By the

SENIOR CLASS

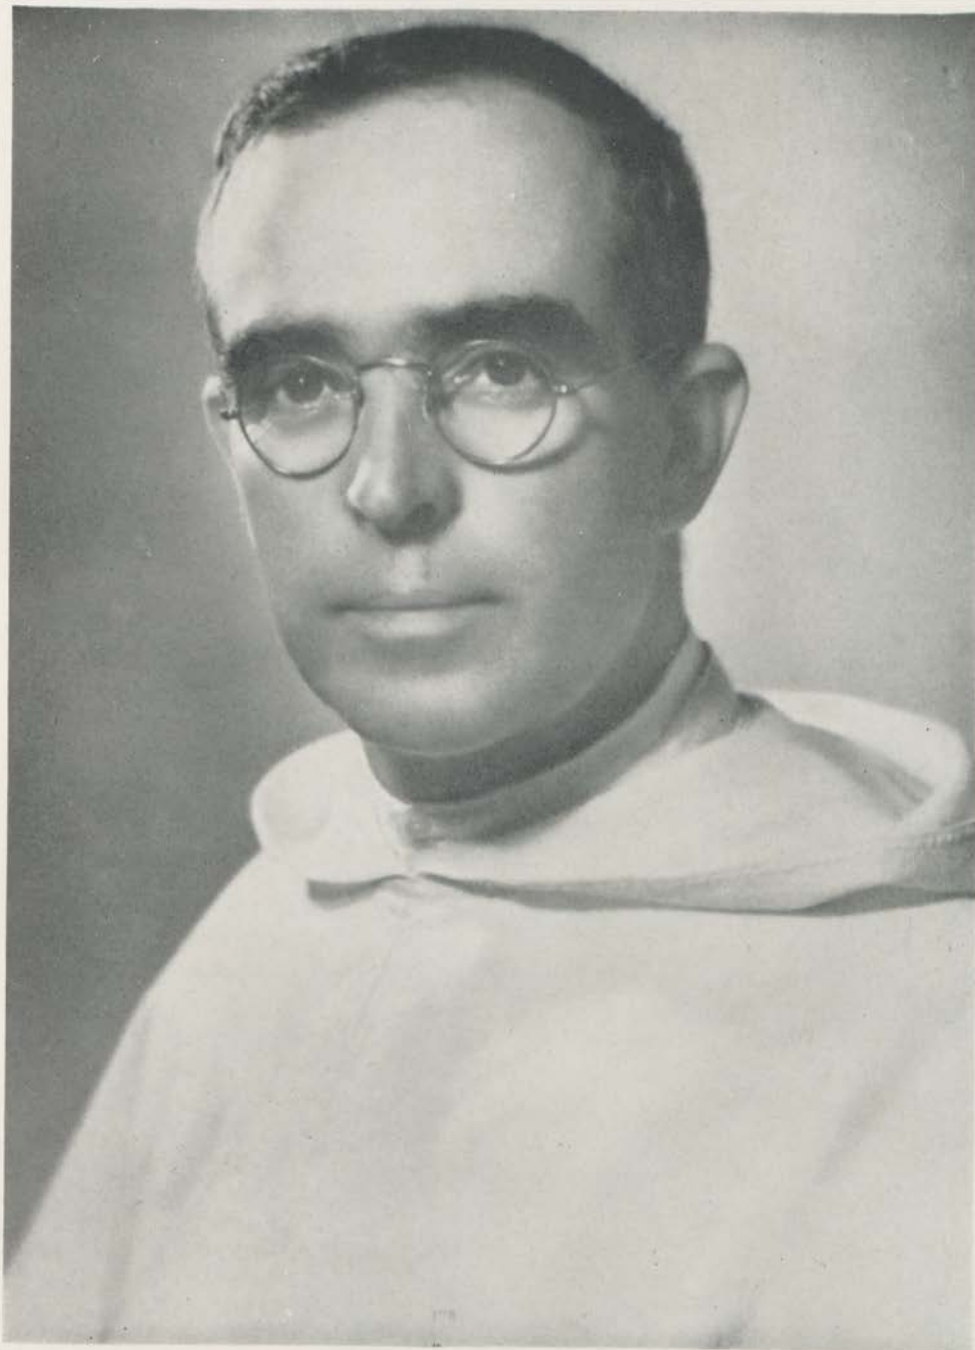

Providence College

Providence, Rhode Island

Dedication . . .

*To the Most Reverend Emmanuel Suarez, O.P., newly elected Master General of the Order of Preachers, tireless teacher of youth, our living
Dominican exemplar, with profound respect, we humbly dedicate this book---*

The Senior Class

THE MOST REVEREND EMMANUEL SUAREZ, O.P., J.C.D., S.T.M.
Eightieth Master General

Foreword . . .

*Thy gates once entered
I loved thy beauty;
Glory was thine,
Faults thou hadst none;
Called from thy bosom
I returned — to complete
That which had been begun.*

Boasting of one of the largest memberships of any sectional club, the Blackstone Valley Club is made up of those students from the twin cities of Pawtucket and Central Falls, and the twin towns of Cumberland and Lincoln. Its spirit and energy have been manifested in all activities both on and off the campus.

The club was re-organized in the fall of 1946 to foster a spirit of good fellowship among the club members and to promote and enhance the social life of the group as a whole. The major social event on the club's calendar is the annual banquet and dance.

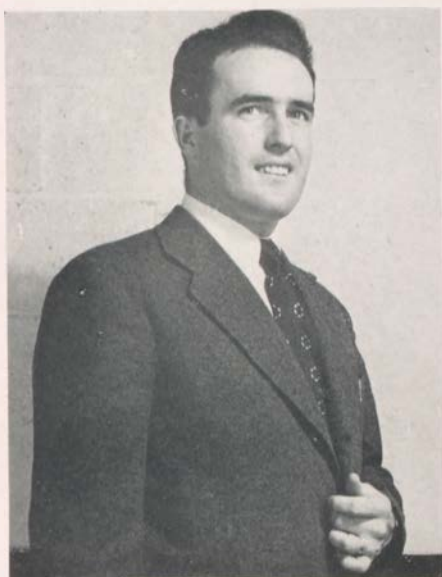

The officers elected for the year were: Thomas McCormick, '47, president; Joseph McMullen, '48, vice-president; Harold Briggs, '49, secretary; Thomas Reardon, '48, treasurer; Maurice Donovan, '50, sergeant-at-arms. Dr. O'Neill is moderator of the club.

