THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! we praise thy name!

MAX ALPERIN

Community leader and philanthropist, Mr. Alperin was born in Russia and immigrated to the United States as a teenager. After graduating from Bentley College in Waltham, MA, in 1933, he worked at Royal Electric Company in Pawtucket, RI, where he progressed through the corporate ranks to become chairman of the board. He resigned from Royal Electric in 1960 to become director and chairman of the executive committee of Carol Wire and Cable Company. As director, he developed a number of companies in Rhode Island, Massachusetts and California, which would later become part of Carol Cable Company. He served as chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Carol Cable Company, before being named president in 1967. From 1973-1976, he was chairman of the board of Avnet, Inc., in New York. He resigned from Avnet in 1976 to join Brewster Industries, Corporation, where he served as president until his retirement in 1980. Mr. Alperin has served as honorary president of both the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island and the Jewish Home for the Aged, and as president of Temple Emanu-El. He serves on the Board of Trustees of Bentley College, the Jewish Theological Seminary and Miriam Hospital, where he also chairs the hospital's Endowment Fund. A member of the College's President's Council, he has received numerous awards for his outstanding civic contributions, including the National Community Service Award by the Jewish Theological Seminary and the Lehman Award by the Israel Bond Office.

MOST REVEREND JAMES A. HICKEY

Born in Midland, Michigan, Archbishop Hickey was graduated from Detroit's Sacred Heart Seminary College and completed graduate studies in theology at Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. Following his ordination to the priesthood in 1946, he earned a doctorate in canon law at Pontifical Lateran University and a doctorate in theology at Pontifical Angelicum University, both located in Rome. Returning to the United States, he served for nine years as Secretary to the Bishop of Saginaw, Michigan, before being named founding Rector of Saint Paul's Seminary in 1957. Named Titular Bishop of Taraqua and Auxiliary Bishop of Saginaw in February, 1967, he was consecrated a bishop two months later and became Administrator of the Diocese of Saginaw the following year. In 1969, Bishop Hickey was named Rector of the Pontifical North American College in Rome and president of the Association of Roman Seminary Rectors. Bishop Hickey was appointed Bishop of Cleveland in 1974, and in 1980, Pope John Paul II named him third Archbishop of Washington. As Archbishop of Washington, he serves as Chancellor of the Catholic University of America and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. Archbishop Hickey has been Chairman of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops Committee on Doctrine since 1979, and currently serves on the Conference's Pastoral Research and Practices Committee.

DANIEL P. NUGENT

Under his leadership as president and chief executive officer of ITT Grinnell Corporation, which manufactures and distributes pipes, valves and fittings to the energy, petrochemical and industrial markets, the business has attained international prominence with sales of $2 billion. Prior to joining ITT Grinnell in 1975, Mr. Nugent served as president of Phelps Dodge Brass Company; vice president and general manager of L.A. Darling Company. Born in Harrison, NJ, he attended Seton Hall Preparatory School. Upon graduation, he served with the Third Army in Europe and was awarded the Combat Infantry Badge, five Battle Stars, and several decorations for heroism. After completing his military service, Mr. Nugent attended Yale University where he earned his bachelor of arts degree in 1950 and received the Alfred Barnes Palmer Scholarship for excellence in diplomatic history. Currently the director of 12 corporations that are associated with ITT Grinnell, Mr. Nugent serves on the Board of Trustees of the Yale Club of Central New Jersey, St. Thomas More Chapel at Yale, and the College of Saint Elizabeth. He is also a member of the Providence College President's Council. Active in numerous civic organizations, he was president of the Convent Association of New Jersey and vice chairman of the United Way of NJ. A member of the Rhode Island's Watch Hill Town Council, Mr. Nugent also serves as finance director of that community.

KENNETH R. WALKER

A 1957 alumnus of the College, Dr. Walker has come to be recognized as a leading educator in the State of Rhode Island. A native of East Providence, he received his master's degree in guidance and counseling from Rhode Island College and his doctorate in education from Boston University. He taught both English and social studies and served as a guidance counselor in the East Providence School Department before being appointed assistant principal of that city's Central Junior High School in 1968. Two years later, Dr. Walker joined the faculty at Rhode Island College as associate professor and coordinator of urban education. An avid sports enthusiast, Dr. Walker is a nationally-known veteran of schoolboy basketball officiating. He has received numerous awards in recognition of his community involvement, including the Urban League of Rhode Island's Contributions to Education Award; the NAACP's Freedom Fund Award in Education; the Providence College National Alumni Association's Exemplary Citizenship Award; and the Big Brothers of Rhode Island Award. A former president of Big Brothers, Dr. Walker has also served on the Board of Directors of Children's Friend and Service, Rhode Island Hospital Trust National Bank, Rhode Island Association of the Blind, Rhode Island State Parole Board and the Urban League of Rhode Island. He is a member of both the American Federation of Teachers, and the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development.

CARL YASTRZEMSKI

Since his emergence on the Red Sox playing field in 1961, Carl Yastrzemski has been winning the hearts of baseball fans everywhere as one of the game's all-time greats. Originally signed by the Red Sox after completing his freshman year at the University of Notre Dame in 1958, Yaz played in the minors at both shortstop and second base, before changing to the outfield in 1960. The following year, at the age of 21, he was called up to the parent club to replace another Red Sox legend, Ted Williams. Thought by many as an impossible thing to do, Yaz has since proved otherwise. In his 23-year major league career, he has been voted to the All-Star team 17 times, won eight Golden Glove awards and three batting titles. In 1967, Yaz led the Red Sox to the "Impossible Dream" American League pennant with an amazing season in which he garnered both the prestigious Triple Crown and Most Valuable Player awards. In the all-time record books, Yaz now ranks number two in games played and number one in five other categories. The son of a potato farmer, Yaz grew up in Bridgehampton, NY, to become the only American League player ever to have over 3,000 hits and 400 home runs. Planning to retire at the end of this season, the Red Sox team captain has played several positions in the majors, including outfielder, first baseman and designated hitter. During seven off-seasons, Yaz attended Merrimack College in North Andover, MA, graduating with a degree in business administration in 1966. Off the field, Yaz has also devoted countless hours as a fundraiser for children's cancer research through the Jimmy Fund, and served as honorary chairman of that organization in 1978.

CHRISTOPHER J. DODD

Beginning in 1974 when he was elected to the House of Representatives at just 30 years of age, Christopher Dodd served three terms as Democratic Congressman from Norwich, CT, before launching his successful bid for the U.S. Senate seat in the 1980 election. Born in Williamantic, CT, he attended Georgetown Preparatory School and received his bachelor of arts degree in English literature at Providence College in 1966. Upon graduation, he served for two years as a Peace Corps volunteer in the Dominican Republic. In 1972, Mr. Dodd obtained his Juris doctor degree at the University of Louisville School of Law, and was admitted to the Connecticut Bar the following year. During his tenure in the House, the young Congressman was the Majority Whip-at-Large, and served on the Rules Committee, the Judiciary Committee, the Ad Hoc Select Committee on Outer Continental Shelf, and the Select Committee on Assassinations. As a senator who began his six-year term of office in January, 1981, he serves on a number of key Senatorial committees and subcommittees, including Foreign Relations, Labor and Human Resources, Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs and the Special Committee on Aging. An outspoken critic of the Administration's policies in Central America, Senator Dodd delivered the nationally televised Democratic response to President Reagan's recent address to the joint session of Congress, in which the President urged Congressional approval of increased U.S. military aid to Central America.
