The End Sheets

The official College diploma, adopted in 1941, is copied from the most famous and venerable manuscript in the Order of Friars Preachers, the liturgical book of 1000 pages, PROTOTYPE of Blessed Humbert of Romans, Master General of the Order from 1254 to 1263.

The caption "Collegium Providentiense" is supported by the extended arm of a friar, just as it appears on the contents page of the PROTOTYPE. This indicates that the College is conducted and upheld by the Dominican Fathers. In this friar very ancient and very modern symbolism meet, since it also stands for the symbol by which the College is popularly known, as in athletics, "The Friars".

The lettering and illumination of the diploma are taken from various alphabets throughout the PROTOTYPE, but the blue and red of the diploma are the colors in which the whole contents page of the PROTOTYPE is finished. The long tendrils of the C and P in the caption extend at times in a most graceful manner along the entire margin of the medieval manuscript.

The technical work was made possible by Father Hinnebusch's photography and research; Mr. Robert Barrie of St. Andrew's Studios, Providence, produced the artistic composition.

Thomas R. Newman

At the foot of the driveway leading to Harkins Hall there stands a sign: PROVIDENCE COLLEGE—ENTER AT YOUR OWN RISK. Well, 451 of us "risked" it in '45-'46. Now, after several years of study, laughs and gripes, 299 of us, of which number 257 are veterans, will make a happy or tearful exit, depending on how each spent his time.

Oddly enough, we are the largest graduating group because of our participation in a war and a subsequent act of Congress, "G. I. Bill of Rights", which made it possible for the majority of us to receive an education practically without cost.

The smallest graduating body was in January 1945, with seven students.

Veterans have been hailed universally as good students. Their mature approach and general propensity for candid discussion has proved stimulating. Yet, many times their "superannuated" maturity has prevented them from enjoying fully the fruits of college life. And still others among us have been naturally more concerned with raising a family or working to defray expenses concomitant with attending school.

Along with the intellectual growth experienced in our quest for VERITAS, we have been fortunate to witness the rapid physical development of Providence College and young enough to enjoy the many moments, incidents and events peculiar to institutions of higher learning.

And so it is our hope that the mere mention of "going-ons" at the College during the past several years will serve as a springboard for "fitful indulgence" in college reminiscing when you occasionally take this book out of the closet or bottom drawer to live again your college days.

But what conclusion can be drawn about the Providence College class of '49?

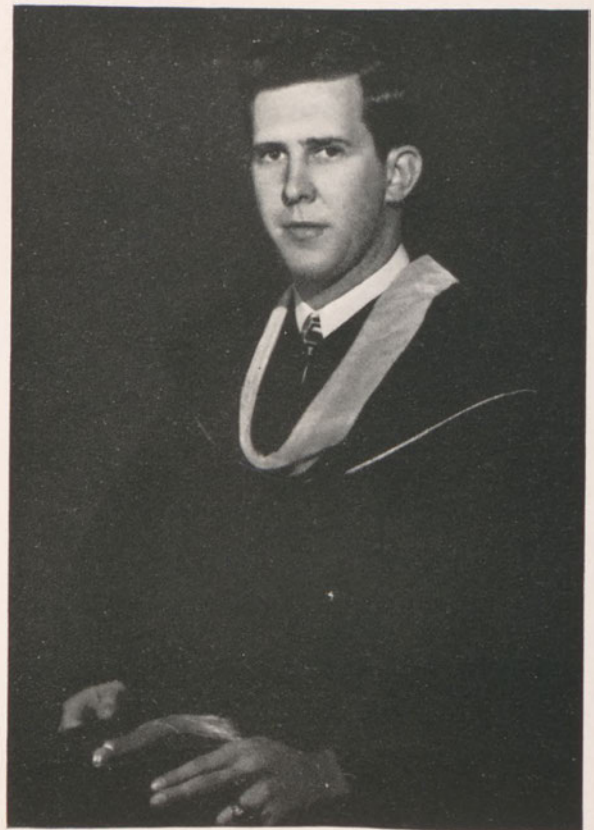

Well, let us say that we have been a pretty good bunch of "Joes". We have done our share of debunking and criticising. But like a closely knit family we have defended it against attack from without. At times we have been slow in responding to entreaties for general cooperation of some sort or other, but, nevertheless, we have managed to pull together at the right time.

FRESHMAN YEAR

Who among us can forget the Dean's traditional statement at our first Freshman assembly: "A Providence College man is a gentleman always."?

Our class in September '45 and February '46 (Fall and Summer sessions) numbered 451. The entire college enrollment was 753.

The Veridames staged dances for lonesome resident and local students . . . Nurses, training at city hospitals, also arranged dances for P.C. boys . . . Ray McKinley played at Junior Prom . . . Easter Retreat conducted by Rev. J. C. McDonough, O.P. . . . Fathers Jorn and Kaufman, Deans of Men at Aquinas Hall . . . Four buildings on campus, Harkins, Aquinas, Guzman, and St. Thomas Halls (by '49 there were seven) . . . Basketball team, coached by Ed Crotty, won 5 lost 12 split with Brown and lost two to R. I. State . . . Larry Drew returned from service to finish senior year . . . Baseball team, coached by Donat Maynard, won 5 dropped 3 . . . Brown, R. I. State and Holy Cross were among the victims . . . And who can forget those pleasant moments in the cafeteria when one could buy a cup of coffee and sit down and talk. Remember how nothing was considered worthwhile unless St. Thomas said it?

SOPHOMORE YEAR

In September of 1946, 414 potential graduates of '49 entered the Sophomore year . . . Cowl returns to the campus after a wartime absence of three and a half years . . . Anonymous Cowl reporter creates commotion with caustic criticism of vets . . . Many faculty members return to College after serving as chaplains . . . Class sponsors gala Hallowe'en dance . . . Business building to be ready by Spring . . . Larry Drew takes over as coach of basketball . . . X-Ray machine makes annual visit . . . Several students from foreign countries relate their very interesting stories in the Cowl . . . Basketball team moves home games to City Gym in order to seat more spectators . . . Pyramid Players announce first postwar production . . . Business Club holds dance . . . Friars' Formal features Tiny Quinn . . . Monster bonfire and rally dance precedes St. Anselm's game . . . Dorm men stage variety show . . . P.C.'s informal brass band does much to revive spirit at the College . . . Father McKenna opens drive to construct Grotto as memorial to Alumni War Dead . . . VERITAS sponsors Ground Hog Dance . . . Dormers'

P.C. obtains surplus navy building . . . Freshmen present George Johnson on campus at Freshman Frolic . . . Alembic makes its reappearance . . . Father Clark presents annual Lenten Lecture series . . . Hal Martin '39, appointed baseball coach . . . Pyramid Players to present "Sing, Mr. Citizen" . . . Veridames concert offers Christopher Lynch . . . Father McLarney of St. Joseph's Priory, Somerset, Ohio, conducts retreat . . . Hilltoppers capture intramural championship . . . Raymond Scott chosen as Prom band . . . One hundred and ten Seniors vested with Cap and Gown . . . Father Cavanaugh, President of Notre Dame, speaks at Commencement Day exercises . . . Thomistic Guild sponsors lecture by Monsignor Sheen . . . O'Halloran opens baseball season by pitching no-hitter but P.C. ended up with nine in the loss column and only five in the win column . . .