The New Haven Club, whose origin dates back to the opening of the College, was revived by some of its present members in the spring of 1946. The purposes of this club are: to provide the means whereby students from the same locality can meet and get acquainted; to sponsor, by the cooperative effort of its members, minor social events at the College; and to sponsor a major social affair at home during the longer vacation periods.

Because the College has always been well represented by students from New Haven, the Club is one of the strongest social organizations.

The club officers are: Charles Flynn, '47, president; Frank Parise, '47, vice-president; Mark Burns, '49, secretary; Harry Jordan, '49, treasurer. The club is moderated by Fr. Dillon.

When Providence College renewed its peacetime schedule, several students from Hartford expressed the desire to organize a club through which they might form and foster closer friendships among fellow students from the insurance city. With the birth of the Club on November 5, 1946, this desire became a reality. This was the start that will make the Club a "must" for all students from Hartford. The organization, although in its first year, has already taken the initiative and many social events enlivened the vacation periods.

The officers are: Dennis Finn, '49, president; James Coughlin, '50, vice-president; Daniel McAuliffe, '50, treasurer; and Joseph Magro, '49, secretary. Fr. Fen-nell, a native of Hartford, is moderator.

The Friars Club, organized in 1928, serves as host in both social and athletic events held on the campus. Its raison d'etre is to extend hospitality and friendship to visiting teams and clubs, and to "welcome the coming and speed the parting guest."

The members of the Friars Club are chosen from the student body by the senior members of the club with the approval of the faculty.

In addition to giving a helping hand to other college organizations, the Club sponsors the annual Christmas Formal.

The officers are: Wilfred San Souci, '47, president; Frank Sweeney, '47, vice-president; Walter Martin, '47, secretary; James Dunnigan, '47, treasurer. Fr. Schmidt is the moderator.

The Monogram Club is a society composed of students who have won their Monogram in Varsity competition in major sports. The varsity "P" is awarded at the discretion of the coaches and the Athletic Director to the men of the various squads who have participated with credit in a designated number of Varsity contests. Team managers are also eligible for membership. The Monogram Club sponsors the Varsity Hop in January and the Collegiate Boxing Show in March.

The officers, all of whom must be seniors, are: John Barchi, president; John Sullivan, vice-president, Henri Ethier, secretary; Charles Shadoian, treasurer. Fr. Begley is the moderator.

The Carolan Club, numbering almost three hundred members, is the largest of the various clubs of the College. It is the social organization of the resident students.

The annual Carolan Club Formal was changed this year from a dance to a full social week-end. This included the basketball game with Holy Cross, a formal dance, lectures, discussions, and small parties.

In cooperation with the Junior Veridames, the club held several informal dances in the lounge of Aquinas Hall. An amateur show was also presented in the Penguin Room of the Hall. Tournaments in pool, ping-pong, cards, checkers, and other indoor games, were held often during the year.

The officers are: John Sullivan, '47, president; John O'Hurley, '48, vice-president; Leo Kelley, '49, secretary; James Connors, '49, treasurer. Fr. Mullaney is moderator.

The Fall River Club is one of the oldest sectional groups in the College. Since its inception, it has distinguished itself by its participation in various functions for the purpose of fostering a love for the College and the principles on which it was founded.

This year a rejuvenated club composed of many returned veterans, is the largest in the club's history. The club endeavors to promulgate the best interests of the College in all fields.

The officers of the club are: Frank Larkin, '47, president; Vincent Coady, '48, vice-president; Robert Gagne, '49, secretary; Gaston St. Denis, '47, treasurer. Fr. Doyle is moderator.

The New Bedford Club, whose members are sometimes referred to as "The Whalers," has been re-organized and promises to take its place in the life and activities of the College. Previously, the Club's business had been conducted on an informal basis. With the beginning of the present school year, however, a constitution was drawn up and by-laws promulgated to foster and promote social and intellectual activities on a more substantial level.

The Club lists as its principal social endeavor an annual dance held at the New Bedford Country Club. This affair is considered by many to be "the" social event of the school year in southeastern New England.

The Club's officers are: David Sibor, '47, president; James Mendonca, '49, vice-president; Norman Cayer, '47, secretary; William Hendricks, '47, treasurer. The moderator is Fr. McDermott.

The Kent County Club of Providence College was founded in 1939 for the purpose of uniting the students from Warwick, West Warwick, East Greenwich, and Coventry.

The Club's first social function of the year was a dinner and dance at the West Warwick Country Club. The Club also sponsored a Communion breakfast at which a guest speaker was presented.

At the first formal meeting of the year, elections were held and the following men were chosen as officers: James Laferriere, '47, president; Thomas Barry, '48, vice-president; George Forcier, '49, secretary; Robert Flynn, '50, treasurer.

The Greater Boston Club, one of the newest clubs of the College, is comprised of those resident students who make their home in metropolitan Boston. The purpose of the Club is to acquaint the members with each other as well as to form an alumni chapter in Boston.

The formal meetings of the Club are conducted in the lounge of Aquinas Hall. But the major part of the Club's policy is formulated every Sunday evening at Back Bay Station while waiting for the "Plymouth Rock Special". The Club's major social event is the annual formal dance held at one of Boston's better hotels.

The officers are: Thomas Reilly, '50, president; Robert Roche, '48, vice-president; Thomas Carew, '49, secretary-treasurer. The moderator is Fr. Heasley.

After a three year lapse The Alembic returned to serve as the medium of student literary expression. For a quarter of a century, now, this quarterly magazine has been fostering the promising writers of short stories, essays, articles, and poems among the undergraduate body.

Attracting greatest attention by the student body was "The Beast," a short story by Robert E. Doherty, '48, and "A Stranger in Strasbourg," another short story by George L. Eagle, '50. Contributions were forthcoming from every class which bode well for the future of The Alembic.

The resurrection of The Alembic was the result of spontaneous and cooperative interest upon the part of a small number of students who chose M. R. Knickerbocker, Jr., '48, as Editor-in-Chief and Robert E. Doherty, '49, and Joseph A. Conway, '48, as Associate Editors. Father R. D. Reilly is faculty advisor.

