

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

THE FIFTY-EIGHTH COMMENCEMENT

Providence Civic Center

MAY THE TWENTY-FIFTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-SIX

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voices in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! we praise thy name!

FRANCIS LOUIS GRAGNANI

A native of Fall River, Mass. and Providence College graduate, Class of 1940, Francis L. Gragnani went forward to become one of the most successful American businessmen in post-war Japan. His college education was financed through employment with the Coca-Cola Corp. and after graduation and wartime service as a Captain in the Army Air Corps, he returned to Coca-Cola in 1945. He joined the Japan Division of the Coca-Cola Export Corp., rising through the ranks to a position of Vice President. In 1962, he resigned from the Export Corp. and was awarded the Coca-Cola Bottling Franchise for Nagano Prefecture, Japan, which he developed into one of the world's most successful franchise operations. He sold his interest in the Nagano Bottling Co. in 1974 to return to the United States and embark on a new career as Founder and Chairman of the Board of Winthrop Financial Co., Inc. of Washington, D.C.

WILLIAM J. HILL, O.P.

A prolific writer and editor of a national academic journal, the Very Reverend William J. Hill, O.P., is a leading theologian in the American Catholic Church. Born in North Attleboro, Mass., Father Hill received his bachelor's degree from Providence College in 1945. He was later awarded a Licentiate of Sacred Theology and a Licentiate of Sacred Letters from the Dominican House of Studies in Washington. In 1952, he received his Doctorate in Sacred Theology from the University of St. Thomas in Rome. An Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at Catholic University, he is also Editor-in-Chief of The Thomist. He is a member of the Editorial Boards for The New Catholic Encyclopedia and The Catholic University Press. In addition, he is a member of Cardinal Krol's Committee on Theological Symposium.

MAURICE WALTER LAUFER

For more than 30 years Dr. Maurice W. Laufer has devoted himself to the care and treatment of children with special needs in Rhode Island. After graduating from the University of Wisconsin, he received his medical education at the Downstate Medical Center of the State University of New York and has been an affiliate member of the Boston Psychoanalytic Institute. Currently Executive Director and Physician-in-Charge of the Bradley Hospital in East Providence, he has served as Chairman of the Governor's Commission on Mental Retardation and as a member of the Governor's Council on Mental Health and the Project Advisory Committee of the Health Planning Council. He has held a number of academic positions, including Adjunct Professor for Education and Mental Health at Rhode Island College and, most recently, Professor of Psychiatry at Brown

ALICE McDONALD MACINTOSH

Mrs. Alice M. Macintosh has set numerous precedents during her distinguished banking career. She was the first woman to be named a Vice President of Rhode Island Hospital Trust National Bank. When she was named President of the R.I. Bankers Association in 1971, she became the first woman officer of the association and later was named Vice President of the American Bankers Association — only the second woman delegate ever to be named to the prestigious national organization. Born in Providence, she is a graduate of the Bank Marketing School of Northwestern University and attended the American Institute of Banking and Simmons College Management Program, sponsored by the National Association of Bank-Women Foundation. Active in professional, civic and governmental organizations, she is a member of the Bank Marketing Association, the Chamber of Commerce, the Governor's Commission on the Status of Women and the Providence College Corporation.

ELEANOR M. McMAHON

The career of Dr. Eleanor M. McMahon has been one marked by academic excellence. The Pawtucket, R.I. native graduated Summa Cum Laude in 1950 from the College of St. Elizabeth. After earning a master's degree from Brown, Dr. McMahon was awarded a doctorate in education from Harvard in 1967, at which time she received the Harvard Dean's Letter of Commendation. In the fall of 1974, she was designated a Post-Doctoral Study Appointee at Harvard. The former elementary school teacher is currently Dean of Educational Studies at Rhode Island College. She is Chairman of the Commission on Government Relations for the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education and a member of the Diocesan School Board, the Rhode Island Health Science Education Council Task Force and the Providence College Corporation.
