CHRISTIAN BOEHMER ANFINSEN

In 1972, this distinguished biochemist received the Nobel Prize in Chemistry. He was honored for his pioneering research into enzymes, considered the key substances of life. At the National Institute of Arthritis, Metabolism and Digestive Diseases, a branch of the National Institute of Health in Bethesda, Md., he is Chief of the Laboratory of Chemical Biology. His research specialty is the relationship between protein structure and function and the genetic basis of the protein structure. He has held a series of research and teaching positions at Pennsylvania, Harvard and the Medical Nobel Institute. The Pennsylvania native has served as President of the American Society of Biological Chemists and has been a member of the National Academy of Sciences, the Royal Danish Academy, and the American Philosophical Society. This highly honored scientist has a special association with Providence College. His daughter, Dr. Carol B. Crafts, is a member of the college's Biology Department.

SOL KOFFLER

He immigrated with his family to the United States when he was 13 years old from a village that now is part of the Soviet Union. In this country, he worked in a factory while attending high school in the evenings. In 1932 he founded a business with one employee. That company today is known as American Tourister Luggage — employing 1,500 people and operating five plants. While displaying extraordinary enterprise in building this successful company, he maintained his personal fascination with invention and holds 25 U.S. Patents in his own name. The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of this international corporation has taken a special interest in higher education. He is a member of the President's Council at Providence College, a Trustee of Bryant College and an Advisor at Barrington College. His other civic activities include serving on the boards of directors for Miriam Hospital, Temple Emanu-El, the Jewish Federation and the Jewish Home for the Aged.

WALTER F. MONDALE

The Minnesota native, who has emerged as one of the most active Vice Presidents in American history, began his political career in 1948 as a campaign manager in the late Hubert H. Humphrey's first successful bid for a U.S. Senate seat. He earned a bachelor's degree in political science at the University of Minnesota and after military service returned to the university to pursue a legal education. In 1960, Minnesota Governor Orville Freeman appointed the 32-year-old attorney to the position of state Attorney General. He was elected to that office in 1962 and served until 1964 when Governor Karl Rolvaag appointed him to fill the U.S. Senate vacancy created by Hubert Humphrey's election to the Vice Presidency. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1966 and 1972. During his 12 years in the Senate, the Democratic leader served on the Select Committee to Study Government Operations with Respect to Intelligence Activities; the Select Committee on Equal Educational Opportunity; the Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs, and the Special Committee on Aging.

PAUL C. REINERT, S.J.

During his 25 years as President of St. Louis University, he earned a national reputation as an outstanding educator. Since becoming Chancellor in 1974, he has devoted himself to strengthening the many forms of support for the University and to enhancing the institution's Midtown environment. The high regard for his leadership is reflected in the large number of offices he has held in education. He served as head of the Association of American Colleges and the National Council of Independent Colleges and Universities. Last May he received the first award given by the Academy for Educational Development, chaired by former President Gerald Ford. While developing the University into an institution of national stature, he also took a leadership position in the rebirth of St. Louis. He is Chairman of New Town/St. Louis, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation coordinating the redevelopment of the City's Midtown. As one of the City's most prominent and active leaders, the Chancellor received the City's most prestigious honor, the St. Louis Award, in 1972.

JOSEPH R. WEISBERGER

His recent appointment as a Justice of the Rhode Island Supreme Court is the latest achievement in a distinguished career of public service. After serving in the State Senate for three years, the Providence native was appointed to the Rhode Island Superior Court in 1956 and became Presiding Justice of Superior Court in 1972. A graduate of Harvard Law School, he has gained national attention as a jurist, serving as Chairman of the National Conference of State Trial Judges and representing the conference in the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association. For over a decade he has been a faculty member of the National College of the State Judiciary. He is also a Director of the National Center for State Courts and sits on the Board of Governors of the American Judges Association. The U.S. Navy veteran, who received his undergraduate education at Brown University, has also been a dedicated civic leader. A member of the President's Council at Providence College, he chaired a panel studying the feasibility of establishing a law school at the College.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voices in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! we praise thy name!
