THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

The Star-Spangled Banner
by Francis Scott Key
Led by Eliza Rose Mandzik ’13

O say, can you see, by the dawn’s early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O’er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets’ red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O’er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee

Undying love and steadfast loyalty.

From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,

His goodness, grace, and holy power;

Clear hast thou shown what pathways must be trod;

All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,

Firm our advance; naught can us e'er beguile.

To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,

Lift we our voice in full acclaim;

Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;

Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

PAUL J. BIRMINGHAM
Founder, Catholic Schools Foundation
Doctor of Humanitarian Service

Paul J. Birmingham's vision and generosity have made it possible for thousands of needy children to attend Catholic elementary and secondary schools in Boston.

In 1983, recognizing that private philanthropy was needed to support Catholic schools, Mr. Birmingham partnered with Rev. Thomas V. Daily to found the St. Anthony Scholarship Fund to assist needy families in paying tuition for their children.

The organization's name was changed in 1989 to the Catholic Schools Foundation. Since its inception, it has expanded thirty-fold, raising more than $100 million to support Catholic education in the Archdiocese of Boston. Its signature program, The Inner-City Scholarship Fund, allows thousands of children in high-poverty neighborhoods to receive partial scholarships to attend Catholic schools in the archdiocese without regard for race, religion, national origin, or gender.

More recently, Mr. Birmingham, who continues to serve on the foundation's Board of Trustees, challenged the organization to reach out to immigrant Hispanics by funding the Hispanic Recruitment Initiative, making Catholic education possible for an underserved population.

His family foundation, The Birmingham Foundation, also supports Catholic causes, including the new Pope John Paul II High School in Hyannis, Mass., where he serves on the advisory board.

A golfer and bicyclist, Mr. Birmingham was severely injured six years ago in a head-first fall that left him wheelchair bound. Guided by his strong Catholic faith, he has battled back with rehabilitation and physical therapy and now is able to walk assisted by a walker.

Mr. Birmingham, a native of Boston, entered Providence College as a member of the Class of 1963. Though he did not complete his degree, he always has been considered a class member by his classmates.

Mr. Birmingham has sold and developed real estate in Florida and on Cape Cod, where he resides with his wife, Pamela. They are the parents of three sons.

LOUISE J. BUONOMANO, ED.D. '76G

Assistant Professor of Education

Doctor of Education

Dr. Louise J. Buonomano '76G has served as a nursing professional and educator for more than 50 years.

A native of Havre de Grace, Md., Dr. Buonomano became a registered nurse in 1954 after completing her studies at St. Agnes School of Nursing in Baltimore. She worked as a surgical nurse at a veterans hospital in Havre de Grace; as a staff nurse at the U.S. Marine Hospital in Baltimore; and as a special-care nurse at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

After moving to Rhode Island with her husband, Dr. Vito D. Buonomano, D.D.S. '53 & '76G, who will receive an honorary doctorate in public service, she worked as a coronary surgical nurse specialist at St. Joseph Hospital and Miriam Hospital. While raising five children, she earned a bachelor's degree in school health education from Rhode Island College in 1971, a master's degree in education from Providence College in 1976, and a doctorate in health education from Boston University in 1979.

Dr. Buonomano was a charge nurse in the medical-surgical unit at the Veterans Hospital in Providence and an instructor at Our Lady of Fatima School of Nursing. She joined the faculty at the Henry Barnard Laboratory School at Rhode Island College as a nurse teacher in 1977 and became an assistant professor of education in 1989, a position she held until her retirement. Her academic research specialties included ADHD, adolescent behavior, and health education.

Dr. Buonomano was an active member of many service and advocacy organizations, including the Governor's Council on Health Care Facilities and the Catholic Bishop's Biomedical Ethics Committee.

As supporters of PC, Dr. Buonomano and her husband have contributed to the Concannon Fitness Center construction; established an endowed scholarship in memory of the Dominican Fathers; and are members of the Harkins Society. They also have supported St. Mary's Home for Children in North Providence.