November 16, 1935 marked the formal introduction of The Cowl to the Providence College student body and to the collegiate world at large. In continuing its services to the student body, The Cowl stressed outside news having a bearing on student interests. It also continued to campaign editorially for greater participation in extra-curricular activities.

The co-editors for the first semester were Thomas Carroll, '48, and Edward T. Sullivan, '48. At the start of the second semester Paul Kelley, '48, and Joseph Shanley, '49, were chosen to edit the paper. Fr. Dillon is moderator and faculty co-ordinator.

Revived after a war caused intermission in activities, the Albertus Magnus Club was re-organized in October to provide for an increased interest in the practical sciences. Its function is to acquaint the Senior and Junior Pre-Medical students with one another and with the history of the profession.

Meetings are held once a month, at which time business is combined with social activity. The business portion of the meetings includes the reading of scientific papers or the presentation of scientific movies, after which there is a social hour complete with entertainment and refreshments.

The club is guided by Fr. McGonagle. The officers are: John Cunningham, '47, president; Joseph Cassidy, '48, vice-president; Everett McCaughey, '48, secretary; Joseph Galotti, '47, treasurer.

The Senior Business Club was organized in October 1946 by the senior business students with the aim of re-organizing the "Ship and Scales Club" and re-incorporating its charter.

The Business Club has taken over the purposes and organizational scheme of the "Ship and Scales Club" and will continue to function as a body until it can definitely renew the charter.

The prime purpose of the "Ship and Scales Club" is to furnish intellectual stimulus and social activities to graduate business men and the senior business students.

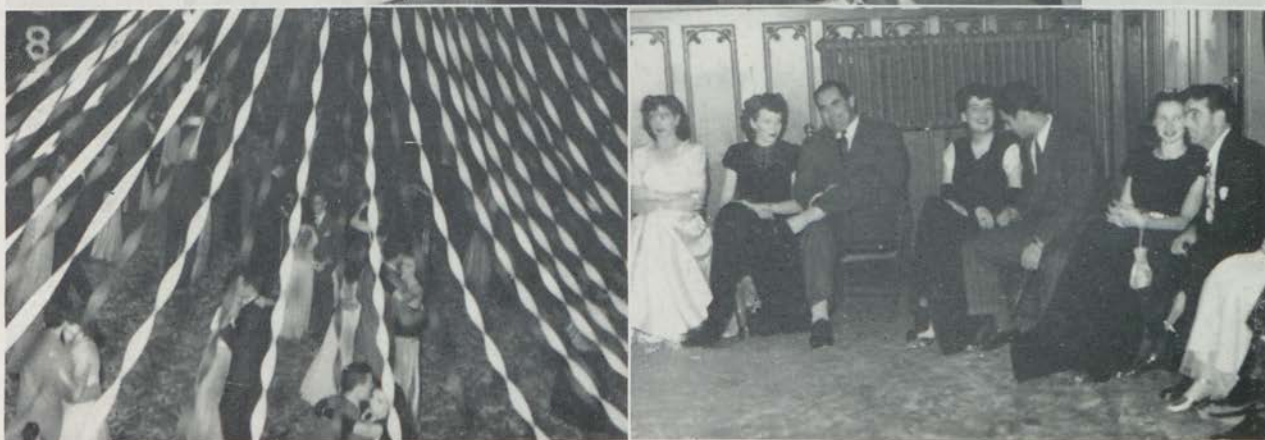

The officers, all seniors, are: Charles Beirne, president; John McGarry, vice-president; Henry Gilman, secretary; John Breen, treasurer. The moderator is Fr. Masterson.

Dating from the very foundation of the College, the Philomusian Society is the oldest and most venerable of all the organizations at Providence College. Membership is restricted to Dominican pre-ecclesiastical students, who, at the present time, are the residents of Guzman Hall. Many illustrious Dominicans were numbered among its members in their student days—a source of inspiration and pride to present-day Philomusians.

The name of the society means "lover of the Muse", and its purpose is the engendering of a true brotherly spirit in order to promote the general welfare of the members and to insure their happiness. There are several clubs within the organization which sponsor a variety of activities, both recreational and intellectual.

The officers are: Bernard Keitz, '49, president; Joseph Burns, '49, vice-president; Maurice Nelan, '49, secretary; Charles O'Brien, '49, treasurer. The moderator is Fr. McDermott.

The Providence College Debating Union has again compiled one of the best records in the East and continues to bring honor and prestige to the College. The members hold intra-mural debates each week in order to become more acquainted with the arts of rhetoric and argumentation. The Union undertook a two week road trip during the month of March when other New England and New York colleges were engaged in debates on national questions. The College was also represented at the Debating Tournament sponsored by the University of Vermont.

The organization has for its president, Edward R. Menders, '47. John J. Sullivan, '47, is vice-president, and Charles L. Flynn, '47, is secretary. Fr. Regan is moderator of the Union.

Pyramid Players

The Pyramid Players, college dramatic society, revived thespian production this season after several years of inactivity. For its inaugural presentation, Barré Lyndon's crime drama, "The Amazing Doctor Clitterhouse," was selected, and, after two months of rehearsal, was offered in the auditorium of Harkins Hall on December 16 and 17 before capacity audiences. In the Jekyll-Hyde role, talented William Burrell, '48, ran the full gamut of emotions. He was ably supported by Mildred Lough, Eileen Divine, Christopher Gartland, '48, John Feeley, '49, George Markham, '50, Francis O'Brien, '48, Sheldon Grebstein, '49, Edward Gnys, '50, Francis Sullivan, '49, Robert Nolan, '50, and Coleman Morrison, '47. Fr. McGlynn, moderator, and Fr. Conway were co-directors of the production. Fr. J. V. Fitzgerald headed the stage crew, and Fr. Friel and Fr. Robillard headed the business staff and technical crew, respectively.

As this book goes to press, a musical show, written, directed, produced, and acted by the members of the student body, is in the last stages of rehearsal and will be presented to the public in the near future.

Another post-war revival is the Glee Club. Two afternoons each week the students are entertained informally by the harmonious sounds emanating from Aquinas Hall Lounge where rehearsals are held. And several times during the year the students and friends of the College have been entertained more formally by programs in which the Club participated. The members are the nucleus of the musical comedy and also of the College choir. Fr. Cannon is the moderator and director.

