep basketball team by staging a strong second-half rally snapped a seven-game winning streak of the Providence College Freshman five here this afternoon, the locals coming through with a 32 to 30 verdict. Play was nip and tuck throughout with both teams flashing some strong work on the defence.

The Friar yearlings were forced to swing into action without their regular centres, as both Leahy and Adamick are on the sick list. Taking over the centre post for the first time, Bill Kutniewski turned in a good exhibition on the defence.

The Friar yearlings were slow in starting and at the end of the first period were trailing, 12 to 8. In the second 10 minutes of play, however, they spurted, with all the players contributing scores to give them a 20 to 14 lead at the half-time.

The St. John's hoopsters came back strong at the start of the third period, with McDermott leading the attack, and at the end of five minutes of play had whittled away the Friars' lead to move ahead, 28 to 22, as the fourth period started. Capt. Johnny Madden of the visitors dropped in two long tosses from mid-floor to put his team back in the running, and less than two minutes before the end Feit knotted the count at 30-all. With a minute to play, Brooks caged a rebound shot to turn the tide to the locals.

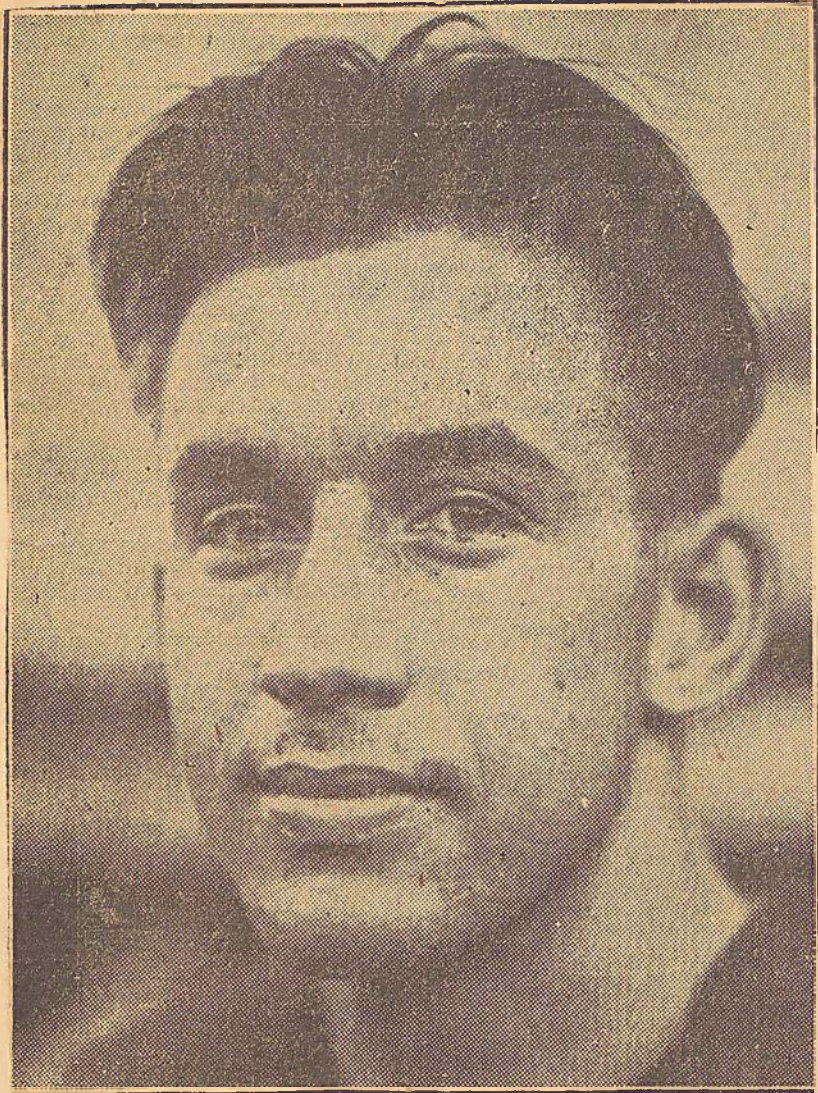

The summary:

| ST. JOHN'S (32) |    |    |    | PROVIDENCE (30) |    |    |    |
|-----------------|----|----|----|-----------------|----|----|----|
|                 | G. | F. | P. |                 | G. | F. | P. |
| McDermott, lf   | 5  | 0  | 10 | Stan'wski, lf   | 2  | 0  | 4  |
| Brooks, rf      | 3  | 0  | 6  | Power, rf       | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| Hughes, lf      | 0  | 0  | 0  | Bostick, rf     | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Cunningham, c   | 0  | 0  | 0  | Kutn'wski, c    | 3  | 0  | 6  |
| Canty, lg       | 4  | 0  | 8  | Madden, lg      | 3  | 3  | 9  |
| Jorgenson, rg   | 3  | 2  | 8  | Feit, rg        | 2  | 2  | 6  |
| Total           | 15 | 2  | 32 | Total           | 12 | 6  | 30 |

Referee—Devlin. Time—10-minute periods.

Game played: March 2, 1932

CAPT. JERRY SAVARD.

All-Lowell Lineup Starts for Textile Against Friar Quintet at Crescent Rink

Local Athletes to Take Floor Against Providence College Tonight in Season's Final Game

Coach Rusty Yarnall plans to start an all-Lowell lineup against the Providence college quintet tonight at the Crescent rink. The Lowell Textile Institute hoop team will include Mike Kokoska, Joe Sullivan, Capt. Jerry Savard, John Baranowski and Walter Jarek. All of these boys received their earlier basketball training in local grammar, junior high and high schools.

Tonight's game is being sponsored by the local Lodge of Elks. The clash will be the season's finale for Lowell Textile. Because of the fact that the starting Textile team will be composed strictly of Lowell players, and also because the Elks are giving the clash their whole hearted support, a banner crowd is expected to turn out at the Hurd street emporium. Action will start at 8 o'clock. There will also be a preliminary game between two of the school fraternity quintets. The latter clash will get under way at 7.30 o'clock sharp.

Capt. Jerry Savard will lead the Textile quintet on the floor against Providence. Savard is in his third season as a member of the varsity Textile basketball teams. He has been playing a whale of a game and is rated as one of the fastest and cleverest offensive players in New England collegiate hoop circles. He is out to wind up the present season with a record number of points against Providence.

Mike Kokoska and Joe Sullivan stand out as two unusually fine forwards. Both have been starring for Textile since the present season started. Kokoska is now playing in his second season as a Textile varsity man. Though only a freshman, Sullivan looks impressive on the floor. Walter Jarek and John Baranowski, both of them first-year men, will hold down the guard positions. These two athletes have been playing a fine defensive game for the Lowell team.

