VIRGIL C. DECHANT

Chosen Supreme Knight of the world's largest Catholic fraternal society in 1977, he has dedicated his business and organizational talents to the service of the Church through the Knights of Columbus. Joining the Knights in 1949, he was elected Grand Knight of his hometown council in Liebenthal, Kansas, before serving as the council's District Deputy. He later served as State Treasurer and State Deputy of the Kansas Knights of Columbus. On the national level, he was elected to the Supreme Council Board of Directors in 1963 and was named Supreme Secretary of the society in 1967. In recognition of his outstanding work on behalf of the Catholic Church, Pope Paul VI named him a Knight of St. Gregory the Great in 1967 and a commander with the rank of Silver Star in the Order of St. Gregory in 1978. The society's top executive is a graduate of the Pontifical College Josephinum, Ohio and Salt City Business College, Kansas.

SISTER FRANCIS de SALES HEFFERNAN, O.P.

A native of New Haven, Connecticut, Sister de Sales has served as President of Albertus Magnus College since 1974. Prior to this position, she was Secretary General and General Councillor of St. Mary of the Springs Congregation, where she was appointed Major Superior in 1961. Despite her vast responsibilities as college president, she has devoted much of her time to civic activities, including the establishment of new apostolic works in Chimbote, Peru and San Juan, Puerto Rico. A graduate of Ohio Dominican College and Ohio State University, she has served as President of the National Dominican Leadership Conference and as a board member of the New Haven Chapter of the American-National Red Cross. She is presently a member of the Connecticut Health and Educational Facilities Authority and serves on the Board of Directors of Cheshire Academy.

C. ALEXANDER PELOQUIN

Celebrating his 30th anniversary as music director and organist of the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul, and his 25th anniversary as composer-in-residence of the University Chorale at Boston College, he has striven consistently to adapt his music to the changing liturgical environment. Last fall in Chicago, he had the unique experience of conducting his own music at the historic Mass honoring the visit of Pope John Paul II. The Massachusetts native has published over 100 works, including the Gloria of the Bells, which was heard during the Papal Mass. A graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and the Berkshire Music Center, he has received the Golden Bell Award for the best religious program of the year by NBC Radio's Catholic Hour, and the ASCAP Award for contributions to American culture. He has conducted some 25 national telecasts, five of which were one-hour specials.

JOHN T. RILEY

In 1948, the Providence College alumnus joined Merck & Co., Inc., marking the beginning of a long and successful association with the New Jersey-based pharmaceutical company. He began as a pharmaceutical detail man and quickly progressed through the corporate ranks to assume the positions of District Manager of the Connecticut/New Jersey District, Sales Training Manager, Sales Operations Manager and Sales Manager for Medicinal products in the Chemical Division. When the company entered the Animal-Health Products business, he served as Vice President of Animal Health and Feed Products. Under his leadership, Merck became one of two leading marketers of these products. From 1974-1979, the Fall River native served as President of Kelco Company, a California Division of Merck, and in 1979, he was appointed Vice President of the Industrial and Environmental Group of Merck & Co., a worldwide health products firm. He retired from Merck in January, 1980.

LEONARD R. WILKENS, JR.

A 1960 graduate of Providence College, the former All-American guard has brought his many years of basketball experience to the National Basketball Association's Seattle Supersonics. As Coach and Director of Player Personnel, he led the Supersonics to their five-game title triumph over the Washington Bullets last year. His interest in the sport began as a youngster in Brooklyn, New York, where he played basketball for a local CYO team. Upon graduation from high school, he was awarded a scholarship to attend Providence College, where he led the team to the first-ever National Invitational Tournament appearance. In his senior year, he became the first Providence College player ever to be drafted by the N.B.A. He has received numerous awards for civic activities, including the 1979 Whitney Young, Jr. Award by the New York Urban League, the Distinguished Citizen Award by the Boy Scouts of America and the man of the Year Award by Seattle's City of Hope. He serves actively in the N.B.A.'s Special Olympics and is co-chairman of the United Nations' "International Year of the Child" program.

LIVINGSTON L. BIDDLE, JR.

As Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts, he has assisted the nation's cultural progress in critical periods for the arts. Former Staff Director of the Senate Subcommittee on Education, Arts and Humanities and special assistant to the Subcommittee's Chairman, Senator Claiborne Pell (D-R.I.), he drafted legislation which led to the establishment of the National Council on the Arts (1964) and of the National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities (1965) under which the Arts Endowment was formed. He served as Deputy Chairman of the newly created Endowment in 1965 and was instrumental in developing the Federal agency's organization and administration. After serving as Chairman of the Pennsylvania Ballet Company from 1971-72, he rejoined Senator Pell's staff and was selected to create the Endowment's first Office of Congressional Liaison. A graduate of Princeton University, his nomination by President Carter as the third Chairman of the Endowment was confirmed by the U.S. Senate in November 1977.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voices in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! we praise thy name!