The Phi Chi Club was organized in 1939 by those students majoring in chemistry or physics. It has since become one of the outstanding organizations on the campus.

The purpose of the club is to serve as an outlet for discussions on current scientific topics and to present to its members items of a scientific nature. Weekly discussions follow the presentation of a talk by a student member on a subject in which he shows particular interest. In addition to lectures by alumni other authorities are invited to speak before the group.

Junior Prom

Under the chairmanship of Armand P. Leco, Jr., '47, the Junior Prom was held at the Providence Biltmore on May 6, 1946 where approximately two hundred couples danced to Ray McKinley's music. The grand march was led by Mr. Leco and his companion, Miss Barbara Cook, who was chosen queen of the ball. James Dunnigan was president of the Class during the Junior year.

CAPTAIN SULLIVAN PACES PROVIDENCE TO 67-59 TRIUMPH

By F. X. MCCARTHY

It is becoming an accepted axiom in basketball circles nowadays that it pays to have a big man around and Providence College was thankful it had Capt. Jack Sullivan last night, for the big fellow personally guided the Friars to a handsome 67-59 opening victory over St. Anselm College of Manchester, N. H., at the City Gym.

Last night's rivals were coached by two former teammates at Providence College, Larry Drew, whose debut was a grand success, and Ted McConnon, who had to be content with the consolation prize, although it can be said that he has a fine team and his Hawks impressed the assemblage even in defeat. Led by Chuck Tobin, former De La Salle brilliant, St. Anselm, like the Friars, featured the fast break and kept the ball moving all the time. Defensively, the Hawks barred the P. Cers no little with their close man-to-man guarding and their rather frequent ball stealing.

The issue actually was in doubt right up to the final minute, although the Friars led most of the way. The Hawks moved ahead early in the first half, prevailing 6-3 and 8-5 during the first six minutes. Two minutes later, however, the Providence College forces took the lead on a brace of foul shots by Sullivan and Walt Lozoski's basket.

The Hawks moved back in the ball game shortly after the start of the second half when John Rabbitt, fouled twice in succession, converted three successful foul shots and tied the count at 33-all. Sullivan then popped in the fourth of his seven foul shots and LaZoski followed with a long tom from the side and once again Larry Drew's charges were riding high. Their main concern at this stage was the temporary loss of Ferd Sowa, capable guard who had collected his fourth personal but the subsequent work of his substitute, Cy Killian, enabled all hands to revert to the first order of business—beating the Hawks.

SULLIVAN SPARKS FRIARS' TRIUMPH OVER ACES, 69-51

By F. X. MCCARTHY

Outscoring their opponents both from the floor and the foul stripe, the Providence College basketball Friars annexed their second straight victory, thumping American International College, 69-51, last night at the City Gym.

For the second straight time the Friars proved their mettle as front runners against opponents who possessed both the ability and the determination to nullify the slim advantage the locals enjoyed until the late stages.

Coach Larry Drew substituted freely in an attempt to discover the best combination. When he called on Paul Williams, he hit the jackpot for the former Pawtucket West high star proved a steadying influence.

Only once—and for a short time did the Aces head the Friars, that being in the opening minute of play when Capt. Ed Kosior dropped in the first eight baskets a few seconds after Walt Lozoski opened the scoring with a foul conversion. Less than a minute later, however, Capt. Jack Sullivan, came up with his specialty—the tap-in—sending P. C. ahead 3-2. Two baskets and a foul shot by Henri Ethier and a 2-pointer by Paul McCormack, while Bill Callahan was checking in with a long tom, increased the Friars' advantage to 10-4 at the 5-minute mark.

Here Kosior began to prove his nuisance value by complimenting his rather frequent ball stealing with some fancy shooting and narrowed the gap to one point, 18-17, at the period's midpoint.

Although the Aces kept themselves in a rallying mood during the greater part of the second half, they found themselves in arrears by at least four points in their better situations. Their last surge left them trailing, 53-49, with seven minutes to go and when they lost three men on fouls in quick succession, their chances of victory went aglimmering.

BOSTON COLLEGE OUTSCORES FRIARS, 66-49, AT CITY GYM

By JOE MCHENRY

Coach Al "General" McClellan had a big smile on his face, and well he might, for his Boston College Eagles, playing their best game of the young season, handed the Providence College Friars a 66-to-49 basketball setback last night at the Providence City gymnasium. The "General" once coached P. C. for 10 seasons.

Elmore Morganthaler, much-publicized Texan and the tallest player in the college game at 7 ft. 1 inch, hit his stride for the first time, scoring 28 points and pacing the Eagles. He started slowly, but once he got over his nervousness, played a sound game and was a definite asset to his club, both offensively and defensively. Providence jumped into the lead at the outset, but Boston had a 10-5 lead after four minutes and lengthened its margin to nine points at the 10-minute mark, leading 21-12. The Providence shooting was erratic in the first half, as Boston kept hurrying their shots. Morganthaler, scoring 14 points in each half, was a bigger factor while the Friars were still in contention, especially on the defensive.

