THE FIFTY-SEVENTH COMMENCEMENT

THE GROTTO

MAY THE TWENTY-SEVENTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-FIVE

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voices in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

CLARENCE HAMILTON GIFFORD, JR.

Born in Elizabethtown, Kentucky, he was educated at Peekskill Military Academy and Brown University. After a brief career in real estate in New York City, he served as a Lieutenant in the United States Navy from 1942 to 1946. Upon completion of military service, he returned to Rhode Island to begin a career in investments and banking. A Vice President of the former Phenix National Bank, he joined the Rhode Island Hospital Trust National Bank in 1951 and rose through the ranks to become Executive Vice President in 1962, President and Chief Executive Officer from 1963 through 1968, and Chairman of the Board from 1969 through the present time. Long active in business and civic affairs, he has served as a director, trustee and officer of numerous corporate, community-oriented, and educational organizations including Providence College, where he has served as Chairman of the President's Council since 1967.

MILDRED F. JEFFERSON

A native of Pittsburgh, Texas, she was graduated from Texas College, took her M.S. degree at Tufts University, and received her Doctor of Medicine degree at Harvard Medical School. She received her surgical training at the Boston City Hospital, Boston University Medical Center, the Children's Hospital Medical Center, and Massachusetts General Hospital. She has served as General Surgeon on the staff of the University Hospital, Boston University Medical Center and is Assistant Clinical Professor of Surgery, Boston University School of Medicine. A Diplomate of the American Board of Surgery and member of local and national medical societies, she is a Past President of The Value of Life Committee and has become nationally known for her concern for the rights of the unborn.

MICHAEL A. MONTI

Born in Providence, he was educated at LaSalle Academy, Providence College and Fordham University Law School from which he graduated in 1931. A practicing attorney for more than forty years, he is now senior partner in the law firm of Monti and Monti. President of the Rhode Island Bar Association since 1974, he also served on its Executive Committee from 1969 to 1973 and in other capacities in earlier years. An ardent supporter of his Alma Mater, he has been a member of the Kent County Chapter, Mal Brown Club and Board of Governors of the Providence College Alumni Association which honored him with its Distinguished Service Award in 1964. He has also been active in numerous other educational, religious and civic endeavors including the Bishop Russell J. McVinney Foundation, which he currently serves as a member of its Board of Governors.

DOROTHY MAYNOR ROOKS

A Norfolk, Virginia native, she took her B.S. degree at Hampton Institute and received a Bachelor of Music degree from Westminster Choir College. She also holds honorary degrees from Howard University, Oberlin College and Duquesne University. One of the world's premier sopranos for twenty-five years, she has appeared with leading symphony orchestras throughout North and South America, Europe and Australia. Since 1964, she has been Executive Director of the Harlem School of Arts, which she founded almost twelve years ago, and has been responsible for the development of many promising artists since that time. She has served as an officer and director of many educational and cultural institutions and organizations including the American Bible Society, National Guild of Community Music Schools, Opera Guild of the Metropolitan Opera Association and Westminster Choir College.

CLARENCE C. WALTON

A native of Scranton, Pennsylvania, he was graduated from the University of Scranton, received his M.A. degree from Syracuse University, and his Ph.D. from Catholic University in 1951. On September 1, 1969, he returned to his alma mater to the position he now holds as the first lay President of the Catholic University of America. He has had a distinguished career in education. From 1946 to 1953, he served as Chairman of the Department of History and Politics at the University of Scranton and later as Professor and Dean at Duquesne University's School of Business from 1953 to 1958. From 1958 until his assumption of the presidency at Catholic University, he served at Columbia University, first as the Philip Young Professor of Business and Associate Dean of the School of Business, and later as Dean of the School of General Studies. In addition to his university assignments, he has authored several award-winning books and numerous articles, and has served on the Board of Directors or as a trustee of many educational, business, and governmental institutions.
