My dear Mr. Kitter

I wd like to write
what you ask for ancient
"the Friends," but just
now. I am obliged to let pen & paper alone.
I may be able to do it in the course of the next month. If not, I will tell they have no other will.

I got the impression
since then that the "Independent" was not in need of my contributions, & I live the the day for this, was a very pleasant experience, that I should not be unwelcome.

The fact is I have written very little of any kind for the last six months. I shall remember you
if I have anything to write hereafter.

Very truly
Yours
J. M.