JUNIOR YEAR

As Juniors we were a cocky and enthusiastic bunch . . . We now numbered 308, approximately 87 had left the fold for specialized training, the Dominican novitiate, because of scholastic difficulties, or just got tired of going to school . . . We whooped and hollered about reviving football at the College . . . However, all we succeeded in reviving were the age old arguments against it . . . The Pyramid Players staged a fine Irish comedy Derryowen . . . Magnificent Grotto dedicated to Our Lady of the Rosary and honoring 65 alumni dead of World War II enhanced tremendously the beauty of the campus... The Chaplain's drive, determination and courage to build this edifice, and his subsequent successful efforts to beautify the Grotto, will long be remembered... Most Rev. Emanuel Suarez, O.P., Master General of the Dominican Order, visited the College, dedicated the Grotto (ceremonies witnessed by 10,000), Albertus Magnus Hall, awarded honorary degree of Doctor of Laws... 1000 students marched in Holy Name parade in Boston along with 120,000 others in tremendous, awe-inspiring mass demonstration of Faith... Most Rev. Francis P. Keough, fourth Bishop of Providence, elected Archbishop of Baltimore, premier see of Catholicism in North America... Sophomore Smoker entertaining and amusing success... Basketball team won 10, lost 10... Split with Brown, lost two to R. I. State... Newly installed campus cops, Charlie and Jack, had merry time playing tag and shuttling back and forth to Assistant Dean's office... Cowl clarion call for Tarzan candidates uncovered pair of dandies... The eventual winner in national contest had just a little more on the ball than our boys... Bruce Marshall, noted Scottish author and convert to Catholicism, and Max Jordan, Dean of American foreign correspondents, lectured at College... Dominican Retreat Masters, Father J. V. Williams and F. J. Reynolds, playfully panned the Cowl and each other for mistaken identity at Easter retreat... They captured easily the friendship of the entire student body... Elliot Lawrence played at Prom... In the classroom we heard, "In the last class we were discussing—", "Now kiddies—", "Lots of macaroni in here boys, the meatballs come later... Rock residents staged annual Carolan Club weekend, crowded Penquin Room at 10:30 intermission, shied away from the "slot" position in the dinning hall, enjoyed after dinner smokes and talks in comfortable lounge, and appreciated understanding and patience of the Dean of Men... What resident will forget the rainy night "rannapping" of R. I. State mascot and the system of defense provided in expectation of retaliation...

Remember how nothing was considered worthwhile unless St. Thomas said it?

SENIOR YEAR

The largest Senior class in the school's history, 299 students, of whom 57 were married, returned to a campus whose number of buildings had almost doubled in a few years... Six hundred and sixty-eight Freshmen swelled school's enrollment to a record total of 1875... New Science building now completely ready for occupancy... Part of Donnelly Hall now serves as Freshman dormitory... Father Georges returns to faculty along with several other former members... Father Shea begins another tour of duty as Dean of Aquinas... Registrar's and Bursar's offices moved into larger offices... Former Physics lab on first floor of Harkins converted into smoking and lounging room... Pedestrian death trap—the island at entrance to the parking lot—was removed helping to even the deadly dodging duel between dormers and day hops... Assembly periods were to be held once a week; attendance compulsory... First student Handbook since '41 gives new students a briefing... Bishop McVinney celebrates Mass of the Holy Ghost in War Memorial Grotto... Valiant attempt made by Carolan Club to recall hazing days... Soph Hop October 24... I. Kono Klast makes debut in Cowl... Spike Shoe Club started... Christopher Lynch sings at Verdames Concert... Jam Session packs Harkins Hall... Library increases facilities... Flying Club purchases Aeronca Cub... Seniors hold '49er dance, first strictly informal one in school's history... Student government plan accepted by administration and student body... Friars Club holds annual formal... Horace Heidt plays at P.C. benefit New Year's Eve... Bishop McVinney led by Alumni... Sixty-five couples at Family Night... Bishop blesses Albertus Magnus Hall... Carolan Clubbers weekend February 11 to 13... Charlie Barnett selected as Junior Prom Band... 228 attain Honor Roll under new marking system... Nine thousand jam R. I. Auditorium for Mid-Winter Festival and Penny Sale...

The most outstanding events of our collegiate career are still to come... Deadlines allow us to look at them only as happening in the future. The necessary evil, exams, must be overcome and then comes the exciting sequence of Cap and Gown Day and dance, Commencement and the Commencement Ball.

Events after that are in the unforeseeable future. Who among us shall be the first to garner a blue ribbon for achievement? While most likely all cannot be great temporal successes, each and every one can achieve everlasting greatness by steadfast devotion to the rules of living acquired at this Dominican College.

ALBERTUS MAGNUS CLUB

Take equal quantities of intelligence personality and cordiality, place them in a test-tube and heat slowly with the flame of friendship—this is the formula the Albertus Magnus Club has used for many years in the running of their organization. The cultural intent of the doctors and physicians of tomorrow is manifested by their ever increasing interest in the practical medical sciences. The social life of these Junior and Senior Pre-Medical students constitutes a second phase of endeavor which graciously supplements their scientific labors.

BLACKSTONE VALLEY CLUB

The Blackstone Valley Club embraces those students from the twin cities of Pawtucket and Central Falls and from the towns of Cumberland and Lincoln. The fact that it has one of the largest memberships of any of the sectional clubs at Providence College is manifested by the spirit and energy with which this Club has sponsored activities both on and off the campus. The main social event of the Club's calendar is their annual banquet and dance where old friends meet and new friends are made.

DEBATING UNION

The Providence College Debating Union, long recognized throughout the East as an outstanding organ of collegiate rhetoric and argumentation, once more has entered the field to bring honor and prestige to our Dominican College. The contesting members are carefully selected after a series of intra-mural debates and long and faithful application to the principles of good debating. This year's schedule lists such outstanding rivals as Boston College, Rhode Island State College, Rutgers, John Marshall Law School, Columbia, Saint Peters, Brooklyn Polytech, Tufts, the Universities of Boston, Maine and New Hampshire, and Holy Cross. The fine record of the Debating Union is reflected in the exceptional ability of its membership.

The click of a shutter constitutes an introduction to a member of the Camera Club. From a Kodak Brownie to a Speed-Graphic, these gentlemen of the flash-bulb society, know their business. Within the Club they discuss darkroom technique, focus procedure, the arrangement of the subject and a multitude of other topics dear to the heart of a camera enthusiast. The fruits of their labors constitute the majority of the pictures you see in this book and in the Cowl. The Camera Club enjoys the facilities of a modern and fully equipped dark room. The members also sponsor an annual Photographic Salon wherein the student body may view some of their best pictures of the year.

CAROLAN CLUB

The resident students of Aquinas and Donnelly Hall have in the Carolan Club the largest and most active group dedicated to the promotion of friendly relations on the campus. In conjunction with the Junior Veridames, the resident club holds Saturday night "record hops" in Aquinas Hall. The Carolan Club supports a touch-football, softball and basketball league as well as pool and ping-pong tournaments. Amateur nights, movies, rallies and rally dances are also included on the agenda of this organization. A semi-formal dance, the Autumn Festival, is held during the first semester. The Annual Dorm Weekend, held at the beginning of the second semester, is considered one of the biggest social events on the College calendar. This year it included a dinner-dance, two orchestras, a varsity basketball game with Brown University, a tea and social at Aquinas Hall, plus an address by an eminent member of the faculty and an open house.

FALL RIVER CLUB

One of the better known sectional groups on the campus, the Fall River Club assures the students from Fall River and vicinity an opportunity to foster and promote congenial relations between themselves and the other students in the College. The Club membership has long promulgated the best interests of Providence College in their home town. In close co-operation with a strong Fall River alumni, the undergraduate Club participates in many extra-curricular social activities, notable amongst them being their annual dance.

FLYING CLUB

The flying enthusiasts of Providence College have banded together in an organization established to promote an interest in aeronautics among the collegiate body. The Flying Club numbers in its membership many students who gained their flying credentials in slightly "hotter" ships and under different circumstances than are known around our peaceful campus. However, the temperament of war-time flying, coupled with the zeal of a great number of student pilots combine to make the Flying Club one of the most instructive and popular in the College. The club engages in actual flying operations. One of the outstanding ambitions of the Club is to take various members of the faculty on a nice barrel-rolling, sightseeing trip—just before the semester marks are recorded.

