

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE

THE FIFTY-NINTH COMMENCEMENT

Providence Civic Center

MAY THE TWENTY-FOURTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-SEVEN

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voices in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! we praise thy name!

HELEN FRANCES CAVANAGH

The mother of five children, she is a life-long Rhode Island resident. She received a Bachelor of Education degree from Rhode Island College and taught in the Providence Public School system. The first woman member of the St. Joseph's Hospital's Board of Trustees, she has also served as chairman of the hospital's Development Committee and as a member of the Joint Conference Committee there. For 17 years she has performed volunteer work at St. Joseph's Hospital and was a member of the Steering Committee for the Hospital Association of Rhode Island. Twice elected president of the Providence College Veridames, she has also served three terms as president of the Fatima Guild.

THOMAS McGLYNN, O.P.

The son of an actor, he was born in California and has managed to pursue a life as a priest, artist and writer. Since 1956, the Dominican Father has devoted his energies to sculpture in Pietrasanta, Italy. His works are displayed worldwide, ranging from Rome to Chicago. Ordained in 1932, he was educated at St. Thomas Aquinas Institute, the College of the Immaculate Conception and the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Rome. His experiences during four years as director of the Blessed Martin Interracial Center in Chicago prompted him to write the play "Caukey." It was produced in 1944 by the Blackfriars Guild in New York.

ROY WILKINS

As Executive Director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, he has been recognized as the foremost leader in this country's civil rights movement for more than two decades. Born in St. Louis, he received a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from the University of Minnesota in 1923. Upon graduation he joined the Kansas City Call, a leading Black weekly. In 1931, this grandson of a Mississippi slave joined the NAACP and steadily rose in the country's oldest and largest civil rights organization. He has been Executive Director since 1955. He has served as Chairman of the President's Leadership Conference on Civil Rights and as a member of President Johnson's National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders.

MICHAEL A. GAMMINO, JR.

A leader of Rhode Island's financial community, he has also been in the forefront of the efforts to promote human rights and ecumenical understanding. The President of Columbus National Bank has been chairman of both the Rhode Island Committee for Fair Housing Legislation and the Rhode Island Committee of the United Negro Colleges Fund. He is currently a Trustee of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Born in Providence, he was educated at Brown University and the Graduate School of Philosophy at St. Louis University. He is a member of the President's Council of Providence College, a Trustee of Salve Regina College, and Trustee Emeritus of Brown University. On a national level, he has been appointed by two Presidents to the Board of Directors of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. His current term runs through 1978.

JEAN JADOT, D.D.

Born in Brussels, Belgium, he was educated at the Major Seminary of the Archdiocese of Malines, Brussels and holds a Doctorate from Louvain University. Ordained in 1934, he has risen from an assistant pastor of a Brussels church to the position of Apostolic Delegate to the United States, in which capacity he serves as the Vatican's Chief Representative to the Church in this country. Prior to his current appointment in 1973, he served as Pro-Nuncio Apostolic in Thailand and Apostolic Delegate in Laos, Malaysia and Singapore. The French-speaking priest was ordained Titular Archbishop of Zuri in 1968. For almost a decade, the Archbishop held the position of National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in Belgium.

STEPHEN J. RYAN, JR.

A nationally recognized medical researcher, he is Chairman of the Department of Ophthalmology at the University of Southern California's School of Medicine. In addition, the young surgeon is Director of the Estelle Doheny Eye Foundation and Chief Physician within the Department of Ophthalmology of Los Angeles County General Hospital. Born in Honolulu, he is a graduate of Providence College and Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. A prolific writer, he has authored more than 50 articles, chapters and books on eye research and treatment. In recognition of his contributions to medical knowledge, he has received numerous honors, including the Louis B. Mayer Scholar Award from Research to Prevent Blindness, Inc. He is also the Associate Editor of Ophthalmic Surgery and a member of the Editorial Board of the Journal Club of Ophthalmology.