While Coach Yarnall will start a strictly Lowell quintet against Providence, he will probably send reserve material to the floor as action goes along. Solly Mamber, Freddy Diehl, Eddie Morse and Fred Moran are clever performers and should help the local club's cause along a whole lot.

With a record of 15 victories in 20 starts this season, Providence college will take the floor as a favorite to win. However, the local college hoopsters are conceding the visitors no advantage whatsoever, but will start the game intent on staging the season's bitterest fight.

Providence is coached by Albert McClellan, former Salem, Mass., and St. John's Prep mentor in this sport. McClellan has now been coaching the hoop game to the Friars for four seasons. He has developed some fast teams and this year's club is on a par with any of those turned out in recent time.

Bill Gainer, who is well known as a boxer in New England simon pure circles, is captain of the Providence quintet. He plays a guard position and can little be bettered at this work. Jimmy Welch came to Providence from St. John's Prep, where he was leading scorer in New England schoolboy basketball. Sam Shapiro is a former Lynn English basketball star. He is a fine offensive player. Eddie Koslowski, centre of the Friars is in his second season at this berth. He stands six feet in height and has a great "knack" of outjumping the opponents. Al Bracken, varsity guard on the visiting club, won all-New England honors at this position last season. He stands out as one of the finest defensive players to come to Providence in recent years.

Most unusual on the starting Friar team's lineup is the fact that every player is at least six feet in height. Among the substitute players is George Tibbetts, former Nashua high baseball, football and basketball star.

TONIGHT'S LINEUPS

LOWELL                      PROVIDENCE

Kokoska, rf.....ig, Gainer
Sullivan, lf.....rg, Bracken
Savard, c.....c, Koslowski
Baranowski, rg.....lf, Welch
Jarek, lg.....rf, Shapiro

Game at Crescent Rink, 8 o'clock.

Lowell Courier Citizen

Providence-Textile Game Tonight Should Draw 1500

FRIARS RATED THE FAVORITE

Yarnall to Start All-Lowell Lineup Against Invader at Crescent Rink

Year's Biggest Game Needs Support—Enormous Guarantee Given Visitors

TONIGHT'S LINEUP

| LOWELL         | PROVIDENCE   |
|----------------|--------------|
| Kokoska rf     | lg, Gainor   |
| Sullivan, lf   | rg, Bracken  |
| Savard, c      | c, Koslowski |
| Baranowski, rg | lf, Welch    |
| Jarek, lg      | rf, Shapiro  |

Game at Crescent rink, 8 o'clock.

LESTER H. CUSHING
Faculty Manager

W. W. (RUSTY) YARNALL
Textile Coach

All up for Textile tonight at the Crescent rink! That's the cry of the fans, and the plea of the management, as the brilliant basketball club gets ready to take positions against the great Providence college quintet.

There will be a preliminary game between the CYML Juniors and the St. Joseph's Polish club, two of the city's front ranking amateur teams, at 7.30, it was said today by these clubs. The Providence-Textile headliner starts at 8 p. m.

Support Needed

A plaintive note was struck in the last-minute enthusiasm this afternoon, when it was learned that the advance sale was not as large as the Lowell Lodge of Elks expected it to be. The Elks are backing this game and want to make a tremendous success of it. Plenty of hard work has been put into the event by a lodge committee which includes Coach Jim Liston of Lowell high, Edwin Markham, local official, William H. Keenan and others, and since the Elks never promoted a "flop," they appeal to the fans of Lowell to unite tonight in one last salute to Rusty Yarnall and Lowell Textile. It is Textile's last

City Amateur Title Prospects In Prelim

The preliminary game to the Providence-Textile encounter, between the CYML Juniors and St. Joseph's Polish club, is exciting no little interest. The result will be of much bearing on the 1932 city amateur championship, a title that was sought last year by 46 teams and in 1930 by 52 clubs. Because no NEAAAU tourney will be held here this year, youthful fans figure the St. Joseph's and the CYML teams the front-ranking contenders for the honors. It will start at 7.30.

game. Faculty Manager Lester H. Cushing has guaranteed a big sum to Providence in order to bring this game to Lowell.

All-Lowell Lineup

The club that will start against Providence is strictly all-Lowell in makeup. Every player was a star at Lowell high. They are Mike Kokoska rf, Joe Sullivan lf, Jerry Savard c, John Baranowski rg, and Walter Jarek lg, a former Lowell high captain. Incidentally, every player is a former football star of the Red and Grey. This makes the event a college game of real proportions and significance to all Lowell.

Providence comes here the favorite, but not by a great margin. The team has beaten Harvard, Yale, New Hampshire and a host of other foremost college teams to present a record of 15 victories in 20 starts as it takes the floor tonight. Koslowski, who will play opposite Savard, and Welch, a left forward, are the men to watch. Gainor and Bracken at guards are brilliant defense men while Shapiro, the other forward, is a marvelous one-hand shot maker.

Let's Go!

The biggest basketball game before a Lowell crowd should be remembered for a long time. Fans will do well to make it their business to see it. Over 1000 fans are assured but the Elks, the Textile Institute and Rusty Yarnall want 1500 fans to help Textile win. Let's go!

Textile Loses Finale to Providence

Providence College Beats Textile by 42 to 23 Score

Local College Quintet Loses Its Final Game of the Season Before Large Crowd at Crescent Rink

Providence college ran roughshod over the Lowell Textile Institute quintet in the first half of the hoop clash at Crescent rink last night. The locals came back to life in the second half, but the damage had already been done and the Textile athletes were forced to accept a 42 to 23 defeat. The game, Textile's final of the present season, drew a large crowd. While first-period competition was all in favor of the Providence quintet, the second half developed much action.

Starting off at a whirlwind pace, the Friars gave the Lowell team no quarter in the first 20 minutes of play. Shooting and passing with bewildering speed and accuracy, the boys from Little Rhody had the Lowell athletes pretty much at sea most of the time. Unable to strike the real stride, the Textile players for the rim repeatedly. The local club's passing was also far below its usual class.

Missed Their Shots

Al Bracken started the scoring for Providence with a neat shot from the floor after the game had been on for about two minutes. Then Walter Jarek tallied from the foul line for Lowell and the score was 2 to 1. Providence next uncorked an attack that could not fail to bring results. Basket followed basket, the visitors shooting from all angles with the same ease and assurance. Soon the Textile team was trailing by 10 points. At the end of

The Wild Orgy
of the first half, the Lowell team was on the short end of the 20 to 4 score.