WILLIAM GALLIGAN, '49, President

FRIAR'S CLUB

The raison d'être of the Friars Club is best expressed in their motto, "Welcome the coming and speed the parting guest." The Friars serve as official hosts of the College in both social and athletic events held on the campus. The furtherance of hospitality and congenial friendship is their constant aim. The only elective group on the campus, the members are selected from the student body on the basis of their willingness to aid in any endeavor designed for the betterment of the College. Final membership is subject to the approval of the faculty and the Office of the Dean. The Friars Club also sponsors the Friars Formal, one of the social highlights of the year and the only "on-campus" formal of the term. The various athletic teams are entertained by a Friar-conducted picnic during the Spring season.

GLEE CLUB

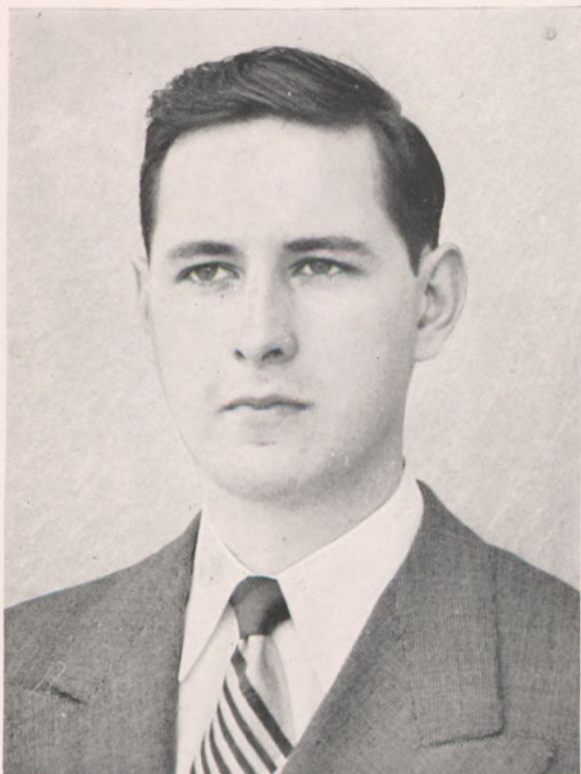

The harmonious renditions of the Glee Club add a pleasant page to the book of our college experiences. The emanation of male voices from the practice rooms in Aquinas and Harkins Hall has proved a pleasant diversion to many a student weary of poring over his Metaphysics or Organic Chemistry text. The College Glee Club provides a musical background for many of the religious functions of the College as well as being the nucleus of the College Choir. This musical group also presents a number of concerts over the radio and sings in conjunction with many other collegiate musical organizations.

GREATER BOSTON CLUB

For every Cabot and Lodge who leaves Beacon Hill for Cambridge, we can find an equal number of Cahills, Regans and McMahons congregated at South Station on their way to Providence College. These affable gentlemen from the city of the bean and the cod constitute a large and aggressive sectional club on the campus. With a true Bostonian spirit of sociability, the Boston Club holds many extra-curricular functions both on and off the campus. In the last three years, two of the captains of the college Varsity Basketball Team have been cum laude members of the Greater Boston Club which just goes to prove that Boston can successfully combine athletic ability with intellectual acumen.

HARTFORD CLUB

The ever-aggressive students from the "Insurance City" unite to form a truly representative section of the undergraduate body. Intellectually, they can stand with the best. Athletically inclined, the Hartford Club sponsors two basketball teams in the Dorm League and the only sectional bowling league in the College. Their social year is enlivened by various functions in Providence and by one or more formal dances in Hartford. Independent in spirit, tone and initiative, it might well be said that on the Providence College campus none but themselves can be their parallel.

KENT COUNTY CLUB

The Kent County Club of Providence College traces its origin back to the year 1939. It was founded for the purpose of uniting the students from Warwick, West Warwick, East Greenwich and Coventry. As in the other sectional groups in the College, the Kent County men believe that one of the lasting effects of their college careers will be found in the friendships they formulate with men of their own locality. With this end in mind, the Kent County Club sponsors an annual dinner-dance where friendly relations are cemented and tomorrow's memories are made.

METROPOLITAN CLUB

There is only one city in the world—New York. Or so we are led to believe by the members of the Metropolitan Club. Coming from Gotham or vicinity, the Metropolitanites are a small but select group that reflect credit on the town for which Washington Irving predicted such a lasting future. Working in close harmony with a large alumni group, the New Yorkers characterize their off-campus activities by outstanding social functions in their home city. New York and Providence may be miles apart geographically but the members of the Metropolitan Club have instituted a good-neighbor policy on the College campus which obviates distance.

The Monogram Club is composed of those men who have won their Varsity letter in the various fields of athletic endeavor. It is, therefore, a social organization representative of the athletes and managers who have earned the approval of the Athletic Director and their respective coaches for the outstanding manner in which they have made good sportsmanship, teamwork and athletic ability synonymous with the name of Providence College. The Monogram Club sponsors the annual Varsity Hop and the Collegiate Boxing Show.

NEW BEDFORD CLUB

Rhode Islanders are well acquainted with the rich history and the glorious past of the whaling city by the sea. So also, the student body of Providence College is gratified by the rich spirit and the ardent college zeal displayed by those men from New Bedford whose progenitors went down to the sea in ships. The rugged personality which drove the sailing ships of another year to the broad and wintry wastes of the Antarctic is currently displayed on the Providence College campus by the contemporary Ahabs, Starbucks, and Ishmaels of the present day. They have flown the banner of Providence College high on their mast-heads and have always kept their compasses pointed toward the true north—VERITAS.

NEW HAVEN CLUB

The New Haven Club, whose origin dates back to the earliest years of the College, is well steeped in tradition and campus prominence. Providence College has always been fortunate in gathering a large student representation from New Haven and thus numerically the undergraduate body from the Southern Connecticut city has always been strong. Aside from their numerous campus activities the New Haven Club, in conjunction with a well-founded Alumni Organization, holds one of the social season's largest off campus functions, the annual New Year's Party, at a select New Haven location. There new friendships are formed and old acquaintances perpetuated. The guidon of Providence and VERITAS is well borne in their home city by the loyal sons of a distinguished Alma Mater.

THE MEMBERSHIP

NEWPORT CLUB

The Newport Club is the social organ for the resident students from our well-known Rhode Island seaport. It offers its members a society through which they are able to fill their leisure hours with a varied recreational and educational program of mutual interest. The war years saw a temporary suspension of the Newport Club but now that the world in general has returned to some semblance of normality, the Newportmen have resumed their traditional precepts of hospitality and joviality as exemplified in their Club.

PHILOMUSIAN SOCIETY

The Philomusian Society may rightfully boast of being the oldest student organization on the campus. It was founded by members of the Silver Jubilee class for the purpose of promoting a spirit of good fellowship and the engendering of a brotherly comradery amongst the Dominican pre-ecclesiastical students, residents of Guzman Hall. The present day Philomusians can point with justifiable pride to a long line of former inhabitants of Guzman Hall who have gone forth to follow in the footsteps of Saint Dominic.

At regular meetings, the plans for various holiday entertainments are formulated, both recreational and intellectual. The "lovers of the Muse", as their name signifies, also sponsor the Lacordaire Debating Society.

SHIP AND SCALES CLUB

The prime purpose of the Ship and Scales Club is a farsighted one—to equip the Senior business students of today to be the junior executives of tomorrow. The Senior business students work through the medium of their organization to contact the alumni and graduate leaders in the various fields of business endeavor. Through these invaluable contacts the Seniors are better enabled to profit from the experience of men already wise in the functionings of the business world. In this manner they can equip themselves to step into the highly competitive fields of trade that we know exist today. The intellectual stimulus and the social activities of the Ship and Scales Club provide an interesting and valuable addition to the theories learned in the classroom.

