

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

THE FIFTY-THIRD COMMENCEMENT

THE GROTTO

JUNE THE FIRST

NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-ONE

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voices in full acclaim
Thy sons shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

STEPHEN RICHARDS GRAUBARD

A native New Yorker, he was graduated from George Washington University and received his A. M. and Ph. D. from Harvard University. He joined the History Department at Harvard in 1950 and remained there until 1966 when he was named Professor of History at Brown University. Since 1961 he has been the editor of Daedalus, the quarterly journal of the Arts and Sciences. He is a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, a trustee of Alfred University, and the author of numerous books, the latest being: "The Embattled University."

RUBY KEELER LOWE

Born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, she attended St. Catherine of Siena School in New York City and the Children's Professional School. Starting as a child actress, she followed a theatrical career to stardom on the stage and in movies until her retirement in 1939. She married John Homer Lowe and they raised three daughters and two sons, one adopted. Widowed two years ago, she returned to the stage last September, after a 31-year absence, to appear in a revival of "No, No, Nanette" and her performance is being hailed as the greatest triumph of her career.

JOSEPH LeCOUNT

His birthplace was Washington, D.C., where he attended Howard University, receiving his LL.B. in 1912. Two years later he was admitted to the Rhode Island Bar as an attorney and counsellor at law, and in 1914 he was admitted to membership in the United States District Court. A pioneer in the civil rights movement, he was a leader in the fight to establish fair employment and anti-discrimination laws. He has long been active in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in the Masons and in the Episcopal Church.

ROSEMARY PIERREL

She was born in Worcester, Mass., was graduated from the Lincoln School in Providence and took her A.B. and A.M. from Boston University and her Ph.D. from Brown University. She has taught at Wheelock College, Barnard College and Brown University where she is Professor of Experimental Psychology. She also served for ten years as Dean of Pembroke College, a post she resigned this year. She is a trustee of Boston University, a trustee of the Citizens Savings Bank, and chairman of the Commission on Institutions of Higher Learning of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

JOSEPH WILLIAM RESS

Born in Providence, he was graduated from Brown University and Harvard Law School, and became a member of the Rhode Island Bar in 1929. He has been president of the E.A. Adams Company since 1949. He is a trustee of Temple Emanuel; has served as president of the executive committee of Miriam Hospital, as president of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island and as president of the United Fund; he is a life trustee of Rhode Island School of Design; a member of the President's Council of Providence College; trustee and treasurer of Brown University and trustee of the Rhode Island Charities Trust.

GREGORY NUGENT F. S. C.

A native of Troy, New York, he attended Manhattan College, received his A.B. at The Catholic University, and his A.M. and Ph.D. at New York University. He taught first at De La Salle Institute in New York, then at Manhattan College, where he became Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences in 1952, Academic Vice President in 1959 and since 1962 has served as President. He is a trustee of The Catholic University, of the College of Mount St. Vincent and of La Salle College.
