THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

The Star-Spangled Banner
by Francis Scott Key
Led by Tanner H. Henry ’15

O say, can you see, by the dawn’s early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O’er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets’ red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O’er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

REVEREND GUSTAVO GUTIÉRREZ, O.P.

John Cardinal O'Hara Professor of Theology
University of Notre Dame
Doctor of Divinity

The plight of the poor living under unjust economic and social conditions has been a lifelong concern of Rev. Gustavo Gutiérrez, O.P., who coined the term “liberation theology” to explain the responsibility of Christians to bring about change.

Father Gutiérrez, a native of Peru, spent much of his life living and working among the poor of Lima, where he founded and directed the Bartolomé de Las Casas Institute to minister to their needs. In 2003, he told America magazine, “I am firmly convinced that poverty — this sub-human condition in which the majority of humans lives today — is more than a social issue. Poverty poses a major challenge to every Christian conscience and therefore to theology as well.”

Father Gutierrez earned a degree in medicine from the National University of San Marcos in Lima in 1950, intending to become a psychiatrist. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1959, earning a licentiate in sacred theology and a doctorate in sacred theology from the Catholic University of Lyon in France. He also studied philosophy and psychology at the Catholic University of Louvain in Belgium and theology at the Gregorian University in Rome. In 1999, Father Gutiérrez joined the Dominican Order of Preachers.

His book, A Theology of Liberation: History, Politics, Salvation (Orbis Books, 1988), first published in 1971, is considered the foundational text of liberation theology, which developed in response to military dictatorships in Latin America in the 1950s and 1960s. He is the author of numerous other books, including In the Company of the Poor (Orbis Books, 2013), written with Dr. Paul Farmer, the U.S. physician and Harvard professor.

Father Gutiérrez has taught at colleges and universities in Europe and North America, including the University of Notre Dame, where he is the John Cardinal O'Hara Professor of Theology. He has received honorary degrees and awards from institutions around the world. He was inducted into the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2002, named to the Peruvian Academy of Language in 1995, and made a member of the French Legion of Honor in 1993. He also has been a member of the board of directors of the international journal Concilium, which has published his writings.

Father Gutiérrez received his honorary doctor of divinity degree from College President Rev. Brian J. Shanley, O.P. '80 on April 27, 2015, when he presented the Rev. Edward Cleary, O.P. Memorial Lecture.

DARLENE LOVE

Singer, Entertainer, Actor
Doctor of Music

Darlene Love, a music legend for 50 years, including a solo artist for the last 25, received recognition as a star performer with her induction into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame four years ago.

In October 2014, Ms. Love helped launch Our Moment: The Next Century Campaign for Providence College by performing three songs at the community celebration on campus. She also performed in concert at an appreciation dinner for donors and held a “master class” for more than 300 students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

Ms. Love was featured in 20 Feet From Stardom, a film about backup singers centered around the early '60s, when she was a lead for the all-girl group The Blossoms. They performed behind many famous music artists, including Tom Jones, Elvis Presley, Frank Sinatra, the Beach Boys, and Dionne Warwick. The film won an Oscar for Best Documentary in 2014. During her acceptance speech at the Academy Awards ceremony, she received a standing ovation when she spontaneously sang the gospel hymn “His Eye is on the Sparrow,” a moment she reprised for PC students during the master class.

The daughter of a minister, she began singing as a child in her church choir. As a high school student in California in 1957, she successfully auditioned for The Blossoms and began working with record producer Phil Spector. The group recorded many hits, but Spector credited them to others. As a result, no one knew it was Ms. Love singing lead on “He’s a Rebel,” “He’s Sure the Boy I Love,” or “Today I Met the Boy I’m Gonna Marry.” She split from Spector in 1974.

Ms. Love was inspired to re-launch her career in the early 1980s when she heard her song “Christmas (Baby Please Come Home)” playing on the radio while she was cleaning houses in Beverly Hills. Record producer and songwriter Lou Adler invited her to perform at the Roxy Theatre in Los Angeles, where Bruce Springsteen and band member Steven Van Zandt heard her perform Springsteen’s “Hungry Heart.” She recently recorded an album with Van Zandt.

Ms. Love also has acted in several feature films including the four Lethal Weapon movies, was a regular on the Late Show with David Letterman, and starred in Broadway musicals Hairspray, Grease, and Leader of the Pack.

In the mid-1990s, she became the first artist to successfully sue Spector for royalties. A movie about her life, My Name is Love, starring Toni Braxton, is being produced by Oprah Winfrey. Ms. Love and her husband, Alton Allison, live in New York. She is the mother of three sons.

