JOHN J. CUMMINGS, JR.

Despite his vast responsibilities as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Rhode Island's leading commercial bank and financial holding corporation, Industrial National Bank and Industrial National Corporation, he has devoted a major portion of his time to civic and charitable causes. His public-spirited involvements have ranged from Chairman of the Catholic Charity Fund to Chairman of the Providence Civic Center Authority at the time when this 12,000-seat structure was built. The former member of the Providence College Corporation, the institution's governing body, is currently a trustee of St. Joseph's Hospital, Chairman of the LaSalle Academy Advisory Committee, and Chairman of the 1979 Junior Achievement Fund Campaign. The Providence native has also been a trustee of the Rhode Island School of Design, the Rhode Island Public Expenditures Council and an officer of the National Jewish Hospital and the Serra Club of Providence.

MAESTRO ARTHUR FIEDLER

The nation's best-known and best-loved conductor is celebrating his 50th season as head of the Boston Pops. Throughout his life, he has been surrounded by music. His father was a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra (BSO) for 25 years and his mother, a gifted pianist, gave him his first piano lessons. The Maestro joined the BSO in 1915 and was not only a violinist but also played as orchestra pianist, organist and percussionist. In 1929 he initiated the free outdoor concerts, known as the Esplanade Concerts on the banks of the Charles River. Since his appointment in 1930 as 18th conductor of the Boston Pops, the orchestra has gained international recognition. It has been recorded more than any other orchestra in the world. He has received the Presidential Medal of Freedom and the Freedoms Foundation American Exemplar Award.

J. JOSEPH GARRAHY

Since becoming Governor of Rhode Island, he has placed a high priority on fostering cooperation and understanding among the State's business and labor leaders. In recognition of these efforts, he was honored last year by Providence College's Quirk Institute of Industrial Relations and by John H. Fanning, Chairman of the National Labor Relations Board. A dedicated public servant, he served in the State Senate from 1963 to 1969, where he was a Deputy Majority Leader. The Providence Democrat was elected to four terms as Lieutenant Governor and became the State's chief executive in 1976. The Governor has also given special attention to the state of health care in Rhode Island. He has served as Chairman of the Special Commission on Medical Malpractice, Co-Chairman of the Rhode Island Cancer Control Project, Chairman of the Special Health Task Force for the United Way, and Director of the National Council on Vocational Rehabilitation.

BISHOP THOMAS CAJETAN KELLY, O.P.

The Dominican priest holds the important positions of General Secretary for both the National Conference of Catholic Bishops (NCCB) and the United States Catholic Conference (USCC). The Auxiliary Bishop of Washington, D.C. is a 1953 Providence College graduate. Since his ordination in 1958, he has distinguished himself in scholarship and has been selected for leadership positions within the Church. After receiving his Doctorate in Canon Law from the University of St. Thomas in Rome, he was named Secretary to the Dominican Provincial in New York. In 1965 he was appointed Secretary to the Apostolic Delegate, who is the Vatican's religious representative to the American Church. For six years he was Associate General Secretary for the NCCB. After his elevation to his current position, he was ordained Auxiliary Bishop in 1977.

JOSEPH B. McCARTY

A 1940 Providence College graduate, he has directed his corporation's growth from 16 employees in 1946 to its current position with 940 employees. As Chairman and President of Arley Merchandise Corporation of Taunton, he operates eight manufacturing plants, stretching from Massachusetts to California. The Pawtucket native is a Navy Veteran and has pursued graduate studies in the field of aeronautics at MIT and the University of Rhode Island. A leader in Providence College's Alumni Association, he has served on the President's Council, an advisory panel to the Very Rev. Thomas R. Peterson, O.P. He has also served as Chairman of the College's Loyalty Fund for two consecutive years. Under his leadership, both annual alumni campaigns have established new records and placed Providence College's alumni support among the top 2% of the nation's 1,186 private coeducational colleges.

THOMAS P. O'NEILL, JR.

As Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Cambridge native is one of America's most powerful public officials. His political career began immediately upon graduation from college in 1936 when he was elected to the Massachusetts House of Representatives. Before his election to federal office, he rose within the legislature to become the first Democratic Speaker of the Massachusetts House. In 1952 he was elected Representative from the 8th Congressional District, succeeding the late President John F. Kennedy, who had been elected to the Senate. He has represented the district for 13 consecutive terms. In 1971 he was appointed House Majority Whip and two years later was elected House Majority Leader. In 1977 he was elected the 47th Speaker of the House of Representatives.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voices in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! we praise thy name!