As the second half got under way, Textile started playing the brand of basketball that it is capable of purveying. The Friars were forced to fight hard to keep in step with the flashy work of the locals. While Textile scored 19 points in this half, this was not good enough to better the visiting team's point total for the same period. Twenty-two points came the visiting club's way in the last 20 minutes of play.

John Baranowski, playing a guard position, was high scorer for Textile. He sunk from the floor, all of them hard shots and also one from the foul line for a total of seven points. Capt. Jerry Savard was far from his usual form. Though the Lowell leader tallied twice from the floor and as many times from the foul line, he failed to reveal the spectacular work which he has developed in all of Textile's games this season. After missing three or four heartbreakers at the backboard, Savard appeared to have lost his knack at passing and shooting. He made only a few tries for the basket. Walter Jarek, Mike Koskoska and Joe Sullivan looked quite impressive for Lowell in the second half.

Three Bulls-Eyes

Sam Shapiro, Al Bracken and Jack McCormack were all tied for high scoring honors for the Friars. All three contributed to the team's total. Eddie Reilly, George Tibbetts and Capt. Bill Gainor were also conspicuous in the flashy exhibition of basketball that brought victory to Providence.

Half a Dozen Points

The score: PROVIDENCE COLLEGE.

|               | G         | F        | Pts.      |
|---------------|-----------|----------|-----------|
| Shapiro, rf   | 3         | 0        | 6         |
| Welch, rf     | 2         | 0        | 4         |
| Perrin, rf    | 0         | 0        | 0         |
| Bracken, lf   | 2         | 2        | 6         |
| McCormack, lf | 3         | 0        | 6         |
| Roberge, c    | 2         | 0        | 4         |
| Hyte, c       | 1         | 0        | 2         |
| Greavey, c    | 0         | 1        | 1         |
| Reilly, rg    | 2         | 0        | 4         |
| Cody, rg      | 0         | 0        | 0         |
| Tibbetts, rg  | 2         | 0        | 4         |
| Gainor, lg    | 0         | 2        | 2         |
| Dromgoole, lg | 1         | 1        | 3         |
| Totals | 18 | 6 | 42 |

LOWELL TEXTILE.

|                |          |          |           |
|----------------|----------|----------|-----------|
| Baranowski, lg | 3        | 1        | 7         |
| Jarek, rg      | 2        | 1        | 5         |
| Moran, rg      | 0        | 0        | 0         |
| Morse, rg      | 0        | 0        | 0         |
| Savard, c      | 2        | 2        | 6         |
| Sullivan, lf   | 0        | 1        | 1         |
| Mamber, lf     | 1        | 0        | 2         |
| Kokoska, rf    | 1        | 0        | 2         |
| Totals  | 9 | 5 | 23 |

Referee: George Clarke, Quincy.
Umpire: James Parker, Everett.
Time: Two 20-minute halves.

OLIVER
ROBERGE,
SUB-CENTER

FRIARS TRIM LOWELL 42-23

Dominicans Show Brilliant Game to Top Lowell Textile

Roberge Stars in First Starting Assignment at Centre for Winners.

(Special to the Providence Journal)
 Lowell, Mass., March 3.—Before a record crowd the Providence College Varsity basketball team ran wild here tonight to score their 18th victory of the season by defeating Lowell Textile 42 to 23. The Friars led all the way and gave a smart exhibition of pass work and so effective was the Friar defence that only one field goal, a shot from under the hoop by Savard, was scored by the local cagers during the entire first half. The Dominicans were at their best in this stanza and completely monopolized the play with all the players breaking through for scores. The Rhode Islanders left the court at the half time with a 20 to 4 lead.

At the start of the second half Coach McClellan sent in his strong reserve forces into action, and even this contingent proved capable of holding the locals well in check, outscoring the Lowell men 17 to 23.

In the waning moments of the game the first string array was rushed back into action and as a result the score was rolled over the 40 mark.

Ollie Roberge, rangy Sophomore, starting his first college game, turned in a fine exhibition at centre. He took the place of Eddie Koslowski, veteran performer who sustained an ankle sprain in the Mass. State game and as a result shattered his record of having started 41 successive games for the Friars. With the entire squad drawing action for Providence the scoring honors were well distributed. Bracken, McCormac and Shapiro lead the offence with six points each, while Baronowski, hard working Lowell guard, took the individual honors with seven points.

The summary:

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (42) |    |    |    | LOWELL TEXTILE (23) |    |    |    |
|-------------------------|----|----|----|---------------------|----|----|----|
|                         | G. | F. | P. |                     | G. | F. | P. |
| Bracken, lf...          | 2  | 2  | 0  | Morse, lg...        | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| McCormac, lf...         | 3  | 0  | 0  | Sullivan, lf...     | 0  | 1  | 1  |
| Shapiro, rf...          | 3  | 0  | 0  | Mamber, lf...       | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Welch, rf...            | 1  | 0  | 0  | Kokoska, rf...      | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Perrin, rf...           | 0  | 0  | 0  | Savard, c...        | 2  | 2  | 6  |
| Roberge, c...           | 2  | 0  | 4  | Ajrek, lf...        | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| D'Goole, c...           | 2  | 1  | 5  | Moran, lg...        | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Reavey, c...            | 0  | 1  | 1  | Baronowski, rg      | 3  | 1  | 7  |
| Gainor, lg...           | 0  | 2  | 2  |                     |    |    |    |
| Hyte, lg...             | 1  | 0  | 2  |                     |    |    |    |
| Tebbitts, lg...         | 2  | 0  | 4  |                     |    |    |    |
| Reilly, rg...           | 2  | 0  | 4  |                     |    |    |    |
| Cody, rg...             | 0  | 0  | 0  |                     |    |    |    |

Totals .... 18 6 42 Totals .... 9 5 23
 Referee—G. W. Clarke. Time—20-minute periods. Umpire—J. Parkers.

Game played:

March 4, 1932

Game played: March 5, 1932

FRIAR JAYVEES WIN OVER BECKER FIVE

(Special to the Providence Journal)

Worcester, Mass., March 5.—The Providence College Junior Varsity basketball team proved too strong for the Becker College quintet here tonight and as a result scored a 36 to 24 win for its fifth triumph of the season. The Friars led throughout the tilt.

