Dear Friend,

Thy letter reaches
me at this place forwarded from Amesbury. I suppose the Magazines are at that place.

I have requested
my publisher J. R. Osgood & Co. to send to thy address two vols of my prose writings.
They contain but a very small part of my prose writings, political, anti-Slavery and miscellaneous, published

in newspapers & magazines with which I have been connected.

The personages in
"Tent on the Beach"
are 1st J. T. Fields, the publisher, author, & poet 2d myself,
and 3d Bayard Taylor.
The lady's name is not to be given.

It would give me
pleasure to meet thee
if thee should be in
N. England.

I am very truly thy frd.
