

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

THE FIFTY-SECOND COMMENCEMENT

THE GROTTO

JUNE THE SECOND

NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SEVENTY

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voices in full acclaim
Thy sons shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

BISHOP ERNEST J. PRIMEAU

Bishop Primeau, Bishop of Manchester, New Hampshire, is a native of Chicago who was educated at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Chicago, after attending Loyola University for two years. He was ordained in 1934, and until 1956, was a teacher and rector both in Chicago and Rome. From 1956-58, he was an official of the Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office in Rome, and was made Bishop in 1960. He was a member of the Secretariat for Christian Unity of the II Vatican Council. He is currently serving on the Administrative Board of the U.S. Catholic Conference, on the Bishop's Committee on Pastoral Research and Practices, and on the International Secretariat for Christian Unity.

WILLIAM H. HOBAN

Mr. Hoban is a graduate of Providence College, class of 1924. A native of Fall River, Mass., and one of its prominent businessmen. He was a founding member and first president of the Greater Fall River United Fund; Past President of the Providence College Alumni Association; Chairman of the Little Compton (R.I.) Town Council, and is a director of the Fall River National Bank. He is also a trustee and member of the executive committee of Union Hospital, Fall River.

WILLIAM D. MC ELROY

Mr. Mc Elroy, director of the National Science Foundation in Washington, D.C., is a native of Rogers, Texas, who holds degrees from Pasadena Junior College (A.A.), Stanford University (B.A.), Reed College (M.A.), and Princeton University (Ph.D.). After a short term with the Office of Scientific Research and Development of the Government, he was with Johns Hopkins University's department of biology, from 1946-1969, chairing that department from 1956-69. In July of 1969, he was named to head the National Science Foundation.

ART BUCHWALD

Art Buchwald, noted columnist, playwright and author, is a native of New York City and now resides in Washington, D.C., where he is in close proximity to the events on which he humorously comments in his nationally syndicated column. Mr. Buchwald is the author of the successful Broadway play, "Sheep on the Runway."

FIFTY YEARS OF PROVIDENCE COLLEGE HISTORY culminates at today's Fifty-Second Commencement.

Although incorporated in 1917, Providence College did not greet its first students until 1919, among them many returning veterans from World War One. The first Commencement was held in 1923.

During World War Two, when many hundreds of Providence College Students entered military service, four mid-year Commencements were held. Therefore, Providence College reaches the mid-century point of its history, observing its fifty-second Commencement.