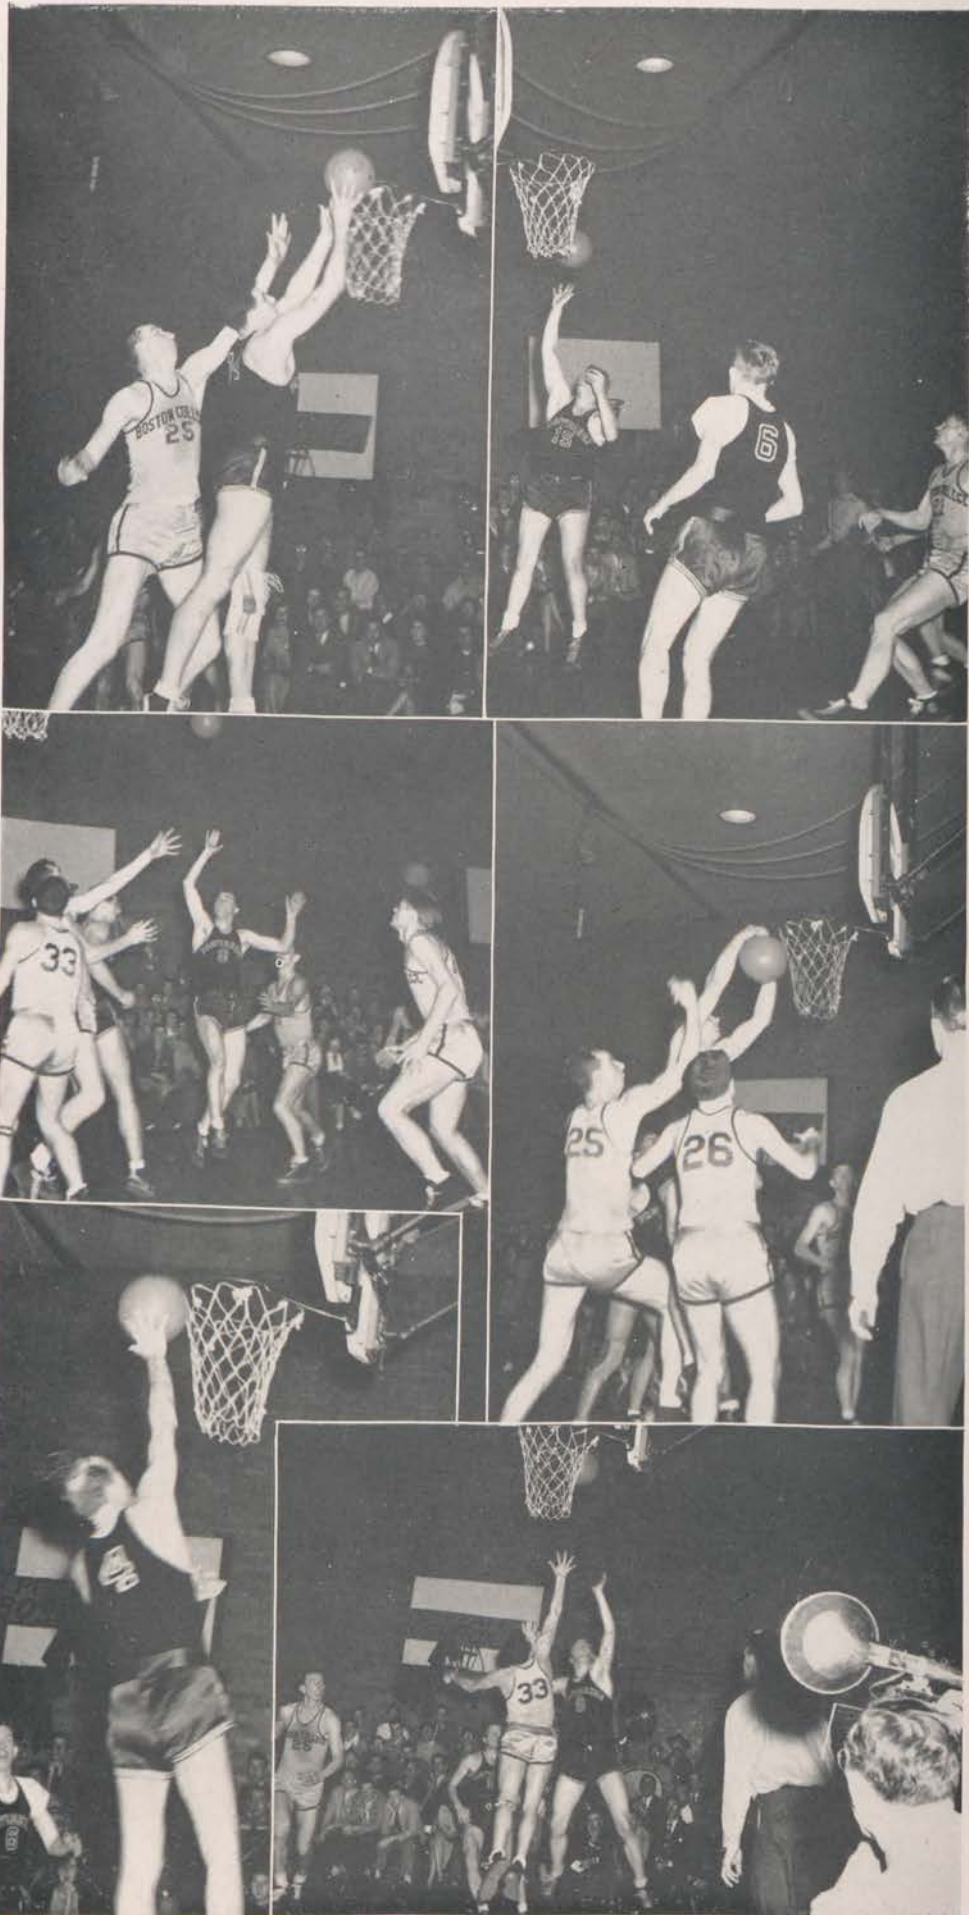

With a 15-point lead, 34-19, at half-time, the Eagles ran off 22 points in the first 10 minutes of the second half while Providence was collecting six and led, 56-25. The 31-point gap was the widest margin of superiority as the Friars then put on a counter surge, paced by Ferdie Sowa, who was top scorer for P. C. with 15 points.

The Eagles' fast breaks gave them many scoring chances in the second half. Providence lacked its usual drive, although Boston made them play their game and threw the Friars' own attack out of kilter. Jack Sullivan was so busy watching Morganthaler that his own scoring game suffered. The Texan was a hard man to handle last night and should help the Eagles a great deal in future games.

CAPACITY CROWD SEES FRIARS GAIN HANDY VICTORY

By F. X. McCARTHY

Using its fast break to the fullest advantage, the Providence College basketball team scored a surprising but nonetheless well-earned 68-58 triumph over Brown before a capacity throng of 2100 last night at Marvel Gym.

The victory put the Friars ahead in the race for the City title and left them tied with the Rams in the State series, the latter having also defeated Brown, Wednesday.

While the Friars were having their troubles with the aforementioned miscues during the opening minutes the Bears enjoyed leads of 4-2, 6-5 and 8-5, but after Charley Bresnahan's basket and Walt Lozoski's foul shot tied the score at 8-all, Larry Drew's charges moved ahead, 10-8, on Art Weinstock's 1-hander from the side at the 5-minute mark.