Play was fairly close in the first half until the visitors' offence started to function, after which the score was rolled up to 18 to 9 at halftime. In the latter half the Friars continued their superior play with Capt. Tebbetts leading the attack which piled up a lead too long for the locals to overcome.

| PROVIDENCECOLLEGE (36) |    |       | BECKERCOLLEGE (24) |                |         |
|----------------------------|----|-------|------------------------|----------------|---------|
|                            | G. | F. P. |                        | G.             | F. P.   |
| Morrison, lf.              | 2  | 0     | 4                      | Rogers, lf.    | 6 3 15  |
| Powers, lf.                | 3  | 0     | 6                      | Jragen, rf.    | 2 0 4   |
| Wright, rf.                | 1  | 0     | 2                      | Wright, c.     | 0 1 1   |
| Madden, rf.                | 1  | 0     | 2                      | Glikowski, lg. | 0 0 0   |
| Davis, c.                  | 2  | 1     | 5                      | Hayden, lg.    | 0 0 0   |
| Kutneski, c.               | 1  | 0     | 2                      | Ellswrth, rg.  | 2 0 4   |
| Reavey, lg.                | 1  | 0     | 2                      |                |         |
| Tebbetts, rg.              | 3  | 1     | 7                      |                |         |
| Felt, rg.                  | 3  | 0     | 6                      |                |         |
| Total                      | 17 | 2     | 36                     | Total          | 10 4 24 |

Referee—Down. Time—Four 10-minute periods.

BROWN AND FRIAR QUINTETS TO PLAY

Dominican Varsity Favored to Down Bruins Tomorrow on Latter's Floor.

The basketball teams of Brown and Providence College, Varsity and Freshman, will clash at Brown gymnasium tomorrow night in their annual contests.

The games will mark the close of the season for the four teams concerned, with the Friars a one-sided favorite to run away with the victory in the feature contest. Coach Al McClellan's team has won 18 games, while the Bruins have not shown anything resembling the form that would enable them to chalk up a victory over the Dominicans.

FRESHMEN NEARER AN EVEN MATCH

The Freshman game should be more of an even battle, for Brown has a creditable first-year club, while Providence has an aspiring squad of yearling players.

Providence probably will have Dick Brachen, a converted guard, and Sam Shapiro at the forward berths tomorrow night, with big Ed Koslowski at centre and Capt. Chick Gainor and Ed Reilly at guard. Reilly gained a place on the first string quintet when Brachen was moved up to forward to take advantage of his accurate shooting.

If the Bruin forwards, Captain Caulkins and Hank Malkowski, can get their eye on the basket, the Brown team will be more of a threat than its record indicates. The Brunonians missed something more than a dozen shots from under the basket before caging the ball in the Rhode Island game last week, and twice made good rallies to cut down the Rams' margin.

Tom Sawyer probably will play centre for Brown, with Ed Phillips and Oscar Hammer at guard.

The Brown Freshmen, who have had a good season, will use Capt. Roy Smith at centre with Carl Floren and probably Hal Tucker at the forward berths. Coach Wally Snell probably will start Roger Offen and George Morin at guard.

For the Providence yearlings, Ed Stanisewski and Paul Power will play forward, with Bill Kutniewski at centre and John Madden and Al Feit at the guard berths.

Bruins and Friars End

Seasons Tonight

FRIARS STARTING FOUR SENIORS, BEARS OPEN WITH SOPHOMORES

Dominicans Boast Far Better Record; Freshmen Also Playing

BY ROBERT M. HOWARD

Four Seniors playing their last game of college basketball will be in the starting lineup for Providence College tonight when the Friars oppose Brown in their annual game at Brown Gymnasium, while Coach Arthur Kahler, director of the Bruins, will rely on a quartet of Sophomores to work with Captain Jack Caulkins.

The Freshman teams of the two colleges will clash in the preliminary game starting at 7:30 o'clock, with the main contest getting under way about 8:30.

KOSLOWSKI ONLY JUNIOR ON FRIARS

Ed Koslowski, high-scoring centre, is the only member of the starting quintet named by Coach Al McClellan who will not complete his court career for the Dominicans tonight. George Cody of Woonsocket, a reserve for three seasons, will pair with Captain Chick Gaiher at the guard positions. The Friar forwards will be Jim Welch of Woonsocket and John McCormac of Webster.

Besides Caulkins, the only man to hold a regular position on the Brown team for the entire year, the Bruin lineup will include Hank Malkowski at forward, Dick Morse at centre and Ed Phillips and Oscar Hammer at guard.

The Friars will be a one-sided favorite to win tonight, with Brown possessing only whatever advantage goes with being the home team.

Eighteen victories in 23 games is the record of the Providence Varsity this year, with Dartmouth the only New England quintet to win over the Friars. The other defeats were administered by New York city clubs, two being sustained at the hands of St. John's College and one each from City College of New York and the Brooklyn Columbus Club.

The record of this year's is almost as good as that of the 1928 team, which finished the season with 18 triumphs and only three defeats.

BRACHEN LEADING PROVIDENCE IN SCORING

The Friars have scored 824 points to 624 by their opponents, and Dick Brachen, the tall guard and forward who handles the ball on pivot plays, leading with a total of 250 points. Koslowski ranks second in the scoring with 170 points, and Sam Shapiro, first-year forward, is third with a total of 151 points. Of the three, however, only Koslowski will start tonight, Brachen and Shapiro giving way to the seniors on the squad.

Brachen started the season at guard, but has played at forward for the last five games, and has climbed steadily in the scoring. Brachen, Shapiro and Ed Reilly, who took over Brachen's guard berth, will be ready for reserve duty tonight.

Tom Sawyer, centre, and Cy Manteil, who has played three positions this season, will be on the Brown bench tonight, with sophomores taking their places. With Caulkins, they make up the senior delegation on the Bruin team this winter.

John Leahy, six-foot-six-inch centre, will return to duty with the Providence Freshmen tonight, allowing Bill Kutniewski to resume his guard berth, and he will pair off with Al Feit. Ed Stanisewski and Capt. John Madden will be in the forward positions.

