THE SIXTY-EIGHTH COMMENCEMENT

Providence Civic Center

MAY THE NINETEENTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SIX

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! we praise thy name!

MOTHER MARY ANGELICA

Foundress and chairperson of the board of the Eternal Word Television Network, Mother Angelica has tapped the medium of television as a channel for communicating the word of God. A native of Canton, Ohio, Mother Angelica entered religious life in 1944 as a Franciscan nun of The Most Blessed Sacrament. In 1962 she founded Our Lady of Angels Monastery in Birmingham, Alabama, where she now serves as Mother Superior. Mother Angelica began a book apostolate in 1973, which now includes the distribution of over 15 million books to some 38 countries. Five years ago, Mother Angelica founded the Eternal Word Television Network, the first Roman Catholic satellite cable network. Her television network is now carried by 300 cable systems in 39 states and to more than 4.1 million homes. The author of 57 books on spiritual life, Mother Angelica has been honored with a variety of awards for public service, including the Gabriel Award for Personal Achievement by the Catholic Association of Broadcasters and Allied Communicators, the John Paul II Religious Freedom Award by the Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights and the Citizen of the Year Award by the Alabama Cable Television Association.

VITO CARNEGLIA

President and treasurer of Clark & Coombs Company, a Providence jewelry manufacturer, Vito Carneglia is well-known as a successful businessman, a prominent community leader and an outstanding Catholic layman. Born in Italy in 1897, Carneglia has served on a number of civic organizations, including the Providence Human Relations Commission and the Governor's Advisory Committee on Inter-governmental Relations. He has been a member of the St. Joseph Hospital Board of Trustees since 1957, serving as chairman of the Trustees Finance Committee and as an active member of the Development Committee. A founding benefactor of the Hospital's Endowment Fund, Carneglia has made several other substantial contributions as matching gifts to St. Joseph's, which have successfully challenged others to contribute toward major pieces of medical equipment. Carneglia was appointed to the Order of the Knights of St. Gregory by Pope Pius XII in 1957, and the following year, served as chairman of the Catholic Charity Fund Appeal. A long time friend of Providence College, Carneglia has been a major benefactor of the college's $25 million Capital Campaign program. His recent gift toward the Science Center project resulted in the opening of a totally updated chemistry laboratory, named in his honor last December.

RUDOLPH W. GIULIANI

Known for his aggressive style of pursuing criminals, particularly those associated with organized crime and municipal corruption, Giuliani, as United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, represents the United States in all criminal and civil court proceedings in that region, including narcotics, securities and commodities frauds, major crimes, constitutional issues, and environmental litigation. Prior to this position, he was Associate Attorney General of the United States, the third highest position in the federal Department of Justice. There, he supervised a wide range of criminal enforcement agencies, including the department's Criminal Division, the Drug Enforcement Administration, and the 94 United States Attorneys Offices throughout the country. He first joined the Department of Justice in 1970 as an Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, and later became Associate Deputy Attorney General for the United States. The graduate of the New York University School of Law became a private attorney in 1977 and was primarily involved in civil litigation before becoming Associate Attorney General of the United States.

FRANK B. LANNING

For over four decades, Frank Lanning has combined his artistic talents with his knowledge of sports to produce an enlightening and entertaining visual message for generations of Rhode Island sports enthusiasts. A graduate of Cranston High School, Lanning began his career in 1925 as an artist at the Providence Journal. He left the Journal to become commercial art director for the Newspaper Enterprise Association, then returned to the Journal as art director in 1935. Two years later, he became the Journal's sports cartoonist, a post he held until his retirement in 1982. First president and co-founder of Words Unlimited, Lanning served for 20 years as founder-president and chairman of the board of the Rhode Island Heritage Hall of Fame. For his accomplishments, Lanning is a member of the Halls of Fame of both Brown University and the Providence Gridiron Club and is a member of the Athletic Hall of Fame at the University of Rhode Island.

REV. PAUL VAN K. THOMSON

Rev. Paul van K. Thomson, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church in Newport, retired Providence College vice president for academic affairs, and professor emeritus in English, became a Catholic priest on August 27, 1983 under a special decree from Pope John Paul allowing former Episcopal priests to become ordained Catholic priests. An Episcopal priest for nine years, Rev. Thomson had served as a Marine chaplain in WWII and later as rector of St. Stephen's Church in Providence. He gave up the priesthood in 1949 to convert to Catholicism. A member of the college's faculty from 1949 until 1985 as professor of English and lecturer in religious studies, Rev. Thomson designed and developed the college's Liberal Arts Honors Program, serving as director for eight years, and the humanities program of general education in liberal arts. He holds an A.B. degree in English literature from Columbia University, a bachelor of Sacred Theology from Berkeley Divinity School in New Haven, a master of sacred theology from the General Theological Seminary, New York, and a master of arts and Ph.D in English, both from Brown University.

JOHN T. WILLIAMS

One of the most prolific musical composers for the symphony and screen in recent memory, Boston Pops Orchestra Conductor John Williams is the winner of four Oscars (the most recent was for Best Original Score for a Motion Picture, for E.T. (the Extra Terrestrial)) and 15 Grammys. He has composed the music and served as musical director for more than 65 movies, including such box-office hits as Jaws, Star Wars, and Superman. Williams, who attended UCLA and the Juilliard School of Music, has also written numerous concert pieces, including his Jubilee 350 Fanfare, which heralded the 350th birthday of the City of Boston, and two symphonies and a flute concerto and violin concerto which have been recorded by the London Symphony Orchestra, with whom he has appeared as guest conductor. The composer of the official fanfare and theme of the 1984 Summer Olympic Games, Williams will again provide the music at an historic national event on July 4th, 1986 at the unveiling of the newly refurbished Statue of Liberty.