The newly formed Spiked Shoe Club includes in its membership the athletes of the Cross-Country and Track teams. The fleet-footed gentlemen of the board and cinder track meet frequently to discuss problems peculiar to their branch of athletics and to cement in a social manner, friendships acquired on the playing field. The Spiked Shoe Club has shown the collegiate body films of the Olympics and has presented many interesting speakers from the sports world. Although new in inception, the Spiked Shoe Club promises to be long in duration. Their main aim is to arouse student interest in our newly formed Track teams and to maintain that interest when Providence College has become a name to contend with in the realm of the Spiked Shoe.

TAUNTON CLUB

Gathering within its membership the students from Taunton, this newly-formed Club fosters the presentation of the good name of Providence College to the residents of their home town. The efforts of the Taunton Club are characterized by a feeling of common educational endeavor and a strong social spirit which the members manifest both on and off the College campus. The congeniality of the Taunton students is well known on the Friar campus and this same spirit has permeated all the activities of the newly formed sectional club. Leisure hours have a new meaning when the spirit of common fellowship becomes the motivating factor.

Draw a line from Springfield north to the Massachusetts border—everything west of it, within the boundaries of the state, falls within the domain of the Western Massachusetts Club. The students from this area, realizing the need of a social group to represent their common interests, have banded together to found a new and spirited sectional organization. Undergraduate days can never fall into the realm of mere memories when the men of this sectional group reunite at some future date.

The motto of the city of Waterbury is, "Nothing is more lasting than brass." We are certain that the Brass City residents, now students at Providence College, will find that the friendships made and the cordial relations instituted through the medium of the newly organized Waterbury Club will be as enduring as brass in the years to come. The members of the Waterbury Club have already gained stature as the result of a highly successful dinner-dance held during the Christmas holidays.

THE THIRD ORDER OF SAINT DOMINIC

The Third Order of Saint Dominic, more commonly known as the Tertiaries, was founded in the 13th century by the saint whose name it bears. The members are pledged to aim at the attainment of true Christian perfection in a manner conformable to their secular mode of life, by the observance of the rules approved for them by the Holy See. Through the medium of the Third Order, the Tertiaries gain the moral strength and spiritual conviction which enables them to avoid the multitudinous dangers of the world and to promulgate the furtherance of works of Faith and Charity. The Third Order is not a mere religious confraternity; it is an integral, apostolic part of the Order of Friars Preachers. Tertiaries are admitted to the Third Order after a period of probation. Having received the habit of the Order—the scapular—the Postulant is admitted to a share in all the spiritual favors of the Brothers and Sisters of the Order.

The men from Woonsocket are noted for their vitality and originality. Their Club is noted for the same. The Woonsocket Club has an active social season which usually includes a Christmas Dance and another social held during the Easter vacation. SWIMMING CLUB

The Swimming Club, more popularly known as the Aquatic Friars, is composed of those natators of the College who have evidenced an interest in forming an athletic organization conducive to good pleasure and physical well-being. The constant churning of the otherwise placid waters of the Metcalf Pool testifies to the fact that these men are ready and willing to compete in a fast 220 yard swim or even challenge the record of Lord Byron in swimming the Hellespont. It is the desire of the members of the Aquatic Friars to form a nucleus of what may, in the future, become the Providence College Varsity Swimming Team.

THE ALEMBIC

The Alembic is the College literary publication. It appears quarterly and features the offerings of the student body in the field of good literature. Original articles, essays, short-stories, poems and papers of academic interest are published. Founded in 1921, it is the oldest publication at Providence College. The name, Alembic, signifies "anything that strengthens or purifies character." In accordance with the spirit of the title that identifies their publication the Editors of the Alembic have constantly striven to present to the student body that which is the best of student literary character correlated with the profound teachings of morality. Time has

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Basketball is rated as the number one spectator sport throughout the nation. Rhode Island, in general, and Providence College, in particular, are not exceptions to this rule. Because of the absence of football that enthusiasm is heightened at the college and the students take a more than average interest in the doings of the Basketball Club. This was especially true this year when everybody looked forward to the addition of last years outstanding Freshman Club to the holdover veterans.

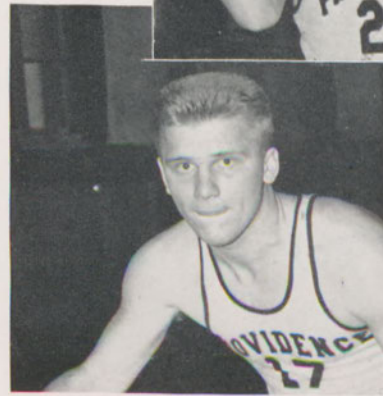

After two weeks of careful conditioning under the experienced eye of Harry Coates, our eminent track mentor, the candidates retired to the Harkins Hall floor where practice sessions began in earnest. Despite the warmth of the gym, Artie Weinstock and Tom Orr still wore their "sweat-suits" in an attempt to shed all remaining excess weight. From the outset of these pre-season drills it was obvious that student support would not be lacking. Each day ever increasing crowds of onlookers came to observe the progress of the club and to speculate as to the fortunes of this group, who were to wear the black and white during the coming season. With the approach of the first game, speculation was rife as to which players would be chosen for the starting assignment. This proved to be needless work, for Coach Drew, looking forward to the game with Holy Cross, decided to open the season under wraps.

Once again Assumption College of Worcester supplied the opening game opposition. Displaying nothing fancy, the Friars succeeded in penetrating Assumption's zone defense and somewhat dampened the Greyhound's alumni reunion by scoring a 56-47 victory. Still marking time, the Friars disposed of Fairfield University at Mount Pleasant Gym in a walk 56-38.

On Saturday, December 11th, at Rhode Island Auditorium, the Holy Cross Crusaders entertained Rhode Island basketball fans with the sparkling brand of ball that has made them national favorites. Led by two All-Americans, George Kaftan and Bob Cousy, the Crusaders soundly trounced the Friars 75-34. Completely routed by the visitors' attack, the team never once exhibited the form shown daily in practice.

Rebounding with vengeance the club, led by Bresnahan, Orr, and Nissell, captured an easy 74-47 triumph from the Aces of American International on Wednesday evening, December 15.

The next game with Brooklyn was a thriller. With the lead changing hands a total of twenty-one times the Kingsmen and Friars battled on even terms throughout most of the encounter. Our stellar Sophomore Sam Nissell led the way with eleven goals and five fouls. The veteran combination of Bresnahan, Lozski, and Williams—the latter appearing in his first game—contributed immensely to the victory.

"Aces Fashion Major Upset as P. C. Strikes Bad Night". This was the headline that welcomed us the morning after an inspired A. I. C. Club, definitely up for the game, defeated an overconfident Friar quintet, 55-51. Ray Garcia was high for P. C. with twelve points.

After their poor performance against A. I. C., P. C. was decidedly the underdog in the game with Boston College. Coached by General McClellan, former Friar mentor, B. C. went all out in the first half and left the court sporting a five point lead. In the second half, with Alex Becker leading the way, Providence overhauled the Eagles, plucking them, 63-58, for a grand victory.

A week later the Friars began their road trip meeting Yale at New Haven. The eligibility of "Shanky" Pellegrino, high scoring L. I. U. transfer, heartened the squad and its rooters. Pellegrino's presence in the lineup, however, was not enough, as Yale, led by their All-American forward, Tony Lavelli, defeated the Friars, 88-51. Held to a 31-30 half time advantage, the Bulldogs scored ten quick points at the outset of the second half to hop to a commanding lead. From then on it was only a matter of how high they'd go, as they raced the hapless Friars off the court.

Although outscoring the Peacocks of St. Peter's College, 46-44, from the floor, the club lost the second game of their road trip, 70-60. The Jerseyites converted twenty-six charity awards to the Friars fourteen in a game marked by extraordinarily poor officiating. Wally Sheil of the victors and Ray Garcia shared scoring honors with seventeen points apiece.

Over the top . . . Brooklyn

Artie the juggler . . . Fairfield

VARSITY BASKETBALL

With Tom Gallagher scoring twenty-two points, the St. Francis Terriers handily administered the third consecutive defeat to the Friars, 73-56. Using a pivot man with great success, St. Francis, a big and rugged team, never once was headed in this hard fought game in Brooklyn. Incidentally Friar action was televised for the first time in this game.

