THE SEVENTY-FIFTH COMMENCEMENT

Providence Civic Center

MAY THE TWENTY-THIRD
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-THREE

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jean Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim.
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

JOHN J. ACCINNO

A 1946 graduate of the Providence College Business Department, Mr. Accinno has served as owner and operator of a private accounting firm in Johnston, RI, since 1952. Mr. Accinno, who earned his master's degree in business administration from the University of Rhode Island, has served as chief executive officer and treasurer of Bema Investments; chief executive officer and president of MKA Investments; and chief financial officer/treasurer of Cino Realty Co. The certified public accountant is currently the executive vice president of East Side Clinical Laboratories, Inc. A longtime friend of the college, Mr. Accinno has used his experience as an investor to develop financial aid programs for Providence College students and to offer career counseling for recent graduates. Mr. Accinno has devoted countless hours of his time toward the betterment of Providence College, serving as national chairman of the college's first capital campaign; three terms as secretary of the Providence College National Alumni Association; member of the President's Council; and as alumni representative to the Providence College Corporation. The Providence College community has recognized Mr. Accinno's dedication and loyalty by awarding him the Mal Brown Club's Very Reverend Vincent C. Dore, O.P. Award for devoted service and the national alumni association's Faithful Friar Award. He holds memberships with the American Institute of CPAs, the Rhode Island Society of CPAs, and the Delta Epsilon Sigma Catholic honor society.

RAYMOND LEO FLYNN

Recently nominated by President Bill Clinton as United States Ambassador to the Holy See (the Vatican), Mr. Flynn is currently serving his third term as Mayor of Boston. He served four terms as a Massachusetts state legislator and six years as a city councillor, before being elected Mayor of Boston in November 1983. Born and raised in South Boston he won a full scholarship to Providence College, where he became one of PC's all-time great shooting guards (1,025 points) and led his team to the 1963 NIT Championship during his senior year. Mayor Flynn was named the NIT's Most Valuable Player and voted an Academic All-American. Following graduation he worked as a teacher, then as a probation officer, before his election to the Boston City Council. His interest in urban issues developed during his tenure on the city council, where he chaired the committees on Housing and Neighborhood Development, Government Finance, Neighborhood Services, Government Relations, and the Special Committee on School Matters. A champion of human rights, Mayor Flynn has emerged as a national spokesman for social and economic justice. As co-chairman of the United States Conference of Mayors' Task Force on Hunger and Homelessness, he worked diligently for passage of the Stuart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act of 1987. Elected president of the Conference of Mayors in 1991, he was named national co-chairman of the Clinton for President Campaign Committee the following year. Mayor Flynn has been honored with the John Boyle O'Reilly Award from the New England Irish American Labor Coalition, and he holds honorary degrees from five institutions, including Providence College.

HARRY R. HORGAN

As founder and executive director of Shake-A-Leg, Inc., a non-profit organization which provides people with spinal cord injuries and related nervous system impairments the chance to maximize their independence, Harry Horgan has developed a holistic approach to rehabilitation based on his experience as a victim of a spinal injury. A 1980 business graduate of Providence College, Horgan was disabled after sustaining a fall from a truck that same year. During his recuperation, Horgan found that while medical technology was making tremendous progress in acute care and treatment of spinal cord injuries, a gap existed after the initial phase of rehabilitation. The Middletown, Rhode Island native founded Shake-A-Leg in 1982 and developed a second-phase rehab pilot program, the Body Awareness Training Program (BAT), which offers therapies, recreation, and other activities for the physical and emotional benefit of its participants and their families. Since then, Horgan has instituted a New York Chapter of Shake-A-Leg for the purpose of fundraising and heightening community awareness. He helped in the development of the Freedom Independence, a universally accessible 20-foot day sailer, in cooperation with Tillotson-Pearson, and established a handicapped sailing program in Newport, RI in conjunction with the State of Rhode Island. Horgan has also supervised the development of an adaptive sailing program in the Coconut Grove area of Florida. A director of the National Coordinating Council on Spinal Cord Injuries, he has also served as a member of the Rhode Island Governor's Commission on the Handicapped.

HIS EMINENCE BERNARD CARDINAL LAW

Known as a champion of improved relations between faiths and a fervent supporter of civil rights, Cardinal Law was born in Torreón, Mexico. After graduating from Harvard in 1953, Cardinal Law studied for the priesthood at St. Joseph Seminary in Louisiana and at the Pontifical College Josephinum in Ohio. Following his ordination in 1961, Cardinal Law did pastoral service in the Diocese of Natchez-Jackson, Mississippi; was an assistant pastor in Vicksburg, Mississippi; and served as editor of the diocesan paper, the Mississippi Register Today. He served as executive director of the Bishops' Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs from 1968-1971, and as vicar-general of the Diocese of Natchez-Jackson from 1971-73, before being appointed bishop of the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau, Missouri in 1973. Cardinal Law served as chairman of the Bishops' Commission for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs; member of the Vatican Secretariat Promoting Christian Unity; and consultant to the Vatican Commission for Religious Relations with the Jews. He was installed as archbishop of Boston in March 1984 and created cardinal by Pope John Paul II in May 1985. Invited by the pope to attend the Extraordinary Synod of Bishops in 1985, Cardinal Law was named a member of the Sacred Congregation for Evangelization of Peoples, the Vatican Congregation for Religious and Secular Institutes, and the Pontifical Council for the Pastoral Care of Migrants and Itinerant People. One of 12 members of the Pontifical Commission for the Universal Catechism of the Catholic Church, he has been involved in every stage of its preparation. Cardinal Law serves as chairman of the board of trustees of Catholic University of America and was recently chairman of the U.S. Commission on Immigration Reform.

