MAY THE TWENTIETH

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! we praise thy name!

ANTOINETTE FORRESTER DOWNING

Beginning in 1932 when she first moved to Providence's East Side, Antoinette Downing has spearheaded the historical preservation movement in Rhode Island. Born in Philadelphia, she grew up in Springer, New Mexico, and was graduated from the University of Chicago in 1923. She attended Radcliffe College on a Carnegie Study Grant, where she studied art and architectural history and pursued advanced study in American Architecture at RI School of Design. One of the founders of the Providence Preservation Society and currently a member of the Society's executive committee, she is the author of Early Homes of RI and a co-author of Architectural Heritage of Newport. She has served as chairperson of the Providence Historic Preservation Commission since 1960, and as chairperson of the RI Historical Preservation Commission since 1968.

THOMAS DUNN

A noted organist, conductor and teacher of music, Thomas Dunn is an assistant professor and the director of choral activities at Boston University. Prior to joining the faculty at BU, he taught at many distinguished institutions of higher education, including the Peabody Conservatory, Swarthmore College, the University of Pennsylvania, and Ithaca College. He has also served as a guest conductor with numerous music organizations, including the Toledo Symphony, the California Bach Society and members of the Cincinnati Symphony. A member of the American Choral Director's Association, Dunn received his diploma in orchestral conducting from the Amsterdam Conservatorium. He also holds a bachelor's degree from John Hopkins University and a master's degree from Harvard University. In addition to his current work at BU, he serves as artistic director for Boston's Handel and Haydn Society.

VERY REVEREND THOMAS R. PETERSON, O.P.

Under Fr. Peterson's leadership as president for the past 14 years, PC has undergone an unprecedented period of physical, social and academic growth. During his tenure, coeducation developed into a vibrant addition to the institution; the Development of Western Civilization Program was successfully integrated into the core curriculum; the size of the campus nearly doubled; and existing buildings were renovated. Construction of new facilities, including Schneider Arena, the Peterson Recreation Center, and St. Thomas Aquinas Priory-Gragnani Dominican Center, have significantly enhanced the quality of life on campus. A native of Newark, New Jersey, Fr. Peterson received his bachelor's degree from PC in 1951 and was ordained to the Dominican priesthood in 1956. He earned his licentiate and lectorate in sacred theology at Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C., his master's at St. Stephen College, Dover, Massachusetts, and his Ph.D. from Aquinas Institute of Philosophy in River Forest, Illinois. Fr. Peterson joined the PC faculty as a professor of philosophy in 1957. He was named assistant dean of the college in 1962, and dean in 1968. In July, 1971, he was named the ninth president of Providence College.

JOHN COLLINS QUINN

Since starting his career as a copy boy at the Providence Journal, John Quinn has risen through the ranks to become editor of the country's first and only national, general interest newspaper, USA Today. Launched in September of 1982, USA Today is now the third largest U.S. daily. Quinn, a 1945 alumnus of PC, became interested in journalism by working at the Providence Journal while an undergraduate. Following his graduation, he earned a master's degree in journalism from Columbia University, before returning to the Journal, where he rose to the position of day managing editor. In 1966, he joined the nation's largest newspaper chain, the Gannett Newspaper Group, at their flagship paper, the Rochester (NY) Times-Union. This led to added responsibilities as general manager of the Gannett News Service, a position he took on full-time in 1971. Currently, his titles include president of the Gannett News Service and executive vice president and chief news executive of Gannett Company, Inc. A native of Providence, John Quinn is a former president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

MOST REVEREND PETER ANTHONY ROSAZZA

Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Hartford, CT, the Most Reverend Peter Anthony Rosazza has dedicated his life to the Roman Catholic priesthood. Since his ordination, he has served in numerous positions, including director of the Spanish Apostolate for the Archdiocese of Hartford, co-pastor of the Sacred Heart Church in Hartford and committee member of the U.S. Catholic Bishops' Campaign for Human Development. Currently, Bishop Rosazza sits on the board of directors of both the United Way of Waterbury, CT and the Northeast Catholic Pastoral Center for Hispanics. In 1982, he was voted Man of the Year by the Greater Hartford Chapter of the Providence College Alumni Association for his outstanding work in the community. A native of New Haven, CT, he received his bachelor's degree from St. Bernard Seminary in Rochester, NY and his master's degree from Middlebury College in Middlebury, VT.