At this point the competitive tempo was stepped up appreciably and produced exciting though erratic play, causing both teams to miss easy shots and pass poorly until Capt. Woody Grimshaw called a time-out when the clock had reached eight minutes, with P. C. leading, 13-12.

At half-time they led, 31-25, and kept running away from the Bruins during the final session, reaching the 16-minute station with a 66-46 lead. Then followed Brown's best scoring spree of the game but it couldn't possibly hope to erase the Friars' healthy margin. With the Zuber brothers accounting for nine points, the Bruins outscored the visitors, 12-2 during the last four minutes.

It's hard to pick out any one individual responsible for the P. C. victory. The entire starting five of Lozoski, Bresnahan, Sullivan, Sowa and Weinstock plus Paul McCormack, Cy Killian and Bill Littlefield made the fast break pay dividends. Sullivan and Lozoski paced the Friars' scoring with 15 and 12 respectively.

Woody Grimshaw and Dave Zuber were the men who kept the Bears in the ball game with 19 and 15 points.

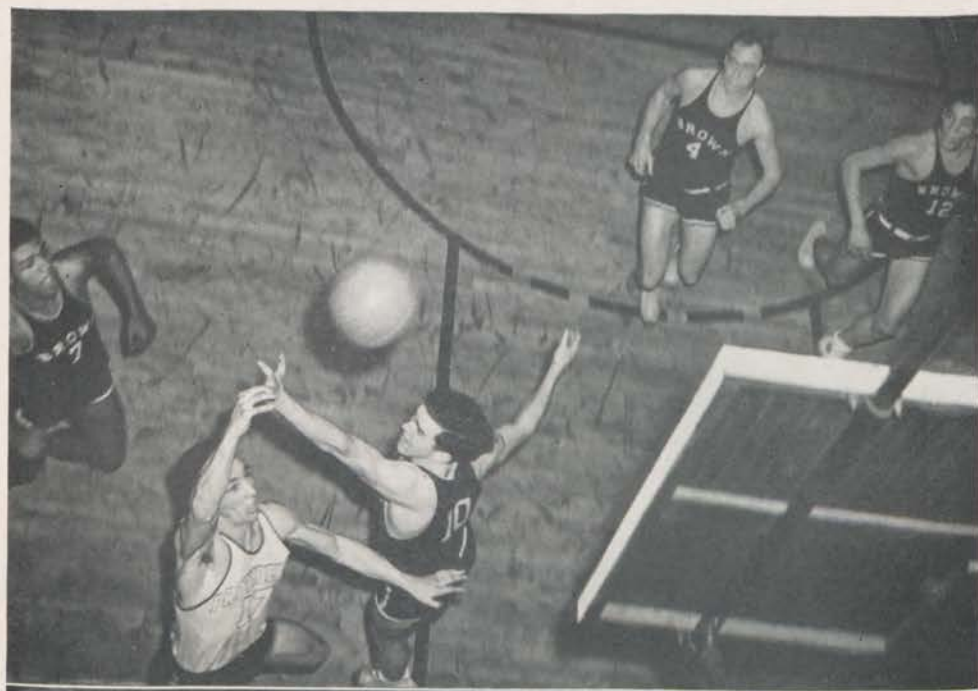

The Friars fared better in the foul shooting, sinking 15 out of 30 while the Bruins converted only 14 out of 43.

One Hundred Fifty-five

SPRINGFIELD NIPS PROVIDENCE FIVE

Jumping into an early lead and maintaining it throughout, Springfield College's basketball team, featuring speed, aggressiveness, crisp ball handling and a high degree of shooting consistency, handed Providence College somewhat of a surprise when they defeated the Friars, 57-52, at the City Gym last night.

Although only five points separated the teams at the final gun, the Gymnasts were a far superior array and at several stages of the tilt, threatened to turn it into a rout. Only the dogged persistence of the Friars prevented Springfield from doing just that.

The invaders were out front by an 18-7 margin after 10 minutes of play but saw their advantage reduced to six points, 25-19, at the half. They regained their early form once the second half got under way and, with little Floyd Barney and the lean Johnny Burke setting the tempo, coasted along on leads of 30-19, 41-29 and 50-39 at various points along the stretch road.

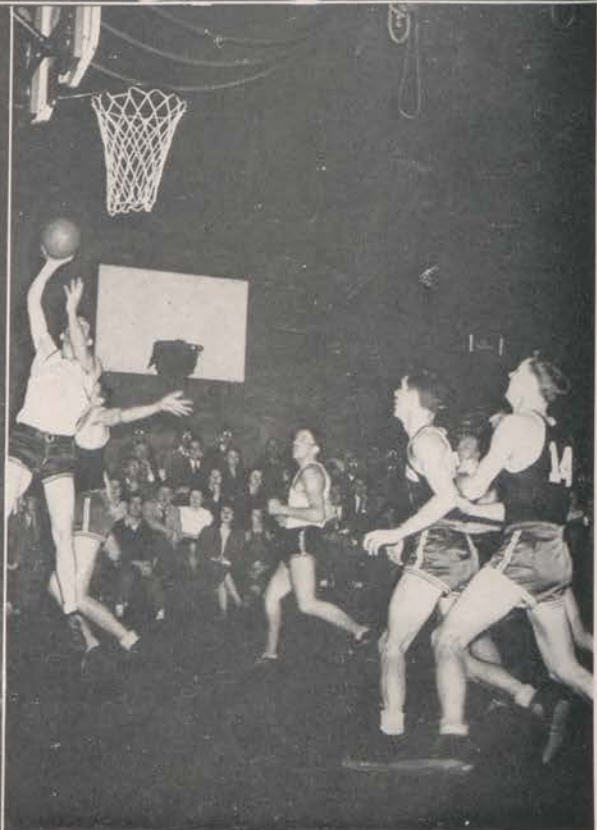

P. C. in the meanwhile was experiencing one of its poor nights. The Friars lacked their customary drive, threw the ball away much too frequently and except for the last two minutes of the first half and their spine-tingling drive in the final five minutes, were a far cry from the team that upset Brown a week ago.