In the fourth game of the trip, Seton Hall was host to the Friars at South Orange. The Pirates, shooting seldom but with remarkable accuracy rolled over the Friars, 67-42. Definitely out-classed!

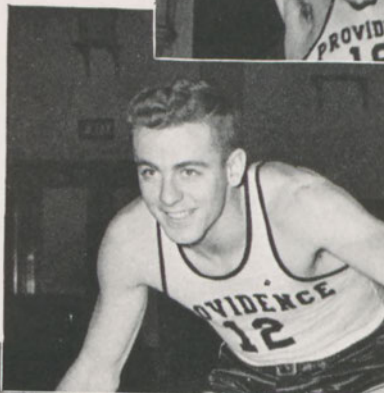

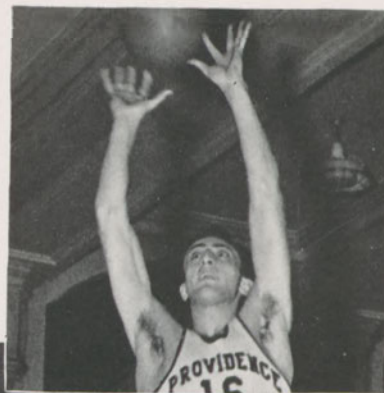

On the return trip, Providence met Fairfield for the second time. The strain of playing five road games in eight nights was evident as the club was hard pressed to pull out a 48-44 victory.

What proved to be the winning basket was scored by Sophomore Larry De Palma who led the Drewmen with twelve points.

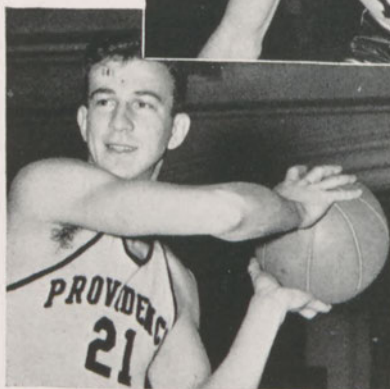

The Gymnasts of Springfield college furnished the opposition in the first game following the disappointing road trip. It was a close game—an exciting one. As it was, Springfield, though hard pressed, eked out a 54-51 victory. Lozoski's performance that evening is noteworthy. Displaying set shooting at its best, Walt wasted only one shot while scoring seventeen points. To no avail!

Despite frantic juggling of lineups by Coach Drew, the slump continued. Colby and Bates, generally considered two of the weaker clubs on the schedule, were the next to vanquish the Friars. Colby's oft-beaten quintet rolled up seventy-nine points as they surprised the visiting Friars. The Bates game was closer, 67-65, and P. C. displayed better ball, but it must go down as another defeat. The main reason for the loss was P. C.'s aggressiveness which led to numerous fouls. The Bobcats capitalized on this and poured in thirty-one points from the line of least resistance. Joe Blain was our leading point-getter in both of these games played in Maine.

Despite the poor record of the Friars the students flocked to Marvel Gym for the first intra-city game with Brown. In a game which developed slowly, the Friars and Bruins battled on even terms for the first half. With Frank Pellegrino successfully bottling up the Bruin Ace, Moe Mahoney, and contributing the first seven points for the Friars it appears at times that the club would come through. A late Brown rally blasted the Friars' hopes and the fast improving Brown team won another.

The scene for the twenty-eight court battle between Providence College and Rhode Island State was the North Main Street Arena. Keen foes since 1920, the series had proved that past records mean little when the Rams and Friars meet on this neutral court.

In a game which opened in typical rollicking Ram fashion both teams threw defense to the wind and concentrated on scoring. It was in this department that Ken Goodwin, six-foot five Rhody center, excelled. Goodwin, the nation's eighth leading scorer, poured twenty-seven points through the net to pace State's 74-61 victory.

Captain Charlie Bresnahan, with seventeen points, tried hard to stem the tide. Our sophomores Frank Pellegrino and Larry DePalma provided the Rams with many anxious moments and assured the boys from Kingston that the next two years would produce many more.

It was Springfield College that handed the Drewmen their sixth defeat in a row. Playing before a capacity crowd, most of them alumni attending an annual reunion, it was only a question of how high the Gymnasts would go. The Maroons ran up seven quick points before the visiting Friars could score and the home club went on handily to win.

With Frank Pellegrino hitting for a total of twenty-seven points, the Friars turned in one of their best games of the season against Boston College. For a time it seemed that the Eagles would once again fall before the slumping Friars but finally the club succumbed, 62-57. The Freshmen came through with a sparkling victory over the Eaglets in the Prelim to take some of the sting out of the loss.

A Rensselaer team, best described as rangy, were the next to topple the Friars. The game was close but never once did Providence gain the lead. Some erratic passing and, once again, lack of height tells the story.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

A statement often made and almost as often supported by fact, is that any team playing R. I. S. C. at Kingston must be spotted twenty points. We have no quarrel with that statement for the Friars despite their intense desire to start rolling, fell before the Rams at Rodman Hall. Ken Goodwin scored thirty-five points in his final collegiate appearance against P. C. Driving all the way, Ray Garcia scored seventeen for the Black and White.

The next night in their only game at the Boston Garden, the Friars were downed by the Ted McConnon coached St. Anselm's team. In past years Larry Drew had been successful in this friendly rivalry with his ex-teammate but not even that incentive could produce a victory. The Hawks triumphed, 70-55, in a dull game.

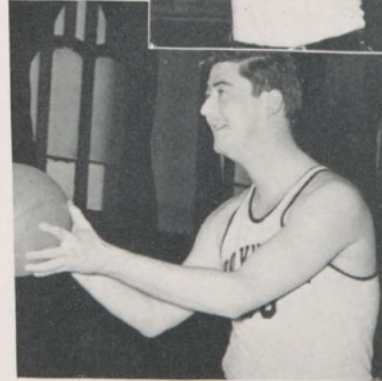

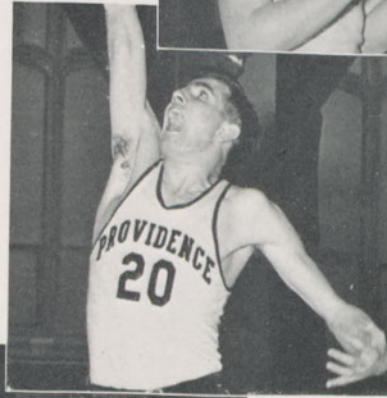

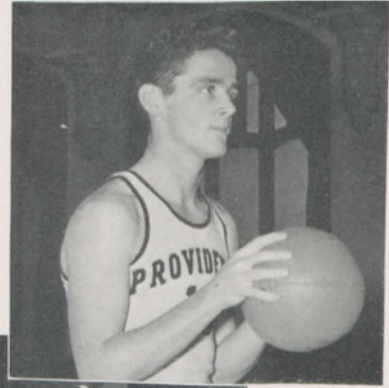

Accepting an invitation from the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball to compete in the New England small college tourney in New Britain the Friars were paired against the classy New Britain Teachers' College quintet. Though trailing 17-4 at the outset of the first half the Friars rallied, exhibiting the brand of ball predicted of them all season. Late in the second half New Britain took command again and won 72-63.

The next evening the Drewmen were handed their second defeat of the season by Colby College in the consolation round of the tourney. Displaying a brand of ball which won the favor of the crowd the P. C. lads were again beaten by fouls. Walt Lozski garnered some prestige for the Friars when his smooth brand of ball won for him a place on the "All-Tournament" first team.

After several days lay-off the club tangled with Clark University. In the first half the Friars displayed their worst form of the year, scoring their first point at the five minute mark, and collecting but eleven points in the period. In the second half Providence played much better ball, and several spectacular baskets by Bresnahan and Power pulled the game out, 46-45.

