Rabbi William Gordon Braude

Rabbi Braude has been rabbi of Temple Beth-El, Providence, since 1932. Born in Telsiai, Lithuania, he received his A.B. degree from the University of Cincinnati, completed his rabbinical studies at Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati and earned his M.A. and Ph.D. at Brown University, where he has lectured in Biblical Literature and the History of Religions and where he will lead a graduate seminar next Fall. Author, lecturer and Biblical scholar, he has also been most active in civic affairs with such groups as the Urban League, the World Affairs Council and the Providence Commission on Human Relations.

John Francis Cavanagh

Mr. Cavanagh is a native of Providence, a 1935 graduate of Providence College, and a 1939 graduate of Rhode Island School of Design. Artist and silversmith, he served for many years as designer in the silver and bronze division of Gorham Manufacturing Company before joining Cavanagh Company, religious goods manufacturing firm, of which he is now president. He designed the Providence College Mace, which is carried on all ceremonial occasions at the college. He is a member of the President's Council at the college and is a past president of the Providence College Alumni Association.

Ed McMahon

Mr. McMahon is a native of Lowell, Mass., where he began his career in broadcasting on local stations. In World War II he served as a Marine Corps instructor and fighter pilot. He was recalled to active service in the Korean War and is now a colonel in the Marine Corps Reserve with a record of 85 combat missions and six air medals. He was graduated from The Catholic University of America in 1949 and is now president of the Catholic University Alumni Association. In 1954 he went to New York City to join television personality Johnny Carson, and they have been associated ever since. In addition to his broadcasting duties, he is president of Unicorn Creations, a creative design company, and he has made many theatrical appearances.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Daniel Patrick Reilly

Monsignor Reilly is a Providence native who was educated at Our Lady of Providence Seminary and at Grand Seminaire, St. Brieuc, France. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1953, then did graduate work at Boston College's School of Business Administration. After serving as an assistant at the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul, he was appointed assistant chancellor and secretary to the Most Rev. Russell J. McVinney, Bishop of the Diocese of Providence. In June of 1964 he was made Chancellor, the post he still holds. He is active with the Knights of Columbus, the Rotary Club, the United Fund, and Citizens Committee for Action on Rhode Island Courts.

Mr. Riley is a graduate of Providence College, class of 1937. A native of Fall River, Mass., he joined Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. in that city in 1939 as an accountant. He rose through the ranks and in 1956 was made president of a division of the company, World Bestos Company, New Castle, Indiana. In the years since he moved to the presidency of three other divisions of the company, and then on Dec. 31, 1968, he was made vice president of diversified products for the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company. He now lives in Akron, Ohio, where the parent company is located. In 1961 he was presented the Providence College Alumni Association's award for personal achievement.

Senator Edmund S. Muskie

Senator Muskie was born in Rumford, Me., son of Stephen Muskie, a Polish immigrant, and Josephine Muskie, who was a native of Buffalo, N.Y. He was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Bates College in 1936 and took his law degree, cum laude, from Cornell in 1939. In World War II he served with the Navy as an Engineering and Deck Officer and began his public service career in 1946 when he was elected to the Maine House of Representatives. He later became City Solicitor for Waterville, then was elected Governor of Maine in 1954, and re-elected in 1956. In 1958 he was elected to the United States Senate and was re-elected in 1964. He was the Democratic nominee for Vice President of the United States in 1968.