VITO D. BUONOMANO, D.D.S. '53 & '76G
Dentist
Doctor of Public Service

The life and career of Dr. Vito D. Buonomano '53 & '76G exemplify the mission and values of Providence College.

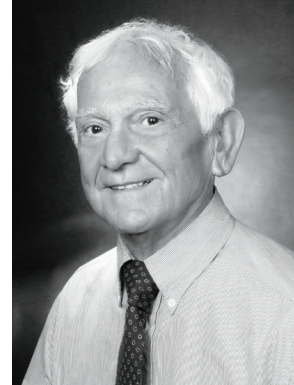

A dentist and dental consultant for more than five decades until his retirement, Dr. Buonomano also is a real estate professional who has written numerous journal articles on the topics of dentistry, real estate, and finance. Throughout his career, he has generously devoted his time, energy, and resources to helping disadvantaged children and to benefiting the Providence College community.

A Providence native and the son of immigrants, Dr. Buonomano worked for his father's construction business while earning a degree in biology from PC. He received a doctorate from the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery in 1957 and served as a captain in the U.S. Army Dental Corps from 1957-1959.

While raising his five children, Dr. Buonomano volunteered in the community and advanced his professional studies. He earned an M.B.A. from PC in 1976, attended the Boston University Graduate School of Dentistry from 1976-1978, and received a master's degree in biomedical engineering at Brown University in 1978. As a real estate broker, he has managed a number of properties.

Dr. Buonomano and his wife, Dr. Louise J. Buonomano '76G, who will receive an honorary doctorate in education, have been steadfast supporters of PC's alumni activities and building campaigns. The Buonomanos contributed to the Concannon Fitness Center construction; established an endowed scholarship in memory of the Dominican Fathers; and are members of the Harkins Society.

For 50 years, Dr. Buonomano has worked in various capacities to help the children at St. Mary's Home for Children in North Providence, R.I., including serving as a member and officer of its board of directors and establishing a scholarship. He is a charter member of the 1877 Society.

MICHAEL A. RUANE, M.B.A. '71

Member, Past Chairman, Providence College Board of Trustees

Founder and Owner, TA Associates Realty, Boston

Doctor of Business Administration

It is fitting that Providence College's signature building will carry the name of Michael A. Ruane '71, whose contributions and service to the College were unmatched in the past decade.

Mr. Ruane stepped down in February as chair of the PC Board of Trustees, a position he held since 2002. He also served on the Board Affairs Committee and the Development and Alumni Affairs Committee, and chaired the Executive Committee.

In 2011, Mr. Ruane and his wife, Elizabeth, provided the leadership gift for the Ruane Center for the Humanities, the College's signature academic building under construction on campus. When it opens this fall, it will house the Development of Western Civilization Program, Liberal Arts Honors Program, Department of English, and Department of History.

Mr. Ruane also has donated to the Ruane Atrium of the Concannon Fitness Center, supported the women's ice hockey team, and established an endowed chair, the Michael A. Ruane Endowed Chair for Innovation in Business Education, in the PC School of Business. The Ruanes are Platinum Torchbearers in the 1917 Society, reflecting gifts to PC in excess of $1 million, and members of the Harkins Society, having included the College in their estate plans.

A successful businessman, Mr. Ruane is the owner, chairman, and managing partner of TA Associates Realty, a company he founded in Boston in 1982 that has become one of the largest real estate investment advisory firms in the nation. Prior to that, he was a partner at TA Associates, one of the first and oldest venture capital firms in the country. Mr. Ruane is chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Advent Realty Funds, one of the largest private real estate investment trusts. He served as a limited partner in Media Communications, a money manager investing in communications companies, and is a former chairman of J-PAC LLC and Medipharm Manufacturing Group. Mr. Ruane also served on the Board and Executive Committee of Northeast Health System.

Mr. Ruane received a bachelor's degree in economics from PC and an M.B.A. in finance from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania, where he was the Allied Chemical Foundation Fellow. He also has a master's degree in taxation and is a certified public accountant. He has lectured at Harvard Business School. In 1997, the Boston University Graduate School of Management presented him with an entrepreneurial award.

The Ruanes are the parents of two sons and a daughter.