Had the Friars played the first half the way they did in the stretch, the outcome might have been different. It was apparent from the outset that P. C. was below form and the Springfields were quick to capitalize on that advantage. They ran, passed and shot superbly and held Providence College to a lone basket over the first seven and a half minutes. They slowed down some after racing out to a 23-12 lead and P. C. managed to climb closer just before the rest period.

Burke, a pivot artist with a fine 1-hand twisting shot, was the game's top gunner with 17 points. Barney hooped 14. Sullivan was high for the Friars with 10, while Littlefield with nine points and Lozowski with eight, were close behind.

P. C. COMES BACK IN SECOND HALF

By JOE MCHENRY

Showing improved play in the second half and having better luck with their shooting, the Providence College Friars defeated Massachusetts State Veterans College from Fort Devens, Mass., 57 to 42, last night at the Providence City gymnasium.

The Friars played in spurts, with Robert "Cy" Killian, former St. Raphael Academy athlete, pacing the P. C. offense and doing a good job defensively. Killian scored 13 points but he and Walt Lozoski were major factors in many other P. C. maneuvers and teamed up nicely. It was a tough break for Steve Fallon, the former Friar star from Pawtucket who coaches Devens, that his fellow townsman and friend should turn in such a fine game against his team.

Devens, outsizeing the Friars, got away to a 9-point lead, 13 to 4, in the first seven minutes of play, but a rally, including two baskets by Killian and one by Charlie Bresnahan, tied the score at 13-all about 12 minutes along. P. C. gained a 4-point edge, 19-15, on two alert plays by Bill Littlefield, one on a breakway and the other on a stolen ball.

Providence looked much better in the final 20 minutes, gradually building up their lead. After five minutes they still had only a 4-point edge, 30-26, but then they went on a shooting spree that put them 15 points to the good, 43-28, at the 12-minute mark. Providence had a 32-21 scoring edge in the final half.

Devens had an outstanding forward in Capt. Jim Begley, who scored 10 points, and a dangerous pivot man in Dan "Moose" Horton, who kept the Friars busy defensively and broke up some of their scoring efforts. Bresnahan threw in several fine shots, while Paul McCormack scored on a spectacular shot from underneath as he was simultaneously knocked off his feet.

FRIARS SET DOWN CLARK, 70 TO 63; KILLIAN GETS 21

Finding their stride midway through the first half after a slow start, Providence College's youthful Friars galloped into a lengthy lead and then substituted freely as they downed Clark University of Worcester, 70-63, at the City Gym last night.

The invaders showed indications of making it a troublesome evening for the Friars as they clung tenaciously to a slender edge during the first 10 minutes of play but after twice losing the lead, Providence College moved ahead once more on Charlie Bresnahan's basket and from there in fought a front-running battle.

Once out front the Friars really rolled. With Walt Lozoski setting the plays in motion and Cy Killian, Jim Littlefield and Capt. Jack Sullivan doing well under the boards, the home forces increased their advantage to 34-26 at halftime. Lozoski, the main cog in the Providence attack, did a fine job of directing the play and steadying the team.

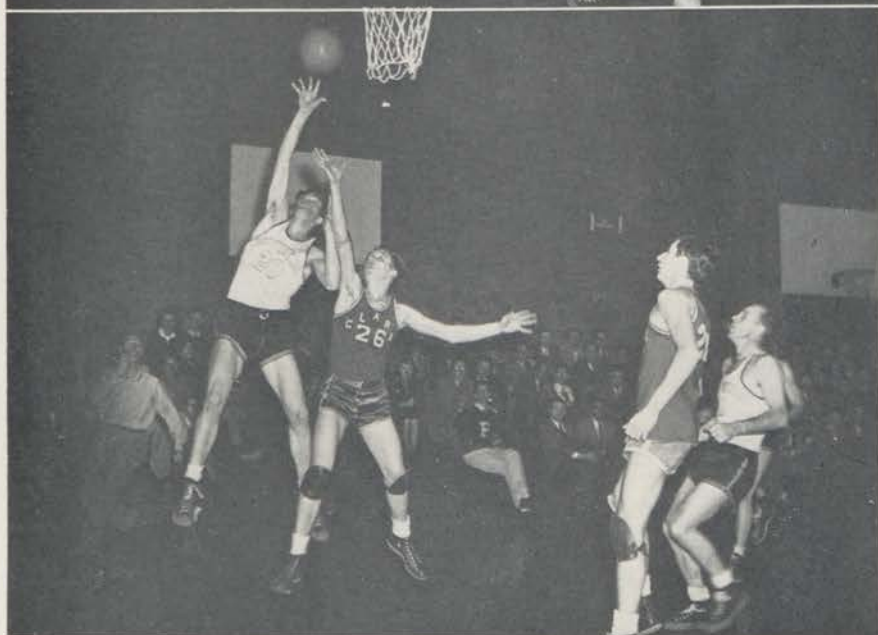

With him at the controls, the Friars stepped up the tempo in the second half and enjoyed leads of 47-29 and 60-45 as Littlefield and Killian led the sniping. Coach Larry Drew then inserted his reserves into the fray and, although they held their own a good deal of the time they were in action, Clarke suddenly got hot and with Walt Basul, Bill Stone and Paul Shiminski finding the range, cut down the Friars' advantage to 10 points, 64-54, with three minutes remaining.

The regulars were then rushed into the fray but even they couldn't completely stem the Worcester surge. Time, however, was running out on the invaders and although they outscored Providence College, 9 to 6, in the waning minutes, the Friars lead withstood the belated enemy drive.

ROUGH STRUGGLE FINDS P. C. PLAYING IN BEST 1947 FORM

By JOE MCHENRY

The Holy Cross Crusaders, one of the East's ranking basketball powers, met a stubborn foe in Providence College last night at the City Gymnasium, but the confident Crusaders turned back the surprising Friars, 59 to 50, running their current winning string to 14 straight games.

The game had all the aspects of a championship struggle, with more aggressive play than usual, as the Friars played their best game of the season in an effort to topple the capable Holy Cross contingent.

It was far from the easy game that some fans expected, with Providence exhibiting more effective play than anybody thought them capable of showing against a top-flight team. The contact was heavy on both sides, with 38 fouls called, but only one man left the floor because of five fouls.