In the twenty-sixth and last game of the year, the club tangled with Brown at Marvel Gym. Little can be said other than that we were once again outclassed. Brown won easily 75-51, and the season ended on this low note.

Final Record: 7 Wins, 19 Losses.

Freshman Basketball at Providence College has always enjoyed extraordinary popularity. Naturally the polish of the varsity is lacking, but never do the Frosh take a second place in spirit. It is just this spirit that endeared the team to the fans this year. Perhaps they were not as good a club as represented the Freshman Class a year ago, but never did they fail to turn in a creditable performance. Often they suffered from lack of height but usually their phenomenal scoring prowess made up for that defect. Their racehorse style of play, sparkling "hoops", and all-round ability made colorful every game they played.

It is impossible to say how many of these men will appear in varsity uniforms next year. Jim Schlimm, Jerry Lembo, and Ray Korbuscieski seem to have the better chance of making the grade—but if spirit alone were enough, Providence fans would need have no worry about the basketball fortunes of the Friars.

TRACK

If we were to conform strictly to rules of procedure, we would not devote a great deal of space to the track team. As yet, at Providence College, Track is not recognized as a major sport, as are Basketball and Baseball. Classification notwithstanding, to relegate the efforts of the members of this team to a "back seat" would be to display shameful ingratitude and complete lack of appreciation. It would be a denial of the obvious fact that an era—yes, a golden era—has begun here at the College.

Little more than a year ago, Track was added to the list of competitive sports. Harry Coates appeared, issued his call for candidates in the form of a challenge, and the era began. Those present when Harry was introduced to the student body, that St. Patrick's night, 1948, will always remember it. This elderly man spoke and all were spellbound—a track team was no longer an ideal, a dream, but a reality; and there in the boxing ring stood the man who was to lead that team to the heights. No one doubted his ability that night—no one doubts it today. It is inevitable that he attain success for he will accept nothing else.

Harry promised no miracles. Anyone even slightly familiar with athletics knows that a track team of championship caliber is not the product of weeks or months. If material and team spirit are lacking, no matter the qualifications of the coach. Spirit—Coates found in abundance! Material? Well, work, work, and more work!

Harry asked only for men "with strong legs and guts". His challenge was answered by veterans, softened by years of comparative inactivity—Frosh, right out of high school—kids and men! Some had run before in competition, most had not. All responded to Coates' call with an enthusiasm never before witnessed at Providence College. They say that track is a lonely man's sport because of the hours spent silently in conditioning; yet such gregarious characters as Frank DiIuglio, Ray For-gays and Jake Powell were among the first to report. And they worked! They ran until, exhausted, they threw themselves on the turf; quarter milers and half milers plodded over a six mile course because Harry told them to do so. By Aquinas and Guzman, down Eaton St., up River Ave., behind the stands at Hendricken Field, round and round again! Thus the team was developed.

Harry wanted a board track! Faced with conditions that would have deterred many a younger coach and a more experienced squad, Coates did not falter. One of his first acts was to lay out a temporary track on land but recently brushland. Nothing elaborate, not even cinders, but a track, nonetheless! Here he conducted several intramural meets, culling the most promising aspirants for his squad. Here, too, he trained his original team. Any day, any time, one had but to look past the parking lot to see him there, striding about shouting instructions, demonstrating proper form, setting an example for effort. Even then he was formulating plans for the construction of a board track, an inestimable asset to an indoor track team. Last fall there was dumped on Hendricken Field a pile of lumber and some nails. There was the track. Between workouts the team transformed that shapeless pile into a board track that will see plenty of use these coming years. Another step forward!

During the summer of 1948, Gerry Alexander, representing P. C., won the New England A.A.U. Senior Championship with a javelin throw of 191 feet 5½ inches. This was the first entry into a track record book of a P. C. athlete.

Fall came—Cross country, more for conditioning than competition, was introduced. Two thousand students roamed the campus and with them the ever watchful with Brown and La Salle. The Mutt and Jeff combination of the Frosh relay team, Jerry Kallman and John Cassidy, believed that “long Johns” were the uniform of the day as they successfully gave their all, time and time again, preparing for the big days to come—days when they would lead the pack to the wire in the best meets in the country.

The Friars made their first New England appearance in the Boston Garden, the occasion being the K. of C. meet. The Frosh finished second to the amazing Seton Hall freshman. The Varsity placed fourth in their race which was taken by Springfield College. In the Annual BAA games the frosh closely followed Boston University to the tape and the Varsity placed third to B. C. and R.P.I.

Jerry Kallman

In the interim the Harriers successfully competed in the Brooklyn K. of C. meet and in the Boston Y.M.C.A. meet. The great Seton Hall frosh this time defeated the Friar yearlings by a scant margin. This was a feather in the Coates hat as the frosh had been handily defeated Harry Coates. He too was a student—not in the academic, but in the athletic sense. He was seeking and separating the men from the boys, picking out future harriers in his fast expanding plans.

A cross-country meet with Brown was scheduled. None of the Friars had ever run the tedious four mile distance; the heavens opened and a courageous band of trackmen plodded through seas of mud over the unknown terrain. Maps were not the order of the day and many a runner was seen to head toward the nurse's home at Butler Hospital. Knowledge of the course and good conditioning, brought about by many summer meets, spelt victory for the Bruins. Frank Hannaway finished fourth leading all other Friars to the tape. By the time the last Friar came into view Harry had had his evening meal and was lighting his last Pall Mall. It was a hardy and gallant crew that fell victim to Lady Luck and Brown.

With the first snowfall, informal meets were held by the Pirates previously. A point had been proven—the board track on Hendricken Field spelt improvement.

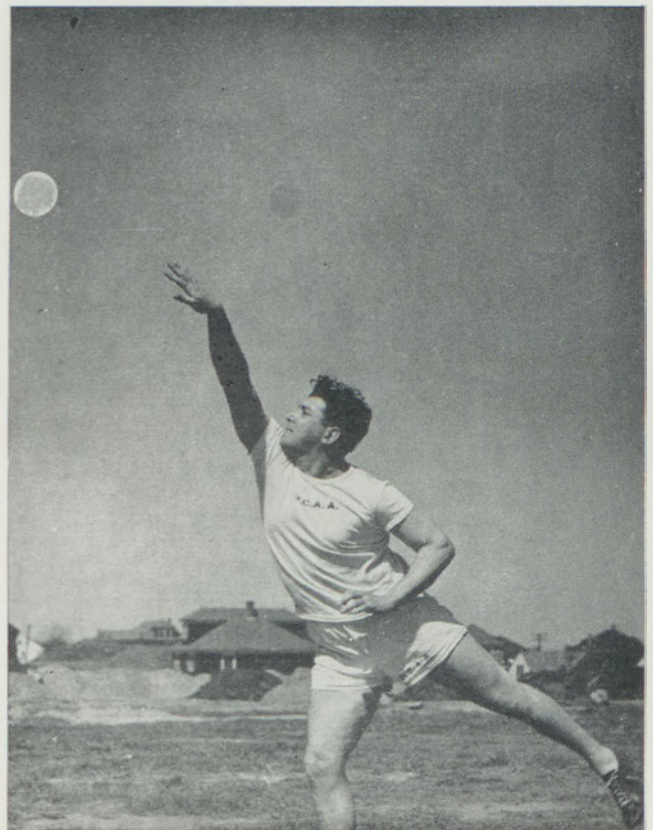

Before 500 rabid fans an intrasquad meet was held on February 27. Alexander tossed the javelin 198' 11", while Anthony Fratantuono hurled the discuss 147' 4".

Cassedy won the 300 in 34.1. Bill Sherry made 2:03 for the 880. Emulating Harrison Dillard, John Shanley took the 45 yard hurdles in 6.2. The Varsity Relay team of Frank DiIuglio, Bill Morris, John Shanley and Gerry McGurkin ran 1:06 for the four lap relay. All times are records for the new board track.

