THE SEVENTY-THIRD COMMENCEMENT

Providence Civic Center

MAY THE NINETEENTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-ONE

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim.
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

ANDRES CARDENAS MONGE

The grandson of the president of Ecuador and the son of an ambassador, Andres Cardenas Monge holds the unique title of Ambassador to the Holy See in the Vatican, a four-year appointment which enables him to bring forth to the Catholic Church his concerns for the impoverished people of his homeland. Ambassador Cardenas traveled widely with his family during his youth and was educated in Ecuador, Argentina, and Colombia. He studied law at the University of Kansas, but had to return to Quito, Ecuador to finish his studies at the Catholic University of Quito when his father became ill. He also took additional courses in business at Harvard University. A highly successful businessman in Ecuador, Ambassador Cardenas has served as general manager, president, or owner of a number of companies that manufacture computers, typewriters, calculators, and cash registers. He also worked from 1956-1961 in the United States as manager of the Department of International Products for the Dupont Company. A former vice president of Colegio Americano in Quito, Ecuador, Ambassador Cardenas serves as Ambassador to the Military Order of Malta. The Ambassador's son, Andres Cardenas, Jr., today will receive his bachelor of science degree from PC in business/marketing.

WILLIAM R. DAVIS

Following his graduation from Providence College in 1952, Davis pursued his interest in the field of law, earning his juris doctor degree from the University of Connecticut School of Law in 1955. He immediately went to work at the law firm of Leon RisCassi in Hartford, CT, which was fast-becoming one of the largest firms in that state specializing in plaintiff's personal injury litigation. Davis now serves as the senior attorney at the ten-person trial law firm of RisCassi and Davis, P.C. His highly specialized skills in the field of tort law and claims of negligence have won Davis wide acclaim, including being designated in the book, The Best Lawyers in America. An active lecturer in all areas of trial practice, Davis also served as an instructor of trial practice at the University of Connecticut School of Law from 1966-1988. Davis has also held a number of positions in professional organizations, including president of the Connecticut Trial Lawyers Association, vice president of the American Board of Trial Advocates, and chairman of the Statewide Bar Grievance Committee for the Connecticut Bar Association. In addition to his professional responsibilities, Davis is a member of the PC Corporation and is actively involved with his church's parish council. Davis and his wife, Doris, have been generous benefactors of PC for many years. Through their generosity, Providence College has enjoyed the establishment of the largest privately endowed scholarship fund at the college.