Jack Sullivan, Robert "Cy" Killian and Walt Lozoski sparked the Providence surge, with Sullivan playing one of the best games of his college career. Killian, a good backboard man, accounted for 20 points, while Sullivan scored 18. Lozoski set up plays and came through with defensive maneuvers offsetting the Cross' busy pass work.

Although Holy Cross was never headed after taking a 4-0 lead, the Friars were fairly close in the first half, trailing 13-8 at the 6:30 mark, and 16-10 about 10 minutes along. Kaftan, netting 11 points in the first 15 minutes, was the main scorer as the Crusaders took an 8-point edge, 25-17. However, Coach Julian put in fresh players and the Crusaders, with Frank Laska dropping in five successive points, held a 31-19 edge at halftime.

The Cross lengthened its lead to 35-21 and 48-29 in the first 10 minutes of the second half, but the Friars fought back and gradually whittled down the Worcester margin. With five minutes left, Holy Cross still led, 54-39, but P. C. sharp shooting and smart floor work cut it down to nine points at the finish.

FRIARS EDGED BY STATE IN CLOSE GAME

By F. X. MCCARTHY

In a game that kept 5084 patrons tottering on the verge of hysteria the Rhode Island State Rams fought tooth and nail with an inspired Providence College aggregation and finally subdued the Fighting Friars, 73-64, last night at the R. I. Auditorium.

Underlying the pandemonium was the determined stand the underdog Friars took from the opening whistle and which they maintained until the waning minutes when State's superior forces asserted themselves with gusto and gained the eventual victory.

The score was deadlocked seven times. P. C. led eight times and State prevailed on seven occasions before taking their eighth and final lead with seven minutes remaining. At this point the Rams went ahead, 60-59, on Bob Ulles lay-up shot and increased their margin to 62-59 when Don Shannon converted a nifty pass from Jack Allen.

Foul shots by Art Weinstock and Walt Lozoski enabled the Friars to draw up, 61-62, with a little more than five minutes to go. This was the last real stand for the tiring Drewmen, however, as the Rams dominated the play down the stretch and moved into a 69-63 advantage during the next two minutes as Big Ken Goodwin dumped in six of the Keaneymen's next seven points.

The Rams then elected to put on the familiar Rhody freeze and showed they certainly have the operatives to do it thoroughly. They prevented the Friars from tallying a basket during the final three minutes, while adding four more points to their total.

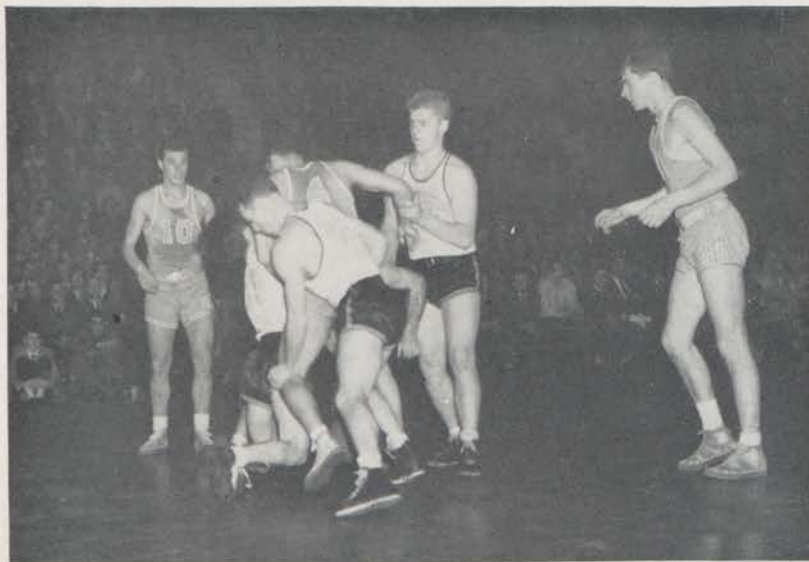

Jack Allen played the entire game for State and did an excellent job as playmaker. Big Ken Goodwin made a whale of a difference to the Rams.

For the Friars, Lozoski's court acumen, Killian's consistent work in the rebound department and McCormack's accurate sniping were the highlights of an inspired performance.

FRIARS VICTORIOUS OVER WAGNER IN THRILLING GAME

By BARNEY MADDEN

It took Providence College six minutes to fashion its first field goal and 13 minutes to catch up with the Wagner College cagers in their joust at City High School's gym last night, but once those items were attended to the Friars went confidently about the business of beating the New Yorkers, 73-64.

The first five minutes of the game were virtually wasted, except that therein the contenders became thoroughly warmed up, for the first field goal was delayed until well into the sixth minute and another half minute elapsed before the Friars tallied from the floor.

What happened after that was something else entirely. Between that time and the half, each team held the lead four times, the score was tied on nine occasions and in the late stages of the period every basket produced either a deadlock or a new leader.

Paul Williams, the Friars' colored ace from Pawtucket, sat out the first seven minutes, but once he appeared on the floor the scene changed rapidly. He was all over the premises, shooting, rebounding, setting up plays and generally making a hero of himself to Friar fans and a positive nuisance to the Wagners.

Having reached the intermission sporting a 32-30 bulge the Friars upped their edge to 38-30 and then the speed of the fray increased tremendously as baskets piled up fast but the Friars usually managed to score whenever the visitors did. With 10 minutes left to play, the Friars were very happy about it all, leading 52 to 42.

Athletic Trophy

The Jack Dempsey trophy for Providence College's outstanding athlete, to be awarded in June, on the basis of student ballots. The voting is to be conducted by the College newspaper, The Cowl.

Intramurals

A complete sports program is conducted by the Athletic Department for the students. The first event of the year was the cross-country race, which was won by the Freshman Class team. In touch football the "Has Beens" team was champion at the College and then played the "Phi Gamma Delta" team, champion of Brown University's Intramural touch football league and won, 33-19. As we go to press the basketball league is still in progress. Boxing and softball are also on the program. Medals are awarded the winners in each of these intramural sports.

A Mark of Quality

Wherever New England men of good taste gather you'll find the Kennedy label in great evidence. For years this mark has been their guiding star in the selection of their clothing. It represents the accumulation of years of experience outfitting men and young men with the clothing they want at prices they want to pay. It's in the light of this experience that New England men, in ever increasing numbers, come to Kennedy's.