The big event on the schedule is the Providence College Board Track Meet, both interscholastic and intercollegiate. This is scheduled for Saturday, March 12, and as the VERITAS goes to press entries are pouring in from all over the East.

Perhaps this story on track at P.C. is a story of Harry Coates, but isn't the name Coates synonymous with track?

At Bloomfield High School, several years ago, Coates' team won the American Championship in the first year, at St. Benedict's, in the second year, at Newark Prep the same span elapsed. Seton Hall Prep, Mercersburg, and N.Y.U. were champs also in the initial venture. Again at Villanova, Seton Hall Prep and Seton Hall College, world records and championships were achieved by Coates coached harriers. From far off Setonia has come the cry that Harry Coates has lost his touch that no longer were his trackmen human whipping posts. The Pirates have already eaten their words—P.C. has made and will make their mark on both board and cinder. It's not a loss of touch—just a change of system.

BASEBALL 1948

THE famed snows of 1948 finally melted and the Friars quest for renewed frame on the diamond began. The sounds emanating from the gym were no longer identifiable with basketball but rather with the warm weather sport of baseball. The pitchers were "loosening up".

OUT on Hendricken Field little "Stutz" Modliszewski worked industriously with rake and hoe readying the surface for still another season. Walt needed aid, for the winter snow had been particularly destructive to right field, where several yawning chasms offered serious hazard to any roving fielder forgetful of their presence. When faithful old "Cy" Barker showed up one day, everyone knew that the preparations were complete and practice was soon to begin in earnest.

COACH HAL MARTIN issued his long awaited general call for candidates on Saint Patrick's Day. At first the team was forced to work out within the confines of Harkins Hall, for we found our first foe to be an unscheduled one, the unpredictable New England weather. Despite these handicaps the club rounded quickly into shape. Everyone worked hard for all knew of the difficult schedule ahead. There was no time for loafing with such perennial collegiate powerhouses as Holy Cross, Yale, St. John's, Boston College and Springfield to be faced.

AS was expected it was practically a veteran club that took the field for the first game. Captain Angelone, Maloney, Sullivan, Mattera, McBurney, Keenan, Modliszewski—veterans all! Walt Lozoski and Ted Mezejewski, both newcomers to P. C. baseball, completed the opening day lineup.

COACH MARTIN'S opening-day combination vindicated his trust in them when they downed American International College of Springfield, 9-3. Tom Keenan proved to any yet doubting that he was in fine shape. Down to a trim 200 pounds, he really mowed down the A.I.C. batters, striking out ten and limiting them to 5 hits. The Friars, meanwhile, led by Jim Sullivan and Ralph Mattera pounded out eleven bingles in an encouraging display of opening day offense. NICE START!

THE Technicians from M.I.T. were next to face the Fighting Friars. Slide rules were apparently of no avail, for Red O'Halloran, making a bid for his second no-hitter in two seasons was invincible as he completely silenced the visitors bats, striking out twelve in the process. Ted Mezejewski really came into his own that day by driving in 4 of P.C.'s 7 runs. STILL ROLLING!

WITH Dick Maloney, peppery Friar second sacker, contributing several breath-taking defensive plays in addition to his usual timely hitting, the Friars made it three in a row, trouncing Upsala College, 10-4. As in the first two games the Providence pitcher went the distance, with Soph. Don Foley scattering 9 hits over the route. THAT'S THREE!

ONE of the largest crowds of the season was on hand to view the 19th in the series of diamond battles between the R. I. Rams and the P. C. Friars. Highly publicised as a mound duel between big Tom Keenan and State's submarine ball artist, Jack Smith, the game opened in the expected manner. Midway in the game, however, the Friar's defense cracked wide open to the extent of nine errors. So it was that the Rams triumphed, although outhit and unable to score a single earned run. Final score, R. I. State 10, P. C. 3. A TRAGEDY OF ERRORS!

ON April 28, the Friars journeyed to "Bean Town" where the Eagles of Boston College combined 16 hits, 14 free tickets, a hit batsman and 5 Providence errors to notch a thumping 22-4 win. Five Boston runs in the first inning proved but a forerunner of the deluge. 'NUFF SAID!

THE whole school had been waiting impatiently for the game with St. John's. Highly regarded by New York sportswriters, the lads from the big city were established as prohibitive favorites to chalk up another win. Disregarding odds, the Friars went to work with a will. Keenan was in top form, Modliszewski had his greatest day at the plate, and, for the first time, the squad played errorless ball. P. C.'s victory, 11-3. STUNNING UPSET!

OUT of all the games played, the first encounter with the Bruins will probably be remembered for the longest time. Going into the 6th, Providence held a seemingly comfortable lead of 7-0. Foley had registered 11 strikeouts in 5 innings and was untouchable. Then came disaster! Don's arm went dead, Friar firemen were ineffective, and Brown pulled it out, 8-7. ALMOST!

Criss-cross at first

NO one will deny that one 22-4 drubbing in a season is more than enough for any ball club, but Yale wasn't content to have it so. Once again the Friars were sunk to the same tune. The Bulldogs were snarling that day! The only consolation Providence had was that the two speedsters, Ray St. George and John McBurney, ran wild against a catcher generally conceded the Ivy League's best. THAT HURT!

BOSTON COLLEGE again, and they threw up their ace, Steve Stuka, one of the best pitchers in college ball. Stuka was immense while pitching the Eagles to a second win over the Friar's this time, 9-1. STUKA'S SLANTS!

ON the 15th of May the Friars started to roll again, beating Holy Cross, 7-4. Two of P. C.'s greatest athletes, Keenan and Lozoski, combined to continue the jinx P. C. baseballers hold over the Crusaders. Thus it was that the disappointment over the calling off of the first H. C. game because of rain, with the Friars leading 8-5 in the 4th, was allayed to some extent. SHAPING UP!

PROVIDENCE has always found Springfield a tough team to beat in any sport, but 1948 baseball proved the exception to the rule. In the first game with the Gymnasts, with Providence the host team, the Martinmen continued to play the sparkling brand of ball that enabled them to down Holy Cross. Keenan again, this time a four-hitter. Ralph Mattera and Ray St. George each collected three hits in a 13 hit attack. Highlight of the afternoon was Ray's booming triple to left center which went 430 ft. on the fly. P. C. 6, Springfield 3. RIDING HIGH!

WITH the team clicking now as never before, the Friars rolled over Brown 13-3. This victory somewhat atoned for the earlier defeat administered by the Bruins. Red O'Halloran came up with a four-hitter and the club, taking advantage of every break, supplied Tommy with all the support necessary. RETRIBUTION!

IN the final game of the year the club garnered an easy win over the Gymnasts of Springfield, this time 5-1. Dick Maloney brought in a couple as Keenan notched victory number 5. SWELL FINISH!

Final record: 8 Wins, 5 Losses for a good year.

GOLF

The Golf Team, heretofore participating informally in inter-collegiate matches, expects to compete this year as a formal team. Veterans on the team, which has gone through two seasons with but one defeat, are Joe Prisco, Tom Newman, Mike Codega, Louie Codega, and Charlie Bresnahan. New material that came up last season are Cal Spinney, John Minicucci, and Bob Tasca.

The team got underway in 1947 under the captaincy and guidance of Vin Damiani. During that season they met with their only defeat (Brown had one of its best teams in years). Last year, because of the late spring weather, their schedule was shortened but, nevertheless, they went through the season undefeated.

Metacomet seems to be the choice for a home course this season. Practice will begin with the first sign of playable conditions on the links.

This year the team hopes to enter the sectional championship matches of the Eastern Intercollegiate Golf Association. Prisco, acting captain last year, believes that if the team can reach its top form by the middle of May, when the event takes place, Providence College will emerge victorious.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

While it is true that Providence College was not formally represented on the gridiron in 1948, football was not totally omitted from the list of campus activities. An intramural league operated throughout the Fall with great success.

