Dear Friend,

Thy letter reaches me at this place forwarded from Amherst. I suppose the Negroes are at that place.

I have requested my publisher J. R. Osgood & Co. to send to thy address two vols of my prose writings. They contain but a very small part of my prose writings, political, anti-slavery and miscellaneous. published in newspapers & magazines with which I have been connected.

The persons in
"Text after Prach"
are ^{set} J. T. Fields, the publisher gather, & post 2^d myself, and 2^d Pray and Taylor.
The lady's name is not to given.

It would give me
pleasure to meet them
if they should be in N. England.

I am very truly thy friend
