THE SIXTY-NINTH COMMENCEMENT

Providence Civic Center

MAY THE EIGHTEENTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SEVEN

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! we praise thy name!

RAYMOND E. BROWN, S.S.

A native of New York City, New York, Father Brown has traveled throughout the country as a distinguished visiting lecturer in the field of theology. Educated at St. Charles College, Catonsville, Maryland, Father Brown earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees at Catholic University in Washington, D.C. He attended Gregorian University in Rome, Italy and continued his studies for the priesthood at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore, Maryland. Ordained in 1953, Father Brown received his Ph.D. from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore in 1958. He pursued further study at the Pontifical Biblical Commission in Rome, where he received a baccalaureate and licentiate in Sacred Scripture in 1959 and 1963 respectively. He is affiliated with the Society of St. Sulpice, a society of Roman Catholic priests engaged exclusively in seminary work. Currently an Auburn Professor of Biblical Studies at Union Theological Seminary, Father Brown is also an adjunct professor of religion at Columbia University in New York City. He is the author of more than a dozen books, and has had numerous articles published in professional journals. He is the recipient of several awards for writing, including the Catholic Press Association Book Award in 1983 and the Biblical Archaeology Society Award for his New Testament commentary published in 1982-1983.

JILL KER CONWAY

A former president of Smith College and currently a visiting scholar at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Jill Ker Conway has had a distinguished career as an educator for nearly three decades. Born in New South Wales, Australia, Ker Conway received her bachelor's degree in history from the University of Sydney, where she began teaching in 1958. From 1961-1963 she served as a teaching fellow at Harvard University, where she later earned her Ph.D. in history. Ker Conway joined the faculty of the University of Toronto, Canada, in 1964 and was promoted through the academic and administrative ranks from lecturer to vice president of internal affairs. Named president of Smith College in 1975, Jill Ker Conway's ten years as president were characterized by strong, innovative leadership. Author of many articles ranging from women in society to historical essays, Ker Conway is also active in a number of professional and civic organizations. She has served as chairwoman of the Canadian Association of University Teachers' Committee and is currently a member of the IBM Asia Pacific Advisory Board, the Board of Directors of Arthur D. Little, Inc., the Massachusetts Historical Society, and the Executive Committee of the American Antiquarian Society. She is also a trustee of Hampshire College in Amherst, Massachusetts.

EDWARD DANIEL DIPRETE

Following a 15 year career of public service in the City of Cranston, Edward D. DiPrete was elected governor of the State of Rhode Island in November, 1984. Born in Cranston, RI, DiPrete attended Cranston public schools, and graduated from LaSalle Academy in Providence, RI and the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, MA. His political career began in 1970, when he served as a non-partisan member of the Cranston School Committee and was elected its chairman in 1972. He served on the Cranston Council from 1974-78, then was elected Mayor of the City, a position he held until making his successful bid for the Republican gubernatorial seat in 1984. Actively involved in the community, Governor DiPrete is director of the Providence Performing Arts Center, director of the RI Lung Association and a member of the Pre-Cana Movement at his parish in Cranston. Re-elected to a second term in office in 1986, Governor DiPrete was elected chairman of the Coalition of Northeast Governors and serves as vice chairman of the National Governor's Association's Committee on Economic Development and Technological Innovation, and chairman of its task force on liability insurance.

STEPHEN D. HASSENFELD

As chairman and chief executive officer of Hasbro, Inc., Stephen D. Hassenfeld oversees the manufacturing and distribution processes of the world's leading toy company, which has been based in Pawtucket, Rhode Island since its inception in the early 1920s. The company encompasses such well loved favorites as the G.I. Joe and My Little Pony toy lines, Milton Bradley games and puzzles and the Playskool and Playskool Baby Family of products for infants and pre-schoolers. On the way to becoming a $1.3 billion company, Hasbro has recorded the third highest gross in total return to investors among the Fortune 500 over the past ten years. Hassenfeld attended Moses Brown Preparatory School and Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland. He has served the community as a member of the Board of Governors of the Rhode Island Commodores, a business advisory group appointed by the governor, the Rhode Island Council of National Jewish Hospital/National Asthma Center, the corporation of the Rhode Island Philharmonic Orchestra, the Board of Trustees of the Johns Hopkins University and the Providence College President's Council.

ARCHBISHOP THEODORE EDGAR McCARRICK

Born in New York City in 1930, Archbishop McCarrick was ordained a priest in 1958, after attending Fordham Preparatory School and St. Joseph Seminary, Dunwoodie, New York. In 1963 he was awarded his doctorate in sociology from the Catholic University of America, where he later served as chaplain, dean of students and assistant to the rector of the university. Named president of the Catholic University of Puerto Rico in 1965, he was elevated to the rank of domestic prelate with the title "monsignor" that same year. After four years of service, during which time the university evolved into a major institution of higher learning, he returned to New York to serve as associate secretary for education and associate pastor of Blessed Sacrament Parish from 1969-71, and as secretary to Terence Cardinal Cooke from 1971-77. He was named auxiliary bishop of New York in 1977, with responsibility for the Vicariate of East Manhattan, and in 1981, Pope John Paul II named him the first bishop of the newly established Diocese of Metuchen, New Jersey, with a Catholic population of more than four hundred thousand. In 1986, Bishop McCarrick was named by Pope John II as fourth archbishop of Newark, which ranks as the seventh largest diocese in the United States with 1.3 million Catholics in 242 parish communities. He received the pallium, the symbol of his office, from Pope John Paul II at a Mass in the Basilica of St. Peter, in Rome, on June 29, 1986. He has served on the committees on doctrine, aging and laity of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, and is a trustee of Catholic Relief Services and the Catholic University of America.

MARTIN ROGER SHUGRUE, JR.

As vice chairman and chief operating officer of Pan American World Airways, Shugrue also serves as vice chairman of Pan Am World Services, the principal non-airline subsidiary of Pan Am Corporation; vice chairman of Pan Am Corporation, the parent company of the airline; and is a member of the corporation's board of directors. He is responsible for all aspects of the airline's operations, including airline planning and scheduling, marketing, sales, passenger services, maintenance and engineering, and flight operations. Joining Pan Am in 1968 as a Boeing 707 pilot/flight engineer, Shugrue was appointed to management in 1970 and served on the staff of the executive vice president and general manager. He later held positions with the personnel department, and in 1974, was appointed staff vice president-corporate personnel. In 1978, Shugrue became regional managing director-United Kingdom and Western Europe and was elected vice president industrial relations in 1980, vice president of personnel the following year, and senior vice president-marketing in December 1982. He was elected vice chairman in February 1984, and to his present position in December 1985. A native of Providence, RI and a 1962 PC graduate, Shugrue is a member of the Providence College President's Council, the Cardinal's Committee of the Laity for the Eighties, and the John E. Fogarty Center for Retarded Citizens.
