THE SEVENTIETH COMMENCEMENT

Providence Civic Center

MAY THE TWENTY-SECOND
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-EIGHT

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim.
Our lives shall thee with noble needs adorn;
Hail Providence! we praise thy name!

CONSTANCE CHUNG POVICH

Beginning as a copy person who later became a newswriter and on-camera reporter for WTTG-TV in her hometown of Washington, D.C., Connie Chung has earned a reputation as a broadcaster of integrity and skill. One of the few anchorwomen seen on a network news program, she is the Saturday anchor of "NBC Nightly News," and is one of a small group of correspondents assigned to anchor "NBC Nightly News with Tom Brokaw" when Brokaw is unavailable. A graduate of the University of Maryland with a bachelor's degree in journalism, Chung joined NBC in August 1983 as anchor of "NBC News at Sunrise," and as a correspondent based in New York. She served as a floor reporter at both the Democratic and Republican National Conventions in 1984. Before joining NBC News, she was co-anchor of the evening newscasts on KNXT-TV, the CBS station in Los Angeles. During that time, she substituted as anchor on the "CBS Weekend News" and "CBS Morning News," and anchored the "CBS Newsbreak" for the Pacific Time Zone. Prior to joining KNXT-TV in 1976, she was a CBS News correspondent reporting on national policies. She covered Senator George McGovern's 1972 presidential campaign and the hearings on the impeachment of President Nixon and his ultimate resignation. In 1974, she was assigned to cover Nelson Rockefeller's Vice Presidency. Chung is married to Maury Povich, a news anchor for Fox Television in Washington, D.C.

BENNIE Y. FLEMING

Area Supervisor of Science for the Providence School Department, Mrs. Bennie Y. Fleming has had a distinguished career as an educator in the field of science and technology. A native of San Antonio, Texas, she studied to become a registered nurse at Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tennessee, then earned a bachelor of science degree from Houston Tillotson College in Austin, Texas. She pursued graduate studies at Rhode Island College and Brown University, earning the M.Ed. and M.A.T. degrees, respectively. Her expertise has led to numerous positions in the field of science and education, including posts as a consultant for curriculum development of the Health Care Magnet Program for both the St. Louis, Missouri and Worcester, Massachusetts school systems; Title II Program Reviewer for the State of Rhode Island's Office of Higher Education; co-chairperson of the New England Biology Teachers Conference at Brown University; and coordinator of the Health/Science Magnet at Mt. Pleasant High School. Mrs. Fleming has served as chairperson of the Urban League of Rhode Island's National Task Force Education Initiative and is a member of the Professional Advisory Committee, Providence Ambulatory Health Care Foundation, trustee and member of the board of Miriam Hospital and member of the Review Board of Clinical Research Studies at Miriam. In addition, she has served as president of the Black Administrators of Providence Incorporated and member of the board of the John Hope Community Center.

JOHN G. HEALEY

As executive director of Amnesty International USA, John Healey has travelled extensively to ensure the human rights of thousands throughout the world. With a membership of nearly 300,000 in the United States and more than 700,000 worldwide, Amnesty International works to free prisoners of conscience (men, women and children imprisoned solely for their belief, race or ethnic origin who have neither used nor advocated violence), to prompt fair, speedy trials for all political prisoners and to abolish torture and execution. Dating back to 1969, when Mr. Healey was director/deputy director of the American Freedom from Hunger Foundation, he has given unselfishly of his time to help implement change. He served as program director and fundraiser for the Center for Community Change from 1974-1977 and as director of the Peace Corps in Lesotho, South Africa from 1977 to 1981. Born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, he earned his bachelor of arts degree in philosophy and theology at St. Fidelis College in Herman, PA and received his master of arts in the same field from Capuchin College, in Washington, D.C. Author of numerous articles and op-eds for major newspapers, Healey has been recognized for his personal involvement in attempting to bring peace and harmony to the world by receiving the Thomas Merton Award in 1976 and the M-TV Distinguished Service Award in 1986. Last year, Healey has awarded an honorary doctorate from Southeastern Massachusetts University.

THOMAS CURTIS McDERMOTT

A native of Somerville, Massachusetts and a 1958 alumnus of the college, Mr. McDermott served as a 1st Lieutenant with the U.S. Army, Airborne, prior to becoming a special agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. In 1965, he joined Bristol Myers Co. and served as corporate security manager until 1971, when he was appointed director of personnel and industrial relations for E.R. Squibb & Sons, Inc. In 1978, he joined Bausch and Lomb, Inc., as vice president for human resources. Progressing through the corporate ranks of Bausch and Lomb, Mr. McDermott served as senior vice president of human resources, group president of consumer and scientific products and executive vice president of the Rochester, New York based health care and optical company. In 1986 he was named president and chief operating officer of Bausch and Lomb, which has established a worldwide reputation as being a leader in the development of products used by eye care professionals and consumers for the care, correction and enhancement of vision. Bausch and Lomb currently has manufacturing or marketing organizations in 25 countries and distributes its products to more than 70 other countries. Active in a wide range of community organizations, Mr. McDermott is a trustee of the Rochester Institute of Technology, trustee and board member of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce and director of the Rochester Division of Chase Lincoln Bank.

SISTER MARY NONA McGREAL, O.P.

Historian, educator and philosopher, Sister McGreal has drawn upon her expertise in these fields to produce a number of books and articles focusing on the history of the Dominican Order as well as the integration of Christian social principles in the curriculum of Catholic schools. Sister McGreal is co-author of Guiding Growth in Christian Social Living, which has been adopted by Catholic schools throughout the nation as a basis for courses of study. Born in Waukegan, Illinois, Sister McGreal is currently director for a research organization known as Project OPUS: History of the Dominicans in the United States. Prior to that Sister McGreal served as Vicereine General of the Dominican Sisters of Sinsinawa, Wisconsin (1967-1977) and as president of Edgewood College in Madison, Wisconsin (1950-1968). In addition, she has been an adjunct professor at Aquinas Institute in St. Louis, Missouri since 1983. Sister McGreal earned her BA degree at Rosary College in River Forest, Illinois, and both her master's and doctorate degrees from the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. Actively involved in the community as a guest lecturer and a contributing writer for various publications, she is a member of the American Catholic Historical Society, the State of Wisconsin Historical Society and is a frequent lecturer for the Internovitate Conferences of Chicago, Illinois and Dubuque, Iowa.

HOWARD ROBERT SWEARER

As President of Brown University for the past 11 years, Howard Swearer has been characterized as a leader who is decisive, open-minded, willing to listen and who possesses a sense of humor. During President Swearer's tenure at Brown, some 25 new programs and institutions have been established, including the Alan Shawn Feinstein Program in World Hunger, the Center for Public Service and the Institute for International Studies. Dr. Swearer is a co-founder of the Campus Compact, a national organization based at Brown that promotes public service among college students. He has been instrumental in making Brown a pioneer in adapting computer technology in the classroom, and he continued Brown's commitment to the oftentimes controversial "open curriculum" the University had established in the late sixties. A native of Hutchinson, Kansas, Swearer received a BA from Princeton University, and both the master of arts and doctorate degrees from Harvard University. Before coming to Brown, Dr. Swearer was president of Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota, Program Officer in Charge of European and International Affairs for the Ford Foundation and professor of political science at the University of California. Beloved by his colleagues, the faculty of Brown gave him its highest honor in 1983 by bestowing upon him the Susan Colver Rosenberger Medal of Honor citing, "the abundant feeling of security you have rekindled in all of us." To pursue a new, still unspecified challenge, Dr. Swearer is retiring from his present position at the end of this academic year.