SISTER LUCILLE MCKILLOP, R.S.M.

The driving force behind Salve Regina University's expansion in recent years, Sister Lucille McKillop is celebrating her twentieth anniversary as president of the Newport, Rhode Island institution. During her tenure as president, Salve has become a coeducational institution, the university's enrollment has grown from 1,000 to 2,300 students, the number of undergraduate majors has increased from nine to 25, and the university has added a graduate studies program. Sister McKillop earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Xavier College in Chicago, IL, a master's in math from the University of Notre Dame, and a doctorate in mathematics instruction from the University of Wisconsin. Prior to being named the fifth president of Salve Regina University, she was a mathematics teacher at Xavier College. She has taught math at Salve during most of her twenty-year tenure as president. Sister McKillop has been very involved in community affairs, and serves on a number of boards and commissions, including the Rhode Island Independent Higher Education Association, which she chaired from 1978-91; the Rhode Island Ethics Commission; and the Rhode Island Postsecondary Education Commission. A member of the Executive Committee of the Association of Mercy Colleges, which she chaired from 1979-81, Sr. McKillop is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Conference of Christians and Jews of Rhode Island, Inc., which awarded her the Brotherhood Award in 1989. That same year, she also received the Mercy Higher Education Colloquium Award for Excellence and Leadership in Higher Education.

HIS EMINENCE LUCAS CARDINAL MOREIRA NEVES, O.P.

A native of Sao Joao Del Rei, Brazil, Lucas Cardinal Moreira Neves was educated in Sao Paulo and studied theology in France. He served as auxiliary bishop of Sao Paulo from 1967-1974, and then was named vice president of the Council for the Laity at the Vatican, where he served until 1979. Cardinal Moreira Neves served as secretary of the Congregation for the Bishops until 1987, when he was named archbishop of Sao Salvador da Bahia and cardinal primate of Brazil, considered the world's largest Catholic country. Involved in numerous councils, Cardinal Moreira Neves is a member of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith and for Bishops; the Secretariate of State for Foreign Affairs; the Pontifical Council for the Family; the Secretariate of the Synod; and the Pontifical Commission for Latin America. Awarded France's Rosette of the Legion d'Honneur, The cardinal is a commander of the Order of Christ of Portugal and a commander of the Order of Rio Branco (Brazil). He has received an honorary doctorate in theology from the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome, and is a member of the Roman Academy of St. Thomas Aquinas. In addition to writing on a variety of topics for scholarly publications, the cardinal also writes a weekly newspaper column and takes part in a daily radio talk show.

HIS EMINENCE JOHN CARDINAL O'CONNOR

A native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, John Cardinal O'Connor has been serving as the eighth archbishop of New York since 1985. Ordained to the Roman Catholic priesthood in 1945, Cardinal O'Connor studied at a number of colleges and universities and holds advanced degrees in ethics, clinical psychology, and political theory. Cardinal O'Connor taught and did parish work in his hometown before entering the service as a chaplain with the United States Navy and Marine Corps. Serving for 27 years, he retired from military service in 1979 with the rank of rear admiral. That same year he was ordained a bishop for the armed forces of the United States by Pope John Paul II. He was named bishop of Scranton, Pennsylvania in 1983 and, the following year, was named archbishop of New York. He was created cardinal in 1985. Cardinal O'Connor serves on a number of councils and congregations in Rome, in various capacities in the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, and serves as officer or member of a variety of ecclesiastical and civic organizations.

THE MOST REVEREND TIMOTHY RADCLIFFE, O.P.

The first Englishman to be elected master of the Dominican Order of Preachers worldwide in the order's 777-year history, Father Radcliffe was born in London, England, and educated by the Benedictine monks at Downside. He studied theology at St. John's College, Oxford, England and was professed as a Dominican in September 1966. Ordained to the priesthood in October 1971, Father Radcliffe taught for a year and then served two years as a university chaplain in West London. He then served as prior of the community at Blackfriars at Oxford University. Before his election as the eighty-fifth master of the order last July in Mexico City, Father Radcliffe had served as prior provincial of the Province of England since 1988. Father Radcliffe, who has also served as president of the Conference of Major Religious Superiors of England and Wales, is a member of the Directorium of the Angelicum. Father Radcliffe is based at Santa Sabina, Rome, and will hold office until 2001.

LORETTA YOUNG

Born Gretchen Michaela Young in Salt Lake City, Utah, her family moved to Hollywood when she was three, and Miss Young made her film debut as an extra one year later. She got her first big acting opportunity at age 14, when she stood in for her actress sister and landed a role in "Naughty But Nice," which led to a contract with First National Players. Quickly rising from supporting actress to star status, Miss Young began a long association with Twentieth Century Fox in the mid-1930s. The film and television actress has 98 motion pictures to her credit, including "The Farmer's Daughter," for which she won the Academy Award for best actress in 1948. Her weekly, half-hour television series, "The Loretta Young Show," was one of the first of its kind, and enjoyed a nine-year run on NBC from 1953-1961. It later ran on CBS as "The New Loretta Young Show." Miss Young garnered three Emmy Awards as Best Actress, five additional Emmy nominations in that category, and a 1958 nomination for Best Dramatic Series. The Loretta Young Show is also credited with establishing Miss Young's reputation for fashion and glamour, and her famous trademark—the sweeping grand entrance through the door. More recently, Miss Young was awarded a Golden Globe Award for her role in "Christmas Eve," which brought her back to television in 1986. Actively involved in performing good works for her church and her community, Miss Young received the Crux Mea Stella Award in 1987 for her talent, her faith, and her service to the industry and the church; the Crystal Award from Women in Film, and the Brotherhood Award from the Southern California region of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.