No fancy frills for these boys—but colored jerseys were worn for purposes of identification. Informality was the keynote, yet the competition was keen. As in any season, there were tight games and trouncings; games won by breaks and games won by skill. Some teams were “loaded”, others were quite inept, but, regardless of ability, ALL HAD FUN!

Throughout the season, the steadiest and best brand of ball was displayed by the New Haven Club. By winning their league crown and, in a playoff game, defeating a Freshmen club from Guzman Hall, the Nutmeggers won the school championship. More than that, they had earned the right to represent Providence College in the third annual “Finger Bowl” game against the intramural champs of Brown, the Edwards-Hopkins House.

As in all Friar-Bruin encounters, there was an abundance of spirit, color, and will to win. Despite the brilliant passing of Larry DePalma, the boys from “The Rock” were finally nosed out by the slim margin of one touchdown. Score 44-38. Thus it was that another highly enjoyable intramural season ended.

OFFICE OF THE CHAPLAIN

TO THE SENIORS

Heartiest congratulations on your Commencement! It is the realization of an ambition, persistent, and difficult of attainment. It is a splendid tribute to your personal effort and intellectual achievement. May the future hold for each of you continued success and abundant happiness.

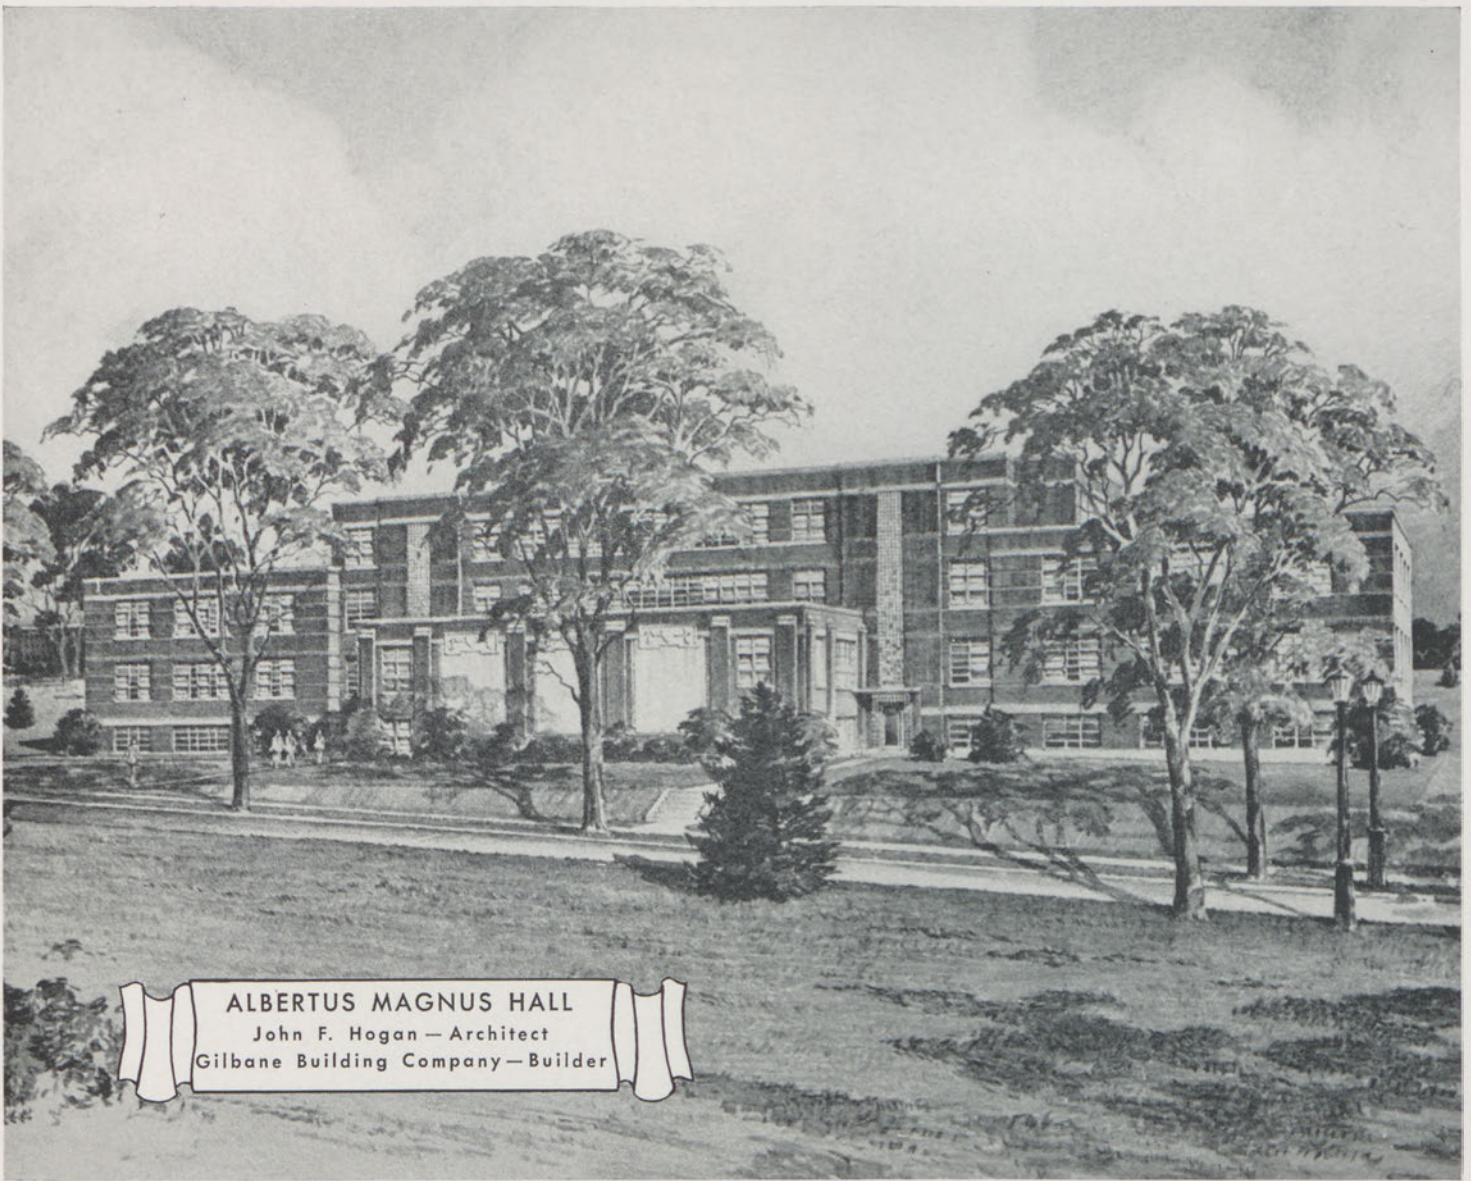

TO ALL STUDENTS

I wish to express profound gratitude for the enthusiastic cooperation that you have given me during the academic year. It was your generous assistance that made the drive for funds for the College War Memorial so magnificently successful. My appreciation cannot be expressed in words.

CHARLES H. MCKENNA, O.P.,

Chaplain.

Building a Greater Future

The new science building, Albertus Magnus Hall, now permits Providence College to look toward a future of greater service in Christian education.

We are pleased that the Gilbane Building Company was selected to share in making possible this new and greater future.

In the City of Bagdad lived Hakeem, the Wise One, and many people went to him for counsel which he gave freely to all, asking nothing in return.

There came to him a young man who had spent much but got little, and said: "Tell me, O Wise One, what shall I do to receive the most for what I spend?"

Hakeem answered: "A thing that is bought or sold has no value unless it contains that which cannot be bought or sold. Look for the Priceless Ingredient."

"But, what is the Priceless Ingredient?" asked the young man.

Spoke then the Wise One: "My Son, the Priceless Ingredient of every product in the marketplace is the Honor and Integrity of him who makes it. Consider his name before you buy."