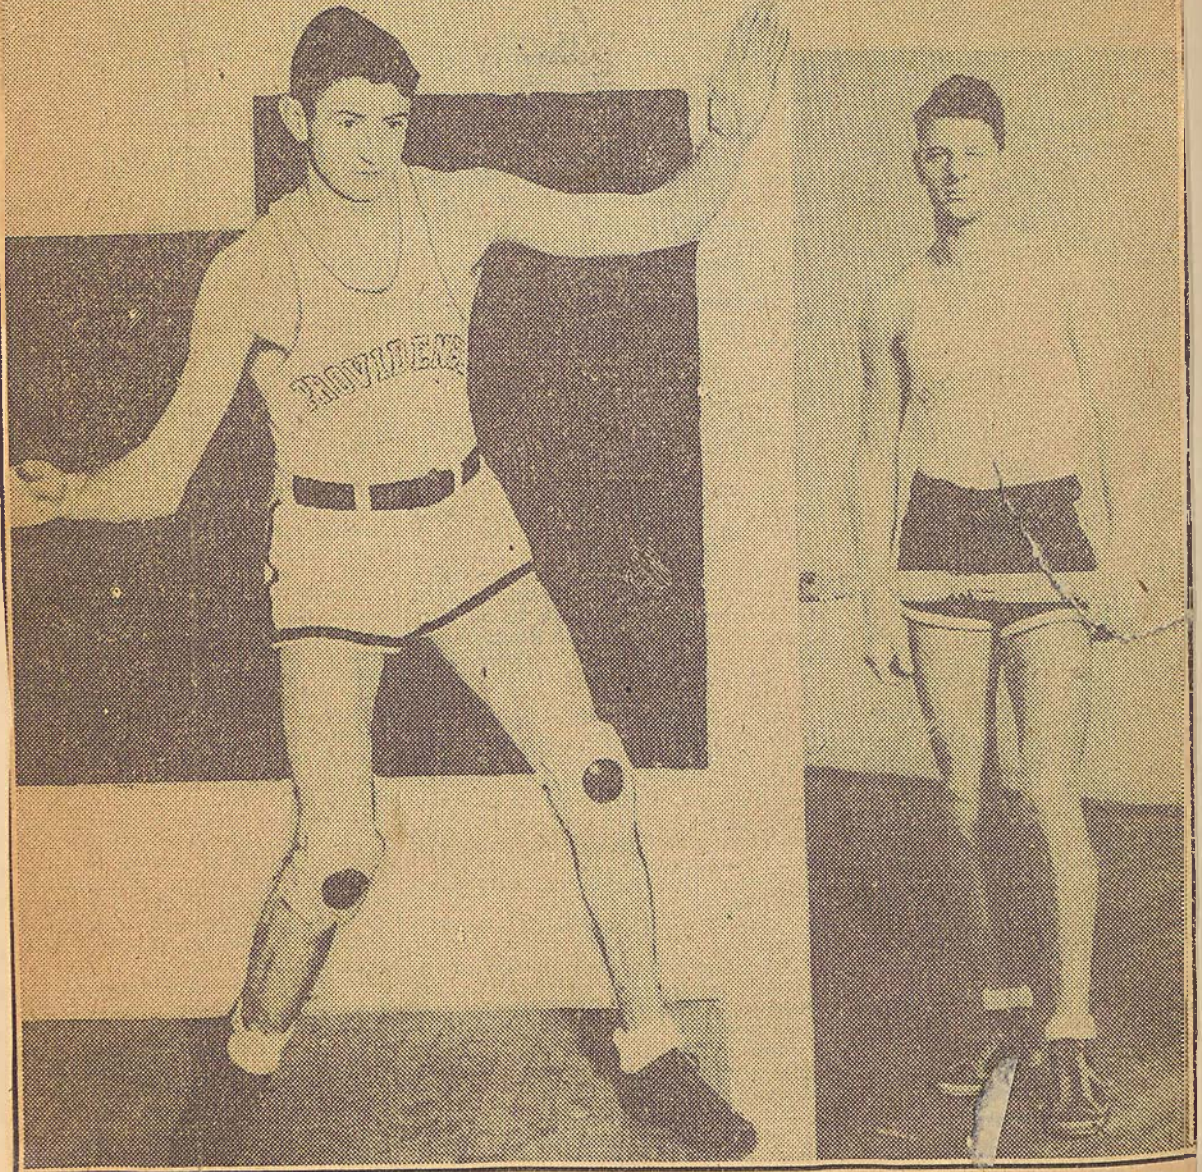

The Brown Freshmen will have Carl Floren and Hal Tucker at forward, Capt. Roy Smith at centre and Roger Offen and George Morin at guard.

LINEUPS AT BROWN GYMNASIUM

| BROWN                    | PROV. COLLEGE   |
|--------------------------|-----------------|
| Caulkins, r. f. . . . .  | r. f., Welch    |
| Malkowski, l. f. . . . . | l. f., McCormac |
| Morse, c. . . . .        | c., Koslowski   |
| Phillips, r. g. . . . .  | r. g., Cody     |
| Hammer, l. g. . . . .    | l. g., Gaiher   |

Freshman game at 7:30 o'clock.

OPPONENTS TONIGHT

Tom Sawyer, right, will be closing his basketball career at Brown when he appears against Providence College tonight. Chick Gainor, captain and guard, will complete his term with the Friars.

FRIAR FIVE TRIMS BROWN

51-34 IN SEASON'S

LAST GAME

Providence College Holds Commanding Lead All Way

Bruins Put Up Best Fight of Season.—Caulkins, Malkowski Leading Scorers.

Providence College and Brown closed their basketball season with their annual game at the Bruin gymnasium on Elmgrove avenue last night with the Dominicans scoring a 51 to 34 victory. In the Freshman game the Providence College yearlings staged a last quarter rally to beat the Brown first year five 31 to 22.

In the "Varsity game the Providence quintet held a commanding lead all the way with the exception of the first seven minutes of play. The score at half time was 24 to 10 in the favor of the Friars.

The Brown five played it best basketball of the year. Twice in the second half the Bruins went on scoring sprees only to be stopped by the injection of fresh men in the Providence College lineup.

Dominican Reserves Start

The Dominicans started a reserve team but after the Bruins had jumped out front 5 to 2 and showed promise of running up a big lead, Coach Al McClellan rushed his first club of Shapiro, Brachen, Koslowski, Reilly and HYTE into the game. This quintet soon tied the score and began to pile up a margin which Providence College held to the end.

Brachen, star right forward of Providence College, was the high individual scorer of the game with six field goals and a foul shot for a total of 13 points. Jack Caulkins and "Hank" Malkowski, who led the Brown attack, tied for the runner-up honors, each netting 12 points.

In all Coach McClellan used three teams against Brown. At the start of the second half the Dominican third club was on the floor: They gave way to the regulars after seven minutes of play and after the Bruins had started a scoring drive.

Brown was very weak in caging the ball inside the foul lines. Numerous times the Bears passed the ball through the Friars' defence only to shoot wide of the hoop.

When the Dominican regulars were in the game they completely featured the play. The Bears tallied then only at brief intervals.

Game played:

March 12, 1932

Prov. Journal

Koslowski Overcomes Lead

After the Friar first team had taken the floor for the first time in the opening period Koslowski overcame the three point lead of the Bears by sinking a foul shot and a field goal. Shapiro scored a basket from the side and Morse duplicated a few seconds later for Brown. Then Shapiro, Hyte and Brachen ran the score up to 16 points for Providence College before the Bears tallied again.