JANE LUNIN PEREL

Poet, Providence College Professor Emerita of English, Women's Studies
Doctor of Fine Arts

Jane Lunin Perel arrived to teach English and creative writing at Providence College in 1971, the same year that the College enrolled its first four-year class of women. On the 40th anniversary of that graduating class, the College honors Prof. Perel for more than four decades of interdisciplinary teaching, leadership, and advocacy for women.

Prof. Perel, who received a bachelor's degree in English and a master of fine arts degree in creative writing in poetry from the University of Massachusetts, was one of PC's first female faculty members. She was promoted to assistant professor in 1975, associate professor in 1979, and professor in 1989. On her retirement in 2014, she was awarded the title professor emerita of English and of women's studies.

Prof. Perel was the chair of the Women's Studies Committee that created the proposal for the program, which was established in 1994 when she became its founding director. Women's studies became a minor in 1999 and a major in 2009. In addition to the more than 250 students who have majored or minored in the subject, many more have taken interdisciplinary courses that included women's studies. Last fall, when the Women's Studies Program celebrated its 20th anniversary, Prof. Perel was the keynote speaker following an alumnae panel in Aquinas Hall Lounge.

Prof. Perel was a member of the creative writing committee that drafted the proposals for both the creative writing minor and major. She organized the first Poetry and Fiction Series sponsored by the Department of English and served as faculty adviser to the student-produced literary magazine, The Alembic. In 2001, Prof. Perel received the "Never Again Award" from the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island for her years of teaching Holocaust literature and creating programming to promote Holocaust awareness at PC.

She has written five books of poetry: Red Radio Heart (White Pine Press, 2012), The Sea is Not Full (Le'Dory, 1990), The Fishes (Providence College Press, 1977), Blowing Kisses to the Sharks (Copper Beach Press, 1978), and The Lone Ranger and the Neo-American Church (Archival Press, 1975).

Following commencement, she will travel to Baden-Baden, Germany, for a poetry reading of Red Radio Heart, which was translated into German and published in that country.

KEVIN C. PHELAN '66

President and Co-Chairman, Colliers International
Doctor of Public Service

Boston businessman Kevin C. Phelan '66 has been giving back to Providence College since the day he graduated.

A member of the Board of Trustees from 1993-2001 and from 2004-2013, he is co-chair of Our Moment: The Next Century Campaign for Providence College, which seeks to raise $140 million to support student scholarships, academic excellence, and the Catholic and Dominican mission. His generosity includes the naming gift in 2012 for the Phelan Gates at the College's main entrance on River Avenue. A plaque mounted near the gates reads: "Thanks to my parents for the opportunity, to my classmates for the friendship, to the Dominicans for the education, and to Providence College, my alma mater."

Mr. Phelan is a native of Bristol, Conn., who studied business administration at PC before earning a master's degree in business administration from Boston College. He began his career at State Street Bank in Boston, where he worked for 12 years. In 1978, he joined the Boston office of Colliers International, a global commercial real estate company, to create its Capital Markets group, now one of the two largest in the region. He was appointed president in 2007 and became co-chairman in 2010.

Phelan is a natural leader who quickly became known for his monthly "Breakfast Group" meetings that bring together Boston's prominent and influential business, political, media, and civic leaders to hear speakers and discuss issues. The sessions began 30 years ago when Mr. Phelan met with four business colleagues. The expanded group has hosted such provocative guests as Supreme Court Justice Stephen G. Breyer and Washington Post reporter Jonathan Finer, who reported on the war in Iraq.

Mr. Phelan is a supporter of many Boston organizations, including the Archdiocese of Boston Finance Council, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston, and Crossroads for Kids.

He is a member of PC's School of Business Advisory Council and served on the Board of Trustees' Executive Committee, Building and Property Committee, and Development and Alumni Affairs Committee. In 2013, he was honored with the College's Black & White Award, presented for distinguished service to the College and the community.

Mr. Phelan and his wife, Anne, are the proud parents of three daughters and proud grandparents of eight grandchildren.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia, rooted in traditions that began at 12th century European universities, conveys historical significance and specific meaning to contemporary academic ceremony. Often lacking buildings of their own, those universities would undertake teaching and learning in churches, with academic activities involving both clerics and laypeople. Historians suggest that scholars of the day wore hoods and long robes as a means for staying warm in unheated church buildings. From those origins has evolved a colorful tradition rife with symbolism and meaning.

According to standards adopted by American universities, the cut of the gown signifies whether the wearer has a bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree, with the doctoral robe adorned with three bars on each sleeve and front panels. The hood represents both the wearer's field of study and the institution that awarded his or her degree. Headwear, both the mortarboard cap and tam, and the tassel itself, may be assigned to represent a specific field of study.