Malkowski broke up the Providence College rally on a field goal and tallied the last point of the first half on Brown on a foul. Reilly and Brachen each scored two field goals for Providence before the period ended.

When the Black and White first team went into the game in the second half the Bears were only behind 32 to 23. Caulkins, Malkowski and Tom Sawyer, had caged the points for Brown which had cut down the lead held by Providence at the half.

Oscar Hammer, stellar Brown guard left the game on fouls with eight minutes left to play and Providence leading 37 to 25. The second Brown rally was uncorked shortly afterwards, seven points being registered before the Friars could tighten up their defence.

Brown Defence Falls

In the last four minutes of play the Bears' defence fell to pieces. With the count 40 to 31, Reilly and Hyte caged the ball from inside of the foul line. Caulkins scored on a field goal and Malkowski on a foul for the last Brown points. Hyte, Brachen, Koslowski and Brachen all tallied in a row for Providence while Brown was being held scoreless.

The Freshman game was keenly contested. At the end of the first half the Providence yearlings led 17 to 16 but at the end of the third quarter the score was deadlocked at 19 to 19. Leahy, tall and rugged centre for the Dominican first year team was the leader in the last period rally scoring three field goals.

The summaries:

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE (51) |    |    |    | BROWN (34)    |    |    |    |
|-------------------------|----|----|----|---------------|----|----|----|
|                         | G. | F. | P. |               | G. | F. | P. |
| McCormac, lf.           | 1  | 0  | 2  | Caulkins, lf. | 6  | 0  | 12 |
| Shapiro, lf.            | 2  | 1  | 5  | Malkowski, rf | 5  | 2  | 12 |
| Perrin, lf.             | 0  | 0  | 0  | Morse, c.     | 1  | 1  | 3  |
| Welch, rf.              | 0  | 0  | 0  | Sawyer, c.    | 1  | 1  | 3  |
| Brachen, rf.            | 6  | 1  | 13 | Phillips, lg. | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Dromgoole, c.           | 0  | 0  | 0  | Mantell, lg.  | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Koslowski, c.           | 3  | 2  | 8  | Hammer, rg.   | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Roberge, c.             | 1  | 0  | 2  | Tillghast, rg | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Cody, lg.               | 1  | 2  | 4  |               |    |    |    |
| Reilly, lg.             | 3  | 3  | 9  |               |    |    |    |
| Gainor, rg.             | 0  | 0  | 0  |               |    |    |    |
| Hyte, rg.               | 3  | 0  | 6  |               |    |    |    |
| Reavey, rg.             | 1  | 0  | 2  |               |    |    |    |
| Total                   | 21 | 7  | 51 | Total         | 15 | 4  | 34 |

Referees—McGuinness and Parker.

| PROVIDENCE COLLEGE '35 (31) |    |    |    | BROWN '35 (22) |    |    |    |
|-----------------------------|----|----|----|----------------|----|----|----|
|                             | G. | F. | P. |                | G. | F. | P. |
| Stanisewski, lf             | 1  | 2  | 4  | Floren, lf.    | 3  | 1  | 7  |
| Fairbrother, lf             | 0  | 0  | 0  | Marshall, rf.  | 0  | 2  | 2  |
| Madden, rf.                 | 4  | 2  | 10 | Tucker, rf.    | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Healey, rf.                 | 0  | 0  | 0  | Smith, c.      | 2  | 1  | 5  |
| Leahy, c.                   | 6  | 0  | 12 | Sandperil, lg  | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Skidd, c.                   | 0  | 0  | 0  | Offin, lg.     | 1  | 0  | 2  |
| Kurniewski, lg              | 1  | 0  | 2  | Jose, lg.      | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Powers, lg.                 | 0  | 1  | 1  | Morin, rg.     | 0  | 2  | 2  |
| Smith, lg.                  | 0  | 0  | 0  | Armstrong, rg  | 0  | 0  | 0  |
| Bostick, lg.                | 0  | 0  | 0  |                |    |    |    |
| Felt, rg.                   | 1  | 0  | 2  |                |    |    |    |
| Total                       | 13 | 5  | 31 | Total          | 8  | 6  | 22 |

Referee—Haughey. Time—4 10-minute periods.

DOMINICANS SCORE OVER BROWN FIVES

Varsity Wins 51-34 After Regulars Overcome Early Brown
Lead; Freshmen Win 31-22.

Providence College twice unleashed the full strength of its power on the basketball court to conquer Brown 51-34 in their annual game at Brown gymnasium last night. Coach Al McClellan worked his best team for most of the first half and for 10 minutes of the second period, keeping his regulars in the game after Brown had worked up from 13-30 to 23-32.

The Providence College Freshmen made the evening a complete success for supporters of the Friars, by boosting their total of points in the last quarter to defeat the Brown yearlings, 31-22.

FRIARS WIN 19 GAMES

IN SCHEDULE OF 24

Last night's games were the last of the season for all of the teams. The Providence College Varsity closed its season with a record of 19 victories and five defeats, only one at the hands of a New England team, and the Freshman quintet won seven of its eight contests.

Brown succeeded in winning but two Varsity games, the season's record being the poorest in years, while the Bruin Freshmen won 10 games and lost four.

Providence started with Francis Dromgoole at centre, three seniors, who have been doing reserve duty, and Capt. Chick Gainer. It was only Brown's inaccuracy in shooting, prevalent throughout the game, and mistakes in handling the ball that kept the Bruins from going farther ahead than the 5-2 lead which they established in the first eight minutes of play.

When the Friar regulars went in Brown was left behind, and the same was true again in the second half, after the Bruins had made a good comeback. The Dominican first-stringers were faster, more accurate in their shooting and smarter in handling the ball and in executing their plays.

BROWN FORWARDS TIED IN SCORING

The Brown team played good basketball in spurts, and had Capt. Jack Caulkins and Hank Malkowski had three others as good as themselves, they would have made an interesting evening for Coach McClellan's best quintet. Malkowski played his best game of the year, and with Caulkins led the team in scoring, each getting 12 points.

Dick Brachen, clever Friar forward, who was especially adept at taking rebounds off the board and converting them into goals, was out ahead of Caulkins and Malkowski, with the remainder of the Providence scoring well distributed among the other members of the team.

FRIAR FRESHMEN

PILE UP LATE MARGIN

The two Freshman teams played on almost even terms for three periods of their preliminary contest. Providence led 7-6 at the end of the first quarter and 17-16 at the close of the first half. A goal by Nat Sandperl tied the count at 19-19 near the close of the third period, but Johnny Madden gave his team a two-point lead with a long shot as the quarter ended.

The Bruins were unable to continue the pace during the final quarter, being outscored 10 points to 2 on goals by Leahy, Power, Feit and Stanisewski. Bill Kutniewski starred for the Friars until he went out on personal fouls in the third period.

Friar Hoop Captain

Allan G. Bracken of Portchester, N. Y., was unanimously elected captain of the Providence College basketball team for next season at a meeting of the 11 lettermen yesterday. Bracken was the leading scorer on the Friar team during the past campaign, making 225 points.

BRACKEN TO LEAD DOMINICAN FIVE

Guard Led Team in Scoring
Last Season.—Only Junior Next Season.

Allen G. Bracken of Portchester, N. Y., was unanimously elected captain of the Providence College basketball team for next season at a meeting of the lettermen yesterday afternoon. Bracken, who is a Sophomore and a guard played stellar basketball for the Friars during the past campaign, leading the team in scoring with 225 points. The election of Bracken to the captaincy was popularly received by the Friar students as he is one of the most active members of his class.

When Bracken assumes his captaincy next season, it will mark the second time in two years that the Friar hoopsters will be led by a Junior. During the past season, William C. "Chick" Gainor, a Junior, captained the team. Incidentally, Gainor will not be eligible for the team next season as he already has played four years of Varsity basketball, although he will be in college.

Eleven players were awarded letters yesterday, comprising the largest number to receive insignia in the history of basketball at Providence College.

Players awarded Varsity insignia, in addition to Captain-elect Bracken, were Captain William C. Gainor of Troy, N. Y.; Edward Koslowski and Edward Reilly, both of Bridgeport; George Cody of Woonsocket; James E. Welch of Hartford, Conn.; John E. McCormac of Webster, Mass.; Francis J. Dromgoole of this city; Samuel Shapiro of Lynn, Mass.; William Hye of Roxbury, Mass.; Oliver Roberge of Bristol, Conn., and Student Managers Thomas J. O'Brien of New Haven, Conn., and John J. Glennon of New Bedford, Mass.

Bracken's team next season should have a successful campaign as only three players on the Varsity besides Gainor will be lost. They are James Welch, John McCormac and George Cody. The Varsity will be augmented by star members of this year's Freshman quintet, which lost only one game in eight played.

Providence College Varsity Hoop Squad

The Friars finished its season with a record of 19 wins in 24 starts and was the outstanding college team in New England. Front row, left to right, Assistant Manager John J. Glennon, Edward Koslowski, Capt. William C. Gainor, Allan Bracken, Coach Albert McClellan; second row, Francis Dromgoole, Oliver Roberge, Samuel Shapfro, George Cody; third row, Edward Reilly, Frank Reavey, William Hyte; fourth row, George R. Tebbetts, Oscar J. Perrin; back row, James E. Welch, Manager Thomas, J. O'Brien, John E. McCormac.

Friar Hoop Teams Achieve Enviably Record for Season

'Varsity Claims N. E. College
Title; Jayvees, Yearlings Lose
but One Game Each.

Another group of Providence College basketball players has put away uniforms for the season satisfied that a good job was done by all. The Friars have been unusually successful on the court for the past five years and the 1931-32 aggregations gathered their share of the spoils of war. For the first time in the history of the college, three basketball teams—Freshman, Junior 'Varsity and 'Varsity—were fielded and among them only seven games were lost in 38 played. The 'Varsity lost five out of 24; the Junior 'Varsity one out of six and the Freshman one out of eight. Both teams that defeated the Freshmen and Jayvees were also defeated by the Friars in return engagements, thus giving these two Dominican quintets comparatively spotless records.

The Friar 'Varsity is worthy of high ranking among the college teams of the East, despite the fact that its colors were lowered five times. The team played exceptionally good basketball in the majority of its games and the only team which showed any real degree of superiority over the locals was that crack C. C. N. Y. five which some of the experts rated as the best college quintet ever assembled. The Lavender five was the best in the East and awarding it the mythical national championship would not be conceding it too much in the estimation of the writer. Fans who saw the game between the Friars and the Lavender at the Auditorium were treated to some of the best basketball ever staged in this city by college players.

Twice Met Defeat
St. John's of Brooklyn was the only team twice to down the Dominicans, but both times its margin of victory was slim. Dartmouth handed the locals a defeat in the opening game of the season at Hanover, while the other setback was received from the Columbus Club five of Brooklyn, a team composed of ex-college stars.

Graduate Manager John E. Farrell claims the New England college championship for the Friars. Farrell bases his claim on victories scored over Yale, Harvard, New Hampshire, Springfield and England. The only setback received in New England games was the one from Dartmouth.

For the first time college basketball games at the Auditorium were staged by the Friars and the venture proved fairly successful. The first two games played at the arena produced good basketball and attracted large gatherings. The third contest with the Holy Cross Independents also brought out some good basketball, but the patronage at this game was far below that of the first two. It is likely that college basketball games at the Auditorium will become an annual fixture.

The Friars turned out some star individual performers. The outstanding newcomer was Sam Shapiro, ex-Lynn high star. Shapiro quickly made an impression with Friar fans by his stellar play in the early season games and he continued his star performances throughout the campaign. Capt.-elect Dick Bracken also showed to advantage, as did Ed Koslowski, the big centre. Bill Hyde, a guard, gave indications that he would prove a valuable member of future 'Varsity quintets.

Prospects of the Friars next season are exceptionally bright as only four players will be lost. They are James Welch, Chick Gainer, John McCormack and George Cody. Of this quartet Gainer was the only regular, the other three holding down reserve roles. The 'Varsity will be strengthened next season with players from the star Freshman and Jayvee teams. Capable material on these two teams is plentiful.

Following are the records of the three teams:

| 'VARSITY        |    |
|-----------------|----|
| Providence..... | 28 |
| Providence..... | 62 |
| Providence..... | 32 |
| Providence..... | 28 |
| Providence..... | 25 |
| Providence..... | 38 |
| Providence..... | 35 |
| Providence..... | 37 |
| Providence..... | 34 |
| Providence..... | 26 |
| Providence..... | 20 |
| Providence..... | 37 |
| Providence..... | 23 |
| Providence..... | 40 |
| Providence..... | 52 |
| Providence..... | 23 |
| Providence..... | 20 |
| Providence..... | 35 |
| Providence..... | 54 |
| Providence..... | 51 |
| Providence..... | 36 |
| Providence..... | 42 |
| Providence..... | 51 |
| Providence..... | 19 |
| Providence..... | 29 |
| Providence..... | 33 |
| Providence..... | 35 |
| Providence..... | 37 |
| Providence..... | 41 |
| Providence..... | 36 |
| Providence..... | 5  |
| Providence..... | 28 |
| Providence..... | 36 |
| Providence..... | 24 |
| Providence..... | 26 |
| Providence..... | 24 |
| Providence..... | 1  |
| Providence..... | 20 |
| Providence..... | 17 |
| Providence..... | 21 |
| Providence..... | 32 |
| Providence..... | 29 |
| Providence..... | 29 |
| Providence..... | 32 |
| Providence..... | 31 |
| Providence..... | 7  |
| Providence..... | 22 |
| Providence..... | 1  |

Rymph Selected for Center Post on All-N. E. Five

N. U. Captain Edges Koslowski of Providence for First Team Berth

All Newcomers

Not One Player Selected Last Year Repeats; Brachen Moves
Up; Conroy His Guard Mate

ALL N. E. SELECTIONS

FIRST TEAM

Cox, R.I., forward
Caulkins, Br'n, forw'd
Rymph, N.U., center
Conroy, N.H., guard
Brachen, Prov., guard

SECOND TEAM

Crutch, Spring., forw'd
Robison, Tufts, forward
Koslowski, Prov., center
Markoski, W'ns, guard
Asp, Wor. Tech., guard

By Edward Bulger

The 1931-32 college basketball season was productive of few outstanding center players. In fact it is hard to recall when there has been such a scarcity of them. As a result the letters received from the coaches the past few weeks have brought about a merry race between Captain LeRoy Rymph of Northeastern and Edward Koslowski for leading honors on the All-New England quintet selected each year for the Transcript. The final vote turned the tide in favor of the Husky leader, and so he winds up three seasons of playing, two as captain of the N. U. quintet, as the outstanding pivot man of the section.

Boston Transcript

Many changes are noted in the 1931 and 1932 lists. Of the 1930-31 first team, Arthur Cochran of Tufts, who had been an all-star forward the past two seasons, and Walter Sheehan, Williams stellar guard and captain-elect, both failed to place, mishaps playing a part on both occasions. The misfortune that has followed the ex-Tufts captain is too well known to repeat, while Sheehan was handicapped by a bad knee. A knee injury also was responsible for Conrad Good, Williams captain of the past season, failing to keep his place even on the second team, while Robert Cragan, who shone so brilliantly as a sophomore guard last winter, fell down in studies during the middle of the past season.

Allen Bracken, whose appearance at Providence a year ago brought so much favorable comment, is the lone remnant of the first two teams of a year ago. The Dominican guard has stepped up from the second to the first aggregation where he is pairing with Captain John Conroy of the University of New Hampshire. The forwards on the first team are Edward Cox of Rhode Island State and Captain Jack Caulkins of Brown. Thus, for the second successive year Brown's leader is on the all-star quintet, as a year ago Paul Snyder was selected.

An All-Around Quintet

Rymph, Cox, Caulkins, Bracken and Conroy—what an aggregation that would be if placed together on the floor! Every one of them is an offensive threat; in fact the two guards gained much prominence through their scoring ability. At the same time they have done some excellent work on the defense. The same also is true of the other players. With the exception of Cox, all are big boys. At that the R. I. State player has not been forced to grant anything to his opponents, for he has wrought considerable damage while his team was winning thirteen games and losing three. Many times the Kingston quintet put on a last-half rally that just submerged the opposition, with Cox being a leader in the uprising. In the Northeastern game at Kingston, with the Huskies enjoying a nine-point lead with eight minutes remaining, Cox personally conducted the home team to a victory by scoring thirteen points before the final whistle. The other big moment of the R. I. season was the Brown game. The Bruins led at the end of the first half, 15-12, yet lost 54-27. won only two games should have a representative on the all-star team, but there is no doubt that Caulkins deserves the rating. The past two seasons his value to the Brown quintet has been overshadowed by the presence of Snyder. This year the Bruin material was below normal, yet the Brown captain carried on magnificently. An excellent ballhandler and team worker, he has been the center of Brown's valiant efforts to stem the tide of superior opposition. The victories that were scored were due principally to his work, especially as a scorer.

Some might question Rymph's right to be placed above Koslowski, but those who have watched the Northeastern captain during his career are well aware of the continual progress he has made. The backbone of the Huskies, particularly on the defense, he has been a great leader both in action and conduct. Though a guard when he first reported, Rymph has proved most capable at the pivot position, using excellent judgment in jumping and placing the tap-off. In addition he has the stamina to go through forty minutes of play. It must be remembered, too, that he was not surrounded with such stellar players as represent Providence. If he had been, it is hard to tell just how brilliant he might have been.

Nine Colleges Included

The voting for the forward and center positions were close, but such was not true of the guards. Brachen and Conroy were outstanding nominees, with the latter gaining more votes than any other member of the first team. A three-year regular, during which time his play has been high grade, this is the first time he has broken into the all-star group. He was the principal cog in the Wildcat machine during the early season, when it scored eight straight victories, and he would make an ideal captain for the all-star quintet. As has been said before, Brachen earned a second team guard position a year ago and is likely to continue his fine work until his college career closes. He is one of the finest all-around players in New England. The all-stars are a versatile group. Conroy played center last year, Rymph could be used at guard, and Brachen played forward late in the season when Coach Al McClellan sought to add a greater scoring punch up front.

Others receiving votes from the coaches were:

FORWARDS

Arthur Cochran, Tufts; Samuel Shapiro, Providence; William Fowle, Williams; Eugene O'Brien, M. I. T.; John Smith, Worcester Tech; Joseph Lolk, Mass. State; Raymond Ashdown, Middlebury; Louis Bush, Mass. State; Howard Myers, Springfield; Conrad Goode, Williams; Raymond Coughlan, Northeastern; Allan Brachen, Providence; Fred Feustel, M. I. T.; Jack Fine, Tufts.

CENTERS

George Seewagen, Springfield; Everett Fletcher, Mass. State; Reginald Horseman, R. I. State; Jerry Savard, Lowell Textile; Richard Sweet, Middlebury.

GUARDS

Walter Sheehan, Williams; William Fowle, Williams; Winfield Huppuch, Harvard; Richard Cochran, Tufts; John Foley, Mass. State; Harold Sipsev, Middlebury; Herbert Semino, Boston University; Arthur Cochran, Tufts; William Cullen, Worcester Tech; Jack Fine, Tufts; Willard Quirk, Springfield.

---

Wick No. 101

PATENTED

---

